Neuer Umgang mit nachhaltigen Geldanlagen

Das Jahr 2024 hat nicht nur, aber auch in Sachen Nachhaltigkeit große Veränderungen mit sich gebracht. Der heißeste Sommer seit Beginn der Wetteraufzeichnungen wurde flankiert von Hochwasserkatastrophen von Spanien bis Slowenien. Und zum Jahresende gewann Donald Trump die Wahl zum US-Präsidenten. Es herrscht die Angst vor, dass das Thema verantwortliches Investieren durch die neue Administration in den USA in den Hintergrund rückt.

Klar ist: Das Thema Nachhaltigkeit wird in den USA auch nach dem Sieg der Republikaner nicht verschwinden, aber der Umgang damit wird pragmatischer werden. Wo es den USA nutzt, werden nachhaltige Themen unter dem Radar weiter verfolgt, etwa dann, wenn die Produktion in den USA erfolgt und Jobs geschaffen werden. Beispiele dafür sind Photovoltaik, Autos oder Batterien.

Aber: Auf die nachhaltige Anlagestrategie von Union Investment wird das Wahlergebnis keine tiefgreifenden Folgen haben. Wir werden, wo möglich, auch weiter gemäß unseren nachhaltigen Richtlinien in den USA investieren, so wie im Rest der Welt. Atomenergie wird auch in Zukunft genauso wenig einen Platz in unseren nachhaltigen Fonds haben wie Waffen. Letztere sind aus unserer Sicht notwendig, aber nicht nachhaltig.

Klima-Engagement wirkt

Vor allem aber halten wir unverändert an unserer Klimastrategie fest, nach der Union Investment bis spätestens 2050 auch in den Portfolios klimaneutral werden will. Dazu setzen wir unseren Kohleausstieg und die Öl- und Gasstrategie konsequent um. Die zahlreichen Hochwasserkatastrophen im Jahr 2024 haben allen vor Augen geführt, dass eine Reduktion des Treibhausgasausstoßes zwingend geboten ist. Deshalb haben wir uns wiederholt mit Unternehmensvertretern von besonders emissionsintensiven Unternehmen getroffen, um sie zu verbindlichen Klimazielen zu bewegen. Dies mit Erfolg (siehe Bericht in diesem Report): Hatten sich im Jahr 2020 von den 50 betroffenen Konzernen nur sieben ein vollständiges Net Zero-Ziel über alle drei Scope-Dimensionen gesetzt, sind es heute 35. Die Zahl der Unternehmen ohne vollständige Ziele hingegen ist von 35 auf vier gesunken. Diese deutliche Verbesserung ist nicht zuletzt auch auf die mehr als 100 Engagements mit den Management-Teams der Unternehmen zurückzuführen.

Manchmal aber führt auch das intensive Engagement nicht zum Ziel. In Fällen, in denen sich durch Gespräche und öffentlichen Druck keine Verhaltensänderung herbeiführen lässt, führt für das Portfoliomanagement kein Weg an einem Ausschluss vorbei. Ganz konkret bedeutet das: Ab 2025 sind keine Investitionen mehr in wesentliche Treibhausgasemittenten möglich, die sich weigern, vollständige langfristige Klimaziele (Scope 1, Scope 2 und Scope 3, wenn standardisierte Berechnungsmethoden vorliegen) zu veröffentlichen.

Das Klimathema war nur ein Schwerpunkt in Sachen Engagement bei Union Investment. Auch beim Erhalt der Artenvielfalt waren wir aktiv. So wurde im Mai eine Leitlinie Biodiversität verabschiedet. Sie berücksichtigt dabei alle relevanten Dimensionen und Geschäftsbereiche - von unserem eigenen Umweltmanagementsystem bis hin zu den Immobilien- und Wertpapierportfolien. Das hat mit Naturschutz, aber vor allem mit unserem Hintergrund als Asset Manager zu tun. Zwischen 50 und 60 Prozent der weltweiten Wirtschaftsleistung hängen von funktionierenden Ökosystemen und Naturdienstleistungen ab. Dies zeigt die ökonomische Relevanz des Themas. Um das Vermögen unserer Kunden nachhaltig zu vermehren, ist es notwendig, sich mit relevanten Risiken auseinander zu setzen und diese im Investmentprozess zu berücksichtigen. Um die biologische Vielfalt zu schützen, setzen wir auf Engagement- und Stewardship-Aktivitäten. Um eine möglichst große Wirkung zu erzielen, konzentrieren wir uns auf Sektoren mit großen Auswirkungen und Abhängigkeiten, in denen wir mit unseren Investitionen am stärksten engagiert sind. Das tun wir allein, aber auch im Verbund mit anderen Wettbewerbern - unter anderem über die Investoreninitiative Nature Action 100.

[1] Erläuterung zu den Ausprägungen im Abstimmungsverhalten:

Zustimmung: Dem Antrag wird zugestimmt.

Ablehnung: Der Antrag wird abgelehnt.

Keine Zustimmung: Aus technischen/formalen Gründen gibt es in einigen Ländern, allen voran in den USA, etwa bei der Wahl einzelner Kandidaten für ein Gremium nur die Wahl zwischen Zustimmung („for") oder keine Zustimmung („withhold"). Inhaltlich entspricht das „withhold" somit einer Ablehnung.

Enthaltung: Eine bewusste Enthaltung kommt in wenigen Fällen in Betracht, wenn für eine Entscheidung keine ausreichende Argumentation vorliegt. Die Stimmenthaltung bedeutet, dass weder für noch gegen einen Antrag gestimmt wird. Vielmehr soll dem Management gegenüber ein Signal gesetzt werden, dass Vorbehalte oder Unmut bestehen, jedoch für eine Gegenabstimmung keine hinreichende Grundlage vorliegt.

Keine Stimmabgabe: Bei organisatorischen Agendapunkten oder solchen, die lediglich als Information dienen, wird nicht abgestimmt. Hier erfolgt dann auch keine Stimmabgabe.

2.3 Highlights aus Hauptversammlungen und Redebeiträgen

Engagement bei Siemens

Die Hauptversammlung der Siemens AG fand am 8. Februar 2024 statt. Die Interessen von Union Investment vertrat Vera Diehl, Portfoliomanagerin bei Union Investment. Ihre Rede in Auszügen:

Zunächst einmal begrüßte Union Investment, dass Vorstand und Aufsichtsrat in München anwesend und für die Aktionäre während der virtuellen Hauptversammlung im Bild zu sehen waren. Trotzdem war es schade, dass eine persönliche Begegnung wie bei einer Präsenz-HV nicht möglich war. Zweifellos wäre nach einem so starken Jahresabschluss Siemens der lebhafte Beifall der Aktionäre in der Münchner Olympiahalle sicher gewesen. Für uns stellt sich die Frage, ob Siemens 2025 wieder eine Präsenz-HV machen will, nachdem immerhin jeder sechste Aktionär - darunter auch wir - gegen die Satzungsänderung zur Ermöglichung virtueller Hauptversammlungen gestimmt hat. Wir halten auch eine hybride Hauptversammlung für eine gute Idee. Sie gibt es im DAX 40 zwar noch nicht, ist aber rechtlich möglich. Siemens könnte mit diesem innovativen HV-Format Vorreiter sein und die reale mit der digitalen Welt verbinden. Immerhin macht das nach eigenem Bekundungen den Kern der Unternehmensstrategie von Siemens aus.

Verbesserungsbedarf beim Klimaschutz

Als nachhaltiger Investor achtet Union Investment besonders auf ökologische, soziale und Governance-bezogene Kriterien, kurz: ESG-Kriterien. Trotz einiger Fortschritte sehen wir hier weiteren Verbesserungsbedarf beim Klimaschutz. Ohne einen entschiedenen Einsatz zur Reduktion der Scope 1, 2 und 3-Emissionen lässt sich der Klimawandel nicht stoppen.

Wir sehen die Fortschritte, die Siemens bei der Berichterstattung und bei der Dekarbonisierung des eigenen Geschäftsbetriebs gemacht hat. Der Konzern trägt aber auch große Verantwortung für die Emissionen seiner Lieferanten und Kunden.

Wird sich Siemens nach 2030 auch Klimaziele für Scope 3 geben? Wir würden das sehr begrüßen! Im DAX 40-Klimaranking von Union Investment liegt Siemens nur auf Platz 17. Das kann nicht der Anspruch sein. Das Unternehmen sollte Vorreiter beim Klimaschutz sein. Dazu ist es auch nötig, dass Klimaziele stärker in der Vorstandsvergütung berücksichtigt werden, als das bislang der Fall ist.

Governance noch ausbaufähig

Die Maximalvergütung, die der Vorstandsvorsitzende Roland Busch laut dem auf der Hauptversammlung vorgelegten Vergütungsberichterreichen kann, stieg von 17,5 auf 18,5 Millionen Euro. Warum hat der Aufsichtsrat die Maximalvergütung für den CEO erneut angehoben? Und wie ist der aktuelle Stand der Nachfolgeplanung im Aufsichtsrat? Wann ist mit einer Entscheidung zu rechnen, ob der Aufsichtsratsvorsitzende Jim Hagemann Snabe weitermacht oder 2025 ausscheidet? Union Investment will darüber so früh wie möglich Klarheit und bittet den Aufsichtsrat auch darum, das Thema Ämterhäufung genau im Blick zu haben, wenn es um Neubestellungen oder um die Verlängerung einzelner Mandate geht. Außerdem fordern wir, dass sowohl der Vergütungs- als auch der Nachhaltigkeitsbericht künftig auf Reasonable-Assurance-Basis, also mit hinreichender Sicherheit bezüglich Glaubwürdigkeit und Plausibilität, geprüft wird. Bis wann ist damit zu rechnen?

Mit Blick auf die Tagesordnung stimmte Union Investment gegen die überdimensionierten Kapitalvorratsbeschlüsse. Allen anderen Tagesordnungspunkten stimmen wir zu.

Engagement bei Siemens Energy

Die Hauptversammlung der Siemens Energy AG fand am 26. Februar 2024 statt. Die Interessen von Union Investment vertrat Arne Rautenberg, Portfoliomanager bei Union Investment. Seine Rede in Auszügen:

Kein anderes Unternehmen, das zum Zeitpunkt der Hauptversammlung noch im Dax war, bescherte den Anlegern seit 2008 so hohe Tagesverluste wie Siemens Energy im vergangenen Jahr. Und kein anderes Unternehmen der insgesamt tief in den roten Zahlen steckenden Windkraftbranche hat so massive Probleme wie Siemens Gamesa. Diese Probleme wurden entweder nicht im vollen Umfang gesehen oder schöngeredet. So oder so hat die Glaubwürdigkeit der Kapitalmarktkommunikation stark gelitten. Union Investment sieht für das Drama um Siemens Gamesa den Vorstand in der Verantwortung und verweigerte diesem daher die Entlastung.

War die Windtochter, die nach einer Interview-Aussage von Joe Kaeser, dem Vorsitzenden des Siemens-Energy-Aufsichtsrats, im November „als eigenständiges Unternehmen […] heute insolvent“ wäre, bis zur Komplettübernahme eine Black Box für die Muttergesellschaft? Der Konzern hielt bereits vorher 67 Prozent an Siemens Gamesa. Wie war es möglich, dass das Unternehmen und die Aktionäre vom ganzen Ausmaß der technischen Probleme erst nach der Komplettübernahme, die rund vier Milliarden Euro gekostet hat, dermaßen überrascht und kalt erwischt wurden? Hat die Due Diligence versagt? Hat einer der größten Windkraftkonzerne womöglich blind dem externen Gutachten einer renommierten Windberatungsfirma vertraut, wie Joe Kaeser im Interview erklärt hatte? Plant Siemens Energy rechtliche Schritte gegen diese Windberatungsfirma oder sind diese bereits eingeleitet? Um welche Beratungsfirma handelt es sich? Kann und will der Konzern Schadenersatzansprüche geltend machen? Wenn ja, in welcher Höhe? Wenn nein, warum nicht?

Nach dem kapitalen Eigentor, das Siemens Energy sich und den Aktionären mit der völlig überteuerten Komplettübernahme geschossen hat, kann sich das Unternehmen keine weiteren Gewinnwarnungen mehr leisten, wenn die Glaubwürdigkeit nicht vollends verspielt werden soll. Der Konzern muss dem Kapitalmarkt mit klarer Kommunikation und mit transparenten Annahmen aufzeigen, wie die technischen Probleme bei Siemens Gamesa in den Griff gebracht werden sollen, um mittel- und langfristig vielleicht doch noch ein profitables Windturbinengeschäft aufbauen zu können.

Als nachhaltiger Investor achtet Union Investment neben den finanziellen Kennzahlen auch besonders auf ESG-Kriterien. Trotz einiger Fortschritte sehen wir weiterhin Verbesserungsbedarf beim Klimaschutz. Deshalb sind wir im Rahmen der Klimastrategie von Union Investment mit Siemens Energy in den intensiven Austausch gegangen und fordern umfassende Ziele für Scope 3-Emissionen. Ab 2025 werden wir nicht mehr in CO2-intensive Unternehmen investieren, die sich weigern, vollständige langfristige Klimaziele zu veröffentlichen. Im DAX 40-Klimaranking von Union Investment liegt Siemens Energy nur auf Platz 18. Es ist darum nötig, dass Klimaziele stärker in der Vorstandsvergütung berücksichtigt werden als das bislang der Fall war.

Im Rahmen der Tagesordnung stimmten wir außerdem gegen die Ermächtigung zum Aktienrückkauf, da die Laufzeit fünf Jahre beträgt und unsere Abstimmungsrichtlinien dafür nur eine maximale Laufzeit von zwei Jahren vorsehen.

Union Investment hofft, dass Siemens Energy 2025 erstmals zu einer richtigen Hauptversammlung einlädt, in Präsenz statt nur virtuell. Wir fordern deshalb, dass Siemens Energy künftig Präsenz- oder hybride HVs durchführt.

Engagement bei BASF

Die Hauptversammlung der BASF SE fand am 25. April 2024 statt. Die Interessen von Union Investment vertrat Arne Rautenberg, Portfoliomanager bei Union Investment. Seine Rede in Auszügen:

In den zwölf Monaten vor der Hauptversammlung bescherte die BASF-Aktie den Anlegern eine Gesamtrendite von sechs Prozent, die sich aus der Kursentwicklung und den Dividendenzahlungen zusammensetzt. Das ist schwächer als der globale Chemiesektor (MSCI World Chemicals-Index) mit zehn Prozent und schlechter als der DAX 40, der im selben Zeitraum ein Plus von zwölf Prozent schaffte (Zeitraum: 19.04.2023 bis 19.04.2024).

Der Vorstandsvorsitzende Martin Brudermüller hat auf dem Aktionärstreffen den Staffelstab an seinen Nachfolger Dr. Markus Kamieth weitergegeben. Der neue CEO übernimmt eine Baustelle. Der Standort Ludwigshafen ist zum Problem geworden, seit es dort kein billiges Gas und keinen günstigen Strom mehr gibt. BASF muss sich in Europa neu erfinden und sucht mit der stärkeren Ausrichtung auf China und auf nachhaltige Chemieproduktion Auswege aus der Misere. Ob die China-Wette aufgeht, wird die Zukunft zeigen. Kamieth muss bei der Suche nach Auswegen nun eigene Akzente setzen. Bei weiter schwierigen Rahmenbedingungen wird das kein Sprint, sondern ein Marathon.

Wann kommt das vollständige Scope 3-Klimaziel?

Als nachhaltiger Investor achtet Union Investment neben den finanziellen Kennzahlen auch besonders auf ökologische, soziale und Governance-bezogene Kriterien, kurz: ESG. Trotz einiger Fortschritte sehen wir weiterhin Verbesserungsbedarf beim Klimaschutz. Ohne einen entschiedenen Einsatz für die Reduktion der Scope 1, 2 und 3-Emissionen lässt sich der Klimawandel nicht stoppen.

BASF hat sich nun ein langfristiges Scope 3-Upstream-Ziel gesetzt. Das ist ein großer Schritt in die richtige Richtung. Wir sind uns bewusst, dass ein langfristiges Scope 3-Downstream-Ziel den Konzern vor große Herausforderungen stellt. Dennoch fordern wir, dass weiter intensiv daran gearbeitet wird. Union Investment würde es sehr begrüßen, wenn sich BASF ein solches geben würde. Bis wann ist damit zu rechnen und welche Voraussetzungen müssen dafür erfüllt sein? Im DAX 40-Klima-Ranking von Union Investment landete die BASF im November 2023 nur auf Platz 27. Das kann nicht der Anspruch sein.

Auch das Thema Biodiversität wird für Investoren immer wichtiger. Plant BASF, künftig nach den Empfehlungen der Taskforce on Nature-related Financial Disclosures, kurz TNFD, zu berichten? Auch das würden wir begrüßen.

Mit Blick auf die Tagesordnung stimmte Union Investment wegen der möglichen Kapitalverwässerung für die Altaktionäre gegen den aus unserer Sicht überdimensionierten Kapitalvorratsbeschluss.

Engagement bei Fresenius

Die Hauptversammlung der Fresenius SE & Co. KGaA fand am 17. Mai 2024 statt. Die Interessen von Union Investment vertrat Dr. Vanda Rothacker, Senior-ESG-Strategin bei Union Investment. Ihre Rede in Auszügen:

Erstmals seit dem Geschäftsjahr 2019 konnte die Fresenius-Aktie im vergangenen Geschäftsjahr wieder zulegen. Das lange Tal der Tränen scheint durchschritten, der Aktienkurs kletterte zwischenzeitlich wieder auf mehr als 30 Euro, nachdem er im Oktober 2022 bis auf 20 Euro abgesackt war - der tiefste Stand seit Anfang 2011. Um den jahrelangen Kursverfall zu stoppen, war ein radikaler Neuanfang nötig, der nur mit neuen Köpfen an der Spitze möglich wurde.

Bei Fresenius bleibt kein Stein auf dem anderen. Der Aufsichtsratsvorsitzende Wolfgang Kirsch und der Vorstandsvorsitzende Michael Sen haben dem Konzern eine Rosskur verordnet, wie sie tiefgreifender kaum sein kann. Viele Positionen im Vorstand wurden ausgetauscht, alle Geschäfte auf den Prüfstand gestellt. Das Sorgenkind Fresenius Medical Care wurde aus dem Konzernverbund herausgelöst und wird nur noch als Finanzbeteiligung geführt. Das andere Sorgenkind Vamed wurde sogar zum Großteil verkauft. Lieber ein Ende mit Schrecken als ein Schrecken ohne Ende, lautet hier offenbar die Devise. Doch warum fallen hier so hohe Sonderaufwendungen und Wertberichtigungen an? Hat das Risikomanagement bei Vamed nicht funktioniert? Und ist ein Verkauf der Anteile an Fresenius Medical Care jetzt der nächste logische Schritt, um sich künftig ganz aufs Kerngeschäft mit Fresenius Kabi und den Klinikketten Helios in Deutschland und Quironsalud in Spanien konzentrieren zu können?

Aus Sicht des Kapitalmarkts ist festzuhalten: Fresenius hat unter dem alten Management viel Vertrauen verspielt, das jetzt vom neuen Management zurückgewonnen werden muss. Wichtige Schritte hierzu sind bereits erfolgt. Man könnte sogar sagen: Fresenius hat die Kurve gekriegt. Im Geschäftsjahr 2024 geht es nach etlichen Gewinnwarnungen in den vergangenen Jahren nun darum, die gesteckten Ziele zu erreichen und weitere operative Fortschritte zu erzielen. Gleichzeitig wird ein Augenmerk auf der weiteren Reduktion der Verschuldung des Konzerns liegen müssen, wozu auch die durch die staatlichen Energiehilfen für Kliniken bedingte Streichung der Dividende einen Beitrag leistet, die für die Aktionäre sehr schmerzlich ist. Sie muss eine einmalige Ausnahme bleiben, denn Fresenius hat eine jahrzehntelange Historie als verlässlicher Dividendenzahler.

Scope 3 berücksichtigen

Bei der nachhaltigen Transformation, an der Union Investment alle Unternehmen misst, hat Fresenius noch Nachholbedarf und liegt in unserem DAX 40-Klima-Ranking nur auf Platz 32. Wir investieren in Unternehmen, die ambitionierte Ziele verlässlich verfolgen. Ein wichtiger Baustein hierfür ist ein vollständiges Klimaziel. Daher stellt sich die Frage: Will Fresenius sich ein vollständiges Klimaziel setzen, das auch Scope 3 konkret berücksichtigt? Wenn ja, bis wann soll das erfolgen?

Auch im sozialen Bereich haben wir Fragen. Es ist zu lesen, dass sich Fresenius an den OECD-Leitsätzen für multinationale Unternehmen orientiere. Plant der Konzern, hier künftig auch eine explizite Stellungnahme zu veröffentlichen, so wie es die Mehrzahl der DAX 40-Unternehmen macht? Wenn ja, wann?

Engagement bei SAP

Die Hauptversammlung der SAP SE fand am 15. Mai 2024 statt. Die Interessen von Union Investment vertrat Markus Golinski, Fondsmanager bei Union Investment. Seine Rede in Auszügen:

Unternehmensgründer Hasso Plattner schied bei dem Aktionärstreffen aus seiner Funktion als Vorsitzender des Aufsichtsrats aus. Der Zeitpunkt war aus Kapitalmarktsicht perfekt: Die SAP-Aktie notierte nah am Allzeithoch und schaffte in den zwölf Monaten vor der Hauptversammlung eine Gesamtrendite von 46 Prozent, die sich aus der Kursentwicklung und der Dividende zusammensetzt. Das ist besser als der DAX 40 mit plus 18 Prozent und besser als der MSCI World Software-Index mit plus 37 Prozent (alles in Euro gerechnet). Mit einer Marktkapitalisierung von 216 Milliarden Euro war SAP zum Stichtag das mit Abstand wertvollste Unternehmen in Deutschland.

Gute Governance sieht anders aus

Einen Wermutstropfen gab es jedoch. Die Staffelübergabe beim Aufsichtsratsvorsitz lief nicht reibungslos: Punit Renjen war doch nicht die erhoffte Idealbesetzung und es musste unter Zeitdruck ein neuer Kandidat präsentiert werden. Mit Pekka Ala-Pietilä stand zwar kurzfristig ein ausgewiesener Technologieexperte und erfahrener Manager zur Verfügung, aber es gibt ein Problem: Er war schon mal Mitglied im SAP-Aufsichtsrat von 2002 bis 2021 und ist nur ein Übergangskandidat. Seine wichtigste Aufgabe besteht in den nächsten zwei Jahren darin, einen Nachfolger für sich selbst zu suchen, der das Amt dann auch längerfristig ausüben kann. Man hier den Eindruck, dass bei der Auswahl und im Nominierungsprozess Fehler gemacht wurden. Zudem wurde es in den Jahren zuvor versäumt, frühzeitig die Nachfolge zu regeln. Warum findet sich unter den aktuellen Aufsichtsratsmitgliedern niemand, der zumindest übergangsweise den Vorsitz übernehmen kann? Gute Governance sieht anders aus.

Als nachhaltiger Investor achten wir besonders auf ökologische, soziale und Governance-bezogene Kriterien. Beim Thema Klimaschutz ist SAP Vorreiter und hat im DAX 40-Klima-Ranking von Union Investment den sechsten Platz belegt. SAP hat eine überzeugende Klimastrategie und sollte diese in einem nächsten Schritt den Aktionären auf der Hauptversammlung zur Abstimmung vorlegen. Plant der Konzern ein solches Say on Climate? Wir würden das sehr begrüßen.

In Bezug auf die Tagesordnung stimmte Union Investment wegen Ämterhäufung gegen die Wiederwahl von Aicha Evans in den Aufsichtsrat sowie gegen die Wahl von Pekka Ala-Pietilä. Der Grund für die Ablehnung ist auch hier eine Ämterhäufung, aber insbesondere die Tatsache, dass er dem Gremium bereits von 2002 bis 2021 angehörte, während unsere Abstimmungsrichtlinien eine maximale Zugehörigkeitsdauer von 15 Jahren vorsehen.

Engagement bei Bayer

Die Hauptversammlung der Bayer AG fand am 26. April 2024 statt. Die Interessen von Union Investment vertrat Janne Werning, Leiter ESG Capital Markets & Stewardship bei Union Investment. Seine Rede in Auszügen:

Während der DAX in den zwölf Monaten vor der Hauptversammlung um zwölf Prozent zulegte, mussten die Bayer-Aktionäre einen Wertverlust von 55 Prozent verkraften (Zeitraum: 19.04.2023 bis 19.04.2024). Vor der Monsanto-Übernahme war Bayer an der Börse zeitweise über 100 Milliarden Euro wert, zuletzt waren es rund 26 Milliarden Euro - das ist weniger als halb so viel wie der Kaufpreis, den Bayer für Monsanto bezahlt hat. Die seit Jahren andauernde Talfahrt an der Börse hat sich sogar noch beschleunigt, denn Bayer sitzt dreifach in der Falle: Die Glyphosat-Klagewelle in den USA rollt weiter, die höheren Zinsen verschärfen das Problem der hohen Schuldenlast und die Pharma-Pipeline bleibt schwach nach dem herben Rückschlag beim Hoffnungsträger Asundexian, einem Präparat zur Vermeidung von Schlaganfällen.

Der Vorstandsvorsitzende William Anderson hat diese Probleme nicht selbst zu verantworten, sondern von seinem Vorgänger geerbt. Aber er steht jetzt in der Verantwortung, Lösungen dafür zu finden. Die Aktionäre müssen mit dem fast kompletten Dividendenverzicht für drei Jahre ihren Beitrag leisten, damit Bayer finanziell wieder auf die Beine kommt. Auch die Mitarbeiter und Führungskräfte müssen mit dem Dynamic Shared Ownership Programm und den damit verbundenen Kosteneinsparungen ihren Beitrag leisten. Aber das wird nicht reichen, um die Probleme von Bayer zu lösen. Zumindest ist die Ankündigung dieser Maßnahmen am Kapitalmarkt wirkungslos verpufft.

Der CEO ging mit seiner ersten Hauptversammlung im virtuellen Raum auf Distanz zu den Aktionären, statt ihnen vor Ort direkt Rede und Antwort zu stehen. Das ist eine verpasste Chance. Viele Unternehmen, darunter auch DAX-Unternehmen, sind nach der Pandemie freiwillig zur Präsenz-Hauptversammlung zurückgekehrt. Wann geht Bayer diesen aus unserer Sicht längst überfälligen Schritt? Nur echter Dialog in Präsenz kann Vertrauen schaffen, virtuelles Wegducken nicht. Und es wäre so wichtig für Bayer, verlorenes Vertrauen bei den Aktionären zurückzugewinnen.

Bayer muss sich um ESG-Fortschritte bemühen

Union Investment achtet als nachhaltiger Investor besonders auf ökologische, soziale und Governance-bezogene Kriterien, kurz: ESG-Kriterien. Beim Thema Klimaschutz ist Bayer Vorreiter und hat im DAX 40 Klimaranking von Union Investment den dritten Platz belegt. Bayer hat eine überzeugende Klimastrategie und sollte diese in einem nächsten Schritt den Aktionären auf der Hauptversammlung zur Abstimmung vorlegen. Plant der Konzern ein „Say on Climate“, also die Aktionäre jährlich auf den Hauptversammlungen über die Klimapolitik des Unternehmens abstimmen zu lassen? Wir würden das sehr begrüßen!

Bayer muss sich über den Klimaschutz hinaus intensiv um ESG-Fortschritte bemühen, um nicht in Bereichen des Kapitalmarkts zu landen, die für Anleger immer schwerer investierbar sind. Es bestehen weiterhin große Rechts- und Reputationsrisiken, die in weiten Teilen auf Monsanto zurückgehen. Das betrifft die Glyphosat-Klagen und die PCB-Klagen in den USA, die Gefährdung der Artenvielfalt und die Risiken der Gentechnik. Solange diese Kontroverse besteht, ist Bayer für unsere nachhaltigen Publikumsfonds nicht investierbar. Welche Chancen sieht der Konzern in seiner jetzigen Aufstellung, um sich wieder für ein nachhaltiges Anlageuniversum zu qualifizieren? Außerdem interessiert uns: Will das Unternehmen künftig nach den Empfehlungen der Taskforce on Nature-related Financial Disclosures, kurz TNFD, berichten?

Mit Blick auf die Tagesordnung stimmten wir gegen den Vergütungsbericht, während das neue Vergütungssystem unsere Zustimmung fand. Zudem sprachen wir uns gegen die Ermächtigung zum Aktienrückkauf aus, da die Laufzeit fünf Jahre beträgt und unsere Abstimmungsrichtlinie dafür nur eine maximale Laufzeit von zwei Jahren vorsieht.

