2025 Remuneration Policy (Management Board)	Against	The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with applicable legislation. The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. However: The Company has failed to disclose key details of its executive remuneration system, which precludes shareholders from adequately assessing to what extent this aligns executive pay with the Company's performance and market best practice. The proposed remuneration policy lacks bonus-malus and/or any recovery provisions. The Company has failed to disclose the performance metrics, vesting period or payout limit for the LTIP. The board can grant discretionary bonuses. It should also be noted that 36.9% of minority shareholders voted against the remuneration policy at last year's general meeting. The Company's has failed to sufficiently respond to legitimate shareholder dissent. As this is against policy, we are voting against this proposal.
2025 Remuneration Policy (Supervisory Board)	For	The proposed fees are reasonable and in line with those paid by the Company's peers. Therefore, we are voting for this proposal.
2024 Remuneration Report	Against	The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with applicable legislation. The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. However: The remuneration structure lacks bonus-malus and/or any recovery provisions. In the past fiscal year, the board awarded one-off bonuses outside the regular annual incentive plan. The Company lags behind market peers on disclosure of key details of its executive remuneration report. For example, the Company has failed to disclose the performance and vesting period or performance metrics attached to the long-term incentive plan. It should also be noted that more than 59.95% of minority shareholders voted against the Company's remuneration report proposal at last year's AGM. The Company has not disclosed any actions taken to identify or address shareholder concerns, which is a failure to respond to legitimate shareholder dissent. As this is against policy, we are voting against this proposal.

Authority to Increase Capital Through Capitalisations	For	The successive or simultaneous capitalisation of reserves, retained earnings or additional paid-in capital would benefit shareholders by allowing the Company to increase paid-in capital through a series of alternatives, above and beyond the issuance of shares. Moreover, when companies capitalize reserves, retained earnings or paid-in capital, there is no risk of dilution. This procedure merely transfers wealth to shareholders and does not impact share value. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal.
Authority to Grant Stock Options	Against	Remuneration plans should be adequately disclosed and should reward executives for good performance. According to policy, dilution for all compensation plans should be no higher than 10% of share capital. While the level of dilution is in line with policy, the Company has failed to disclose the performance metrics, vesting period or payout limit for the LTIP. Therefore, we are voting against this proposal.

Advisory Vote on Executive Compensation	Against	The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. However: The Company has failed to link pay with performance. Severance package payments are not limited to a maximum of two-years' salary. The LTI does not include ESG criteria. The board can grant discretionary bonuses. Specifically, Don W. Cummings received a retention award comprised of RSUs, valued at $535,239. It should be noted that these awards are not subject to any performance criteria and vest over a two-year period. The remuneration structure allows for adjusted metrics. As this is against policy, we are voting against this proposal.

Accounts and Reports; Remuneration Report	Against	The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. However: The Company has failed to implement executive stock ownership guidelines. However, it should be noticed that the CEO is a member of the Soares dos Santos family, which beneficially owns approximately 56% of the Company's issued share capital. The proposed remuneration policy lacks bonus-malus and/or any recovery provisions. The Company has failed to implement a long-term incentive plan. The report does not provide transparency on chosen benchmarks. Focus on Opaque Qualitative Metrics: A significant portion of the bonus incentive plan (50% for the CEO) is based on qualitative metrics that have not been clearly defined and disclosed by the Company. Due to the nature of these metrics and the lack of transparency on their assessment process, this portion of the award does not appear to be linked to any pre-determined targets, but rather assessed ex-post by the board through an evaluation of the Company's individual executive's contributions to achievements in the selected areas. Although the Company states it has introduced ESG metrics under the annual bonus scheme, it has not disclosed detailed information on the nature or measurement of these indicators. As this is not entirely in line with policy, we are voting against this proposal.
Allocation of Profits/ Dividends	For	A proposed dividend allocation should be comparable to industry peers and should mirror the financial health of the company. In principle, an acceptable pay-out ratio should be above 20 percent and below 100 percent. The company's aggregate pay-out ratio for the fiscal year is in an acceptable range. Given this, we are voting for this proposal.
Ratification of Board and Supervisory Council Acts	Against	There is no indication of any investigations or pending court cases pertaining to current member of the Board of Directors and the Chief Executive Officer at the company. However, several governance and transparency requirements have not been met: The positions of Chair and CEO are combined. The board of directors is not sufficiently independent. The audit committee is not sufficiently independent. The audit committee chair is not independent. The Company has failed to disclose individual attendance at board / committee meetings. As this is contrary to policy, we are voting against this proposal.