Engagement bei E.ON

Die Hauptversammlung der E.ON SE fand am 16. Mai 2024 statt. Die Interessen von Union Investment vertrat Dr. Thomas Deser, Senior Portfoliomanager bei Union Investment. Seine Rede in Auszügen:

Die Energiewende kann nur gelingen, wenn E.ON die nötige Infrastruktur bereitstellt und kräftig in den Ausbau der Netze investiert. Zugleich will E.ON so nachhaltiges Ergebniswachstum erreichen und die Aktionäre mit steigenden Kursen und Dividenden bei Laune halten. Das ist in den letzten Jahren so gut gelungen, dass das Potenzial für einen fortgesetzten Kursanstieg schon beinahe ausgereizt scheint. Die Aktie notierte zum Zeitpunkt der Hauptversammlung mit über 13 Euro auf einem Neunjahreshoch, der Dividendenvorschlag lag bei 53 Cents, woraus sich eine Dividendenrendite von vier Prozent ergibt. Das ist in Zeiten hoher Inflation und hoher Zinsen nicht viel, wo doch risikoärmere Anleihen teilweise höhere Renditen abwerfen. Um gegen Anleihen als klassischer Dividendentitel wieder attraktiv zu sein, müsste die Dividende und damit die Dividendenrendite bei E.ON in den nächsten Jahren stark ansteigen. Das würde aber bedeuten, dass das Geld für Investitionen in die Netze fehlt. E.ON steckt in einem Dilemma: Will man deutlich mehr ausschütten oder deutlich mehr investieren?

Der Konzern kann sich im hochpolitischen Energiemarkt nicht darauf verlassen, dass der Regulierer die Netzentgelte deutlich anhebt, so dass beides gleichzeitig möglich wird. Das Unternehmen muss sein Schicksal selbst in die Hand nehmen und zusätzliche Mittel generieren, um dem Dilemma des Entweder - Oder zu entkommen. Eine Antwort liegt in der Weiterentwicklung der Konzernstruktur. Energy Infrastructure Solutions ist jetzt ein eigenständiges Geschäftsfeld. E.ON sollte diese für die Dekarbonisierung von Großkunden zuständige Einheit weiterentwickeln und dem Kapitalmarkt ihren Wert und das Potenzial besser zeigen. Darüber hinaus erfolgte eine Neuordnung der Regionen Ost- und Südosteuropa. Der Markt für Infrastruktur-Assets scheint aufnahmefähig zu sein. Deshalb: Der Konzerns sollte die organisatorisch begonnene Strukturverbesserung fortsetzen und sich aus Regionen, in denen E.ON womöglich nie wirklich der bessere Eigentümer war oder in naher Zukunft sein kann, zurückziehen. Wir drängen außerdem auf eine Abgabe der Beteiligung am Kernbrennstoffaufbereiter Urenco. Diese bleibt auch nach dem Ende der Atomstromproduktion ein dunkler Fleck auf der heller werdenden Nachhaltigkeitsweste von E.ON. Was nur politisch, aber nicht von E.ON gewollt ist, sollte beim deutschen Staat landen. Über Uniper betreibt der ja inzwischen selbst Kernkraftwerke - E.ON nicht mehr. Das Unternehmen sollte endlich eine Lösung für dieses - aus staatlicher Sicht vielleicht strategische, aber für E.ON ungeeignete - Asset finden.

Fortschritte bei nachhaltiger Transformation

Als nachhaltiger Investor achtet Union Investment besonders auf ESG-Kriterien. Bei der nachhaltigen Transformation, an der wir alle Unternehmen messen, hat sich E.ON in den letzten Jahren systematisch nach vorne gearbeitet und belegt im DAX 40 Klimaranking von Union Investment den elften Platz. Wir investieren in Unternehmen, die ambitionierte Ziele verlässlich verfolgen. E.ON sollte weiter auf Kurs Richtung nachhaltiger Zukunft bleiben.

Im Rahmen der Tagesordnung stimmten wir gegen Punkte, die Kapitalmaßnahmen und Aktienrückkaufprogramme betrafen. Sie stehen nicht im Einklang mit unseren Abstimmungsrichtlinien.

Im nächsten Jahr hoffen wir auf ein Aktionärstreffen, das wieder persönlich vor Ort stattfindet, nicht virtuell.

Engagement bei VW

Die Hauptversammlung der Volkswagen AG fand am 29. Mai 2024 statt. Die Interessen von Union Investment vertrat Janne Werning, Leiter ESG Capital Markets & Stewardship bei Union Investment. Seine Rede in Auszügen:

Die Nachrichten zu Volkswagen (VW) waren zuletzt alles andere als erbaulich: Seit der Hauptversammlung im vergangenen Jahr bescherten die VW-Vorzüge den Anlegern lediglich eine Gesamtrendite von drei Prozent. Der DAX 40-Index hat zeitgleich 20 Prozent zugelegt, der Branchenindex sogar knapp 26 Prozent.

Union Investment versteht die immensen Herausforderungen, die VW meistern muss. Mit der Transformation zur Elektromobilität tut sich der Konzern schwer. Es ist dringend geboten, den Erfolg des Golfs auf Elektrofahrzeuge zu übertragen. Ein „Volks-Wagen" im Elektrobereich fehlt. Das ist nicht nur für die Absatzzahlen besorgniserregend. Schon ab 2025 verschärft Brüssel die CO2-Ziele für die Autobauer. VW müsste dafür seinen Elektro-Anteil massiv steigern. Angesichts des Produktportfolios dürfte das jedoch schwierig werden - denn außerhalb von China kaufen die Kunden des Unternehmens überwiegend Verbrenner. Das zeigt sich in der CO2-Bilanz. Nun drohen Milliardenstrafen aus Brüssel. Wie stellt VW sicher, dass er nächstes Jahr die CO2-Ziele und die verschärften Zielvorgaben in Europa aus eigener Kraft erreicht?

Mit Blick auf China müssen wir zudem wie im letzten Jahr klar sagen: Wir sehen die Aktivitäten von VW in Xinjiang - wie auch die anderer Unternehmen - mit großer Sorge. Nach Berichten über Zwangsarbeit beim Bau einer Teststrecke drängt sich der Verdacht auf, dass der Konzern das Thema allenfalls halbherzig angeht. Effektive und präventive Maßnahmen gegen Zwangsarbeitsrisiken - und andere Verletzungen von Menschenrechten - sind aber dringend notwendig, ob in China oder in anderen Ländern. Wie sieht die Zukunft der VW-Präsenz in Xinjiang aus? Welche Maßnahmen ergreift das Unternehmen, um sicherzustellen, dass Menschenrechts- und Umweltstandards in der gesamten Lieferkette eingehalten werden? Wir fordern mehr Transparenz, besonders bei Hochrisiko-Lieferketten.

Zurück zum Thema CO2-Reduktion: VW bekennt sich zum Pariser Klimaschutzabkommen und gibt an, die eigenen Aktivitäten am 1,5-Grad-Ziel auszurichten. Es ist entscheidend, dass Automobilhersteller das Tempo bei der Einführung von emissionsfreien Fahrzeugen erhöhen, um die globale Erwärmung auf 1,5 Grad zu begrenzen. Die „Zero Emission Vehicles-Declaration", von Unternehmen wie Mercedes, BYD, GM oder Ford unterstützt, verpflichtet, bis spätestens 2035 in führenden Märkten und bis 2040 weltweit sicherzustellen, dass alle Neuwagen emissionsfrei sind. Laut Science Based Targets Initiative ist eine schrittweise Abkehr vom Verbrenner Voraussetzung für Automobilhersteller zur Erfüllung des Pariser Klimaschutzabkommens. Wie steht VW zur "Zero Emission Vehicles-Declaration"? Welche Gründe sprechen dagegen, sich dieser Initiative anzuschließen? Wie steht VW zur Science Based Targets Initiative? Aus Ambitionen müssen konkrete Ziele werden. Mit den wissenschaftlich validierten 2030-Zielen hat der Konzern entsprechend vorgelegt.

2023 hat VW einen Klima-Lobbying-Report veröffentlicht. Das begrüßen wir, denn es war ein Schritt nach vorn - aber unserer Ansicht nach müsste der Bericht noch stärker ins Detail gehen.

Corporate Governance als Achillesferse

Die schlechte Corporate Governance bleibt die Achillesferse von Volkswagen. De facto sind im VW-Konzern die Strukturen für eine unabhängige Kontrolle des Managements nicht vorhanden. Es findet sich im Aufsichtsrat kein Mitglied, das als unabhängig anzusehen ist. Das heißt auch Schlüsselpositionen wie der Vorsitz des Prüfungsausschusses sind nicht unabhängig besetzt. Unabhängigkeit ist für eine effektive und glaubhafte Kontrolle jedoch essenziell. Daneben müssen Interessenkonflikte vermieden werden.

Engagement bei Covestro

Die Hauptversammlung der Covestro AG fand am 17. April 2024 statt. Die Interessen von Union Investment vertrat Arne Rautenberg, Portfoliomanager bei Union Investment. Seine Rede in Auszügen:

In den letzten zwölf Monaten vor der Hauptversammlung bescherte die Covestro-Aktie den Anlegern eine erfreuliche Wertentwicklung von 36 Prozent. Das ist besser als der europäische Chemiesektor (STOXX Europe 600 Chemicals-Index) mit 11 Prozent und besser als der DAX40-Index, der im selben Zeitraum ein Plus von 14 Prozent schaffte (Zeitraum: 12.04.2023 bis 12.04.2024). Der Grund dafür liegt aber nicht in der operativen Entwicklung von Covestro, die erneut schwach war, sondern in den Spekulationen rund um Adnoc. Mittlerweile ist die Übernahme durch den Energiekonzern aus Abu Dhabi erfolgt.

Dazu hatte Covestro bei dem Aktionärstreffen allerdings weitgehend geschwiegen. Der Konzern ging im virtuellen Raum auf Distanz zu seinen Aktionären, statt ihnen vor Ort direkt Rede und Antwort zu stehen. Und das, nachdem die virtuelle Hauptversammlung des Unternehmens im vergangenen Jahr von massiven technischen Problemen überschattet war. Viele DAX-Unternehmen sind längst wieder zur Präsenz-Hauptversammlung zurückgekehrt. Warum macht Covestro das nicht auch oder bietet den Aktionären zumindest ein hybrides HV-Format mit der Möglichkeit zur Vor-Ort-Teilnahme an, wie es der Konzern bei der Bilanzpressekonferenz gemacht hat? Die Aktionäre würden das sehr befürworten.

ESG-Vorreiter in der Chemiebranche

Als nachhaltiger Investor achtet Union Investment besonders auf ökologische, soziale und Governance-bezogene Kriterien, kurz: ESG-Kriterien. Ohne einen entschiedenen Einsatz für die Reduktion der Scope 1, 2 und 3-Emissionen lässt sich der Klimawandel nicht stoppen.

Covestro trägt auch große Verantwortung für die Emissionen seiner Lieferanten und Kunden und bezieht deshalb konsequenterweise Scope 3-Emissionen in die eigenen Klimaziele ein, was wir sehr begrüßen. Das Unternehmen ist damit Vorreiter in der Chemiebranche. Ergänzend zur vorbildlichen Datenveröffentlichung und Zielsetzung in Sachen Klima fehlt nun noch die Veröffentlichung von Wasserdaten im Rahmen des Carbon Disclosure Projects. Will der Konzern künftig auch dieser Verantwortung nachkommen? Das wäre sehr wünschenswert.

Mit Blick auf die Tagesordnung stimmte Union Investment gegen die Ermächtigung zum Aktienrückkauf, da die Laufzeit fünf Jahre beträgt und unsere Abstimmungsrichtlinie dafür nur eine maximale Laufzeit von zwei Jahren vorsieht. Bevor man über Aktienrückkäufe nachdenkt, muss Covestro erst mal wieder dividendenfähig werden, was nach zwei Verlustjahren in Folge zuletzt leider nicht der Fall war. Allen anderen Tagesordnungspunkten stimmten wir zu.

Engagement bei Deutsche Bank

Die Hauptversammlung der Deutsche Bank AG fand am 16. Mai 2024 statt. Die Interessen von Union Investment vertrat Alexandra Annecke, Senior-Portfoliomanagerin bei Union Investment. Ihre Rede in Auszügen:

Im Jahr vor der Hauptversammlung (10.05.2023 bis 10.05.2024) bescherte die Deutsche Bank-Aktie den Anlegern eine erfreuliche Wertentwicklung von 68 Prozent. Das ist besser als der europäische Bankensektor (STOXX Europe 600 Banks-Index) mit 46 Prozent und besser als der DAX40-Index, der im selben Zeitraum ein Plus von 18 Prozent schaffte. Die Deutsche Bank hat im vergangenen Jahr weitere Kostensenkungen und Maßnahmen zum effizienteren Einsatz ihres Eigenkapitals angestoßen. Das trug schon erste Früchte. Auch mit steigenden Dividenden und Aktienrückkäufen arbeitet sich die Deutsche Bank langsam aber sicher an das Hauptfeld der europäischen Banken heran. Die Bank wird am Kapitalmarkt als profitabler, robuster und vertrauenswürdiger wahrgenommen. Trotz des bereits Erreichten gibt es jedoch noch viel zu tun.

Integrationschaos bei der Postbank

Noch nicht alle Prozesse sind so, wie man es sich wünschen würde. Die Probleme bei der IT-Migration der Postbank sind eine Blamage. Eine Bank darf ihre Kunden nicht so im Regen stehen lassen. Die Deutsche Bank hat sich immer wieder als aktiver Konsolidierer ins Spiel gebracht. Die Probleme bei der Postbank werfen die Frage auf, ob der Konzern die prozessualen Fähigkeiten hat, um sich bietende M&A-Opportunitäten nutzen zu können. Das Integrationschaos der Postbank und der Sonderbeauftragte der BaFin sind da kein Aushängeschild.

Als nachhaltiger Investor achtet Union Investment besonders auf ESG-Kriterien. Wir begrüßen das Klimaziel der Deutschen Bank und die Umsetzung der damit verbundenen Verpflichtungen.

Wir sind überzeugt, dass das Unternehmen in den kommenden Jahren weitere Anstrengungen im Bereich der grünen Transformation leisten muss. Wir fordern weniger Hintertüren bei der Finanzierung fossiler Energien, etwa wenn es um die Finanzierung von unkonventionellen Fördermethoden wie Fracking geht. Und wir erwarten mehr Ehrgeiz bei der Kreditvergabe für nachhaltige Geschäftsfelder.

Entlastung verweigert

Im Rahmen der Tagesordnung verweigerte Union Investment dem Vorstand und Aufsichtsrat die Entlastung. Der Grund dafür liegt in der Ausgestaltung des gewählten HV-Formats, wofür wir beide Gremien in der Verantwortung sehen. Wir sind strikt gegen die Vorverlagerung des Fragerechts im virtuellen Format, denn damit wird der Tag der Hauptversammlung entwertet und der Generaldebatte die Grundlage entzogen. Das haben wir in Gesprächen mit der Deutschen Bank immer wieder klargemacht. Mittlerweile ist die Deutsche Bank die wohl einzige Aktiengesellschaft im DAX und MDAX, die Aktionäre dazu zwingt, ihre Fragen vorab einzureichen. Die Einschränkung des Fragerechts erschwert eine inhaltliche Debatte. Wir sehen es als wesentlich an, dass Vorstand und Aufsichtsrat in der Hauptversammlung zu den Fragen der Aktionäre persönlich Stellung nehmen. Es ist kein Ersatz, wenn in der Generaldebatte nur auf das Antwortdokument verwiesen wird.

Darüber hinaus stimmten wir gegen den Vergütungsbericht für das Jahr 2023, weil die Bank ein wichtiges Detail bei der Einführung des aktuell noch gültigen Vergütungssystems nicht ausreichend transparent dargelegt hat. Es geht um den Umgang mit Zahlungen im Rahmen der aktienbasierten Vergütung. Für diese quasi virtuellen Aktien wird ein Äquivalent gewährt, das die für physische Aktien gezahlte Dividende nachbildet. So etwas sollte unbedingt schon bei der Abstimmung über ein Vergütungssystem transparent gemacht werden. Das neue Vergütungssystem fand dagegen unsere Zustimmung, weil es ehrgeizigere Ziele für den Vorstand enthält und damit stärker an den Aktionärsinteressen ausgerichtet ist.

Engagement bei Deutsche Telekom

Die Hauptversammlung der Deutsche Telekom AG fand am 10. April 2024 in Bonn statt. Die Interessen von Union Investment vertrat Dr. Henrik Pontzen, Chief Sustainability Officer bei Union Investment. Seine Rede in Auszügen:

Meine Damen und Herren, aus Aktionärssicht ist die Ära von Timotheus Höttges eine lupenreine Erfolgsstory. Die Zahlen sprechen für sich: Seit er Anfang 2014 den Vorstandsvorsitz übernahm, lieferte die T-Aktie eine Gesamtrendite von 167 Prozent, die sich aus Aktienkursentwicklung und Dividende zusammensetzt. Das ist eine sensationelle Outperformance, wenn man bedenkt, dass der DAX im selben Zeitraum nur eine Gesamtrendite von 96 Prozent und der europäische Telekommunikationssektor (STOXX Europe 600 Telecommunications-Index) sogar nur 12 Prozent schaffte (Zeitraum: 02.01.2014 bis 04.04.2024).

Mit Blick auf des Thema Nachhaltigkeit ist die Deutsche Telekom beim Klimaschutz Vorreiter und hat im DAX40-Klimaranking von Union Investment, das im November 2023 erstmals erhoben wurde, den ersten Platz belegt. 2024 schaffte sie es auf Platz 4. Das ist aller Ehren wert, aber gleichzeitig gibt es leider noch erhebliche Governance-Defizite.

Struktur der Aufsicht stimmt nicht

So klar wir loben, so klar müssen wir hier leider auch kritisieren. Die Struktur der Aufsicht stimmt nicht - und zwar an wichtiger Stelle: im Prüfungs- und Finanzausschuss. Der Vorsitz ist mit Dagmar Kollmann nicht unabhängig besetzt. Unabhängigkeit ist aber in Sachen Prüfung kein Luxus, sondern unverzichtbare Voraussetzung. Das Problem ist dabei nicht auf den Vorsitz beschränkt, auch die Zusammensetzung stimmt nicht. Zu viele Mitglieder sind als nicht unabhängig anzusehen. Wir verweigerten daher dem Aufsichtsrat die Entlastung und stimmten auch gegen die Wiederwahl von Karl-Heinz Streibich. Er ist Mitglied des Prüfungs- und Finanzausschusses und aufgrund seiner langen Zugehörigkeit nach unseren Kriterien nicht mehr als unabhängig einzustufen, ebenso wenig wie Dagmar Kollmann und Stefan Wintels. Darüber hinaus stimmten wir gegen den Kapitalvorratsbeschluss, der wegen der Ausgabe von Genussrechten nicht im Einklang mit unseren Abstimmungsrichtlinien ist.

Mangelnde Transparenz bei Vergütung

Die sensationelle Outperformance der Telekom ist auch der Erfolg des CEOs Höttges. Und ja, exzellente Arbeit soll exzellent entlohnt werden. Allerdings: Der Erfolg hat immer viele Mütter und Väter und der enorme Anstieg der Grundvergütung in den letzten Jahren erscheint uns nicht verhältnismäßig. Die Grundvergütung des Vorstandsvorsitzenden ist zwischen 2019 und 2023 um 42 Prozent gestiegen.

Wie hat sich die Grundvergütung der Mitarbeitenden der Deutschen Telekom in diesem Zeitraum (2019-2023) entwickelt? Zudem kritisierten wir, dass die jüngste Erhöhung der Grundvergütung von über 20 Prozent dem Vergütungsbericht nicht klar zu entnehmen ist. Der Vergütungsbericht weist daher nicht die Transparenz auf, die wir als angemessen erachten. Hierbei sehen wir Schwächen in Form und Inhalt. Daher lehnten wir den Vergütungsbericht ab.

2.5 Engagement im Fokus

Klimastrategie: Engagement soll Unternehmen investierbar halten

Im Rahmen der Klimastrategie von Union Investment werden ab 2025 alle Emittenten ausgeschlossen, die sich weigern, umfassende Klimaziele zu formulieren und zu verfolgen. Intensives Engagement soll bis dahin dafür sorgen, dass möglichst viele Unternehmen investierbar bleiben.

Vor zwei Jahren verabschiedete Union Investment die hauseigene Klimastrategie mit dem Ziel, sowohl beim CO2-Fußabdruck des Unternehmens als auch bei den Assets under Management bis 2050 Klimaneutralität zu erreichen. Seit Mitte 2023 ist Union Investment daher im Dialog mit den Unternehmen, um die Klimastrategie mit ihren Zielen und Folgen zu erläutern und entsprechendes Verständnis zu wecken. Denn ab Januar 2025 sollen diejenigen Emittenten unionweit ausgeschlossen werden, die sich der Verpflichtung zur Klimaneutralität verweigern und keinerlei Ambitionen zeigen, sich ein Full Scope-Neutralitätsziel (Scope 1, 2 und 3) geben zu wollen. Scope 1 betrifft die direkten, eigenen Emissionen des Unternehmens, Scope 2 die indirekten Emissionen der Energieversorger. Scope 3 umfasst alle weiteren indirekten Emissionen entlang der Wertschöpfungskette - also bei Kunden und Lieferanten.

Zu Beginn des Engagements hatten bereits zwölf von 50 Unternehmen ein vollständiges Klimaziel vorzuweisen, 32 Konzerne waren auf dem Weg dorthin. Bei sechs Unternehmen standen die Ampeln jedoch auf Rot. Seither hat sich viel getan, es zeichnet sich bei vielen Unternehmen ein starker Fortschritt durch das intensive Engagement ab.

Eskalationsphase hat begonnen

Wegen der bevorstehenden Ausschlüsse hat im Januar 2024 neben den seit 2023 laufenden Unternehmensdialogen die Eskalationsphase begonnen. So bleibt ein Jahr für weiteres aktives Engagement, um alle Werte investierbar zu halten, bei denen das möglich ist. Die parallele Eskalation beginnt bei internationalen Unternehmen mit einem nicht-öffentlichen Brief an die betroffenen Konzerne im Vorfeld der Hauptversammlungssaison. Wenn eine Reaktion ausbleibt, folgt als nächster Schritt die Nicht-Entlastung des Vorstands und des Aufsichtsrats auf der Hauptversammlung (HV), begleitet von einem öffentlichen Brief, der diesen Schritt erläutert. Zusätzlich wird bei deutschen Werten die Option genutzt, mittels HV-Rede weiteren Handlungsdruck zu erzeugen. Im vierten Quartal entscheidet Union Investment dann endgültig über Ausschlüsse und Ausnahmen.

Ziel der Initiative ist es, dass die Unternehmen sich glaubhaft in dem ihnen möglichen Rahmen bewegen und CO2-Neutralität anstreben. Aus diesem Grund wird Union Investment bis zum Jahresende maximalen Druck ausüben, um dann keine oder zumindest möglichst wenige Unternehmen ausschließen zu müssen. Das trifft auch auf Unternehmen aus Sektoren wie beispielsweise Bergbau zu, die emissionsintensiv und gleichzeitig für die Dekarbonisierung unerlässlich sind. Deshalb werden weiterhin viel Zeit und Energie ins Engagement gesteckt, das auch schon beachtliche Erfolge aufzuweisen hat.

Scope 1 und 2 kein Thema mehr

Hartnäckigkeit zahlt sich aus. So sind die Emissionen unter Scope 1 und 2 mittlerweile kein großes Thema mehr. Der Dialog bezieht sich fast ausschließlich auf Scope 3. Das Thema gestaltet sich für viele Unternehmen besonders schwierig.

Der Einfluss auf die Emissionen in der Lieferkette („upstream“) ist durchaus möglich, weil die Konzerne hier oft über eine gewisse Marktmacht verfügen. Sie machen als Abnehmer den CO2-Fußabdruck der Lieferanten zur Voraussetzung für ihre Einkaufsentscheidung.

Mit Blick auf den CO2-Ausstoß nach dem Verkauf der Produkte („downstream“) wird es schon deutlich komplizierter. Kein Unternehmen hat direkten Einfluss auf das Verhalten der Kunden in Sachen Nachhaltigkeit und auf deren Emissionen. Sie können deren CO2-Fußabdruck nur beeinflussen, indem sie selbst nachhaltigere Produkte zum Kauf anbieten. So ist etwa der Fußabdruck von Chemikalien in allen Endprodukten kaum überschaubar. Deshalb haben auch nur etwa zwei Drittel der 50 Unternehmen im Engagement ein Downstream-Scope 3-Ziel. Hier ist Pragmatismus gefragt.

Ein Beispiel: Ein Chemiekonzern produziert Schaumstoffe, die in Matratzen genutzt werden. Um vollständige Klimaneutralität zu erreichen, müsste er im Sinne einer Kreislaufwirtschaft die Matratzen zurücknehmen, um sie zu recyclen. Da das Unternehmen die Kunden, die die Matratzen kaufen, nicht kennen kann, hat es stattdessen Verträge mit Entsorgungsdienstleistern geschlossen. Diese liefern ihm die gleiche Anzahl an Matratzen, die es produziert hat, egal von welchem Hersteller. Indem es diese verwertet, hält das Unternehmen die gleiche Menge an Rohstoffen im Kreislauf beziehungsweise sorgt für deren korrekte Entsorgung, auch wenn es keine Kontrolle über den Weg seiner Schaumstoffe nach dem Verkauf hat.

Scope 3: Eigeninitiative der Unternehmen gefragt

Union Investment fordert allerdings über diese Form des Pragmatismus hinaus, dass Unternehmen sich selbst dafür einsetzen, dass sie die Scope 3-Emissionen downstream besser kontrollieren können.

Mit Blick auf Elektroautos wäre es den Herstellern beispielsweise möglich, bis 2050 CO2-neutral zu werden, wenn der Strommix bis dahin grün ist. Es ist also an den Konzernen selbst, entsprechende Lobby-Arbeit zu leisten, dass die Politik die notwendigen Rahmenbedingungen schafft. So versetzen sie ihre Kunden in die Lage, in diesem Punkt klimaneutral zu sein und erreichen damit auch gleich ihre eigenen Ziele.

Mit Blick auf die 50 Unternehmen im Klima-Engagement sind mittlerweile rund zwei Drittel auf einem guten Weg, haben bereits vollständige Klimaziele oder arbeiten glaubhaft daran. Das verbliebene Drittel, denen der potenzielle Ausschluss droht, lässt sich wiederum dreiteilen. Ein Drittel besteht aus Konzernen, die ihr Geschäftsmodell ändern müssten, um die Anforderungen erfüllen zu können. Sie kommen aus den Branchen Basiskonsumgüter, Industrie, Öl und Gas sowie Metall und Minen. Beim zweiten Drittel erscheinen die Gründe diffus und mit dem Management zusammenzuhängen - hier scheint der CO2-Fußabdruck keine Priorität in der Unternehmenssteuerung zu haben. Das letzte Drittel braucht noch mehr Zeit, um an den Zielen zu arbeiten. Letztere Unternehmen sind die, bei denen ein fortgesetzter Dialog am vielversprechendsten scheint, um einen Ausschluss noch zu verhindern.

Die gute Nachricht: Auch wenn sie es im Rahmen der Klimastrategie nicht rechtzeitig schaffen, sich umfassende Klimaziele zu geben, können sie, wenn sie ihre Bemühungen fortsetzen, später wieder in das investierbare Universum aufgenommen werden. Deshalb wird Union Investment das Engagement auch über 2025 hinaus fortsetzen und die Unternehmen auf ihrem Weg zur Klimaneutralität begleiten. Das gilt auch für die Konzerne, bei denen es aktuell unwahrscheinlich erscheint, dass sie die von Union Investment geforderten Ziele erreichen können oder wollen.

Die Risiken der Künstlichen Intelligenz

Das Thema Künstliche Intelligenz (KI) ist in aller Munde. Nicht nur in der IT-Branche arbeiten Unternehmen intensiv daran, sich mithilfe von KI Vorteile zu erarbeiten und sich produktiver aufzustellen. Allerdings gehen mit der Nutzung von KI auch erhebliche Risiken einher.

Nicht nur Regulatoren und Unternehmen, sondern auch Asset Manager sind gefordert, sich dem Thema KI und den damit verbundenen Chancen und Risiken zu stellen. Union Investment erkennt dabei, auch unter ESG-Gesichtspunkten, das enorme KI-Potenzial für Gesellschaft und Wirtschaft an. In Summe überwiegen dabei für UI die Chancen der KI-Anwendung die Risiken. Jedoch: Als nachhaltig orientierter Investor ist sich Union Investment den daraus entstehenden Herausforderungen bewusst und fordert deshalb von Unternehmen am Kapitalmarkt den verantwortungsvollen Umgang mit KI.

Auch das neue KI-Gesetz der EU versucht, Chancen und Risiken der neuen Technologie auszutarieren. Durch die gesetzten Leitplanken gewährt das Gesetz hinreichend Freiraum für Innovationen im Bereich der Basistechnologien für generative KI-Modelle. Europäische Unternehmen erhalten - trotz Regulierung - im internationalen Konkurrenzkampf ausreichend Flexibilität und die Chance, auf einem wichtigen Zukunftsmarkt bestehen zu können.

Abwägender Ansatz gewählt

Union Investment folgt als Investor bei der Analyse auf Unternehmensebene in puncto KI ebenfalls einem abwägenden Ansatz. Im Rahmen einer Engagement-Initiative wurden erste, ausgewählte Firmen kontaktiert und Fragen hinsichtlich der Dimensionen Transparenz, Risikomanagement, KI-Governance und KI-Auswirkungen gestellt.

Dabei werden sowohl ökologische als auch soziale Aspekte adressiert. Schwerpunkt der Analyse sind zunächst deutsche Unternehmen in den Bereichen Finanzen, Telekommunikation, Gesundheit, Medien und natürlich der Informationstechnologie. Denn gerade in diesen Sektoren spielt KI in unterschiedlichen Anwendungen eine besondere Rolle bei der digitalen Transformation. Ein Beispiel ist SAP. Frühzeitig hat das das Software-Unternehmen begonnen, unter anderem ethische Fragestellungen in die Entwicklung neuer KI-Dienstleistungen einzubinden. Darüber hinaus werden interne Experten, aber auch ein externer Beirat bei kritischen Fragen zu Rate gezogen.

14 Adressen kontaktiert

Insgesamt hat Union Investment in einem ersten Schritt 14 Unternehmen aus Deutschland mit einem Fragebogen kontaktiert, von denen sich bislang elf zurückgemeldet haben. Darunter befinden sich IT-Häuser wie etwa SAP und United Internet, Finanztitel wie Allianz und die Deutsche Bank und Gesundheitskonzerne wie Sartorius und Merck. Das Fazit: Die meisten Unternehmen haben noch Verbesserungspotenzial, auch weil das Thema neu und kein regulatorischer Rahmen etabliert ist. Neben SAP fielen auch die Deutsche Telekom und Henkel positiv auf.

Die Engagement-Initiative soll zum einen bei den befragten Unternehmen die Aufmerksamkeit auf Transformationsprozesse lenken, die durch KI ausgelöst werden können. Zum anderen unterstützen die Ergebnisse der Umfrage Union Investment bei der Unternehmensanalyse. So haben die Portfoliomanager von Union Investment im Rahmen des KI-Engagements mit Vertretern der Deutschen Börse intensiv über die drei Themenfelder Impact Analyse (Risikoidentifikation, soziale und umwelttechnische Auswirkungen), Risikomanagement und Governance (Expertise im Management, Policy und Reporting) bezüglich Künstlicher Intelligenz diskutiert. Das Unternehmen konnte anhand praktischer Anwendungsfälle einen Einblick geben, wie der Umgang mit KI und KI-bezogenen Risiken bei der Deutschen Börse aussieht.

Denn für Investoren wird es in der Zukunft zunehmend wichtig sein, solche Unternehmen zu selektieren, deren Geschäftsmodelle besonders stark von KI-ausgelösten Veränderungen profitieren und denen es gelingt, KI-Anwendungen effizient und verantwortungsvoll in den unternehmerischen Alltag einzubinden. Auf der anderen Seite wird es für diejenigen Unternehmen kritisch, die ungenügend auf die digitale Transformation vorbereitet sind. Die Nichtbeachtung dynamischer Veränderungsprozesse und drohender KI-Risiken kann deren Geschäftsmodell langfristig gefährden.

Dynamische Entwicklungen

Die dynamischen Entwicklungen im KI-Bereich sorgen auch an den internationalen Kapitalmärkten für Aufsehen und beschäftigen Unternehmen und Investoren gleichermaßen. Aktuell stehen besonders Konzerne aus dem IT-Sektor im Fokus, beispielsweise Nvidia und AMD. Die beiden US-Firmen sind im Halbleiterbereich aktiv und produzieren die notwendigen Hochleistungsprozessoren, die für die immer komplexeren Rechenprozesse benötigt werden. Ebenso bedeutsam sind Software-Anbieter wie Microsoft, die neuartige KI-Anwendungen zunehmend in ihre klassische Software-Architektur integrieren und dadurch Nutzern einen Mehrwert liefern. Asset Manager wie Union Investment berücksichtigen zunehmend diese sich bietenden, vielfältigen Chancen rund um den KI-Themenkomplex bei ihren Investitionsentscheidungen - ohne dabei die speziellen KI-Risiken außer Acht zu lassen.

Unternehmen beim Wandel unterstützen

Das Transformationsrating von Union Investment geht in die nächste Runde. Dabei gilt es, diejenigen Unternehmen zu identifizieren, die noch nicht grün genug sind, aber auf dem besten Weg, den Wandel zu mehr Nachhaltigkeit erfolgreich zu meistern. Dabei gilt es, die Unternehmen auf ihrem Weg zu begleiten.

Seit 2021 wird das Transformationsrating vom Portfoliomanagement jährlich erstellt. Es ergänzt die UniESG Scores und soll einen potenziellen Veränderungsprozess systematisch erfassen und bewerten. Die Grundidee besteht darin, zukünftige Entwicklungen zu berücksichtigen, die noch nicht im ESG-Score, einem rückblickenden Indikator, reflektiert sind.

Konkret ist das Rating auf die Prognose von Transformation und die damit einhergehende zukünftige Nachhaltigkeit des Unternehmens gerichtet. Seine Basis ist im Wesentlichen eine qualitative Analyse über derzeit eine ganze Reihe von zukunftsgerichteten und nachhaltigen Key Performance Indicators (KPIs) für diverse Sektoren. Dabei stehen drei Dimensionen im Fokus: die ESG-Strategie des jeweiligen Unternehmens, die dazu nötigen und getätigten ESG-Investitionen sowie die jeweilige ESG-Governance.

Aktiver Dialog mit den Unternehmen

Zunächst bestimmen unsere Spezialisten zu den drei genannten Dimensionen sektorweise verschiedene Aspekte der Transformation, die durch die KPIs abgebildet werden. Diese ordnet der jeweilige ESG-Analyst im Portfoliomanagement für ein bestimmtes Unternehmen ein, im Austausch mit den zuständigen Portfoliomanagern auf der Renten- und Aktienseite. Hierfür erstellen sie eine Analyse und suchen den aktiven Dialog mit dem Unternehmen.

Das Ziel ist, die tatsächliche Ambition einer nachhaltigen Transformation des Geschäftsmodells einordnen zu können. Denn es reicht nicht, sich ein beliebiges Ziel zu setzen, um nachhaltiger zu werden, die Latte sollte schon hoch genug liegen, damit das Ergebnis auch einen spürbaren Unterschied macht. Daher ist das Transformationsrating in den allermeisten Fällen mit parallel laufenden Engagement-Dialogen verbunden, um die eigene Einschätzung des Emittenten mit Unternehmensvertretern auf Plausibilität und Konsistenz hin zu überprüfen.

Aus den Ergebnissen entsteht das Transformationsrating für den jeweiligen Emittenten. Nur wenn ein Unternehmen mit seinem Transformationspfad auf oder über den Erwartungen liegt, gilt es als Transformationskandidat und ist dann auch für nachhaltige Fonds von Union Investment zugelassen.

Jährliche Überprüfung der Ratings

Zwar können auch Unternehmen mit aktuell mäßigem oder eher schlechtem Nachhaltigkeitsstatus theoretisch zu Transformationskandidaten werden. Faktisch scheiden jedoch einige aus: Dabei handelt es sich um Unternehmen, die ein unter bestimmten Nachhaltigkeitsgesichtspunkten kritisches Geschäftsmodell haben oder eine problematische Produktpalette anbieten. Bei fast allen anderen Unternehmen ist die nachhaltige Transformation jedoch eine Frage der Ambition und des Willens, das Geschäftsmodell wenn nötig neu aufzustellen. Um beurteilen zu können, ob diese auch konsequent weitergeführt wird, werden die Transformationsratings jährlich überprüft.

Zwei Drittel sind führend

In diesem Jahr stehen rund 150 Unternehmen auf der Liste für die Transformationsratings. Seit Einführung im Jahr 2021 standen mehrere hundert Adressen hinsichtlich ihres Transformationspotenzials auf dem Prüfstand. In der Regel werden zwei Drittel der untersuchten Konzerne für gut genug befunden, um ein positives Rating zu erhalten. Für ein Drittel gilt das nicht. Diese Unternehmen sind dann für nachhaltige Fonds nicht investierbar. Die Ratings werden jährlich überprüft, und wer in einem Jahr durchgefallen ist, hat die Chance, eventuell ein Jahr später erneut unter die Lupe genommen und für gut befunden zu werden.

Der Ausschluss löst keine Probleme

Der Fokus auf die Transformation der Unternehmen hat gute Gründe. Der Klimawandel stellt die Welt vor gewaltige Herausforderungen. Diese werden die wenigen Unternehmen, die bereits nachhaltig sind, nicht allein lösen können. Deshalb muss es gelingen, möglichst viele Unternehmen für eine nachhaltige Transformation zu gewinnen. Denn: Wer Unternehmen, die auf ihrem Weg zur Nachhaltigkeit noch nicht so weit sind, unterschiedslos ausschließt, der ignoriert glaubwürdige Klimastrategien und erschwert womöglich den Wandel. Das hilft weder der Nachhaltigkeit noch den Aktionären. Der Ausschluss löst kein Problem, vergibt aber die Chance auf eine gelungene Transformation. Ein Ausschluss ist oft unvermeidlich, sollte aber immer die Ultima Ratio sein.

Engagierter Weg in die Klimaneutralität

Union Investment hat sich als Unternehmen das Ziel gesetzt, bis spätestens im Jahr 2050 klimaneutral zu sein. Die entsprechende Strategie ist implementiert, erste Erfolge deutlich sichtbar. Eine Schlüsselrolle spielt dabei das Engagement bei Emittenten mit hohem Treibhausgas-Ausstoß.

Seit dem Vorstandsbeschluss im Jahr 2021 haben sich viele der als wesentliche Emittenten definierten Unternehmen erheblich verbessert sowohl was die Zielsetzung für den eigenen Reduktionspfad in Scope 1, 2 und 3 betrifft als auch hinsichtlich erster konkreter Schritte. Hatten sich im Jahr 2020 von den 50 betroffenen Konzernen nur sieben ein vollständiges Net Zero-Ziel über alle drei Scope-Dimensionen gesetzt, sind es heute 35.

Die Zahl der Unternehmen gänzlich ohne vollständige Ziele hingegen ist von 35 auf vier gesunken. Diese deutliche Verbesserung bei einem großen Teil der Emittenten wird als deutlicher Erfolg der Klimastrategie gewertet und ist nicht zuletzt auch auf die mehr als 100 Engagements mit den Unternehmen zurückzuführen.

Ausblick zur Klimastrategie

In Fällen, in denen sich mit Engagement keine Verbesserung und keine Verhaltensänderung bei den Unternehmen erreichen lässt, führt für das Portfoliomanagement kein Weg an einem Ausschluss vorbei. Ganz konkret bedeutet das: Ab 2025 sind keine Investitionen mehr in wesentliche Treibhausgasemittenten möglich, die sich weigern, vollständige langfristige Klimaziele zu veröffentlichen (Scope 1, Scope 2 und Scope 3, wenn standardisierte Berechnungsmethoden vorliegen).

Ab 2030 sind keine Investitionen mehr in wesentliche Treibhausgasemittenten möglich, die sich weigern, vollständige kurz- und mittelfristige Klimaziele zu veröffentlichen. Ab 2035 sind keine Investitionen mehr in wesentliche Treibhausgasemittenten möglich, die sich weigern, einen glaubwürdigen Plan zur Erreichung der Emissionsreduktionsziele vorzulegen. Und ab 2040 sind keine Investitionen mehr in wesentliche Treibhausgasemittenten möglich, die nicht belegen können, dass die Intensität der Treibhausgasemissionen mit dem definierten Pfad in Richtung Klimaneutralität in Einklang steht. Hinzu kommt: Die Investitionsplanung darf den Klimaschutzzielen nicht entgegenstehen.

Ausschlüsse, wie sie in den kommenden Monaten anstehen werden, bedeuten allerdings nicht notwendigerweise die Trennung für alle Ewigkeit. Sobald die Emittenten bereit sind, entsprechende Ziele vorzulegen und erklären können, auf welchem Weg sie diese erreichen wollen, werden sie für die Sondervermögen von Union Investment auch wieder investierbar sein.

DAX-Studie belegt Wirkung

Wie viele Unternehmen in der Lage sind, ihre CO2-Emissionen zu reduzieren, zeigt die jüngste Auflage der DAX40-Klimastudie. Elf Konzerne haben sich über die gesamte Wertschöpfungskette ein so ambitioniertes Ziel gesetzt, dass der Pfad schon heute dem deutschen Klimaschutzgesetz (Klimaneutralität bis 2045) entspricht. Weitere 17 Unternehmen erfüllen die EU-Vorgaben der Klimaneutralität bis zum Jahr 2050 - bei der gleichen Untersuchung im Vorjahr waren es nur zwölf.

Auch mit Blick auf die tatsächlich geleistete Reduktion kommen viele Konzerne gut voran. 33 Firmen (Vorjahr: 30) haben ihre Scope 1 und 2-Emissionen zwischen 2018 und 2023 gesenkt. 19 Unternehmen (Vorjahr: 14) verringerten ihre Emissionen sogar schnell genug, um damit das Pariser 1,5 Grad-Ziel zu erreichen.

Aber bei der Reduktion der wichtigen Scope 3-Emissionen gibt es noch viel Handlungsbedarf. Große Scope 3-Emittenten wie Autobauer (Nutzungsphase der Produkte), Banken oder Versicherungen (Emissionen der finanzierten oder versicherten Kunden) hinken den Ansprüchen noch deutlich hinterher.

Unter dem Strich lässt sich festhalten: Die Studie zeigt klar, dass die Transformation der deutschen Wirtschaft in vollem Gange ist. Allerdings ist die Spreizung weiterhin hoch. Wie im Vorjahr schneiden insgesamt zwölf Unternehmen gut bis sehr gut ab. Einen Platztausch gab es an der Spitze, wo RWE die Deutsche Telekom ablöst. Von bereits niedrigem Niveau kommend, fiel die CO2-Reduktion beim Vorjahressieger etwas geringer aus als bei RWE. Komplettiert werden die Top 5 von Beiersdorf, der Deutschen Bank und Continental. Die Unternehmen der Spitzengruppe zeichnen sich dadurch aus, dass sie in nahezu allen Dimensionen punkten. Spitzenreiter RWE konnte seine Emissionen (Scope 1 und 2) zwischen 2018 und 2023 sogar mehr als halbieren und ist damit nicht mehr der größte CO2-Emittent im DAX. Das ist nun Heidelberg Materials. Der Baustoffkonzern rutschte im Vergleich zum Vorjahr um drei Plätze auf Rang 11 ab.

Es bleibt noch viel zu tun

13 Unternehmen bilden laut Studie die Nachzügler in Sachen Dekarbonisierung. Dabei finden sich in diesem unteren Drittel einige Unternehmen wie das Schlusslicht Brenntag, MTU Aero Engines, und Vonovia, die gegenüber dem Vorjahr noch weiter abgerutscht sind. Kritisch ist auch die relative Entwicklung bei Airbus, Merck und Rheinmetall, die aus dem Mittelfeld im Jahr 2023 nunmehr in die Gruppe der Nachzügler absteigen.

Nicht nur für die jeweiligen Unternehmen bedeutet das noch viel Arbeit, sondern auch für das Portfoliomanagement von Union Investment. Die Ergebnisse haben gezeigt, dass Engagement wirkt. Deshalb gilt es, am Ball zu bleiben und immer mehr Unternehmen von der Relevanz umfassender Klimaziele zu überzeugen. Nur so lässt sich die Klimaneutralität bis 2050 erreichen.

2.6 Kooperationen, Initiativen und Arbeitsgruppen

Union Investment ist in folgenden Mitgliedschaften vertreten

| Engagement | Details |
|---|---|
| Principles for Responsible Investment | Die Principles for Responsible Investment sind sechs Prinzipien, die von internationalen institutionellen Investoren unter Federführung der UNEP Finance Initiative und des UN Global Compact erarbeitet worden sind. Diese sechs Prinzipien dienen als Handlungsfaden für Investoren, um den Einfluss von verantwortungsbewussten Investieren nachzuvollziehen und bei der Entscheidungsfindung zu berücksichtigen. Unterstützer dieser Initiative verpflichten sich, diese sechs Prinzipien zu halten. Die Prinzipien werden dabei als Korsett gesehen, um die 10 Grundsätze des UN-Global Compact in die individuellen Investmentstrategien der Unterstützer zu implementieren. Union Investment hat sich im Jahr 2010 zu diesen Prinzipien bekannt. |
| UN Global Compact | Die Vision des UN Global Compact ist es, den Weg für eine nachhaltige und inklusive Weltwirtschaft zu ebnen, die Menschen, Gemeinschaften und Märkten dauerhafte Vorteile bringt. Der UN Global Compact unterstützt Unternehmen dabei, ihre Geschäfte verantwortungsvoll zu führen, indem sie die zehn Prinzipien zu Menschenrechten, Arbeitsnormen, Umweltschutz und Korruptionsbekämpfung in ihren Strategien und Aktivitäten berücksichtigen und strategische Maßnahmen ergreifen, um umfassendere gesellschaftliche Ziele wie die Nachhaltigkeitsziele der Vereinten Nationen zu erreichen. |
| Carbon Disclosure Project (CDP) | Das CDP ist eine unabhängige, gemeinnützige und internationale Organisation, die im Jahr 2000 in London gegründet wurde. In Partnerschaft mit dem Umweltprogramm der Vereinten Nationen (UNEP) und 767 institutionellen Investoren unterhält das CDP die weltweit größte Datenbank für unternehmensrelevante Klimainformationen. Die Ergebnisse dienen Kapitalmarktteilnehmern als Informationen zur Bewertung von $CO_2$-Emissionen, Klimarisiken und $CO_2$-Reduktionszielen von Unternehmen. In Deutschland ist der World Wide Fund For Nature (WWF) ein langjähriger strategischer Partner des CDP. Übergeordnetes Ziel des CDP ist es, $CO_2$-Emissionen transparent und greifbar zu machen, um sie langfristig und nachhaltig zu reduzieren. |

| Engagement | Details |
|---|---|
| Climate Bonds Initiative (CBI) | Die Climate Bonds Initiative (CBI) ist weltweit die einzige Organisation, die sich für die Ausweitung des nachhaltigen Anleihenmarktes engagiert. Ihr Ziel ist es, als Non-Profit Organisation einen möglichst großen, liquiden und nachhaltigen Anleihenmarkt zu schaffen und dadurch eine Kostenreduktion für weitere Klimaschutz-Projekte in entwickelten aber auch in wachsenden Märkten zu bewirken. Sie unterstützt Investitionen in Assets, die die emissionsarme, ressourceneffiziente und klimaresistente Wirtschaft fördern. |
| Transition Pathway Initiative (TPI) | Die Transition Pathway Initiative (TPI) wurde im Januar 2017 als gemeinsame Initiative der Church of England und des Environment Agency Pension Fund (EAPF) ins Leben gerufen. Ziel der TPI ist es, den Übergang zu einer kohlenstoffarmen Wirtschaft (wie im Pariser Abkommen vorgesehen) zu analysieren und die Auswirkungen auf Unternehmen in kohlenstoffintensiven Sektoren zu untersuchen. Als Unterstützer der Initiative wird Union Investment diese Analysen und Ergebnisse im Rahmen von Engagement-Dialogen thematisieren. |
| Task Force on Climate-Related Financial Disclosures (TCFD) | Die Task Force on Climate-Related Financial Disclosures (TCFD) wurde vom Financial Stability Board (FSB) mit dem Ziel gegründet, eine freiwillige und konsistente Berichterstattung über klimabezogene Finanzrisiken zu entwickeln. Die konsistente Berichterstattung ermöglicht es Unternehmen, entscheidungsrelevante Informationen an Investoren, Kreditgeber, Versicherer und andere Stakeholder weiterzugeben. Durch den Zugang zu vergleichbaren und verlässlichen Daten soll die Bewertung, die Bepreisung und die Steuerung von klimabezogenen Finanzrisiken verbessert werden. |

KnowTheChain: Engagement mit Kering

Seit rund zwei Jahren ist Union Investment Mitglied der Investoreninitiative KnowTheChain, bei der es um eine effektivere Kontrolle von Liefer- und Produktionsbedingungen geht. Für die Benchmark der Initiative zur Bekleidungs- und Schuh-Branche spielte Union Investment 2023 als Lead Investor eine führende Rolle im Engagement mit dem Konzern Kering.

KnowTheChain analysiert Unternehmenspraktiken im Bereich Arbeitsrechte und Zwangsarbeit und stellt Investoren und Unternehmen Benchmarks, Analysen und Sektor-Vergleiche zur Verfügung. Die sektorspezifischen Benchmarks, die alle zwei Jahre veröffentlicht werden, bewerten die Bemühungen der Unternehmen einer Branche festzustellen, ob es in ihrer Lieferkette Zwangsarbeit gibt und diese gegebenenfalls einzudämmen.

Im Januar 2024 wurde die neue Benchmark für 2023 für den Bereich Bekleidung und Schuhe (Apparel and Footwear) vorgestellt. Der aktive Beitrag von Union Investment zu dieser Benchmark war die Rolle als Lead Investor im gemeinschaftlichen Engagement der Initiative mit dem französischen Luxusgüterkonzern Kering.

Intensiver Dialog

Der Dialog mit dem Unternehmen begann im April 2023 mit einem Schreiben an das Management, gefolgt von einem virtuellen Treffen im November. Auf der Seite von Union Investment beteiligten sich die ESG-Analysten für den Konsumsektor und für soziale Belange sowie der Aktienportfoliomanager für Kering an dem Prozess. Kering war mit Investor Relations und Mitgliedern des Nachhaltigkeitsteams vertreten.

Der Konzern legte im Dialog Informationen offen, die deutlich über das bereits bekannte Nachhaltigkeitsreporting hinausgingen. So berichtete das Unternehmen von Fortschritten bei der Nachverfolgbarkeit und der Bewertung von Risiken sowie bei Einkaufs- und Einstellungspraktiken. Darüber hinaus wurde der Lieferantenkodex aktualisiert, um strittige Vermittlungshonorare zu unterbinden.

Nichtsdestotrotz muss Kering mit Blick auf die soziale Nachhaltigkeit seiner Lieferketten noch weitere Hausaufgaben machen. Das betrifft die Bereiche Nachverfolgbarkeit und Bewertung von Risiken, Einstellungsprozess, Mitbestimmung und Wiedergutmachung. Wir werden daher den Dialog mit Kering fortsetzen, um sie bei ihren weiteren Fortschritten zu unterstützen. In der jüngst veröffentlichten KnowTheChain Benchmark belegt der Konzern derzeit den 24. Platz von 65 Unternehmen aus der Bekleidungs- und Schuhbranche.

Union Investment trifft allein auf Basis dieses Engagements keine Anlageentscheidungen, doch die Ergebnisse fließen in unseren Entscheidungsprozess ein.

Artenvielfalt im Fokus

Union Investment ist der Initiative Nature Action 100 beigetreten. Ziel des Zusammenschlusses von Investoren ist der Erhalt der Biodiversität. Denn der Verlust der Artenvielfalt kann den Geschäftsbetrieb von Unternehmen ebenso gefährden wie der Klimawandel und auch gesamtwirtschaftlich zu Instabilität führen.

Die Nature Action 100-Engagement-Initiative, die auf der Weltnaturkonferenz COP15 in Montréal im Dezember 2022 angekündigt wurde, ist das Pendant zu Climate Action 100+, der größten Investoreninitiative zum Klimaschutz. Gemeinsam wollen die in der Organisation zusammengeschlossen Asset Manager die Unternehmen dazu bewegen, mehr Verantwortung für den Biodiversitätsverlust zu übernehmen und der Entwicklung stärker gegenzusteuern. Denn wenn so genannte naturbezogene Risiken nicht angegangen werden, kann das erhebliche Auswirkungen auf den Geschäftsbetrieb haben und auch makroökonomisch zu finanzieller Instabilität führen.

Verbindliche Ziele festlegen

Die Initiative hat zunächst eine Liste mit Fokusunternehmen zusammengestellt, deren Geschäftsbetrieb potenziell besonders gravierende Auswirkungen auf die Biodiversität haben kann. Dazu gehören unter anderem Nahrungsmittelhersteller, Papierproduzenten, Minenbetreiber und Chemiekonzerne. Union Investment selbst hat sich für die Initiative vor allem dem Engagement bei BASF und Bayer verschrieben und steht mit beiden Unternehmen in Kontakt, um die Risiken ihrer jeweiligen Geschäftsmodelle für den Erhalt der Biodiversität zu erörtern und Lösungen aufzuzeigen.

In einem weiteren Schritt werden konkrete Ziele festgelegt und anschließend ein unternehmensweiter und verbindlicher Plan implementiert, wie diese Ziele auch erreicht werden können.

Für das Portfoliomanagement hat die Arbeit in dem Investorenzusammenschluss noch einen zusätzlichen Vorteil neben dem Kampf für mehr Biodiversität: Die Informationen aus der Arbeit der Initiative können in den ESG-Investment- und Engagement-Prozess eingebunden und zur Entwicklung von Schlüsselfaktoren für das komplexe Thema genutzt werden.

Leitlinie für Biodiversität

Union Investment nimmt das Thema Biodiversität äußerst ernst. Im Mai wurde eine Leitlinie Biodiversität aufgestellt, in der der Umgang mit dem Erhalt der Artenvielfalt dezidiert beschrieben wird. Immerhin hängen zwischen 50 und 60 Prozent der weltweiten Wirtschaftsleistung von funktionierenden Ökosystemen und den damit verbundenen Naturdienstleistungen ab. Dies zeigt die hohe ökonomische Relevanz des Themas. Um das Vermögen unserer Kunden zu vermehren ist es wichtig, sich mit relevanten Risiken auseinander zu setzen und diese im Investmentprozess zu berücksichtigen. Die Leitlinie für Biodiversität beschreibt für alle Interessensgruppen die Relevanz des Themas und die Vorgehensweise von Union Investment als langfristig orientiertem Investor.

Neue Benchmark für die Menschenrechte

Die World Benchmarking Alliance (WBA) hat im Juli 2024 die erste verfügbare Social Benchmark erstellt. Dafür wurden 2.000 der größten und einflussreichsten Unternehmen hinsichtlich ihres Umgangs mit Menschenrechten, ethischen Standards und Arbeitsbedingungen untersucht und bewertet.

Die untersuchten Konzerne beschäftigen fast 100 Millionen Menschen und stehen für rund 45 Prozent des globalen Bruttoinlandsprodukts. Diese Zahl nutzt die WBA als Hebel: Wenn sich die Arbeitsbedingungen bei den Beschäftigten dieser Unternehmen über den Druck des Benchmarkings verbesserten, wäre das ein erheblicher Fortschritt gegenüber dem Status quo.

Denn zugleich muss konstatiert werden: Der Aufholbedarf ist immens, laut WBA erfüllen 90 Prozent der untersuchten Konzerne nicht die an sie gesetzten Standards. Nur etwa die Hälfte der Adressen hat sich überhaupt formal auf die Einhaltung von Menschenrechten verpflichtet.

Union Investment nutzt die von der WBA erhobenen Daten zur Bewertung, inwiefern Unternehmen ihre menschenrechtlichen Sorgfaltspflichten erfüllen. Ziel ist es zum einen, mögliche Rechts- und Ereignisrisiken im Vorfeld bestmöglich ausschließen zu können. Gleichzeitig können die Ergebnisse der WBA aber auch ein Startpunkt sein, um mit den jeweiligen Management-Teams in Engagement-Dialogen Wege und Ziele zu verabreden, wie die menschenrechtliche Situation in den Unternehmen verbessert werden kann.

Die World Benchmarking Alliance (WBA) wurde 2018 ins Leben gerufen. Sie identifizierte sieben Transformationen, die stattfinden müssen, um die Gesellschaft und die weltweite Wirtschaft auf einen nachhaltigeren Weg zu bringen und dadurch die Sustainable Development Goals der Vereinten Nationen (UN SDGs) erreichbar zu machen.

Um Umsetzungsimpulse für diese Transformationen zu geben, entwickelt die WBA eine Reihe von Benchmarks, die 2.000 der einflussreichsten Unternehmen der Welt bewerten und sie hinsichtlich ihres Beitrags zu den SDGs einstufen und messen. Die im Juli vorgestellte Social Benchmark ist eine Ergänzung dessen mit Fokus auf die menschenrechtlichen Aspekte. In der WBA sind mittlerweile 390 Organisationen vertreten, darunter Banken, Asset Manager, Universitäten und NGOs.

Unterstützer der ersten Stunde

Union Investment war als Unterstützer seit der Gründung der Initiative 2018 vertreten und gehörte 2021 gemeinsam mit anderen Investoren und Stakeholdern zu den Unterzeichnern der Just Transition Initiative. In der Initiative wurden Schlüsselindikatoren veröffentlicht, die sich zur Bewertung der Ausrichtung von Unternehmen an den Zielen des Pariser Klimaschutzabkommens und ihrer Ansätze für einen verantwortungsvollen Übergang eignen. Sie dienen als Handreichung, wie die Transformation der Wirtschaft möglichst gerecht gestaltet werden kann.

Künstliche Intelligenz auf dem Prüfstand

Mit der rasanten Entwicklung der Künstlichen Intelligenz (KI) sind Unternehmen wie Investoren mit neuen ethischen Fragen konfrontiert. Wie wird KI in einem Unternehmen eingesetzt, welche Standards gelten, wie wird die KI kontrolliert? In einer neuen Initiative der World Benchmarking Alliance (WBA) wird diesen Fragen auf den Grund gegangen.

Die World Benchmarking Alliance hat vor zwei Jahren eine Engagement-Kampagne gestartet, die sich mit Fragen rund um das Thema KI beschäftigt, aber auch das Thema der Digitalen Inklusion in Gänze ins Visier nimmt. In der Initiative sind aktuell 34 Investoren und zwölf zivilgesellschaftliche Organisationen vertreten. Union Investment arbeitet aktuell an einem zeitnahen Beitritt.

Die WBA hat eine Benchmark erstellt, in der 200 der einflussreichsten Technologie-Unternehmen vertreten sind. Unter ihnen befinden sich klangvolle Namen aus dem Silicon Valley, aber auch weniger geläufige Adressen aus Japan, Südkorea und Oman. Ihr Umgang mit dem Thema Künstliche Intelligenz wird anhand einer Reihe unterschiedlicher Parameter bewertet. Im Zentrum stehen Fragen wie: Hat das Unternehmen öffentlich verfügbare Rahmenbedingungen für den Umgang mit KI und umfassen diese auch menschenrechtliche Dimensionen? Gibt es ein Gremium im Unternehmen, das sich dezidiert mit ethischen Fragen im Zusammenhang mit KI beschäftigt?

Noch viel Luft nach oben

Immerhin: Bei den Unternehmen hat sich diesbezüglich in den vergangenen Jahren viel bewegt, auch wenn noch viel Luft nach oben besteht. Fast ein Viertel der 200 untersuchten Unternehmen hat mittlerweile ein entsprechendes Framework etabliert, im Jahr 2019 waren es nur 14 Prozent.

Trotz der Verbesserungen haben nur 27 von 200 Adressen in der Benchmark eine Bewertung von mehr als 50 auf der 100-Punkte-Skala der WBA.

Gezieltes Engagement bei Unternehmen

Union Investment fragt bei seinen Gesprächen mit Unternehmensvertretern auch gezielt nach dem Umgang mit dem Thema Künstliche Intelligenz in den Konzernen. Der Fragenkatalog deckt sich in weiten Teilen mit den Dimensionen, die die WBA für ihre Benchmark anlegt. Ein Beitritt zu der Initiative der WBA wird das Engagement von Union Investment flankieren und in Kollaboration mit anderen Investoren auf ein breiteres Fundament stellen.

Die WBA erarbeitet seit dem Jahr 2018 Benchmarks zu verschiedenen Themen, um die Auswirkungen der Geschäftstätigkeit von Unternehmen auf Mensch und Umwelt messbar und vergleichbar zu machen. Im Kern steht die Frage, welchen Beitrag die Unternehmen zur Erreichung der nachhaltigen Entwicklungsziele der Vereinten Nationen leisten. Bisherige Benchmarks umfassen beispielsweise soziale Komponenten wie etwa Arbeitsbedingungen, aber auch die Bereiche Klima und Energie sowie die Verfügbarkeit von Finanzdienstleistungen.

² Erläuterung zu den Ausprägungen im Abstimmungsverhalten:

Zustimmung: Dem Antrag wird zugestimmt.

Ablehnung: Der Antrag wird abgelehnt.

Keine Zustimmung: Aus technischen/formalen Gründen gibt es in einigen Ländern, allen voran in den USA, etwa bei der Wahl einzelner Kandidaten für ein Gremium nur die Wahl zwischen Zustimmung („for") oder keine Zustimmung („withhold"). Inhaltlich entspricht das „withhold" somit einer Ablehnung.

Enthaltung: Eine bewusste Enthaltung kommt in wenigen Fällen in Betracht, wenn für eine Entscheidung keine ausreichende Argumentation vorliegt. Die Stimmenthaltung bedeutet, dass weder für noch gegen einen Antrag gestimmt wird. Vielmehr soll dem Management gegenüber ein Signal gesetzt werden, dass Vorbehalte oder Unmut bestehen, jedoch für eine Gegenabstimmung keine hinreichende Grundlage vorliegt.

Keine Stimmabgabe: Bei organisatorischen Agendapunkten oder solchen, die lediglich als Information dienen, wird nicht abgestimmt. Hier erfolgt dann auch keine Stimmabgabe.

| Tagesordnungspunkt | Abstimmung | Begründung | |
| Accounts and Reports | Zustimmung | The Company's audited annual and consolidated accounts were available for review in advance of this shareholder meeting. As no evidence has been presented that would question the accuracy of these reports, one should consider this item as routine. Therefore, we are voting for this proposal. | |
| Allocation of Profits/ Dividends | Ablehnung | A proposed dividend allocation should be comparable to industry peers and should mirror the financial health of the company. In principle, an acceptable pay-out ratio should be above 20 percent and below 100 percent. The Company has proposed a dividend pay-out below 20 percent for the second year despite the reported net profit. As this is against policy, we are voting against this proposal. | |
| Elect PENG Zhiyuan | Ablehnung | There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualification and suitability of nominee PENG Zhiyuan. However, the Company has failed to disclose its biodiversity policy, which is not in line with policy. In addition, the Company's Human Rights Policy does not align with UDHR or ILO, which is not in line with policy. The nominee is the only member of the nominating committee who is up for re-election this year. Consequently, we are opposing this director`s election | |
| Elect Ingrid WU Chunyuan | Ablehnung | There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualification and suitability of nominee Ingrid WU Chunyuan. However, the nominee has already been a non-executive member of the board for more than 15 years, which is against policy.In addition, as the board of directors does not comprise an adequate number of independent members, we are voting against all insider and affiliated directors. Consequently, we are opposing this director`s election. | |
| Directors' Fees | Zustimmung | The proposed fees are reasonable and in line with those paid by the Company`s peers. Therefore, we are voting for this proposal. | |
| Appointment of Auditor and Authority to Set Fees | Ablehnung | There is no indication of any investigations or pending court cases pertaining to the auditor have been disclosed. Moreover, fees paid to the auditor are appropriate and all necessary information regarding the auditor have been provided in the Company`s filings. However, as per market practice:The company does not publish for how long the auditing company has already been in office.The company does not publish for how long lead auditor has already been in office.Consequently, we are voting against this proposal. | |
| Authority to Issue Shares w/ o Preemptive Rights | Zustimmung | In this case, the board will be authorised to issue up to 10% of the Company`s current issued share capital without preemptive rights, which is in line with policy. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal. | |

| Authority to Repurchase Shares | Ablehnung | At this time, there is no evidence of any past abuse of this type of authority at the company. However, the maximum and minimum price has not been disclosed. As this is against policy, we are voting against this proposal. |
| Authority to Issue Repurchased Shares | Ablehnung | This proposal is conditional upon the passing of the Proposal 6, which we opposed. Consequently, we are voting against this proposal. |

| Entlastung des Verwaltungsrates und der mit der Geschäftsführung betrauten Personen | Ablehnung | "Der Schweizer Elektrotechnikkonzern ABB soll in einem Korruptionsfall die Ermittlungsbehörden in die Irre geführt haben. Offenbar hielt der Konzern gezielt Dokumente zurück und gab falsche Informationen an die Behörden weiter, wie die «SonntagsZeitung» und die «Welt am Sonntag» anhand unveröffentlichter Dokumente schrieben. ABB hatte zugegeben, beim Bau eines Kohlekraftwerks in Südafrika bestochen zu haben. Der Konzern beteuerte, mit den Behörden zu kooperieren und eine Strafe von mehr als 300 Millionen Dollar zu bezahlen. ABB habe mit den südafrikanischen, US-amerikanischen und Schweizer Ermittlungsbehörden eine Einigung erzielt, schrieb die Zeitung weiter. Das Fehlverhalten könnte den Konzern insbesondere gegenüber den USA teuer zu stehen kommen." (Vgl. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal. |
| Authority to Set General Meeting Notice Period at 14 Days | Zustimmung | A shortened general meeting notice period is permitted by the UK Corporate Governance Code and the EU Shareholders Rights Directive, provided that a company conforms to specific electronic voting and communication requirements, as is the case here. | Approval of Odd-lot Offer | Zustimmung | In the absence of an authority to deal with odd lots, the Company will have to continue to administer them, incurring disproportionate costs as indicated above. Often, individual holders of unmarketable lots cannot be traced or contacted. It appears that this proposal creates a reasonable balance between the rights of individual shareholders with smaller shareholdings and the rights of the Company and the other shareholders to avoid disproportionate costs in administering such shareholdings.As a result, we are voting for this proposal. |

This request is largely grounded in concerns regarding the impact on secondary and tertiary patents on the price of drugs. While there is scope for additional regulation concerning these matters, it is not clear that such regulation is imminent or that it represents a threat to the company's business at this time. | Final Dividend | Ablehnung | A proposed dividend allocation should be comparable to industry peers and should mirror the financial health of the company. In addition, it is worth noting that Mr Windsor's base salary appears to exceed CFO salaries at the majority of the Company's market capitalisation peers. | Shareholder Proposal Regarding Report on Hiring Practices for People with Arrest Records | Zustimmung | This proposal requests that the board prepare a report analyzing whether the Company's hiring practices related to people with arrest or incarceration records are aligned with publicly stated DEI statements and goals, and whether those practices may pose reputational or legal risk due to potential discrimination (including racial discrimination) claims. It should be noted that the Company has provided detailed disclosure about its workforce demographics and trends. Additionally, in response to this proposal, the Company stated that it has multiple safeguards to prevent hiring discrimination, including measures to prevent disqualifying job candidates because of their criminal record or prior incarceration. However, the Company faces significant risks relating to its hiring and labor practices, and allegations of discriminatory behavior can result in costly and reputationally damaging lawsuits or fines. Moreover, as requests for increased transparency of ESG issues are in line with policy, we are voting for this proposal. |

| Elect Irene LEE Yun Lien | Ablehnung | There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualification and suitability of nominee XXX. However, given the information provided, the candidate holds too many mandates to be in line with policy (Director - Alibaba Group Holding Limited; Executive Chair - Hysan Development Company Limited; Chair - Hang Seng Bank Limited).Moreover, nominee Lee serves as chair of the nominating and corporate governance committee and  the Company has a substantial investment in Russia through its joint venture AliExpress Russia and has thus far continued its operations more-or-less without interruption. Generally, companies that continue to operate in Russia in the current political environment are likely to face increased stakeholder scrutiny of their approach, which may escalate to material reputational damage that may have an impact on shareholder value.In thise case, the Company has not clearly outlined its assessment of the risk associated with maintaining its Russian operations. As a company based in and primarily operating in China, the Company's ability to curb its Russian operations may be significantly limited in comparison to Western companies based in countries that have condemned the invasion of Ukraine and actively support sanctions against Russia. However, the concern here is not with the Company's decision to continue operations in Russia, but with its limited, boilerplate risk disclosure with regard to such decision. As a result, we are voting against the re-election of this nominee as the chair of the nominating and corporate governance committee. |
| Appointment of Auditors | Zustimmung | There is no indication of any investigations or pending court cases pertaining to the auditor. Moreover, the fees paid to the auditor are appropriate and are clearly disclosed by the Company. However, as per US market practice, the lead auditor`s name and tenure has not been disclosed in the company's proxy materials or annual report. The aforementioned notwithstanding, and as stipulated by Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002/Title II, "It shall be unlawful for a registered public accounting firm to provide audit services to an issuer if the lead (or coordinating) audit partner (having primary responsibility for the audit), or the audit partner responsible for reviewing the audit, has performed audit services for that issuer in each of the 5 previous fiscal years of that issuer."In spite of this, we are voting for this proposal. |

| Shareholder Proposal Regarding Shareholder Vote on Director Compensation | Ablehnung | In general, requests for a shareholder vote on director compensation are in line with policy. However, in this case, this proposal (unlike the vast majority of shareholder proposals submitted to U.S. companies) is binding. Therefore, if approved, it will be adopted as written and allow the board no flexibility in how it is structured or implemented. The proposal proscribes a policy that is significantly out of line with the practices of other U.S. companies. This could make it far more difficult for the Company to attract and retain qualified and talented directors, as their pay could be severely restricted (to $1) if the vote on director compensation fails to receive majority approval. Finally, it appears that this proposal contemplates a more rigid approval regime than is afforded to executive compensation, as the latter is subject to an advisory vote whereby the executive will still be granted their compensation regardless of the outcome of the vote, while under the terms of this proposal, directors will only receive $1 in compensation in a fiscal year if the proposal concerning their compensation is not approved.It should also be noted that the Company's director compensation practices are in line with peers and policy. Therefore, given the overly restrictive requirements of this proposal, we are voting against this proposal. |
| Shareholder Proposal Regarding EEO Policy Risk Report | Ablehnung | The proponent has not clearly articulated why the Company's approach to or policies regarding nondiscrimination threaten shareholder value. Moreover, the proponent of this proposal is the National Center for Public Policy Research (NCPPR). The NCPPR describes itself as a 'communications and research foundation supportive of a strong national defense and dedicated to providing free-market solutions to today's public policy problems' that believes 'the principles of a free market, individual liberty and personal responsibility provide the greatest hope for meeting the challenges facing America in the 21st century.' A division of the NCPPR, the Free Enterprise Project ('FEP') describes itself as 'the conservative movement's only full-service shareholder activism and education program: It files shareholder resolutions, engages corporate CEOs and board members at shareholder meetings, petitions the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) for interpretative guidance, and sponsors effective media campaigns to create the incentives for corporations to stay focused on their missions.' This proponent has generally submitted proposals that appear to be focused on E&S issues on their face but are designed to frustrate the company's actions around ESG performance. Therefore, we are voting against this proposal. |

| Shareholder Proposal Regarding Disclosure of Director Donations | Ablehnung | It should be noted that the proponent of this proposal is the National Legal and Policy Center ("NLPC"), which has submitted shareholder proposals that, upon first impression, appear to be consistent with environmental and social proposals that call for information or action on enhancing companies' approaches to environmental and social factors but, upon further review, appear to be designed to inhibit companies' actions in such areas. The NLPC describes itself as a 501(c)(3) that "promotes ethics in public life through research, investigation, education, and legal action," and believes "the best way to promote ethics is to reduce the size of government." As part of the corporate integrity project on its website, the NLPC shares its concerns regarding "woke" corporate executives, for instance posting articles about inclusive content "devaluing" the Pixar franchise or about how the NLPC has reported Visa's chair and CEO to the SEC for ongoing "wokeness." The project also examines a supposed pushback against ESG initiatives, featuring pieces such as one describing corporate America's anti-racism programs as racist against white people and another promoting the NLPC's efforts to nominate a fossil-fuel-supporting director candidate to the board of Exxon Mobil Corporation.Generally, companies should provide sufficient disclosure to allow them to understand any potential risks associated with corporate expenditures on issues such as political or charitable contributions. As these contributions are made on behalf of the Company, using shareholders' funds, such disclosure is generally appropriate. This proposal, however, does not deal with the use of corporate funds. Rather, it is requesting that directors divulge information about personal expenditures, made in their own names with their own money. The proponent has also failed to provide sufficient rationale to require directors to provide this level of disclosure concerning their personal spending.This proposal has also been labeled as "Anti-ESG" due to the shareholder proponent. These proponents have generally submitted proposals that address environmental and social issues and their aims are fairly clearly articulated in their supporting statements. Support for this resolution could buoy the proponents arguments and would advance a narrative that may contradict that of investors concerned about companies ESG performance. As a result, we are voting against this proposal. |

| Shareholder Proposal Regarding Report on Portfolio Risk in Employee Retirement Options | Ablehnung | This proposal requests that the Company report on how it is protecting plan beneficiaries, especially those with a longer investment time horizon, from increased future portfolio risk created by present-day investments in high-carbon companies. Employees have significant discretion as to where their investments are directed and should retain such discretion. This proposal appears to be implicitly asking the Company to influence the manner in which these employees invest their retirement savings, which arguably could cause greater risk to the Company should it be seen as pushing an agenda that is not necessarily shared by all employees or one that could potentially result in lower returns than a more traditional retirement account.The Company states in response to this proposal that its 401(k) plan provides participants with a variety of investment options to enable participants to pursue their individual retirement objectives based on their own risk tolerance. The Company also offers the choice to invest outside of the 401(k) plan. For example, the self-directed brokerage account option offers access to many investments outside of the plan's core investment lineup, and this account includes access to a much wider range of options like individual stocks, bonds, and ETFs and allows plan participants to tailor their strategy in a way that aligns with their financial goals, risk tolerances, and investment preferences.Moreover, the Company emphasizes that it has an internal investment committee that is the named investment fiduciary of the Company's plan, and this investment committee, in consultation with an external investment advisor, governs the strategic direction of the plan investment lineup and is responsible for selecting, reviewing, and retaining or changing the investment options available under the plan. Further, the Company explains that in discharging its fiduciary duty, the investment committee thoughtfully constructs, and closely and regularly monitors, investment options across a variety of different asset classes and investment styles, carefully weighing the potential risks, rewards, and goals (2024 DEF 14A, p.82).The proponents' argument seems to be weak and the reporting on the Company's retirement plan options in the manner suggested by this proposal does not seem to be a prudent use of Company resources. The proponent has failed to successfully articulate any kind of meaningful risk that the Company faces on account of this matter. Accordingly, we are voting against this proposal. |

| Shareholder Proposal Regarding Lobbying Report | Zustimmung | It appears that the Company could reasonably provide more meaningful disclosure regarding its indirect lobbying expenditures and believe that it should publicly disclose this information in a more accessible manner. Moreover, the Company could reasonably improve its disclosure to provide shareholders with an itemized list of recipients of its indirect lobbying payments, including those made to trade associations.Further, given the increased scrutiny placed on corporate political spending, particularly those donations made to trade associations and independent organizations for lobbying purposes, increased disclosure of trade association memberships and lobbying-related payments thereto would benefit shareholders.As a result, we are voting for this proposal. |
| Shareholder Proposal Regarding Recapitalization | Zustimmung | Allowing one vote per share is in line with policy and generally operates as a safeguard for common shareholders by ensuring that those who hold a significant minority of shares are able to weigh in on issues set forth by the board, especially in regard to the director election process. Therefore, we are supporting this proposal. |

| Shareholder Proposal Regarding Report on Reducing Misleading Content on Reproductive Health Care | Zustimmung | In this case, the proponent is requesting that the Company publish a report assessing the effectiveness of its policies and actions to reduce the dissemination of false or misleading content related to reproductive health care. The Company has taken steps to address concerns regarding the accuracy of the information it provides to user queries on abortion. The Company has updated its policy to more clearly label abortion providers and facilities that do not offer abortion services. It also discloses details about the certification process advertisers must undergo before the Company permits their ads to go to users requesting information on abortion services. Additionally, the Company states that it will remove content that violates its policies and discusses what happens to accounts that are in violation, including suspension after three strikes in its above-referenced disclosures.However, there are broader concerns with regard to the Company's management of misinformation and disinformation and the potential attendant impact on the Company's operations and finances. Reporting on the steps the Company is taking to mitigate risks associated with misinformation and disinformation could be warranted. Moreover, even allegations that the Company is spreading potential misinformation in the context described by this proposal could present potential reputational risks to the Company, which could lead to a loss of user trust and less user reliance on the Company's products.Ultimately, additional disclosure on potential risks for the Company in spreading misinformation and disinformation, including with regard to issues related to reproductive healthcare, could be beneficial to shareholders. | Shareholder Proposal Regarding Amendment to Committee Charter to Require Oversight of AI | Zustimmung | The Company provides a broad range of disclosure related to its use of AI, discussing its responsible AI practices in a manner that allows shareholders to fully comprehend how the Company is considering these matters. Moreover, given this proposal is not seeking to create a new oversight structure, but instead codifies the audit committee's responsibility over issues related to AI. | Shareholder Proposal Regarding Report on AI Misinformation and Disinformation | Zustimmung | There are significant risks posed to both the Company and society resulting from a failure to adequately ensure responsible AI practices. This is a relatively novel and highly dynamic technology that could undoubtedly lead to unintended consequences. Currently, the Company provides disclosure regarding its responsible use of AI as well as its efforts to address concerns of misinformation and disinformation in its AI products and services. It has also taken a number of steps to add safeguards to combat misinformation for global elections in 2024.This proposal specifically requests that the board prepare a report assessing the risks to the Company's operations and finances, and to public welfare, presented by the Company's role in facilitating misinformation and disinformation generated, disseminated, and/or amplified via generative artificial intelligence, as well as what steps the Company plans to take to remediate those risks and how it will measure the effectiveness of such efforts.Just as the technology is rapidly advancing, so are the attendant risks, and it is imperative that shareholders be given the tools necessary to fully understand the Company's risk exposure and how it is mitigating this exposure. Further, this proposal is precatory in nature (meaning that the board has wide latitude in what is included in this report) and also specifically carves out an omission of any information that is proprietary or legally privileged.Ultimately, the requested reporting would better allow shareholders more insight into potential financial risks related to misinformation and disinformation disseminated or generated via generative AI. Given the international attention to the issues of content management, including targeted advertising, the Company should take appropriate steps to mitigate any attendant risks to its operations. Inattention to this issue could lead to fines, lawsuits, or other governmental intervention.Shareholders would be better served by an independent review of how the Company is managing these issues. | Shareholder Proposal Regarding Targets and Report on Child Safety Impacts | Zustimmung | There us complexity inherent in managing issues as complex as child safety and the distribution of child exploitative content for a company with diverse business operations, such as the Company. At the same time, recent regulations have increased the level of legal and reputational risk related to this issue. Further, numerous investigations by the media have demonstrated the wide extent of this problem on the platforms maintained by the largest tech companies, including the Company. As such, management of this issue is of critical importance for companies involved in the distribution of digital media and messaging over the internet.In this case, the Company provides ample disclosure about its efforts and technologies to fight child exploitation, including recent updates and enhancements to its efforts. | Advisory Vote on Executive Compensation | Ablehnung | The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. However:The Company has failed to link pay with performance.The Company has failed to implement executive stock ownership guidelines.The Company has failed to implement performance-based incentive plan.Compensation is not linked to materially significant ESG indicator.The board can grant discretionary bonuses.It should be further noted that the Company's language around its granting cycles are vague at best, raising concerns over the rationale for a given equity grant on a given year. While the importance of comparing realized pay is elevated for the Company, the "periodic" granting feature of the compensation program structure obfuscates the ability to evaluate relative granted pay levels. Additionally, the Company continues to simply note that Mr. Jassy's 2021 mega-grant is intended to represent "most" of his compensation in the "coming years."As this is not entirely in line with policy, we are voting against this proposal. |
| Shareholder Proposal Regarding Formation of Public Policy Committee | Ablehnung | The proponent is requesting that the Company establish a public policy committee that would assist the board in overseeing "public policy issues including human rights, corporate social responsibility, diversity, equity, inclusion, climate pledge, renewable energy, net-zero carbon shipment, vendor chain management, charitable giving, political activities and expenditures, governmental regulations, international relations, unionization and other public issues that affect Amazon's operations, performance, public reputation, and shareholders' value." However, it appears that these matters are either implicitly or explicitly already under the remit of the board's standing committees. Consequently, we are voting against this proposal. |

| Shareholder Proposal Regarding Formation of Corporate Financial Sustainability Committee and Public Report | Ablehnung | It should be noted that the proponent of this proposal is the National Center for Public Policy Research ("NCPPR"). NCPPR has a history of submitting shareholder proposals that, upon first impression, appear consistent with environmental and social proposals that call for information or action on enhancing companies' approaches to environmental and social factors but, upon further review, appear to be designed to inhibit companies' actions in such areas. The NCPPR describes itself as a "communications and research foundation supportive of a strong national defense and dedicated to providing free-market solutions to today's public policy problems" that believes "the principles of a free market, individual liberty and personal responsibility provide the greatest hope for meeting the challenges facing America in the 21st century." A division of the NCPPR, the Free Enterprise Project, routinely engages companies on issues such as healthcare, immigration, gun rights, energy, taxes, religious freedom, media bias, corporate free speech, and ideological diversity, among other issues, often by questioning executives at annual meetings or through the submission of shareholder proposals.The proponent has also failed to demonstrate that adoption of this proposal is necessary to ensure that the Company properly mitigates the risks associated with financial sustainability issues, particularly given the oversight already afforded to these issues, as outlined by the Company. Moreover, this proposal has been labeled as "Anti-ESG" due to the shareholder proponent. These proponents have generally submitted proposals that address environmental and social issues and their aims are fairly clearly articulated in their supporting statements. We are concerned that support for this resolution would buoy the proponents arguments and would advance a narrative that may contradict that of investors concerned about companies ESG performance. As a result, we are voting against this proposal. |

| Shareholder Proposal Regarding Report on Customer Due Diligence | Zustimmung | There are significant civil and human rights risks regarding the Company's surveillance and computer vision products, cloud-based services technology, and its other AI-related products and services, as well as that the Company's exposure to such risks is dependent on the use of the technology by its customers. It is worth noting that the Company has shown some responsiveness to these issues by sunsetting Ring's Request for Assistance tool, so public safety agencies can no longer use the Request for Assistance tool to receive videos through the app. Moreover, NYU's Policing Project undertook a civil rights and civil liberties audit in 2021 on Ring's Neighbors app. While this latter audit assesses the "potential harms of Ring's products and services and make[s] recommendations to mitigate those risks," it does not appear to get to the heart of this proposal, which is focusing on the Company's customer due diligence for the use of these products.Moreover, as demands for increased transparency are generally in line with the basic policy requirements, we are voting for this proposal. |
| Shareholder Proposal Regarding Lobbying Report | Zustimmung | Given the nature of the Company's membership in trade organizations, disclosure of indirect lobbying expenditures made with corporate funds may prove to be time-consuming and difficult. However, examining the use of such indirect contributions is essential to determining the effectiveness of the organization in representing the Company's and its shareholders' interests.However, the Company has not provided sufficiently accessible information regarding its lobbying activities. Moreover, the Company could reasonably improve its disclosure of lobbying and political contributions, particularly with regard to payments it made to trade associations, and including the portion used for non-deductible purposes.As a result, we are voting for this proposal. |
| Shareholder Proposal Regarding Median Gender and Racial Pay Equity Report | Zustimmung | Requests for disclosure of a company's median gender and racial pay gap are in line with policy. Therefore, we are supporting this proposal. |

| Shareholder Proposal Regarding  Report on Board Oversight of Discrimination | Ablehnung | In this case, the proponent of the proposal is an anti-ESG proponent, the American Family Association, which describes itself as being 'on the front lines of America's culture war.'  Currently, it states that it is 'one of the largest and most effective pro-family organizations in the country.' The AFA states that its mission is to 'inform, equip, and activate individuals and families to transform American culture and give aid to the church, here and abroad, in its calling to fulfill the Great Commission,' and lists the following as its values: (i) evangelism and discipleship; (ii) marriage and family; (iii) sanctity of human life; (iv) stewardship; (v) religious liberty. Moreover, the Company has provided adequate disclosure regarding its oversight of issues related to diversity, inclusion, and belonging efforts and practices as well as its anti-discrimination efforts. Therefore, we are voting against this proposal. |
| Shareholder Proposal Regarding Just Transition Reporting | Zustimmung | This proposal requests that the Company prepare a report disclosing how it is addressing the impact of its climate change strategy on relevant stakeholders, including but not limited to its employees, workers in its supply chain, and communities in which it operates, consistent with the Just Transition guidelines of the International Labor Organization and indicators of the World Benchmarking Association.Ultimately, the Company's disclosure concerning this matter could be reasonably enhanced and that support for this resolution would serve to encourage such disclosures. Moreover, such disclosure could place the Company at a competitive advantage with respect to attracting and retaining employees. Ensuring these employees' well-being could set the Company apart from others who have not undertaken or are contemplating and publicly reporting plans concerning this matter.As demands for increased transparency are generally in line with the basic policy requirements, we are voting for this proposal. |
| Shareholder Proposal Regarding Report on Plastic Packaging | Zustimmung | This proposal requests that the Company issue a report providing the factual basis for the legitimacy of all recyclable claims made on plastic packaging. It also requests that the report include substantiation required by California law that must be made available to the public on request, including that plastic packaging labeled as recyclable meets all of the criteria for statewide recyclability. Proposals requesting increased transparency on how a company is managing environment related risks are in line with policy. Therefore, we are voting for this proposal. |

| Shareholder Proposal Regarding Third-Party Assessment of Freedom of Association | Zustimmung | This proposal requests that the Company commission an independent, third-party assessment of the Company's adherence to its stated commitment to workers' freedom of association and collective bargaining rights as outlined in its Global Human Rights Principles, which explicitly reference the Core Conventions of the International Labour Organization and the ILO Declaration on Fundamental Principles and Rights at Work.Given the recent claims and interventions by the NLRB, there are significant concerns regarding the Company's management of human capital and the protections it says it affords to workers via its human rights policies. Undertaking the requested assessment would better allow shareholders to understand the management of this issue and what steps the Company is taking to ensure workers' rights are protected. It could also provide the Company with useful information that assists it in better mitigating human capital management-related risks.Given that increased disclosure on how a company is managing human capital management related risks is in line with policy, we are voting for this proposal. |
| Shareholder Proposal Regarding Disclosure of Material Scope 3 Emissions | Zustimmung | This proposal requests that the Company disclose all material Scope 3 greenhouse gas emissions. Currently, the Company discloses Scope 3 emissions, including breakdowns by category, with its 2022 carbon footprint and states that in 2022, Scope 3 emissions went down by 0.7%, despite its year-over-year growth. It also specifically addresses the difficulties of Scope 3 reporting and notes that it will update its Supply Chain Standards to require suppliers to share their carbon emissions data with the Company, including setting goals to reduce emissions as they work together to serve their customers.Despite efforts made by the Company thus far, requests for increased transparency around GHG emissions are generally in line with the basic policy requirements. As a result, we are voting for this proposal. |
| Shareholder Proposal Regarding the Human Rights Impacts of Facial Recognition Technology | Zustimmung | There are significant civil and human rights risks regarding the Company's facial recognition technology and that the Company's exposure to such risks is dependent on the use of the technology by its AWS customers.Additional disclosure is warranted concerning how the Company is mitigating the risks of violations of human and civil rights, as well as the financial and operational risks associated with Rekognition's impact on these rights. In addition, as demands for increased transparency are generally in line with the basic policy requirements, we are voting for this proposal. |

| Shareholder Proposal Regarding Disclosure of Director Donations | Ablehnung | It should be noted that the proponent of this proposal is the National Legal and Policy Center ("NLPC"), which has submitted shareholder proposals that, upon first impression, appear to be consistent with environmental and social proposals that call for information or action on enhancing companies' approaches to environmental and social factors but, upon further review, appear to be designed to inhibit companies' actions in such areas. The NLPC describes itself as a 501(c)(3) that "promotes ethics in public life through research, investigation, education, and legal action," and believes "the best way to promote ethics is to reduce the size of government." As part of the corporate integrity project on its website, the NLPC shares its concerns regarding "woke" corporate executives, for instance posting articles about inclusive content "devaluing" the Pixar franchise or about how the NLPC has reported Visa's chair and CEO to the SEC for ongoing "wokeness." The project also examines a supposed pushback against ESG initiatives, featuring pieces such as one describing corporate America's anti-racism programs as racist against white people and another promoting the NLPC's efforts to nominate a fossil-fuel-supporting director candidate to the board of Exxon Mobil Corporation.Generally, companies should provide sufficient disclosure to allow them to understand any potential risks associated with corporate expenditures on issues such as political or charitable contributions. As these contributions are made on behalf of the Company, using shareholders' funds, such disclosure is generally appropriate. This proposal, however, does not deal with the use of corporate funds. Rather, it is requesting that directors divulge information about personal expenditures, made in their own names with their own money. The proponent has also failed to provide sufficient rationale to require directors to provide this level of disclosure concerning their personal spending.This proposal has also been labeled as "Anti-ESG" due to the shareholder proponent. These proponents have generally submitted proposals that address environmental and social issues and their aims are fairly clearly articulated in their supporting statements. Support for this resolution could buoy the proponents arguments and would advance a narrative that may contradict that of investors concerned about companies ESG performance. As a result, we are voting against this proposal. |

| Shareholder Proposal Regarding Formation of Artificial Intelligence Committee | Ablehnung | There are significant risks posed to both the Company and society resulting from a failure to adequately ensure responsible AI practices. This is a relatively novel and highly dynamic technology that could undoubtedly lead to unintended consequences.  Accordingly, the Company should ensure that it is responsive to the changing regulatory and legal landscape governing this issue.The Company states that the board and its committees oversee risks associated with artificial intelligence and machine learning, including emerging technologies like generative artificial intelligence, foundation models, and artificial general intelligence. At this time, the Company's existing structures provide for appropriate levels of board oversight of AI-related risks. The Company also maintains an AWS Responsible AI Policy and provides a range of resources and tools for how to responsibly use its AI and machine learning products and services. Further, the Company has engaged with regulators in the U.S. and UK and has also collaborated in methodologies to promote the development of trustworthy AI and its responsible use.There, as it appears that these matters are either implicitly or explicitly already under the remit of the board's standing committees, adoption of this proposal appears unnecessary. As a result, we are voting against this proposal. |
| Shareholder Proposal Regarding Report on Working Conditions | Zustimmung | There are very significant concerns with regard to the Company's record of worker health and safety. An inattention to these issues can result in adverse, bottom-line impacts on companies and their shareholders. Companies that do not provide appropriate working conditions can face regulatory action, legal fines, reputational harm, high turnover, and problems attracting workers. All of these have the very real potential of significantly harming the Company and its shareholders.The Company has faced a number of fines, inquiries and adverse media attention on account of the working conditions of its employees, particularly those in the Company's warehouses. These concerns were only exacerbated by the COVID-19 pandemic, which not only increased demand for the Company's products but also presented more significant risks for its employees, which we are not convinced were mitigated to the extent necessary.This requested audit could provide some assurance to shareholders that the working conditions are being evaluated by an independent third-party, which is especially critical at this time given the allegations of anti-union behavior, as detailed in Proposal 12. Accordingly, this proposal is appropriately crafted and as demands for increased transparency are generally in line with the basic policy requirements, we are voting for this proposal. |

| Allocation of Profits/ Dividends | Zustimmung | A proposed dividend allocation should be comparable to industry peers and should mirror the financial health of the company. In principle, an acceptable pay-out ratio should be above 20 percent and below 100 percent. The company's aggregate pay-out ratio for the fiscal year is in an acceptable range. Given this, we are voting for this proposal. |

The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. The board stated that the increase was determined upon a benchmarking review, in order to align the new CEO's remuneration to the median of of FTSE Mid Cap companies, and more specifically of financial services entities. In addition, under the 2024 remuneration policy, the board is reviewing the maximum pay opportunity under the new 2024-2026 LTIP, which will be set at 340% of base salary for the CEO (based on the Company's share price of ¬4.24 recorded on February 26, 2024). This will represent a decrease of 20.9% in comparison to the maximum opportunity under the 2021-2023 LTI plan (430% of the CEO's base salary), which will partially offset the increase in base salary. As a result, the increase in total pay at maximum opportunity will amount to 11%. Further, the fixed to variable pay ratio for the CEO in 2024 will remain overall aligned with the 2023 pay mix.Consequently, we are voting for this proposal. |

| Amendments to Articles | Ablehnung | In this case, it should be noted, that the amendment to Article 10 would authorize the Company for the participation and voting for each general shareholder meeting even exclusively by electronic means, in line with applicable legal and regulatory provisions. It should be also noted that in Italy the process to submit questions is regulated by article 127 ter of the Consolidated Law of Finance, stating that companies have to answer questions submitted before the AGM at the latest during the AGM. The term for submission of questions is indicated on the notice of meeting, and cannot be earlier than five working days before the meeting, or seven if the meeting convocation determines that the company will provide answers before the AGM - in which case, answers have to be provided at least two days before the meeting.Further, the Company has chosen to bundle several amendments into one proposal. | Shareholder Proposal Regarding EEO Policy Risk Report | Ablehnung | It should be noted that the proponent of this proposal is the National Center for Public Policy Research ("NCPPR"). NCPPR has a history of submitting shareholder proposals that, upon first impression, appear consistent with environmental and social proposals that call for information or action on enhancing companies' approaches to environmental and social factors but, upon further review, appear to be designed to inhibit companies' actions in such areas. The NCPPR describes itself as a "communications and research foundation supportive of a strong national defense and dedicated to providing free-market solutions to today's public policy problems" that believes "the principles of a free market, individual liberty and personal responsibility provide the greatest hope for meeting the challenges facing America in the 21st century." A division of the NCPPR, the Free Enterprise Project, routinely engages companies on issues such as healthcare, immigration, gun rights, energy, taxes, religious freedom, media bias, corporate free speech, and ideological diversity, among other issues, often by questioning executives at annual meetings or through the submission of shareholder proposals.In this case, the proponent has failed to clearly articulate why the Company's approach to or policies regarding nondiscrimination threaten shareholder value. Accordingly, we are voting against this proposal. |

| Shareholder Proposal Regarding Congruency Report on Privacy and Human Rights Policies | Ablehnung | It should be noted that the proponent of this proposal is the National Legal and Policy Center ("NLPC"), which has submitted shareholder proposals that, upon first impression, appear to be consistent with environmental and social proposals that call for information or action on enhancing companies' approaches to environmental and social factors but, upon further review, appear to be designed to inhibit companies' actions in such areas. The NLPC describes itself as a 501(c)(3) that "promotes ethics in public life through research, investigation, education, and legal action," and believes "the best way to promote ethics is to reduce the size of government." As part of the corporate integrity project on its website, the NLPC shares its concerns regarding "woke" corporate executives, for instance posting articles about inclusive content "devaluing" the Pixar franchise or about how the NLPC has reported Visa's chair and CEO to the SEC for ongoing "wokeness." The project also examines a supposed pushback against ESG initiatives, featuring pieces such as one describing corporate America's anti-racism programs as racist against white people and another promoting the NLPC's efforts to nominate a fossil-fuel-supporting director candidate to the board of Exxon Mobil Corporation.This proposal has been labeled as "Anti-ESG" due to the shareholder proponent. These proponents have generally submitted proposals that address environmental and social issues and their aims are fairly clearly articulated in their supporting statements. There is concern that support for this resolution would buoy the proponents arguments and would advance a narrative that may contradict that of investors concerned about companies ESG performance. Moreover,  the proponent has failed to provide sufficiently compelling evidence that the Company's current policies, procedures, or practices with respect to human rights represent an imminent threat to shareholder value. As a result, we are voting against this proposal. |

| Elect Matthew L. Trerotola | Ablehnung | There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualification and suitability of nominee Matthew L. Trerotola. | Advisory Vote on Executive Compensation | Ablehnung | The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. However:Severance package payments are not limited to a maximum of two-years` salary.The clawback policy is restatement-dependent only.The board can grant discretionary bonuses. The Company provided discretionary bonuses to its executives, noting the rebound in stock price performance and overall financial performance. However, the awards are not hugely concerning due to their size relative to overall compensation levels.Compensation is not linked to materially significant ESG indicator.The remuneration structure allows for adjusted awards.As this is against policy, we are voting against this proposal. |

| Allocation of Profits/ Dividends | Zustimmung | A proposed dividend allocation should be comparable to industry peers and should mirror the financial health of the company. In principle, an acceptable pay-out ratio should be above 20 percent and below 100 percent. The company's aggregate pay-out ratio for the fiscal year is in an acceptable range. Given this, we are voting for this proposal. |
| Amendments to Articles | Zustimmung | In this case, there`s no cause for shareholder concern regarding the proposed amendments. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal. |
| Elect Kiyoshi Yokoyama | Ablehnung | There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualification and suitability of nominee Kiyoshi Yokoyama. | Bonus | Ablehnung | The Company has failed to disclose a clear description of relevant performance hurdles and measurements, if any, that were used in determining the size of the bonus, which is not in line with policy. Moreover, this would allow  bonus payments and other performance-based short-term incentives to outside directors the all statutory auditors. Additionally, the Company recorded three fatalities in FY2022/23 (two employees and one contractor) and four fatalities in FY2021/22 (one employee and three contractors).In this case, while the committee states that outcomes were appropriate in the context of the wider stakeholder experience, it is unclear whether employee and contractor fatalities were considered as part of this assessment. Absent greater transparency in this regard, particularly in the context of the Company's recent safety record and use of upward discretion to increase FY2023/24 bonus awards, this should be considered critical.As this is against policy, we are voting against this proposal. |

| Iberdrola Transaction | Zustimmung | The proposed transaction is heavily shaded by Avangrid's existing relationship with IBE, which has maintained a dominant ownership position in the Company since 2008, and has held at least an 81.5% ownership stake in Avangrid since the Company's 2015 combination with UIL Holdings Corporation ("UIL"). While this framework already steeply limits the practical ability of Avangrid to pursue and execute material strategic alternatives not otherwise endorsed by IBE, it should be further recognized that, in connection with negotiations leading to the current arrangement, IBE quickly and expressly indicated it would not be willing to divest its interest in the Company.It should be noted that the principal practicable alternative available to Avangrid would be rejecting the contemplated arrangement with IBE in favor of pursuing stand-alone operations. The Company does offer certain relevant considerations there, including the fact that material capital investments - many of which are, as a function of applicable regulation, obligatory - will be required through 2030. The board anticipates these investments may, on a stand-alone basis, compel Avangrid to pursue near-term, dilutive equity issuances, capital rotations or partnerships and/or a reduction in or elimination of the Company's current dividend. These perspectives offer relevant context for minority investors.As to quantitative considerations, the special committee retained Moelis & Company LLC ("Moelis") to serve as an external financial adviser and render an opinion as to the fairness of the proposed consideration to Avangrid and its unaffiliated investors. The adviser completed, but did not rely upon, a review of certain precedent transactions, noting, among other things, that IBE already holds a dominant interest in Avangrid, and would thus not be expected to pay a premium for control here. Moelis' primary analyses indicate: (i) Avangrid, which closed at $32.08 prior to announcement, was generally trading in line with certain assessments of minority basis intrinsic value prior to publication of IBE's interest; and (ii) the proposed consideration offers an incremental market premium to Avangrid investors which nevertheless remains consistent with the absence of a change of control.Given the balance of presented factors, including a pre-execution process with suitable procedural safeguards, noted standalone capital raising and allocation concerns and what is, on balance and with reference to IBE's control position, a reasonable cash consideration, there presently exists adequate cause for investor support at this time. Therefore, we are voting for this proposal. |

| Approval of the Company's Climate-related Financial Disclosure | Zustimmung | In this case, the Company has clearly articulated that shareholders will only be voting on its climate-related reporting, which appears strikes the right balance between allowing shareholders to voice concerns or support for a company's climate strategies and considerations and ensuring the board can be held accountable for its ultimate climate strategy. Moreover, the TCFD-aligned disclosures contain emissions information that has been independently assured (pp.73-80) and it states that it is seeking to reduce the carbon emissions in its operations, across supply chain, and through investments and insurance underwriting propositions as part of its ambition to be net zero by 2040 (p.3). Additionally, the Company has aligned its near-term target and has committed to aligning its net zero target, both of which are certified by SBTi.Having reviewed the circumstances at the Company, shareholder support for this proposal appears to be warranted at this time. The Company has provided thorough information concerning its climate-related considerations and provided shareholders with a basis to understand how it is managing its climate-related risks and opportunities. Accordingly, we are voting for this proposal. |
| Final Dividend | Zustimmung | A proposed dividend allocation should be comparable to industry peers and should mirror the financial health of the company. In principle, an acceptable pay-out ratio should be above 20 percent and below 100 percent. The company's aggregate pay-out ratio for the fiscal year is in an acceptable range. Given this, we are voting for this proposal. |

| Amendments to Articles | Zustimmung | It should be noted that the Company has chosen to bundle several amendments into one proposal. While the amendment to Article 43 improves shareholders rights, unfortunatelly, the Company added a clause to Article 185 (Previously Article 215) "If the payment for the merger of the companies does not exceed 10% of its net assets, a resolution of the shareholders' meeting is not required for the merger."Ultimately, a case-by-case decision should be made here. | Allocation of Profits/ Dividends | Zustimmung | A proposed dividend allocation should be comparable to industry peers and should mirror the financial health of the company. Given this, we are voting for this proposal. |

| Appointment of Statutory Auditor and of Auditor for Sustainability Reporting (EY); Non-Renewal of Auditors; Non-Renewal of Alternate Auditors | Zustimmung | Firstly, the decision not to renew the Company's alternate auditor relates to the removal of the requirement to appoint an alternate auditor when the statutory auditor is an audit firm, following the passage into law of Loi Sapin II.As a result, companies are no longer required to appoint an alternate auditor to replace the statutory auditor in case of the death, early retirement, dismissal or resignation of the regular statutory auditor, when the statutory auditor is an audit firm, rather than a natural person, or an audit firm with only one auditor. | Authority to Issue Shares and Convertible Debt w/o Preemptive Rights | Ablehnung | In this case, the board will be authorised to potentially issue up to 9.8% of the Company`s current issued share capital without preemptive rights, subject to a cumulative limit of 39.9% for all share issuances. As the global ceiling exceeds the cumulative limit for all share issuances set by policy, we are voting against this proposal. |
| Authority to Increase Capital in Consideration for Contributions In Kind | Ablehnung | In this case, the board will be authorised to potentially issue up to 10% of the Company`s current issued share capital without preemptive rights, subject to a cumulative limit of 39.9% for all share issuances. As the global ceiling exceeds the cumulative limit for all share issuances set by policy, we are voting against this proposal. |
| Global Ceiling on Capital Increases | Zustimmung | In general, the setting of global limits for issuances should be viewed in a positive fashion, as it serves as an additional level of protection for shareholders' interests, by minimizing the potentially significant dilution of a series of issuance requests to a fixed level. If approved this authority would represent a potential cumulative increase for share issuances without preemptive rights of 9.8%, which is in line with policy. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal. |
| Authority to Increase Capital Through Capitalisations | Zustimmung | The successive or simultaneous capitalisation of reserves, retained earnings or additional paid-in capital would benefit shareholders by allowing the Company to increase paid-in capital through a series of alternatives, above and beyond the issuance of shares. Moreover, when companies capitalize reserves, retained earnings or paid-in capital, there is no risk of dilution. This procedure merely transfers wealth to shareholders and does not impact share value. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal. |

| Authority to Grant Super-Subordinated Convertible Bonds (Contingent Capital) Through Private Placement | Ablehnung | The Company proposes to transform the write-down clause in its AT1 issuances into a conversion clause to allow the Company to issue AT1s in US currency. Under the proposed authority, super-subordinated convertible bonds would convert automatically into equity capital only in case the Company's capital ratio falls below a specific regulatory threshold. However, the issuance of AT1s will not cause dilution to existing ordinary shareholders unless a trigger event causes them to be converted into equity. Nonetheless, the proposed authorization is subject to the cumulative limit of 39.9% of share capital for all share issuances, as proposed at this AGM, which is not in line with policy. Therefore, we are voting against this proposal. |

| Allocation of Dividends | Zustimmung | A proposed dividend allocation should be comparable to industry peers and should mirror the financial health of the company. Given this, we are voting for this proposal. |

| Amendment to Remuneration Policy | Ablehnung | The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. However:The Company has disclosed its intention to raise fixed salaries in FY2024. The new CEO's base salary will be set at ¬1,500,000, which represents a 25% premium to his predecessor's base salary (¬1,200,000). Further, the new CEO will also receive ¬90,000 as board fees (previously ¬75,000). Although the proposed increases will be made following a benchmarking review, in this case, the new CEO's salary will be approximately 26% higher than chief executive's fixed remuneration at the Company's market peers, while positioning 11% below salary levels for European Banks (on average approximately ¬1.19 and ¬1.68 million, respectively, in FY2023).In general, the size of potential STI awards exceeds the LTI awards. The size of the compounded increase proposed to both base salary and STI maximum opportunity for the new CEO, which will be approximately 58% higher than the partial realisable pay of his predecessor (base salary plus STI only) should be of concern. Moreover, it should be noted that the STI maximum opportunity for the former CEO had already been increased by 31% in FY2022, from 45% to 59% of base salary.As this is not entirely in line with policy, we are voting against this proposal. |
| Amendment to 2022-2025 Long-Term Incentive Plan | Ablehnung | Remuneration plans should be adequately disclosed and should reward executives for good performance. According to policy, dilution for all compensation plans should be no higher than 10% of share capital.While the proposed dilution is within policy limits, it should be noted that some of the changes to the plan regulations should be questioned here. Specifically, Gianni Franco Papa, the new CEO who was elected at the AGM held on April 19, 2024, is entitled to pro-rata awards that, based on the Company's disclosure, appear to be largely guaranteed. Further, the Company is including the natural end of mandate among good leaver circumstances for maintaining pro-rated rights to STI and LTI awards without justification.As this is not entirely in line with policy, we are voting against this proposal. |

Given this, we are voting for this proposal. |

| Issuance of Shares w/o Preemptive Rights | Ablehnung | In this case, the board will be authorised to potentially issue up to 19.5% of the Company`s current issued share capital without preemptive rights, which exceeds the limit set by policy. However, it should be noted that the shares will be issued specifically to facilitate the scrip-for-scrip share swap and the tender offer launched for up to 100% of the shares of Banco Sabadell S.A.Overall, the proposal appears to be transparent and as such, there are no immediate goverance concerns which could be linked to a violation of the guidelines. Ultimately, a case-by-case decision should be made here, as it is a transaction of great significance and cannot be measured solely by governance aspects or policy elements. Therefore, the proposal should at least be critically scrutinised. Thus, the recommendation is "AGAINST" with reference to "ABSTAIN". |

The members of the remuneration committee have the responsibility of reviewing all aspects of the remuneration program for the Company's executive officers. Further, the Company has not provided any rationale for the discretionary award and this is the fourth year that the Company has awarded the CEO with a discretionary bonus, which is concerning. As chair of the remuneration committee, we are holding this director responsible.In addition, the policy requires the compensation committee chair to be independent.Moreover, as the compensation committee does not comprise an adequate number of independent members, we are voting against all insider and affiliated directors on this committee. Consequently, we are voting against the re-election of Peter Rothschild and David Dangoor. |
| Appointment of Auditor | Ablehnung | There is no indication of any investigations or pending court cases pertaining to the auditor. It should be noted that the law requires rotation of the lead auditor after seven years. However, as per market practice the company does not publish for how long lead auditor has already been in office. Consequently, we are voting against this proposal. |
| Approval of Nomination Committee Guidelines | Zustimmung | The nomination committee allows shareholder representatives to make recommendations regarding the election and compensation of directors and auditors. This is a routine item on the agenda. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal. |

| Adoption of the 2024 New Share Option Scheme | Ablehnung | While the proposed dilution is in line with policy, the following issues should be noted:Range of Participants: The scheme allows the grant of share options to a broad range of participants, such as any independent contractor, consultants, agents, advisers, distributors and service providers of the Group. Options should be granted as a form of compensation to people who directly contribute to the company`s operations and/or performance and should serve to encourage the grantees to protect and improve shareholder value. As such, it is appropriate for executive directors and employees to be the sole recipients of these awards. Given the current broad range of participants allowed under the proposed scheme, the board may abuse its authority and serve its own interests by granting options to a party of the Company who has an affiliation with the board or the Company.However, in this case regarding the eligibility of Service Providers, the board will consider factors including but not limited to the materiality and nature of the business relationship with the Group (e.g. whether they relate to the core business of the Group and whether such business dealings could be readily replaced).Change of Control Provision: The rules of the Scheme includes a provision that provides for accelerated vesting of options, to the extent vested and not already exercised, if the Company changes control. This provision may discourage potential buyers from making an offer for the Company both because the purchase price will be higher and because substantial numbers of employees may earn significant amounts of money and decide to leave their positions with the Company. In short, this sort of provision may not only lower the chances of a deal, but will possibly also lower the premium paid to shareholders in a takeover transaction.Short Vesting Period: There is one year minimum vesting period for awards granted under the scheme. A minimum vesting period of at least two years, if not longer, better align shareholders' interests with those of the management when determining equity-based awards. This is as long-term vesting periods serve to incentivize participants to manage long-term performance, noting that risk-taking in one year may have consequences to shareholder value which do not emerge until years later. Where a company chooses to have a short vesting period ! or no vesting |

| Amendment to Advance Notice Provisions | Zustimmung | Advance notice provisions and related disclosure requirements are commonplace at public companies. Notably, in November 2021, the SEC adopted rules to require the use of universal proxy cards by management and shareholders soliciting proxy votes for their own candidates in contested director elections. These requirements became effective for all shareholder meetings involving a director election from August 31, 2022. In response, numerous companies amended their bylaws to ensure compliance with the new rules as well as to adjust the requirements of their advance notice provisions. The Company has submitted such adjustments to shareholders for approval.In this case, the board proposed provisions are in addition to the Company's already existent advance notice provisions. Further, following review, none of the Company's new requirements are unduly burdensome or unreasonable; indeed, they are in line with the large wave of advance notice provisions that have been adopted by companies in the wake of the effectiveness of universal proxy rules, the vast majority of which have been unilaterally adopted by boards and not submitted to shareholders for approval.As a result, we are voting for this proposal. |

For FY2023, a total of RMB360,000 was paid as bonus to independent directors (average of RMB90,000 per director). | Appointment of Auditor | Zustimmung | There is no indication of any investigations or pending court cases pertaining to the auditor. Moreover, the fees paid to the auditor are appropriate and are clearly disclosed by the Company. However, as per US market practice, the lead auditor`s name and tenure has not been disclosed in the company's proxy materials or annual report. The aforementioned notwithstanding, and as stipulated by Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002/Title II, "It shall be unlawful for a registered public accounting firm to provide audit services to an issuer if the lead (or coordinating) audit partner (having primary responsibility for the audit), or the audit partner responsible for reviewing the audit, has performed audit services for that issuer in each of the 5 previous fiscal years of that issuer."In spite of this, we are voting for this proposal. |
| Authority to Set Auditor's Fees | Zustimmung | The fees paid to the auditor are appropriate and are clearly disclosed by the Company. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal. |
| Authority to Issue Shares w/ Preemptive Rights | Ablehnung | In this case, the board will be authorised to potentially issue up to 20% of the Company`s current issued share capital with preemptive rights, which, if considered cumulatively with the authorization in Proposal 5, exceeds the limit set by policy. Consequently, we are voting against this proposal. |
| Authority to Issue Shares w/ o Preemptive Rights | Ablehnung | In this case, the board will be authorised to potentially issue up to 20% of the Company`s current issued share capital without preemptive rights, which, if considered cumulatively with the authorization in Proposals 4, exceeds the limit set by policy. Consequently, we are voting against this proposal. |
| Authority to Repurchase Shares | Zustimmung | At this time, there is no evidence of any past abuse of this type of authority at the company. Consequently, as these authorizations are within the recommended thresholds, we are voting for this proposal. |
| Authority to Set Price Range for Reissuance of Treasury Shares | Zustimmung | The authority to sell treasury shares will provide the Company with the flexibility to finance operations and pursue business opportunities. Requiring that such shares be issued at 95% to 120% of the average market price will limit potential dilution to current shareholders. As such this proposal does not violate policy. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal. |

| Elect CAI Dongchen | Ablehnung | There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualifications of nominee CAI Dongchen. However, as the board of directors does not have sufficient gender diversity, we are voting against all male directors. Further, as the board of directors and the nominating committee do not comprise an adequate number of independent members, we are voting against all insider and affiliated directors. In addition, this director is the chair of the board and the Company's human rights policy does not align with UDHR or ILO, which is not in line with policy. Moreover, executive board members must not be 70 or older at the end of their terms. Consequently, we are opposing this director`s election. |

| Authority to Grant Options Under share Option Scheme | Ablehnung | While the proposed dilution is in line with policy, the following issues should be noted:Performance Targets: The awards granted under the Scheme are not linked to any performance targets. Further, a lack of performance targets for stock option plans is common in this market.Range of Participants: The scheme allows the grant of share options to a broad range of participants, such as any customer, supplier, consultant or advisor of the Group. Options should be granted as a form of compensation to people who directly contribute to the company`s operations and/or performance and should serve to encourage the grantees to protect and improve shareholder value. As such, it is appropriate for executive directors and employees to be the sole recipients of these awards. Given the current broad range of participants allowed under the proposed scheme, the board may abuse its authority and serve its own interests by granting options to a party of the Company who has an affiliation with the board or the Company.Change of Control Provision: The rules of the Scheme includes a provision that provides for accelerated vesting of options, to the extent vested and not already exercised, if the Company changes control. This provision may discourage potential buyers from making an offer for the Company both because the purchase price will be higher and because substantial numbers of employees may earn significant amounts of money and decide to leave their positions with the Company. In short, this sort of provision may not only lower the chances of a deal, but will possibly also lower the premium paid to shareholders in a takeover transaction.No Minimum Vesting Period: There is no minimum vesting period for awards granted under the scheme. A minimum vesting period of at least two years, if not longer, better align shareholders' interests with those of the management when determining equity-based awards. This is as long-term vesting periods serve to incentivize participants to manage long-term performance, noting that risk-taking in one year may have consequences to shareholder value which do not emerge until years later. Where a company chooses to have a short vesting period ! or no vesting period ! for awards, the awards may vest prior to the consequences of risk-taking bears out, essentially becoming short-term guaranteed payments rather than acting as long-term incentivizing tools.As this is not entirely in line with policy, we are voting against this proposal. |

| Advisory Vote on Executive Compensation | Ablehnung | The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. However:Severance package payments are not limited to a maximum of two-years` salary.The remuneration structure allows for adjusted awards.The LTI does not include ESG criteriaThe cash incentive awards under the STI are largely discretionary.As this is against policy, we are voting against this proposal. |

| Shareholder Proposal Regarding GHG Targets and Alignment with the Paris Agreement | Zustimmung | In response to this proposal, the Company states that it engaged with a third party in 2022 to better understand the drivers and impact of its financed emissions. Further, it has also set certain Scope 1 and 3 targets (Categories 1-14) and is working to refine its methodologies, data and controls, and to identify the long-term processes and infrastructure required to support potential future disclosures of its financed emissions.Ultimately, such requests are in line with policy. As a resilt, we are voting for this proposal. |
| Shareholder Proposal Regarding Report on Civil Rights and Non-Discrimination | Ablehnung | It should be noted that the proponent of this proposal is the National Center for Public Policy Research ("NCPPR"). NCPPR has a history of submitting shareholder proposals that, upon first impression, appear consistent with environmental and social proposals that call for information or action on enhancing companies' approaches to environmental and social factors but, upon further review, appear to be designed to inhibit companies' actions in such areas. The NCPPR describes itself as a "communications and research foundation supportive of a strong national defense and dedicated to providing free-market solutions to today's public policy problems" that believes "the principles of a free market, individual liberty and personal responsibility provide the greatest hope for meeting the challenges facing America in the 21st century." A division of the NCPPR, the Free Enterprise Project, routinely engages companies on issues such as healthcare, immigration, gun rights, energy, taxes, religious freedom, media bias, corporate free speech, and ideological diversity, among other issues, often by questioning executives at annual meetings or through the submission of shareholder proposals.This proposal has been labeled as "Anti-ESG" due to the shareholder proponent. Moreover, the proponent has not provided a sufficiently compelling rationale as to why the Company should expend the potentially significant resources to undertake the requested audit. The proponent has not demonstrated why this matter should be addressed at the Company nor does it provide any rationale as to why diversity, or a lack of diversity, represents a significant issue for the Company or its industry. As a result, we are voting against this proposal. |
| Shareholder Proposal Regarding Mandatory Director Resignation Policy | Zustimmung | Adoption of the proposed policy would improve shareholders' rights by promoting board accountability and ensuring responsiveness to shareholder concerns. Moreover, the terms of this proposal are reasonable and could be adopted in such a manner that prevents a worst-case scenario should a director be required to depart from the board. Therefore, we are voting for this proposal. |

| Allocation of Profits/ Dividends | Zustimmung | A proposed dividend allocation should be comparable to industry peers and should mirror the financial health of the company. In principle, an acceptable pay-out ratio should be above 20 percent and below 100 percent. The company's aggregate pay-out ratio for the fiscal year is in an acceptable range. Given this, we are voting for this proposal. |

Consequently, we are voting for this proposal. |

| Partial Demerger | Zustimmung | Generally, pro rata spin-offs are a common alternative utilised by firms generally seeking to unlock additional value by creating two separate entities prospectively positioned to offer the market enhanced clarity relative to maintenance of the status quo. These arrangements are very frequently predicated upon splitting existing assets or businesses by geography, stage of development, growth profile or anticipated capital requirements. In principle, the resulting entities can thereafter pursue a more focused operational mandate better tailored to the prospects of each individual business, while potentially attracting additional investors not interested in the currently consolidated business mix.In this case, the arrangement will be completed on a pro rata basis, thereby ensuring the spin-off will be functionally non-dilutive to existing investors. Further, in terms of ensuring post-spin liquidity, the shares of Kalmar Corporation will be listed on Nasdaq Helsinki. As this does not violate policy, we are voting for this proposal. |
| Authority to Repurchase Shares | Zustimmung | At this time, there is no evidence of any past abuse of this type of authority at the company. Consequently, as these authorizations are within the recommended thresholds, we are voting for this proposal. |
| Authority to Issue Shares w/ or w/o Preemptive Rights | Zustimmung | In this case, the board will be authorised to issue up to 9.9% of the Company`s current issued share capital with or without preemptive rights, which is in line with policy. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal. |

Consequently, we are voting for this proposal. |
| 2023 Allocation of Profits/ Dividends | Zustimmung | A proposed dividend allocation should be comparable to industry peers and should mirror the financial health of the company. In principle, an acceptable pay-out ratio should be above 20 percent and below 100 percent. The company's aggregate pay-out ratio for the fiscal year is in an acceptable range. Given this, we are voting for this proposal. |
| Shareholder Proposal: Amendments to Articles | Zustimmung | The proposed changes do not violate policy. As a result, we are voting for this proposal. |
| Extraordinary Motions | Ablehnung | In Taiwan, many companies place an item for extraordinary motions on their proxy forms. However, shareholders of Taiwanese companies who vote via proxy technically may not exercise their voting rights preemptively for any extraordinary motions raised at the general meeting of shareholders. Instead, proxies have full authority to exercise their discretion in supporting or opposing any such motions.As granting unfettered discretion is not in line with policy, we are voting against this proposal. |

| Elect Yoshio Tamura | Zustimmung | There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualification and suitability of nominee Yoshio Tamura. Consequently, we are supporting this election. |
| Elect Yuji Sawada | Ablehnung | Nominee Yuji Sawada is the head of a law firm that provides legal services to the Company. The need for the Company to engage in consulting relationships with its directors should be questioned. Such relationships can potentially create conflicts for directors, as they may be forced to weigh their own interests in relation to shareholder interests when making board decisions. In addition, the Company's decision regarding where to turn for the best professional services may be compromised when doing business with a professional services firm represented by the Company's directors. Consequently, we are opposing the election of this nominee. |

| Amendments to Article 12 | Noch offen | In this case, the Company may determine that, at the shareholders' meetings, participation and voting rights can be exercised exclusively through the designated representative. | Amendments to Articles | Noch offen | In this case, the Article 13 will be amended to introduce a provision to enable the Company to convene and hold general meetings also exclusively through telecommunication means, without declaring a physical place in the notice of meeting, which is not entirely in line with policy.Moreover, in this case, the Company has bundled several amendments, some of which we support and one of which is not entirely in line with policy. Consequently, we are voting against this proposal. |
| Restatement of General Meeting Regulations | Noch offen | In this case, it should be noted that under Proposal 0010, the Company is seeking shareholder approval to convene general meetings through exclusive participation of a designated representative of shareholders holding proxies. Consequently, the possibility for shareholders to vote exclusively through the designated representative will also be introduced in the meeting regulations. As this is not entirely in line with policy, and given that we opposed Proposal 0010, we are voting against this proposal. |

| Compensation Terms of Incoming CEO | Ablehnung | There are reservations with the lack of basic disclosure of fundamental features of the new CEO's pay package. Notably, the Company does not disclose much information about its performance metrics, weightings or goals under either STIP or LTIP. Such disclosure is common practice among the Company's peer group of mostly U.S. companies, at minimum on a retrospective basis after the plans have run their course and commercial sensitivity is a weaker justification for non-disclosure.Although the proposal relates to the pay terms of the new CEO and given that this package improves upon -- by way of the PSU element -- the structure of the prior CEO's terms, while the quantum aligns with the median of the Company's peer group, the following issues are not in line with policy:The Company has failed to link pay with performance.Compensation is not linked to materially significant ESG indicator.The compensation components are not disclosed in detail.Less than at least 2 KPIs are used as performance LTI criteria.The Company has failed to disclose performance metrics.The remuneration structure allows for vesting of awards in under 3 yearsAs this is against policy, we are voting against this proposal. |

| Stock Option Grant of Executive Chair | Ablehnung | Remuneration plans should be adequately disclosed and should reward executives for good performance. According to policy, dilution for all compensation plans should be no higher than 10% of share capital.While the proposed dilution is within policy limits, it should be noted that the Company does not appear to utilize an objective, formula-based approach to setting compensation levels. Moreover, the proposed equity grants, which make up almost 100% of Mr. Shwed's annual compensation, are not tied to performance, but they are options carrying an exercise price. Moreover, Mr. Shwed currently holds 25% of the Company's shares, and thus he already has a vested interest in seeking long-term growth in share value. As such, the need to add to his share of the Company by way of regular equity grants, especially those not tied to performance metrics, should be questioned here. Also, the continued share buybacks may raise the ownership percentage of the shares tied to the chair's stock options proposed here. As aforementioned, the plan is not performance-based and as such is not tied to ESG metrics. As this is not in line with policy, we are voting against this proposal. |

| Election of Corporate Auditor | Ablehnung | As the Company failed to disclose its auditor`s report or to confirm whether its financial statements presented in the meeting circular were fully audited, we would normally vote against the members of the audit committee who are up for re-election this year.However, in this case, the Company is governed by a two-tier board. | Corporate Auditors' Fees | Ablehnung | Taking into account similarly-sized companies and market position, the Company`s corporate auditor fees are excessive. | Elect MA Yongsheng | Ablehnung | There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualifications of nominee MA Yongsheng. However, as the board of directors does not have sufficient gender diversity, we are voting against all male directors. In addition, as the board of directors, remuneration committee and nominating committee do not comprise an adequate number of independent members, we are voting against all insider and affiliated directors. Further, the policy also requires for companies with a high market capitalization (>1 billion euros) to report on greenhouse gases, water, and biodiversity risks via the CDP (Carbon Disclosure Project), as climate change is becoming increasingly relevant in company valuations. The Company has failed to disclose the report. Moreover, in accordance with our oil and gas policy, as a sustainable investor we will no longer directly support companies that expand their oil and gas production or generate more than 5% of their revenue from oil and gas extraction. Consequently, we are voting against the re-election of this director. |

| 2024 Interim Profit Distribution | Zustimmung | A proposed dividend allocation should be comparable to industry peers and should mirror the financial health of the company. In principle, an acceptable pay-out ratio should be above 20 percent and below 100 percent. The company's aggregate pay-out ratio for this interim dividend appears to be in an acceptable range. Given this, we are voting for this proposal. |
| Change of the Company's Registered Capital | Zustimmung | The proposed change does not violate policy and is simply seeking to change its registered captial following repurchases and cancellation of restricted equity awards. As a result, we are voting for this proposal. |

| Advisory Vote on Executive Compensation | Noch offen | The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. However:The Company has failed to link pay with performance.The LTI does not include ESG criteria.The report does not provide transparency on chosen benchmarks.The Company received approximately 74% support for its say-on-pay proposal at its most recent annual general meeting. In response to this low level of support, the Company reached out to shareholders representing approximately 57% of outstanding shares and held meetings with shareholders representing approximately 31% of outstanding shares, including 43% of its 30 largest shareholders. While the changes to the fiscal 2025 long-term incentive program are positive, they do not fully address the underlying causes of dissent. In the prior year, the Company granted special awards to its executives because, in part, it needed to align executives' long-term interests with the creation of long-term stockholder value. The changes adopted for fiscal 2025 do not address this issue, thereby potentially introducing more cost to shareholders in the form of future special grants as was seen in fiscal 2023.Among the awards reported is a $15 million cash retention bonus for Gary Steele (President, Go-to-Market). The award will be fully paid out three years after the close of the transaction. This grant was provided through the September 20, 2023 at-will employment agreement between the Company and Mr. Steele prior to the closing of the Splunk acquisition, from which Mr. Steele came. The cash award is separate from the $100 million golden parachute compensation that was reported for Mr. Steele in the related merger proxy statement. To be clear, the cash retention grant was provided by the Company before Mr. Steele became a named executive officer of the Company.Separation Payments for Maria Martinez (Former Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer) and Jeff Sharritts (Former Executive Vice President and Chief Customer and Partner Officer): During fiscal 2024, Ms. Martinez and Mr. Sharritts both entered into separation agreements with the Company in connection with organizational changes with respect to the executive leadership team. In exchange for entering into these separation agreements and for a general release of claims, Ms. Martinez and Mr. Sharritts received (i) a cash payment equal to 18 months of base salary and an annual bonus payment, (ii) acceleration of time-based RSUs which were scheduled to vest through November 10, 2025 and December 10, 2025 with a Company-disclosed value of $10,570,379 and $8,799,962, respectively, and (iii) eligibility for retirement vesting of PSUs granted during fiscal 2024 |

Andy Sieg was granted guaranteed incentive compensation which consists of a cash bonus under the STIP, PSUs and deferred stock under the LTIP, which comes to $11 million for the 2023 performance year.As this is against policy, we are voting against this proposal. |
| Amendment to the 2019 Stock Incentive Plan | Zustimmung | According to policy, dilution for all compensation plans should be no higher than 10% of share capital.Given that the company`s plan is fully compliant with policy and, in the absence of any evidence of past abuse by the company of this type of authority, we are supporting this proposal. |
| Shareholder Proposal Regarding Independent Chair | Ablehnung | In this case, the Company has separated the roles of chair and CEO and has appointed an independent chair.Therefore, as the proposed request is not in line with policy, we are voting against this proposal. |
| Shareholder Proposal Regarding Report on Human Rights Standards for Indigenous Peoples | Zustimmung | The Company discloses its guidelines for financing projects in areas of high caution, including those that may affect Indigenous Peoples, has integrated implementation and reporting against the Equator Principles into its policies, and expects project sponsors to adhere to the principles of FPIC. However, proposals requesting increased transparency around how a company is managing their human rights obligations are in line with policy. Therefore, we are voting for this proposal. |
| Shareholder Proposal Regarding Mandatory Director Resignation Policy | Keine Stimmabgabe | On March 22, 2024, the Company released a DEFA14A stating that the proponent has withdrawn this proposal. As such, this is a non-voting item. |

| Shareholder Proposal Regarding Diversity and Inclusion Report | Ablehnung | While increased disclosure around diversity is typically in line with policy, in this case, the proponent of this proposal is the National Center for Public Policy Research (NCPPR). The NCPPR describes itself as a 'communications and research foundation supportive of a strong national defense and dedicated to providing free-market solutions to today's public policy problems' that believes 'the principles of a free market, individual liberty and personal responsibility provide the greatest hope for meeting the challenges facing America in the 21st century.' A division of the NCPPR, the Free Enterprise Project ('FEP') describes itself as 'the conservative movement's only full-service shareholder activism and education program: It files shareholder resolutions, engages corporate CEOs and board members at shareholder meetings, petitions the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) for interpretative guidance, and sponsors effective media campaigns to create the incentives for corporations to stay focused on their missions.' This proponent has generally submitted proposals that appear to be focused on E&S issues on their face but are designed to frustrate the company's actions around ESG performance. Further, the Company provides disclosure of its diversity initiatives, including its U.S. employee racial and ethnic diversity and global gender data. It also maintains board-level oversight of DEI issues. Therefore, we are voting against this proposal. |
| Shareholder Proposal Regarding Report on Board Oversight of Discrimination | Ablehnung | A concerted effort to ensure the Company has thoroughly assessed its potential adverse or discriminatory impacts on stakeholders ultimately benefits shareholders. However, the Company's disclosure regarding its oversight of issues related to diversity, inclusion, and belonging efforts and practices as well as its anti-discrimination efforts are sufficient. Moreover, in this case the shareholder proponent is American Family Association, an anti-ESG proponent and non-profit organization that was founded in 1977 by the pastor of First United Methodist Church in Southaven, Mississippi. Since this time, it states that it has been 'on the front lines of America's culture war.' Currently, it states that it is 'one of the largest and most effective pro-family organizations in the country.' The AFA states that its mission is to 'inform, equip, and activate individuals and families to transform American culture and give aid to the church, here and abroad, in its calling to fulfill the Great Commission'. Given that requests from anti-ESG proponents are not in line with policy, we are voting against this proposal. |
| Shareholder Proposal Regarding Report on Oversight of Animal Welfare | Zustimmung | The Company provides its policies regarding oversight of material risks and board oversight of ESG matters, but it does not appear to include any explicit reference to board-level oversight of animal welfare. Proposals requesting increased transparency on how the Company addresses issues of animal welfare are in line with policy. Therefore, we are voting for this proposal. |

| Allocation of Profits/ Dividends | Zustimmung | A proposed dividend allocation should be comparable to industry peers and should mirror the financial health of the company. In principle, an acceptable pay-out ratio should be above 20 percent and below 100 percent. The company's aggregate pay-out ratio for the fiscal year is in an acceptable range. Given this, we are voting for this proposal. |
| Elect Toshihiko Sato | Ablehnung | There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualification and suitability of nominee Toshihiko Sato. However, this director will be serving as the combined Chair/CEO in the upcoming year, which is against policy.In addition, as the board of directors does not have sufficient gender diversity, we are voting against all male directors.EXTENSIVE STRATEGIC SHAREHOLDINGSIn this case, it should be noted that according to the Company's annual securities report for the last fiscal year, the Company held approximately ¥ 31,500.00 million in shares of other public companies as investment securities, representing approximately 13.53% of the Company's net assets as of March 31, 2023. Some of the companies in which the Company holds stake in turn own shares of the Company.Given the aforementioned concerns regarding both general security investment practices and cross-shareholding relationships in Japan,  the size and extent of the Company's investments in other public companies and the presence of an established cross-shareholding relationship should be scrutinized.The Company's level of exposure of shareholder equity to other companies' risk is exceptionally high and the level of cross-shareholding concerning. The board should reconsider its investment strategy so as to minimize the risk and maximize shareholder return. Consequently, this nominee should be held accountable for this issue. As such, we are opposing this director`s election. |
| Elect Toshiyuki Furukawa | Ablehnung | There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualification and suitability of nominee Toshiyuki Furukawa. However, as the board of directors does not have sufficient gender diversity, we are voting against all male directors. Consequently, we are opposing this director`s election. |

| Shareholder Proposal Regarding Company Name Change | Ablehnung | In this case, the proponent has not clearly shown that shareholders should supplant the judgment of the board and management team in determining the name of the Company. As a result, we are voting agianst this proposal. |
| Shareholder Proposal Regarding Prior Approval to Purchase or Cancel Treasury Stock | Zustimmung | Support for this proposal could benefit shareholders. As a general rule, we believe that share buyback programs are in shareholders' best interests, so long as the Company is left with a sufficiently strong balance sheet in light of its capital requirements. The authority to repurchase any number of shares without shareholder approval may give too much leeway to the board unless the maximum repurchase authority and the reason for the repurchase are disclosed. As the proposed changes are in line with policy, we are voting for this proposal. |
| Shareholder Proposal Regarding Use of Treasury Shares in Performance-Linked Compensation | Ablehnung | Generally, companies should retain the flexibility to create compensation packages for its directors that are in line with their peers and commensurate with their services. As the proposed change is not in line with policy, we are voting against this proposal. |
| Shareholder Proposal Regarding Abolition of Advisor, Chair, Vice President, Executive Director, and Managing Director Roles | Ablehnung | In this case, the proponant has failed to make a compelling argument as to why such changes are necessary or how the changes would benefit shareholders. As a result, we are voting against this proposal. |

| Shareholder Proposal Regarding Vote on Director Remuneration | Zustimmung | This proposal is effectively requesting that the Company provide shareholders with the ability to vote on the remuneration awarded to directors. In cases where shareholders believe a company's compensation package is inappropriately structured, a high negative vote may compel the board to reexamine its compensation practices and act accordingly. Moreover, over the past several years, Say-on-Pay proposals have gained prominence in a number of Western countries. Although not common in Japan, adoption of this resolution would allow enhanced communication between shareholders and the Company concerning its compensation practices.Though the terms of this proposal are somewhat unclear as to whether or not this would be an advisory or a binding resolution, the Company has not clearly provided evidence that adoption of such a provision would either contradict the laws to which it is subject or the practices to which it currently adheres. As allowing shareholders an annual vote on compensation, we are voting for this proposal. |
| Shareholder Proposal Regarding Outside Chair | Ablehnung | In this case, policy does not require the chair of the board to be independent. Moreover, this resolution requests that the chair be an outside director, not an independent director. Because outside directors are not always necessarily independent, adoption of this proposal would not necessarily ensure independent oversight of the board.Therefore, we are voting against. |
| Shareholder Proposal Regarding Majority Outside Directors | Ablehnung | Currently, the Company maintains a two-tier board. In the Japanese market. according to policy, at least a quarter of the board should be independent. Currently, the Company is meeting that requirement. Ultimately, requiring the Company to amend its articles to provide for a standard significantly exceeding the market standard appears unnecessary at this time. As a result, we are voting against this propsoal. |
| Shareholder Proposal Regarding Multiple Board Service | Ablehnung | The proposed change is restrictive and does not appear to be warranted. Moreover, directors sitting on other company boards is not contrary to policy. As a result, we are voting against this proposal. |
| Shareholder Proposal Regarding Dismissal of Katsuhiko Yoshida | Ablehnung | In this case, the proponent has not provided conclusive evidence of mismanagement by Katsuhiko Yoshida or the board. In the absence of convincing rationale, we are voting against this proposal. |
| Shareholder Proposal Regarding Dismissal of Noboru Akatsuka | Ablehnung | In this case, the proponent has not provided conclusive evidence of mismanagement by Noboru Akatsuka or the board. In the absence of convincing rationale, we are voting against this proposal. |

| Elect Kenneth J. Bacon | Keine Zustimmung | As the corporate governance and nomination committee does not comprise an adequate number of independent members, we are voting against all insider and affiliated directors on this committee. Moreover, the nominee has already been a non-executive member of the board for more than 15 years, which is against policy. Consequently, we are opposing this director`s election.Finally, the Company maintains a multi-class share structure with unequal voting rights and has not provided for a reasonable time-based sunset of the multi-class share structure (generally seven years or less). Multi-class voting structures are not in line with policy. It is believed that it is the responsibility of the chair of the nominating and corporate governance committee to ensure that the economic stake of each shareholder matches their voting power and that no small group of shareholders, family or otherwise, has voting rights different from those of other shareholders.Consequently, we are voting against this director`s appointment. |

| Accounts and Reports; Non Tax-Deductible Expenses | Zustimmung | The Company's audited annual and consolidated accounts were available for review in advance of this shareholder meeting. As no evidence has been presented that would question the accuracy of these reports, one should consider this item as routine. Therefore, we are voting for this proposal. |

As no evidence has been presented that would question the accuracy of these reports, one should consider this item as routine. Therefore, we are voting for this proposal. |
| Allocation of Profits/ Dividends | Zustimmung | A proposed dividend allocation should be comparable to industry peers and should mirror the financial health of the company. In principle, an acceptable pay-out ratio should be above 20 percent and below 100 percent. The company's aggregate pay-out ratio for the fiscal year is in an acceptable range. Given this, we are voting for this proposal. |
| Special Auditors Report on Regulated Agreements | Zustimmung | The auditors' special report on related-party transactions was available for review in advance of this shareholders' meeting, in accordance with best-practice recommendations. | 2023 Remuneration of Pierre-André de Chalendar, Chair | Ablehnung | Pierre-André de Chalendar, the outgoing chair and former CEO of the Company, retired from his executive position on June 30, 2021, but has kept his role as non-executive chair of the board until this general meeting. The former CEO was granted 90,000 performance shares both in 2019 and in 2020. Here, the 90,000 performance shares granted to him in 2019 vested in full in November 2023. Further, the 2020 LTI plan is still ongoing for the chair and will vest in November 2024.The ongoing LTI plans for the former CEO have a three-year performance period for all metrics except for the relative share price and for the reduction in CO2 emissions, which are measured over four years. Here, shareholders may question the Company's decision not to prorate the 2019 and the 2020 LTI grants awarded to Pierre-André de Chalendar. The former CEO was awarded performance shares for a four-year period, while he had an executive role within the Company only for two years and half out of the four years for the 2019 LTI plan and for one year and half years of the four-year period under the 2020 LTI plan. Further, the Company has not disclosed any compelling rationale for its decision not to pro-rate Pierre-André de Chalendar's LTI awards granted in 2019 and 2020.In this case, the Company's performance assessed for the 2019 and 2020 LTI plan will only be partially related to Pierre-André de Chalendar's work, and will be affected by the Company's performance under the new CEO's management.  As a result, we are voting against this proposal. |
| 2023 Remuneration of Benoit Bazin, CEO | Ablehnung | The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. However:The remuneration structure lacks bonus-malus and/or any recovery provisions.Under the terms of the short-term incentive plan, in 2022 the Company introduced compensatory over-performance for quantitative metrics. The over-performance of one quantitative metric can  be used to compensate for under-performance in another quantitative metric. The board disclosed that it decided to introduce a compensatory option for the quantitative metrics in light of volatility of the environment in which the Group operates, which makes it difficult to forecast each metric. It is worth noting that from 2023 the payout of the financial metrics in case of overperformance was reduced from 60% to 54% of the STI maximum opportunity if one financial metric lapses in full. Shareholders may question the appropriateness of the Company's rationale to feature a mechanism that is not in line with market best practices.As this is not in line with policy, we are voting against this proposal. |

| Approval of 2024 Share Option Scheme | Ablehnung | According to policy, dilution for all compensation plans should be no higher than 10% of share capital.While the proposed dilution is within policy limits, the following issues should be noted:Range of Participants:the scheme allows the grant of share options to a broad range of participants, such as independent third parties and those who provide services to the Group on an arm's length basis and continuing or recurring basis in the ordinary and usual course of business of the Group. Given the current broad range of participants allowed under the proposed scheme, the board may abuse its authority and serve its own interests by granting options to a party of the Company who has an affiliation with the board or the Company. However, in this case the Company's definition of Service Providers is 'any person (natural person or corporate entity) who provides services to the Group on a continuing and recurring basis in the ordinary course of business of the Group which are in the interests of the long term growth of the Group, including but not limited to person(s) who work(s) for the Company as (i) independent contractors (including suppliers); and (ii) advisers or consultants, but excluding any placing agents or financial advisers providing advisory services for fundraising, mergers or acquisitions, and professional service providers such as auditors or valuers who provide assurance, or are required to perform their services with impartiality and objectivity, and provided that the Board shall have absolute discretion to determine whether one falls within such category', which mitigates this concern at this time.Short Vesting Period:The minimum vesting period for awards granted under the Scheme is only one year.Change of Control Provision: The rules of the Scheme include a provision that provides for accelerated vesting of options, to the extent vested and not already exercised, if the Company changes control. This provision may discourage potential buyers from making an offer for the Company both because the purchase price will be higher and because substantial numbers of employees may earn significant amounts of money and decide to leave their positions with the Company.As this is not entirely in line with policy, we are voting against this proposal. |

| Verwendung des Bilanzgewinns 2023 | Zustimmung | Die Dividende sollte angemessen sein und der finanziellen Lage des Unternehmens entsprechen. | Aufhebung des genehmigten Kapitals gemäß § 4 Absatz 4 der Satzung, Schaffung eines neuen genehmigten Kapitals zur Bar- und/oder Sachkapitalerhöhung (mit der Möglichkeit zum Bezugsrechtsausschluss unter anderem gemäß § 186 Absatz 3 Satz 4 AktG) und entsprechende Satzungsänderung | Ablehnung | Die Erhöhung des Grundkapitals um 20.000.000 EUR würde zu einer Kapitalverwässerung von 10 Prozent führen. Allerdings können kumulativ 20 Prozent überschritten werden. Auch wenn die Bezugsrechtsausschlüsse kumulativ auf 10 Prozent begrenzt sind, bewegt sich dies nicht im Rahmen der Analyserichtlinien (max. 20% kumulativ, max. 10% Bezugsrechtsausschluss kumulativ) Daher sollte der Antrag kritisch gesehen werden. Somit stimmen wir gegen den Antrag. |
| Aufhebung des genehmigten Kapitals gemäß § 4 Absatz 5 der Satzung, Schaffung eines neuen genehmigten Kapitals zur Barkapitalerhöhung (mit der Möglichkeit zum Bezugsrechtsausschluss für Spitzenbeträge) und entsprechende Satzungsänderung | Ablehnung | Die Erhöhung des Grundkapitals um 60.000.000 EUR würde zu einer Kapitalverwässerung von 30 Prozent führen. Außerdem können kumulativ 20 Prozent überschritten werden. Auch wenn die Bezugsrechtsausschlüsse kumulativ auf 10 Prozent begrenzt sind, bewegt sich dies nicht im Rahmen der Analyserichtlinien (max. 20% kumulativ, max. 10% Bezugsrechtsausschluss kumulativ) Daher sollte der Antrag kritisch gesehen werden. Somit stimmen wir gegen den Antrag. |
| Aufhebung einer bestehenden und Schaffung einer neuen Ermächtigung zur Ausgabe von Genussscheinen und anderen hybriden Schuldverschreibungen, die die Anforderungen an die aufsichtliche Anerkennung als zusätzliches Kernkapital (Additional Tier 1 Capital - AT1 Capital) erfüllen | Zustimmung | Da die Ausgabe von Genussrechten nicht in Einklang mit den Richtlinien ist, sollte dieser Antrag eigentlich kritisch gesehen werden. Als Beteiligungsform sind Genussrechte bzw. Gewinnschuldverschreibungen hybride Finanzierungsformen, die sehr risikoreich sind und kein Stimmrecht innehaben. Zwar entsteht den Aktionären der Gesellschaft keine Verwässerung ihrer Anteile, allerdings mindert die Existenz von Gewinnschuldverschreibungen und Genussrechten den Gewinnanteil der Aktionäre. Daher ist auch eine Zustimmung der Hauptversammlung mit einer Mehrheit von 75 Prozent erforderlich. Andererseits handelt es sich hierbei um ein legitimes Finanzierungsmittel, bei dem die Marktteilnehmer selbst entscheiden müssen, ob sie das Risiko einer Gewinnschuldverschreibung tragen wollen.Bei Banken ergibt sich die Besonderheit, dass die Ausgabe von Genussrechten der Deckung eines etwaigen zukünftigen Bedarfs an bankaufsichtsrechtlich anerkennungsfähigen Eigenmitteln dienen können, denn die europäischen Eigenmittelanforderungen gemäß der CRR verlangen, dass Banken über eine angemessene Eigenmittelausstattung verfügen. Somit ist insbesondere bei Banken der Antrag nachvollziehbar.Aus diesem Grund stimmen wir nach Abwägung der Argumente und Rücksprache mit der Aktienanalystin für den Antrag. |

| Beschlussfassung über eine Änderung von §§ 15 (Zusammensetzung des Gemeinsamen Ausschusses) und 22 (Teilnahme an der Hauptversammlung) der Satzung | Zustimmung | Es ergeben sich keine Anhaltspunkte, welche diesem Tagesordnungspunkt entgegenstehen könnten. Zwar wird über verschiedene Anträge en bloc  abgestimmt, allerdings handelt es sich Änderungen, bei denen eine Beeinträchtigung der Governance nicht ersichtlich ist. Somit ist eine Bündelung nachvollziehbar und der Antrag kann unkritisch gesehen werden. Somit stimmen wir für den Antrag. |

| Stock Purchase Plan for Overseas Employees | Zustimmung | Currently, employees do not hold a significant portion of the Company`s share capital. Therefore, if the proposed plan is fully implemented, employee shareholdings would remain reasonable and in line with policy. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal. |
| Authority to Decide on Mergers by Absorption | Ablehnung | The Company discloses that these proposals would enable the board, at any time, to seize opportunities in the context of external growth, consolidation or internal reorganization transactions and to optimize the structuring and timing of such transactions, taking into account the constraints specific to each of them. While these proposals fall within the scope of the law, it is line with policy for shareholders to have a say in whether they support the implementation of a matter as important as mergers and spin-offs, given that the impact on shareholders can be substantial. The board has failed to provide a sufficient rationale for why shareholders should give up this right. Therefore, we are voting against this proposal. |

| Allocation of Dividends | Zustimmung | A proposed dividend allocation should be comparable to industry peers and should mirror the financial health of the company. In principle, an acceptable pay-out ratio should be above 20 percent and below 100 percent. The company's aggregate pay-out ratio for the fiscal year is in an acceptable range. Given this, we are voting for this proposal. |

| Remuneration Policy | Ablehnung | The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. However:The Company has failed to implement executive stock ownership guidelines. However, the CEO owns 69% of the Company's issued share voting rights.The board can grant discretionary bonuses.The report does not provide transparency on chosen benchmarks.The Company's remuneration practices have been the subject of significant shareholder dissent. The Company has provided a response to shareholder dissent during the past fiscal year and outlined the proposed changes resulting from this. However, the dissent was driven by the LTIP structure and discretion to award non-performance bonuses. Nonetheless, the robustness of the Company's response regarding the significant increase in maximum opportunity, especially in light of the additional 25% increase proposed under the 2024 STI plan, should be questioned here.The payout limit under the short-term incentive plan for the CEO and executive vice chair increased by 25%, to 150% of salary (previously 120% of base salary). The Company has not provided any rationale for the increase. However, while the current remuneration package of the Company is aligned with the industry and market, the necessity of applying year-over-year increases in maximum opportunity is concerning.The new 2024-2026 SOP foresees the grant of equity awards to the CEO, who owns 69% of the Company's issued share voting rights. In this case, the Company failed to disclose individual limits under the plan, while setting the maximum opportunity for each beneficiary at 140% of the granted shares. While the size of the total overall limit is moderate (0.79% of share capital to be distributed among CEO, the General Manager, and a number of top managers), the board could reasonably afford a more detailed disclosure of individual limits, especially in light of the significant ownership of one of the beneficiaries of the plan.The board possesses discretion to adjust awards under both short- and long-term incentive plan, departing from the effective achievement level of performance goals.As this is not entirely in line with policy, we are voting against this proposal. |

According to policy, dilution for all compensation plans should be no higher than 10% of share capital.However, the plan foresees the grant of equity awards to the CEO, which is also a major shareholder. Further, as noted under the 2024 remuneration policy proposal, the Company failed to disclose individual limits under the plan, while setting the maximum opportunity for each beneficiary at 140% of the granted shares. As such, it is impossible to evaluate the maximum awards to be received by the executives and, more specifically, by the CEO. While the total overall limit is moderate (0.79% of share capital to be distributed among CEO, the General Manager, and a number of top managers), the board could reasonably afford a more detailed disclosure of individual limits, especially in light of the significant ownership of one of the beneficiaries of the plan. | Amendments to Articles | Ablehnung | In this case, the Company is also introducing a clause which may allow for the appointment of a shareholder representative and the participation of the sole shareholders' representative to the Company's shareholders' meetings. The closed-door meeting format restricts physical participation to a shareholder representative holding proxies and does not require companies facilitate shareholders to participate virtually or offer a livestream of the meeting.The proposed amendment is not entirely in line with policy. | Advisory Vote on Executive Compensation | Ablehnung | The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. However:The Company has failed to link pay with performance. The Company has not made any notable changes to the performance fee component of its compensation program and anticipates that such payments will continue to be a significant element of executive compensation. Shareholders may be skeptical about the Company's ability to maintain an adequate alignment of pay with performance going forward given its continued reliance on an unpredictable, highly variable compensation mechanism that can potentially result in excessive payouts to executives.Insufficient response to shareholder dissent. In response to shareholder concerns, the Company made certain changes to financial metrics related to the annual incentive plan, revised the terms of PSU awards in 2024 to adjust metrics and enhanced disclosure surrounding performance fee allocations. | Shareholder Proposal Regarding Amendment to Clawback Policy | Ablehnung | The Company's clawback policy is currently restatement dependent only, which is not in line with market best practice. Moreover, the proponent notes that 'because the Company's clawback policy merely gives the board the option of clawback and does not require disclosure to shareholders of its being put to use in actual cases, the current policy is too narrow, too vague, and may not address situations where an executive negligently fails to exercise oversight responsibilities that result in significant financial or reputational damage to the Company'. However, under the terms of this proposal, the Company would be required to 'report to shareholders in each annual meeting proxy the results of any deliberations regarding the policy, including the Board's reasons for not applying the policy after specific deliberations conclude, about whether or not to cancel or seek recoupment of unearned compensation paid, granted or awarded to NEOs under this policy.' While the proponent notes that the policy should not 'violate any contract, compensation plan, law or regulation,' it makes no mention and provides no caveats for the fact that the Company could be required to disclose confidential or competitively sensitive information in these public filings discussing their deliberations. As a result, the recommendation is AGAINST with reference to ABSTAIN. |

| Billigung des Vergütungsberichts | Ablehnung | Über das Vergütungssystem wurde zuletzt im Jahr 2023 abgestimmt und erlangte eine Zustimmungsquote von 89,47%.Zwar hat der Aufsichtsrat beschlossen, die Vergütung für Carsten Spohr im Rahmen der Wiederbestellung zum 1.1.2024 in allen Vergütungskomponenten anzuheben. Darüber hinaus wurde Remco Steenbergen im Rahmen der Wiederbestellung zum 1.1.2024als herausgehobenes Vorstandsmitglied eingestuft und die Vergütung für ihn wurde in allen Vergütungskomponenten auf das 1,3-Fache der Vergütung eines ordentlichen Vorstandsmitgliedes angehoben. Es ist nicht ersichtlich, dass damit die 2023 beschlossene Maximalvergütung überschritten wird. Es wird im Vergütungsbericht festgehalten, dass sich der Aufsichtsrat ausführlich mit der Angemessenheit der Vorstandsvergütung befasst hat und Höhe und Struktur als angemessen einstuft.Entsprechend unserer Ablehnung des Vergütungssystems im vergangenen Jahr stimmen wir in diesem Jahr gegen den Vergütungsbericht. |
| Wahl von Aufsichtsratsmitgliedern: Britta Seeger | Zustimmung | Es ergeben sich keine Anhaltspunkte, welche Zweifel an der Qualifikation von Britta Seeger begründen könnten. Allerdings bestehen Bedenken hinsichtlich der Zahl der Mandate. Gemäß den Analyserichtlinien sollte ein Mitglied mit einer exekutiven Position nicht mehr als insgesamt drei Mandate innehaben. | 2023 Allocation of Profits/ Dividends | Ablehnung | A proposed dividend allocation should be comparable to industry peers and should mirror the financial health of the company. | Amendments to Procedures for Acquisition and Disposal of Assets | Zustimmung | In this case, there is no cause for shareholder concern regarding the proposed amendments. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal. |
| Extraordinary Motions | Ablehnung | In Taiwan, many companies place an item for extraordinary motions on their proxy forms. However, shareholders of Taiwanese companies who vote via proxy technically may not exercise their voting rights preemptively for any extraordinary motions raised at the general meeting of shareholders. Instead, proxies have full authority to exercise their discretion in supporting or opposing any such motions.As granting unfettered discretion is not in line with policy, we are voting against this proposal. |

| Verwendung des Bilanzgewinns aus dem Geschäftsjahr 2023 | Zustimmung | Die Dividende sollte angemessen sein und der finanziellen Lage des Unternehmens entsprechen. In der Regel liegt eine akzeptable Ausschüttungsquote zwischen 20 und 100 Prozent. In diesem Fall liegt die Ausschüttungsquote gemessen an den Earnings per Share über 100%, allerdings bewegt sich das Ergebnis je Aktie nicht im negativen Bereich. Vor dem Hintergrund des geglätteten Ergebnisses (EPS) über die letzten Jahre erscheint die Dividende dennoch angemessen. Daher stimmen wir für den Dividendenvorschlag. |

| Directors' liability action | Zustimmung | Where there is a violation of directors' duties, a solvent joint stock company can bring a liability action against the directors under Article 2393 of the Civil Code. | Allocation of Profits/ Dividends | Zustimmung | A proposed dividend allocation should be comparable to industry peers and should mirror the financial health of the company. Given this, we are voting for this proposal. |

| Elect Laurent Leksell | Ablehnung | There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualification and suitability of nominee Laurent Leksell. However, as the compensation committee does not comprise an adequate number of independent members, we are voting against all insider and affiliated directors on this committee. In addition, the policy requires the compensation committee chair to be independent. Moreover, the Company has not disclosed detailed vote results from its previous annual general meeting and has neither provided a compelling rationale for having been unable to collect vote results nor has it committed to amend its processes going forward. It is believed that nominee Laurent Leksell, as the board chair should be held accountable for this lack of disclosure. Lastly, the nominee has already been a non-executive member of the board for more than 15 years, which is against policy. Consequently, we are opposing this director`s election. |
| Elect Tomas Eliasson | Zustimmung | There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualification and suitability of nominee  Tomas Eliasson. Consequently, we are supporting this director`s election. |

| Shareholder Proposal Regarding Appointment of New Board of Directors with Sustainability Expertise | Ablehnung | In this case, it should be noted that there are multiple directors currently serving on the board who possess expertise in environmental and social issues, as further detailed in Proposal 19. The Company also maintains oversight of climate-related issues, which is also detailed in Proposal 19.Upon review, it is believed that the proponent has failed to provide a compelling argument to suggest that the Company's current board does not maintain sufficient expertise in sustainability-related matters. Consequently, we are voting against this proposal. |
| Shareholder Proposal Regarding Implementation of Energy Transition Plan | Ablehnung | In this case, the Company has provided shareholders with sufficient information regarding its energy transition plan and the manner in which it is developing its business strategy in light of the evolving renewable energy industry. The Company has made plans to further implement renewables in its energy portfolio, which it discusses in its Energy Transition Plan (see Proposal 15). Moreover, the proponent has not provided any evidence of negligence or malfeasance with respect to the management of climate risks on behalf of management and the board, particularly given its recent reporting commitments and responsiveness to shareholder concerns on issues related to climate change. | Shareholder Proposal Regarding Becoming A Renewable Energy Producer | Zustimmung | The Company provides significant disclosure on its exposure to the risks associated with climate change, as well as its commitments to reducing its exposure to climate change-related risks as described in more detail in Proposal 15. Moreover, in its response to this proposal, the Company states that it is allocating large sums of investments to renewables and believes that renewables can deliver material cash flow from 2030 and beyond.However, the proposal asks to stop oil & gas exploration and to phase down production in line with 1.5 degree. The proposal is in line with our climate and oil & gas startegy, hence we vote in favour. |
| Shareholder Proposal Regarding Dismantling Corporate Assembly and Autonomizing the Renewable Energy Business | Ablehnung | This proposal requests that shareholders assert their business judgment in place of that of the directors. In this case, the Company provides significant disclosure on its exposure to the risks associated with climate change, as well as its commitments to reducing its exposure to climate change-related risks as described in more detail in Proposal 15. It also maintains board-level expertise on environmental and social issues as well as international markets, as detailed in Proposal 19.Here, the proponent has failed to provide a compelling rationale that adoption of this proposal will clearly lead to an increase in shareholder value. Consequently, we are voting against this proposal. |
| Shareholder Proposal Regarding Future Appointments by the Nomination Committee | Zustimmung | In this case, it should be noted that there are multiple directors currently serving on the board who possess expertise in environmental and social issues. However, this proposal requesting that the nomination committee shall nominate candidates for future board appointments where at least 50 percent of the members of the board have good competency on the energy transition and sustainability, does not violate policy. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal. |
| Shareholder Proposal Regarding CapEx Alignment with Paris Agreement | Zustimmung | The Company faces significant risks as a result of increased regulation and investor scrutiny on account of climate change. The Company has taken steps to manage those risks. The Company provides meaningful disclosure concerning the initiatives it has undertaken in order to mitigate climate change-related risks, as well as its emissions. Further, the Company has set a net zero ambition, covering Scopes 1, 2, and 3 emissions. The Company's climate-related disclosure is also relatively expansive and in line with that provided by its peers.However, as demands for greater transparency regarding ESG issues are in general in line with policy, we are voting for this proposal. |

| Remuneration Report | Ablehnung | The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. | Accounts and Reports; Non Tax-Deductible Expenses | Zustimmung | The Company's audited annual and consolidated accounts were available for review in advance of this shareholder meeting. As no evidence has been presented that would question the accuracy of these reports, one should consider this item as routine. Therefore, we are voting for this proposal. |
| Allocation of Profits/ Dividends | Zustimmung | A proposed dividend allocation should be comparable to industry peers and should mirror the financial health of the company. In principle, an acceptable pay-out ratio should be above 20 percent and below 100 percent. This year the Company proposed a dividend pay-out at 9 percent. However, last year the dividend pay-out ratio was above 20 percent, which is in line with policy. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal. |

| Special Auditors Report on Regulated Agreements | Ablehnung | Regarding the transactions under Proposal 4, approximately 21.4% of the Company's minority shareholders opposed the special auditors report on regulated agreements at last year's annual general meeting. Here, the Company has failed to address significant shareholder dissent. Moreover, the Company has grouped ten seperate related party transactions under one proposal.As a result, we are voting against this proposal. |

On February 5, 2023, the mandates of management board chair Virginie Morgon and management board members Nicolas Huet and Marc Frappier, ended. At the Company's 2023 AGM, under Proposal 19.00, the Company sought shareholder approval to waive the presence condition for these former executives, on the performance shares and stock options granted under the 2021 and 2022 LTI plans.Although the amendments were approved by shareholders, there are concerns with the fact that the former management board chair and members had an executive role for only two years of the three-year performance period assessed under the 2021 performance share plan. Regarding the 2022 performance share plan, former executives saw their term end just after one year of the three-year performance period; as such, the Company's performance assessed under the 2021 and 2022 LTI plans will only be partially related to the outgoing executives' work, and will be affected by the Company's performance under the new CEO's management.On February 5, 2023, the mandates of management board chair Virginie Morgon and management board members Nicolas Huet and Marc Frappier, ended. | Authority to Repurchase and Reissue Shares | Ablehnung | At this time, there is no evidence of any past abuse of this type of authority at the company. However, the maximum price has been disclosed in monetary value only, instead of 10% premium or discount of market price. As this is against policy, we are voting against this proposal. |
| Authority to Increase Capital Through Capitalisations | Zustimmung | The successive or simultaneous capitalisation of reserves, retained earnings or additional paid-in capital would benefit shareholders by allowing the Company to increase paid-in capital through a series of alternatives, above and beyond the issuance of shares. Moreover, when companies capitalize reserves, retained earnings or paid-in capital, there is no risk of dilution. This procedure merely transfers wealth to shareholders and does not impact share value. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal. |
| Authority to Issue Shares and Convertible Debt w/ Preemptive Rights | Ablehnung | In this case, the board will be authorised to potentially issue up to 50% of the Company`s current issued share capital with preemptive rights. As this exceeds the limit set by policy, we are voting against this proposal. |
| Authority to Increase Capital in Case of Exchange Offers | Ablehnung | In this case, the board will be authorised to potentially issue up to 10% of the Company`s current issued share capital without preemptive rights, subject to a cumulative limit of 50% for all share issuances. As the global ceiling exceeds the cumulative limit for all share issuances set by policy, we are voting against this proposal. |
| Authority to Issue Shares and Convertible Debt Through Private Placement | Ablehnung | In this case, the board will be authorised to potentially issue up to 10% of the Company`s current issued share capital without preemptive rights, subject to a cumulative limit of 50% for all share issuances. | Authority to Set Offering Price of Shares | Ablehnung | This proposal seeks shareholder authority to issue securities without preemptive rights at a 10% discount, so long as the increases do not exceed 10% of their share capital in any 24-month period. In this case, the proposed discount specifically applies to proposals 24 and 25, which seek shareholder approval to issue up to 10% of share capital without preemptive rights subject to a limit of 10% of share capital for all issuances without preemptive rights and a cumulative limit of 50% of share capital for all capital increases. As the cumulative limit for share issuances exceeds that allowed by policy, we are voting against this proposal. |
| Greenshoe | Ablehnung | This authority grants the Company the flexibility to increase an over-subscribed issuance by up to 15%, so long as such increase takes place on the same terms and within thirty days of the initial issuance. In this case, the proposed greenshoe is subject to a cumulative limit of 50% of share capital for all share issuances, which exceeds the cumulative limit set by policy. Consequently, we are voting against this proposal. |
| Authority to Increase Capital in Consideration for Contributions In Kind | Ablehnung | In this case, the board will be authorised to potentially issue up to 10% of the Company`s current issued share capital without preemptive rights, subject to a cumulative limit of 50% for all share issuances. As the global ceiling exceeds the cumulative limit for all share issuances set by policy, we are voting against this proposal. |
| Employee Stock Purchase Plan | Zustimmung | Currently, employees do not hold a significant portion of the Company`s share capital. Therefore, if the proposed plan is fully implemented, employee shareholdings would remain reasonable and in line with policy. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal. |
| Global Ceiling on Capital Increases and Debt Issuances | Ablehnung | In general, the setting of global limits for issuances should be viewed in a positive fashion, as it serves as an additional level of protection for shareholders' interests, by minimizing the potentially significant dilution of a series of issuance requests to a fixed level. However, if approved this authority would represent a potential cumulative capital increase of 50% of share capital, which exceeds the cumulative limit set by policy. Consequently, we are voting against this proposal. |
| Authorisation of Legal Formalities | Zustimmung | This is a routine legal formality in France. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal. |

The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. However:The Company has failed to implement executive stock ownership guidelines.The CEO's base salary increased by 23.8% during the past fiscal year and the Company has failed to provide a sufficient rationale. | Adoption of New Share Option Scheme | Ablehnung | While the proposed dilution is in line with policy, the following issues should be noted:Performance Targets: The awards granted under the Scheme are not linked to any performance targets. Further, a lack of performance targets for stock option plans is common in this market.Change of Control Provision: The rules of the Scheme includes a provision that provides for accelerated vesting of options, to the extent vested and not already exercised, if the Company changes control. This provision may discourage potential buyers from making an offer for the Company both because the purchase price will be higher and because substantial numbers of employees may earn significant amounts of money and decide to leave their positions with the Company. In short, this sort of provision may not only lower the chances of a deal, but will possibly also lower the premium paid to shareholders in a takeover transaction.As this is not entirely in line with policy, we are voting against this proposal. |

| To Ratify the Proposal for the Distribution of 2023 Profits | Zustimmung | A proposed dividend allocation should be comparable to industry peers and should mirror the financial health of the company. In principle, an acceptable pay-out ratio should be above 20 percent and below 100 percent. The company's aggregate pay-out ratio for the fiscal year is in an acceptable range. Given this, we are voting for this proposal. |

| To Amend the Articles of Incorporation of the Company | Zustimmung | In this case, there is no cause for shareholder concern regarding the proposed amendments. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal. |

There is no indication that participation in the operations of such entities will lead to conflicts of interest for directors. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal. |
| Extraordinary Motions | Ablehnung | In Taiwan, many companies place an item for extraordinary motions on their proxy forms. However, shareholders of Taiwanese companies who vote via proxy technically may not exercise their voting rights preemptively for any extraordinary motions raised at the general meeting of shareholders. | Ratification of Auditor | Zustimmung | There is no indication of any investigations or pending court cases pertaining to the auditor. Moreover, the fees paid to the auditor are appropriate and are clearly disclosed by the Company. However, as per US market practice, the lead auditor`s name and tenure has not been disclosed in the company's proxy materials or annual report. The aforementioned notwithstanding, and as stipulated by Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002/Title II, "It shall be unlawful for a registered public accounting firm to provide audit services to an issuer if the lead (or coordinating) audit partner (having primary responsibility for the audit), or the audit partner responsible for reviewing the audit, has performed audit services for that issuer in each of the 5 previous fiscal years of that issuer."In this case, we are voting for this proposal. |
| Advisory Vote on Executive Compensation | Ablehnung | The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. However:The Company has failed to link pay with performance.The Company granted an excessive sign-on bonus. Michael Abbott received substantial sign-on cash and RSU awards during the year in review when he joined the Company from his prior employer, Apple Inc.. The Company has disclosed that the award was intended to align him with his target compensation at the Company. The short vesting period for an award of this size should be questioned. However, due to the resignation of Michael Abbott the entirety of the award which amounted to $17,000,001 was forfeited upon his resignation. This effectively cancels out the cost of this grant to shareholders and lowers total NEO pay for the year, but it does not fully mollify concerns stemming the Company's intended actions.The remuneration structure allows for adjusted metrics.The LTI does not include ESG criteria.As this is against policy, we are voting against this proposal. |

| Shareholder Proposal Regarding Revisiting Pay Incentives for EV Production Metrics | Ablehnung | It should be noted that the proponent of this proposal is the National Legal and Policy Center (NLPC), which has submitted shareholder proposals that, upon first impression, appear to be consistent with environmental and social proposals that call for information or action on enhancing companies' approaches to environmental and social factors but, upon further review, appear to be designed to inhibit companies' actions in such areas. The NLPC describes itself as a 501(c)(3) that 'promotes ethics in public life through research, investigation, education, and legal action,' and believes 'the best way to promote ethics is to reduce the size of government.' As part of the corporate integrity project on its website, the NLPC shares its concerns regarding 'woke' corporate executives, for instance posting articles about inclusive content 'devaluing' the Pixar franchise or about how the NLPC has reported Visa`s chair and CEO to the SEC for ongoing 'wokeness.' The project also examines a supposed pushback against ESG initiatives, featuring pieces such as one describing corporate America`s anti-racism programs as racist against white people and another promoting the NLPC`s efforts to nominate a fossil-fuel-supporting director candidate to the board of Exxon Mobil Corporation. Moreover, the inclusion of ESG metrics in compensation plans are in line with policy. Consequently, we are voting against this proposal. |
| Shareholder Proposal Regarding Deep-Sea Mined Minerals in the Supply Chain | Zustimmung | This proposal is requesting that the Company publicly disclose its policies on the use of deep-sea mined minerals in its production and supply chains. The Company and its peers provide similar disclosure regarding responsible material sourcing, although the Company is the only one to specifically discuss deep-sea mining in its reporting. In its response to this proposal, the Company affirms that it has not invested in deep-sea mineral extraction and does not currently use, nor does it have plans to use, deep-sea minerals in its supply chain. However, it states that it is following the efforts of respected third parties who are making science-based evaluations in an effort to establish criteria for if and how deep-sea minerals may be extracted sustainably and responsibly in the future. The Company adds that it engages regularly with relevant industry organizations and other stakeholders and will continue its deliberative cross-functional evaluation of all new technologies, including deep-sea mineral extraction. However, deep-sea mining could become a more structural issue for the industry. Therefore, we are supporting this proposal since increased transparency is in line with our policy. |
| Shareholder Proposal Regarding Additional Disclosure on Sustainability Risks Within the Supply Chain | Zustimmung | The Company provides extensive disclosure of its sustainable sourcing policies, partnerships, and targets, and maintains board-level oversight of its responsible sourcing practices in its supply chain. Nevertheless, as requests for increased transparency on how a Company is managing sustainability risks within its supply chain are in line with policy, we are supporting this proposal. |

| Accounts and Reports | Zustimmung | The Company's audited annual and consolidated accounts were available for review in advance of this shareholder meeting. As no evidence has been presented that would question the accuracy of these reports, one should consider this item as routine. Therefore, we are voting for this proposal. |
| Allocation of Profits/ Dividends | Zustimmung | A proposed dividend allocation should be comparable to industry peers and should mirror the financial health of the company. In principle, an acceptable pay-out ratio should be above 20 percent and below 100 percent. The company's aggregate pay-out ratio for the fiscal year is in an acceptable range. Given this, we are voting for this proposal. |

| Authority to Issue Shares w/o Preemptive Rights | Ablehnung | In this case, the board will be authorised to potentially issue up to 20% of the Company`s current issued share capital without preemptive rights. As this exceeds the limit set by policy, and the Company has not provided the maximum discount rate in the Company`s disclosures, we are voting against this proposal. |
| Authority to Issue Repurchased Shares | Ablehnung | This proposal is conditional upon the passing of Proposal 6 and 7, which we opposed, and the Company has not provided the maximum discount rate in its disclosures, which is against policy. Consequently, we are voting against this proposal. |

| Elect Howard S. Jonas | Ablehnung | There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualifications of nominee Howard S. Jonas. However, as the board of directors does not have sufficient gender diversity, we are voting against all male directors. Further, as the board of directors does not comprise an adequate number of independent members, we are voting against all insider and affiliated directors. In addition, given the information provided, the candidate holds too many mandates to be in line with policy (Chair - Genie Energy Ltd.; Director - Zedge Inc; Executive Chair - IDT Corporation; Chair - IDW Media Holdings Inc; Executive Chair - Rafael Holdings, Inc.). In addition, this director serves as the chair of the board and the Company has no biodiversity policy, the human rights policy does not align with UDHR or ILO, and the Company has not disclosed board oversight of ESG. Consequently, we are opposing this director`s election. |
| Elect Joyce J. Mason | Ablehnung | As the board of directors does not comprise an adequate number of independent members, we are voting against all insider and affiliated directors. Consequently, we are opposing the election of non-independent nominee Joyce J. Mason. |
| Elect W. Wesley Perry | Ablehnung | There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualifications of nominee W. Wesley Perry. However, as the board of directors does not have sufficient gender diversity, we are voting against all male directors. Further, as the board of directors, the audit committee, the compensation committee, the nominating committee and the governance committee do not comprise an adequate number of independent members, we are voting against all insider and affiliated directors. The policy also requires the audit committee chair to be independent. As chair of the audit committee, this director is also responsible for the Company's failure to put the auditor up for ratification. This director serves as chair of the nominating committee and should be held accountable for the high average tenure of the board's non-employee directors and limited refreshment of the board's independent membership. Consequently, we are opposing this director`s election. |

| Elect Alan B. Rosenthal | Ablehnung | There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualifications of nominee Alan B. Rosenthal. However, as the board of directors does not have sufficient gender diversity, we are voting against all male directors. Further, as the board of directors, the audit committee, the compensation committee, the nominating committee and the governance committee do not comprise an adequate number of independent members, we are voting against all insider and affiliated directors. The policy also requires the compensation committee chair to be independent. However, the Company maintains a multi-class share structure with unequal voting rights and has not provided for a reasonable time-based sunset of the multi-class share structure (generally seven years or less). Multi-class voting structures are not in line with policy. It is the responsibility of the chair of the corporate governance committee to ensure that the economic stake of each shareholder matches their voting power and that no small group of shareholders, family or otherwise, has voting rights different from those of other shareholders. Consequently, we are opposing this director`s election. |
| Elect Allan Sass | Ablehnung | There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualifications of nominee Allan Sass. However, as the board of directors does not have sufficient gender diversity, we are voting against all male directors. Further, as the board of directors, the audit committee and the governance committee do not comprise an adequate number of independent members, we are voting against all insider and affiliated directors. Moreover, according to policy, non-executive board members must be not be 80 or older at the end of their terms. Consequently, we are opposing this director`s election. |
| Amendment to the 2021 Stock Option and Incentive Plan | Ablehnung | Remuneration plans should be adequately disclosed and should reward executives for good performance. According to policy, dilution for all compensation plans should be no higher than 10% of share capital. While the level of dilution is in line with policy, the plan allows for repricing which is not in line with market best practice. Therefore, we are opposing this proposal. |

| Remuneration Report | Ablehnung | The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. However:The Company has failed to implement executive stock ownership guidelines.Less than at least 2 KPIs are used as performance LTI criteria.The LTI does not include ESG criteria.The Company's chief executive receives remuneration that out-paces the compensation given to chief executives at similar firms. | Advisory Vote on ESG 2025 Strategic Plan Progress | Zustimmung | This proposal requests that shareholders approve, on an advisory basis, the Company's level of progress against its 2025 ESG Strategic Plan. While similar in concept to a traditional Say on Climate vote, this proposal is based on the Company's broader ESG Strategy, covering: (i) its carbon neutrality initiatives; (ii) circular economy considerations; (iii) environmental targets; (iv) talent management; (v) social contributions; (vi) health and safety; (vii) supply chain management; and (viii) ethics and governance.Although there are no objections to the Company's ESG reporting, as a whole, it is believed that shareholders could benefit from some context or a rationale for this vote (e.g., whether or how it intends to use the results of this vote to inform its progress or shareholder engagement activities). Going forward, if the Company chooses to place both its ESG reporting and information concerning its progress on its broader ESG goals, it should provide clearer justification to shareholders as to how it intends for shareholders to approach and how it intends to use the results of these different votes. However, given the totality of the Company's ESG reporting, there is no reason to oppose this proposal at this time.Consequently, we are voting for this proposal. |

| Shareholder Proposal Regarding Retention of Shares Until Normal Retirement Age | Zustimmung | Minimum share ownership policies are an attempt to bridge the gap by requiring that executives hold a certain number of shares, intended to represent material monetary risk exposure to the company's stock price, throughout their employment. In most cases, executives have five years to meet ownership requirements, and do so by retaining shares from their equity grants. However, this proposal proscribes a "retention ratio" mechanism that would automatically bank a certain percentage of stock awarded through equity pay programs until reaching "normal retirement age."This could require executives to hold gains from equity grants for potentially decades, should they depart the Company well before they reach "normal retirement age." Conversely, it could allow an executive to no longer maintain equity holdings once they reach this age, even if they continue in their role at the Company for years after their "normal retirement age."Although this is potentially problematic, it is worth noting that this proposal is precatory in nature, which allows the Company to craft a policy that better ensures that executives' shareholdings align their interests with those of investors. Considering this is in line with policy, and the fact that the Company has significant flexibility in how the policy is constructed such that it is able to best serve its long-term goals and objectives, we are voting for this proposal. |

However, vesting of the restricted share units is dependent on the performance against targets under the STI for FY2024. This performance outcome creates a corresponding amount in a "LTI Bank" , from which the cash equivalent value of the restricted share units will be paid.The proposed LTI lacks bonus-malus and/or any recovery provisions.The remuneration structure allows for vesting of awards in under 3 years. Specifically, restricted shares vest in three equal tranches each year for 3 years.The LTI does not include ESG criteria.As this is against policy, we are voting against this proposal. |

| Authority to Set General Meeting Notice Period at 15days | Ablehnung | If approved, the notice period for an extraordinary general meeting will be reduced from 30 to 15 days.While this shortened notice period resulted from implementation of an optional provision contained in the EU Shareholders Rights Directive, most European countries did not implement the provision regarding a shortened notice period in national law. | Supplementary Agreement to the Finance Service Agreement to be Signed with a Company | Noch offen | It is a common practice for Chinese companies to make deposit transactions through a financial arm of their parent company or within their groups. Such pooling of the group's cash through an unlisted financial vehicle may give the parent company control over the listed company's finances. In addition, such practices may lead to lax lending practices within the parent group, potentially exposing the shareholders of a listed company to undisclosed risks. Further, in this case, the explanation provided by the Company does not justify the transactions. As this is not entirely in line with policy, we are voting against this proposal. |

| Remuneration Report | Ablehnung | The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. However:The Company has failed to implement a long-term incenrive plan.The remuneration benchmark used for pay-setting is not disclosed.The Company has failed to implement executive stock ownership guidelines.As this is against policy, we are voting against this proposal. |
| Reduction of Share Capital and Bonus Issue | Zustimmung | The increase in the share capital by an amount equal to the reduction will allow the Company to implement the proposed redemption plan without obtaining the Swedish Companies Registration Office's or a general court's permission, in accordance with Swedish law. | Authority to Repurchase Shares | Zustimmung | At this time, there is no evidence of any past abuse of this type of authority at the company. Consequently, as these authorizations are within the recommended thresholds, we are voting for this proposal. |
| Shareholder Proposal Regarding  Zero Tolerance of Clothes as Waste | Ablehnung | This proposal requests that the Company adopt zero tolerance of clothes as waste in 2025, irrespective of whether this is unsold clothing from stores or clothes purchased by the Company's customers. The Company has called for establishing an EU-wide harmonized Extended Producer Responsibility to enable efficient collecting, sorting, and recycling across the EU, in addition to other actions towards increasing recycling capacity and standardizing sorting, collecting, and recycling infrastructure across the EU. Further, the Company maintains goals to achieve 30% of its materials to be recycled by 2025 and 50% by 2030 with the other 50% being sustainably sourced. It also discusses helping its suppliers make the transition to a circular system and investing in innovations to produce recycled, regenerative, and responsible materials. As such, the proponent has failed to demonstrate that the Company is not taking this issue seriously and has not provided a sufficiently strong rationale for this proposal. Therefore, we are voting against this proposal. |
| Shareholder Proposal Regarding  Report on Costs Due to Down Sales | Zustimmung | Proposals requesting that a Company enhance its disclosure on how it's managing any risks resulting from animal cruelty in its supply chain are in line with policy. Given this, we are voting for this proposal. |

| Advisory Vote on Executive Compensation | Ablehnung | The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. However:The LTI does not include ESG criteria.It should be noted that the LTIP awards include PSUs, RSUs and performance stock options; with performance stock options being measured solely by the stock price. In this case, stock price is measured over a 20 consecutive trading day period. This provides multiple opportunities to achieve the performance goal. The structure of this award does not necessarily encourage sustained, long-term performance during the performance period as shares may be earned at any time during the overall measurement period. While the additional vesting conditions are favorable, the use of a rolling share price hurdle allows for significant awards to be "banked" and eventually earned even if strong performance is not sustained. The Company plans to discontinue the granting of options under the upcoming fiscal year's executive compensation program, which eliminates this concern going forward.As this is not entirely in line with policy, we are voting against this proposal. |
| Amendment to the 2004 Stock Incentive Plan | Zustimmung | Remuneration plans should be adequately disclosed and should reward executives for good performance. According to policy, dilution for all compensation plans should be no higher than 10% of share capital.Given that the company`s plan is fully compliant with policy and, in the absence of any evidence of past abuse by the company of this type of authority, we are supporting this proposal. |
| Amendment to Articles to Limit the Liability of Certain Officers | Ablehnung | The proposed amendment essentially removes liability for an officer's breach of his or her duty of care. Such protections are counter to the interests of shareholders.In this case, the board has failed to persuasively demonstrate the need for the proposed provisions. It is believed that shareholders should be wary about approving any officer exculpation provisions without compelling evidence that it will benefit shareholders. Consequently, we are voting against this proposal. |

| Appointment of Auditor | Zustimmung | There is no indication of any investigations or pending court cases pertaining to the auditor. Moreover, fees paid to the auditor are appropriate and all necessary information regarding the auditor have been provided in the Company`s filings. Therefore, we are voting for this proposal. |
| Authority to Set Auditor's Fees | Zustimmung | The fees paid to the auditor are appropriate and are clearly disclosed by the Company. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal. |
| Authorisation of Political Donations | Zustimmung | At this time, there is no evidence of any past abuse of this type of authority at the company. This is primarily technical item. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal. |
| Authority to Issue Shares w/ Preemptive Rights | Ablehnung | In this case, the board will be authorised to potentially issue up to 66% of the Company`s current issued share capital with preemptive rights. As this exceeds the limit set by policy, we are voting against this proposal. |
| Authority to Issue Shares w/o Preemptive Rights | Ablehnung | In this case, the board will be authorised to potentially issue up to 5% of the Company`s current issued share capital without preemptive rights, which, if considered cumulatively with authorizations in Proposals 08 and 10, exceeds the limit set by policy. | Authority to Repurchase Shares Off-Market | Zustimmung | At this time, there is no evidence of any past abuse of this type of authority at the company. Consequently, as these authorizations are within the recommended thresholds, we are voting for this proposal. |
| Authority to Issue Shares and Convertible Debt w/ Preemptive Rights | Ablehnung | Under this proposal, the board's authority to issue shares would extend beyond the 66% of ordinary capital routinely sought by UK companies, to include shares issuable on conversion of CCSs. As such, this authority would provide the board with an extremely high level of control over the Company's issued share capital, including issuances on a non-preemptive basis (Proposal 15).However, the issuance of CCSs will not cause dilution to existing ordinary shareholders unless a trigger event causes them to be converted into equity. Further, the Company has planned actions to forestall such an event and, should a trigger event occur, shareholders would be provided the opportunity to participate in the issuance of new shares.In this case, the board will be authorised to potentially issue up to 20% of the Company`s current issued share capital with preemptive rights, which, if considered cumulatively with authorizations in Proposals 08, 09, 10, and 11 exceeds the limit set by policy. Consequently, we are voting against this proposal. |
| Authority to Issue Shares and Convertible Debt w/o Preemptive Rights | Ablehnung | If approved, the Company will be authorised to allot equity securities, without first offering the securities to existing shareholders on a pro rata basis, in relation to the issue of Contingent Convertible Securities ("CSSs").In this case, the board will be authorised to potentially issue up to 20% of the Company`s current issued share capital without preemptive rights, which, if considered cumulatively with authorizations in Proposals 08, 09, 10, and 11 exceeds the limit set by policy. Consequently, we are voting against this proposal. |
| Authority to Set General Meeting Notice Period at 14 Days | Zustimmung | A shortened general meeting notice period is permitted by the UK Corporate Governance Code and the EU Shareholders Rights Directive, provided that a company conforms to specific electronic voting and communication requirements, as is the case here. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal. |

| Shareholder Proposal Regarding Pension Scheme | Zustimmung | This shareholder resolution was requisitioned by a campaign group, the Midland Clawback Campaign Shareholder group. The scheme under discussion is the post 1974 Midland Section defined benefit pension plan. It has approximately 52,000 members: all UK employees who joined the Bank between December 31, 1974 and before July 1, 1996 were eligible to join. It is a final salary plan, designed to pay two-thirds of salary on retirement.The state deduction is the feature used to apply a downward adjustment to the pension, when a member reaches pension age, to reflect that employees would usually receive state pension. In this way, the target level of income is broadly maintained. This feature is also known as pension integration and was introduced in 1975.In these cases, it is important to look beyond a strict interpretation of the letter of the law and also take into account the Company's engagement efforts with shareholders and broader societal expectations. This state deduction is effectively a clawback mechanism, in this case the practice of withholding part of an occupational pension when a person reaches state pension age. In the Company's 2021 Notice of Meeting, the Midland Clawback Campaign Shareholder group outlined how "the manner in which this is applied, is hugely disproportionate, unfair, and significantly impacts the lowest paid, mainly women.".All employees who joined HSBC Bank plc (or Midland Bank plc at the time) after 31 December 1974 and before 1 July 1996 were eligible to join the Post 1974 Midland Section of the Scheme. The Post 1974 Section provides final salary benefits, and was non-contributory until 2009. It was designed to ensure that members received an overall pension of broadly two-thirds of final salary on retirement (provided they worked for the company for 40 years). The Post 1974 Section consists of approximately 52,000 members. The State Deduction feature applies to all members of this section of the Scheme.The cost of a company pension is driven by salary and then pension paid. HSBC Clawback is not linked to salary but to State Pension. In practice, this means that if a top manager and a junior staff member work an equal number of years, an identical deduction is made to their company pension.Considering the proposed change would help with reducing this aforementioned inequality and is not otherwise contrary to policy, we are voting for this proposal. |

| Beschlussfassung über die Billigung des Vergütungsberichts für das Geschäftsjahr 2023 | Ablehnung | Über das Vergütungssystem wurde zuletzt im Jahr 2021 abgestimmt und erlangte eine Zustimmungsquote von 92,21%.Da das System überwiegend in Einklang mit den Richtlinien ist und darüber hinaus transparent dargestellt wird, könnte der Antrag unkritisch gesehen werden.Allerdings fehlt dem Vergütungssystem eine ESG-Komponente, da die Leistungskriterien für den LTI lediglich an finanziellen Kennzahlen orientiert sind. | Beschlussfassung über die Billigung des Vergütungssystems für den Vorstand | Zustimmung | Über das Vergütungssystem wurde zuletzt im Jahr 2021 abgestimmt und erreichte eine Zustimmungsrate von 92,21%. | Wahlen von Aufsichtsratsmitgliedern: Ludwig Merckle | Ablehnung | Es ergeben sich keine Anhaltspunkte, welche Zweifel an der Qualifikation von Ludwig Merckle begründen könnten. Allerdings kann dieses Aufsichtsratsmitglied nicht als unabhängig erachtet werden. Es entspricht nicht den Richtlinien, dass ein nicht unabhängiges Mitglied den Vorsitz des Vergütungsausschusses einnimmt. Zwar wird in der Tagesordnung explizit festgehalten, dass die Unabhängigkeitsstruktur der Ausschüsse verbessert werden soll, nicht jedoch konkret, ob dies auch für den Vorsitz des Vergütungsausschusses gelten wird. Given this, we are voting for this proposal. |
| Elect HUI Ching Lau | Ablehnung | There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualifications of nominee HUI Ching Lau. However, as the board of directors does not have sufficient gender diversity, we are voting against all male directors. Further, as the board of directors, the remuneration committee and the nominating committee do not comprise an adequate number of independent members, we are voting against all insider and affiliated directors. In addition, given the information provided, the candidate holds too many mandates to be in line with policy (Director/CEO - Hengan International Group Company Limited; Executive chair - Qinqin Foodstuffs Group (Cayman) Co., Ltd). Further, it should be noted that this nominee concurrently serves as the Chair at Qinqin Foodstuffs Group (Cayman) Co., Ltd and CEO at Hengan International Group Company Limited, which is against policy. Consequently, we are opposing this director`s election. |

However, as the board of directors does not have sufficient gender diversity, we are voting against all male directors. | Elect Ada WONG Ying Kay | Ablehnung | There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualifications of nominee Ada WONG Ying Kay. However, as the board of directors, the remuneration committee and the nominating committee do not comprise an adequate number of independent members, we are voting against all insider and affiliated directors. The policy also requires the audit committee chair to be independent. In addition, the nominee has already been a non-executive member of the board for more than 15 years, which is against policy. Moreover, this director serves as audit committee chair and the audit committee met less than four times during the last fiscal year, which is not in line with best practice. Consequently, we are opposing this director`s election. |
| Directors' Fees | Zustimmung | The proposed fees are reasonable and in line with those paid by the Company`s peers. Therefore, we are voting for this proposal. |
| Appointment of Auditor and Authority to Set Fees | Ablehnung | There is no indication of any investigations or pending court cases pertaining to the auditor have been disclosed. Moreover, fees paid to the auditor are appropriate. | Authority to Issue Shares w/o Preemptive Rights | Ablehnung | In this case, the board will be authorised to potentially issue up to 20% of the Company`s current issued share capital without preemptive rights. As this exceeds the limit set by policy, and the Company has not provided the maximum discount rate in the Company`s disclosures, we are voting against this proposal. |
| Authority to Repurchase Shares | Ablehnung | At this time, there is no evidence of any past abuse of this type of authority at the company. However, the maximum and minimum price has not been disclosed. As this is against policy, we are voting against this proposal. |
| Authority to Issue Repurchased Shares | Ablehnung | This proposal is conditional upon the passing of Proposals 10 and 11, which we opposed, and the Company has not provided the maximum discount rate in its disclosures, which is against policy. Consequently, we are voting against this proposal. |

| Amendments to Articles | Zustimmung | In this case, there is no cause for shareholder concern regarding the proposed amendments. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal. |
| Accounts and Reports | Zustimmung | The Company's audited annual and consolidated accounts were available for review in advance of this shareholder meeting. As no evidence has been presented that would question the accuracy of these reports, one should consider this item as routine. Therefore, we are voting for this proposal. |
| Allocation of Dividends | Zustimmung | A proposed dividend allocation should be comparable to industry peers and should mirror the financial health of the company. In principle, an acceptable pay-out ratio should be above 20 percent and below 100 percent. The company's aggregate pay-out ratio for the fiscal year is in an acceptable range. Given this, we are voting for this proposal. |

The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. However:The Company has failed to implement executive stock ownership guidelines.Although the Company operates LTI, it should be noted that all incentives are paid out in cash, with no equity payouts or deferral requirements, and the vesting period for the first tranche (one third) is two years.Compensation is not linked to materially significant ESG indicator.The board can grant discretionary bonuses.As this is not entirely in line with policy, we are voting against this proposal. |

| Election of One Director | Ablehnung | Shareholders are now invited to submit candidates to fill the vacant board position. However, as this lack of information is not entirely in line with policy, we are voting against this proposal. |
| Election of Vice Chair | Ablehnung | The board has not made any proposals with regard to the vice chair and has invited shareholders to vote in accordance with the proposals that will be made at the general meeting. However, as this lack of information is not entirely in line with policy, we are voting against this proposal. |
| Authority to Repurchase and Reissue Shares | Zustimmung | At this time, there is no evidence of any past abuse of this type of authority at the company. Consequently, as these authorizations are within the recommended thresholds, we are voting for this proposal. |
| Directors' liability action | Zustimmung | Where there is a violation of directors' duties, a solvent joint stock company can bring a liability action against the directors under Article 2393 of the Civil Code. Although any damages that the court awards are paid to the company rather than to the shareholders that have brought the action, it appears to be in shareholders' best interest to hold a director liable for a breach of his duties. As a result, it is recommended to view this item in a non-critical fashion should it occur.Therefore, we are voting for this proposal. |

| Elect Gary M. Reiner | Ablehnung | Nominee Gary M. Reiner serves as chair of the governance committee. During the year in review, the board adopted a forum selection clause designating courts in the state of Delaware as the sole and exclusive forum for certain legal actions against the Company, including: (i) derivative actions brought on behalf of the Company; (ii) claims of breach of fiduciary duty by directors, officers or employees of the Company; (iii) claims arising pursuant to any provision of state law; or (iv) claims arising under the internal affairs doctrine.In this case, the Company has not provided a compelling case for why shareholders should accept any limitations on their legal remedy, including choice of venue. | Advisory Vote on Executive Compensation | Ablehnung | The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. Specifically, Pablo J. Cagnoni received a sign-on award, comprised of RSU's, valued at $11,999,988 along with a cash relocation bonus of $737,362. The value of the award rivals the total annual LTIP for the CEO during the year in review and is nearly five times the value of his 2023 annual equity incentives. In addition, the Company has not adequately discussed how this quantum was determined. | Authority to Set Extraordinary Meeting Notice Period at 15 days | Ablehnung | If approved, the notice period for an extraordinary general meeting will be reduced from 30 to 15 days. This authority may limit the ability of some shareholders, particularly those who intend to vote by proxy, from participating at a meeting in a fully-informed manner due to the advanced voting deadlines that are common in Spain. 15 days is insufficient time for shareholders to receive a ballot, weigh the issues and submit voting decisions. In practice, such a short notice period may leave some shareholders with no time to review a proposal before submitting voting decisions in order to meet a voting deadline. Further, issues raised at extraordinary general meetings are by nature often more complex than routine annual general meeting proposals, thereby requiring a more in-depth review. As this is not entirely in line with policy, we are voting against this proposal. |

| Shareholder Proposal Regarding Cage-Free Eggs | Zustimmung | The Company states that it will support the industry-wide transition to cage-free hen housing by shifting its own egg sales to cage-free, and maintains a goal to have 100% of both the shell and liquid eggs it sells come from cage-free hens by 2025. The Company further states that it supports the industry's cage-free trajectory, and looks forward to working with its suppliers to achieve a cage-free supply chain. The Company also provides information on its animal welfare guidelines and policies, and states that it supports the globally-recognized "Five Freedoms" of animal welfare as a goal for its suppliers.In addition, in response to a similar proposal submitted in 2022, the Company stated that since setting its cage-free goal in 2016, it has increased the percentage of such sales comprising cage-free shell and liquid eggs each year, and that it continues to work with suppliers to meet its 2025 goal (2022 DEF14A, p.28).As the Company may be exposed to risks resulting from animal cruelty in its supply chain and as demands for increased transparency are generally in line with the basic policy requirements, we are voting for this proposal. |

| Shareholder Proposal Regarding Formation of Corporate Financial Sustainability Committee and Public Report | Ablehnung | It should be noted that the proponent of this proposal is the National Center for Public Policy Research ("NCPPR"). NCPPR has a history of submitting shareholder proposals that, upon first impression, appear consistent with environmental and social proposals that call for information or action on enhancing companies' approaches to environmental and social factors but, upon further review, appear to be designed to inhibit companies' actions in such areas. The NCPPR describes itself as a "communications and research foundation supportive of a strong national defense and dedicated to providing free-market solutions to today's public policy problems" that believes "the principles of a free market, individual liberty and personal responsibility provide the greatest hope for meeting the challenges facing America in the 21st century." A division of the NCPPR, the Free Enterprise Project, routinely engages companies on issues such as healthcare, immigration, gun rights, energy, taxes, religious freedom, media bias, corporate free speech, and ideological diversity, among other issues, often by questioning executives at annual meetings or through the submission of shareholder proposals.The proponent has also failed to demonstrate that adoption of this proposal is necessary to ensure that the Company properly mitigates the risks associated with financial sustainability issues, particularly given the oversight already afforded to these issues, as outlined by the Company. Moreover, this proposal has been labeled as "Anti-ESG" due to the shareholder proponent. These proponents have generally submitted proposals that address environmental and social issues and their aims are fairly clearly articulated in their supporting statements. We are concerned that support for this resolution would buoy the proponents arguments and would advance a narrative that may contradict that of investors concerned about companies ESG performance. As a result, we are voting against this proposal. |
| Shareholder Proposal Regarding Report on Company Response to State Policies Regulating Abortion | Ablehnung | In this case the shareholder proponent is American Family Association, an anti-ESG proponent and non-profit organization that was founded in 1977 by the pastor of First United Methodist Church in Southaven, Mississippi. Since this time, it states that it has been 'on the front lines of America's culture war.' Currently, it states that it is 'one of the largest and most effective pro-family organizations in the country.' The AFA states that its mission is to 'inform, equip, and activate individuals and families to transform American culture and give aid to the church, here and abroad, in its calling to fulfill the Great Commission'.Given that requests from anti-ESG proponents are not in line with policy, we are voting against this proposal. |

| Shareholder Proposal Regarding Report on Corporate Operations with China | Ablehnung | In this case, the proponent of this proposal is the National Center for Public Policy Research (NCPPR). A division of the NCPPR, the Free Enterprise Project ('FEP') describes itself as 'the conservative movement's only full-service shareholder activism and education program: It files shareholder resolutions, engages corporate CEOs and board members at shareholder meetings, petitions the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) for interpretative guidance, and sponsors effective media campaigns to create the incentives for corporations to stay focused on their missions.' This proponent has generally submitted proposals that appear to be focused on E&S issues on their face but are designed to frustrate the company's actions around ESG performance. Therefore, we are voting against this proposal. |
| Shareholder Proposal Regarding Right to Act by Written Consent | Zustimmung | The terms of this proposal are reasonable and will prevent abuse and waste of corporate resources while enabling shareholders to take action on important issues that arise between annual meetings. Given that this request is in line with policy, we are voting for this proposal. |
| Shareholder Proposal Regarding Lobbying Activity Alignment with Net Zero Emissions Target | Zustimmung | In this case, the proposal is requesting that the Company annually analyze and report to shareholders on whether and how it is aligning its lobbying and policy influence activities and positions, both direct and indirect (through trade associations, coalitions, alliances, and other organizations) with its target of net zero emissions 2030, including the activities and positions analyzed, the criteria used to assess alignment, and involvement of stakeholders, if any, in the analytical process. Given that this requested disclosure is in line with policy, we are voting for this proposal. |
| Shareholder Proposal Regarding Adoption of Targets to Achieve Net Zero Emissions by 2050 | Zustimmung | It should be noted that, in response to this proposal, the Company states that it enhanced its supplier engagement in April 2021 by establishing a new goal requiring key suppliers in emissions-intensive business sectors to set a goal to reduce their Scope 1 and Scope 2 emissions that is aligned with scientific recommendations from the IPCC to limit Earth's warming to 1.5°C above pre-industrial levels. The Company also demonstrates its methodical approach to emissions and broader climate risk management. Nonetheless, proposals requesting the adoption of net zero targets are in line with policy. Therefore, we are voting for this proposal. |