Remuneration Policy	Against	The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. However: Severance agreements are not clearly disclosed. As such, it is unclear whether severance package payments are limited to a maximum of two-years' salary. The Company has failed to implement executive stock ownership guidelines. However, it should be noticed that the CEO is a member of the Soares dos Santos family, which beneficially owns approximately 56% of the Company's issued share capital. The proposed remuneration policy lacks bonus-malus and/or any recovery provisions. The Company has failed to implement a long-term incentive plan. The report does not provide transparency on chosen indices, benchmarks or peer-groups. The payout limit under the STIP for the CEO increased by 50%, to 300% of salary (previously 100% of base salary). Further, the Company has not provided any rationale for the increase. This is particularly concerning given the Company's historic lack of disclosure surrounding metric weights, target of metrics and overall traceability of payouts. As this is not entirely in line with policy, we are voting against this proposal.

Election of Corporate Bodies	Against	There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualification and suitability of nominee Elizabeth A. Bastoni, María Ángela Holguín Cuéllar and Natalia Anna Olynec. Consequently, we are supporting these directors' elections. However, while there are no evident reasons to doubt the qualification and suitability of nominee Pedro Manuel de Castro Soares dos Santos, this director will be serving as the combined Chair/CEO in the upcoming year, which is against policy. Further, José Soares dos Santos has already been a member of the board for more than 15 years, which is against policy. As the board of directors, audit committee and corporate governance and nominating committee do not comprise an adequate number of independent members, we are voting against all insider and affiliated directors that serve on the board and/or these committees. Moreover, the policy requires the audit committee chair to be independent. Consequently, we are voting against the election of non-independent nominees Pedro Manuel de Castro Soares dos Santos, António Pedro de Carvalho Viana-Baptista, Arthur Stefan Kirsten, Andrzej Szlezak, José Soares dos Santos, Sérgio Rebelo, Francisco Seixas da Costa and Clara-Christina Streit. While we would normally support the election of some of these nominees, it should be noted that the company is bundling all elections under one resolution. Consequently, we are voting against this proposal.
Appointment of Auditor (PwC)	For	There is no indication of any investigations or pending court cases pertaining to the auditor. Further, fees paid to the auditor are appropriate and all necessary information regarding the auditor have been provided in the Company's filings. Moreover, rotating auditors is considered to be an important safeguard that helps to ascertain the independence of the auditor, and may also protect against lack of oversight due to complacency or conflicts of interest between the auditor and the Company. Therefore, we are voting for this proposal.
Appointment of Auditor (KPMG)	Not voted	Following the analysis in Proposal 6.a, this is being treated as a non-voting proposal.
Appointment of Auditor (Against both Options)	Not voted	Following the analysis in Proposal 6.a, this is being treated as a non-voting proposal.
Appointment of Auditor (Abstain both Options)	Not voted	Following the analysis in Proposal 6.a, we are abstaining from this proposal.

Final Dividend	Against	A proposed dividend allocation should be comparable to industry peers and should mirror the financial health of the company. In principle, an acceptable pay-out ratio should be above 20 percent and below 100 percent. The Company has proposed a dividend pay-out below 20 percent for the second year despite the reported net profit. As this is against policy, we are voting against this proposal.
Elect Robin Terrell	Against	There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualification and suitability of nominee Robin Terrell. However, as the board of directors does not have sufficient gender diversity, we are voting against all male directors. The Company has failed to disclose the board oversight of ESG, which is not in line with policy. As such, we are voting against the re-election of this director as the chair of the governance committee.

Elect Richard Green	Against	There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualification and suitability of nominee Richard Green. However, as the board of directors does not have sufficient gender diversity, we are voting against all male directors. Furthermore, nominee Richard Green received £87,000 from the Company for consulting services during the most recently completed fiscal year. The need for the Company to engage in consulting relationships with its directors should be questioned. Such relationships can potentially create conflicts for directors, as they may be forced to weigh their own interests in relation to shareholder interests when making board decisions. In addition, the Company's decision regarding where to turn for the best professional services may be compromised when doing business with the professional services firm of the Company's directors. Consequently, we are opposing this director's election.
Elect Rachel Kentleton	For	There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualification and suitability of nominee Rachel Kentleton. Consequently, we are supporting this director's election.
Elect Angela Luger	For	There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualification and suitability of nominee Angela Luger. Consequently, we are supporting this director's election.

Authority to Set Auditor's Fees	For	The fees paid to the auditor are appropriate and are clearly disclosed by the Company. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal.
Authority to Issue Shares w/ Preemptive Rights	Against	In this case, the board will be authorised to potentially issue up to 66% of the Company's current issued share capital with preemptive rights, which, if considered cumulatively with authorizations in Proposals 13 and 14, exceeds the limit set by policy. Consequently, we are voting against this proposal.

Advisory Vote on Executive Compensation	Against	The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. However: Severance package payments are not limited to a maximum of two-years' salary. Remuneration Policy	Against	The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. However: The Company has failed to link pay with performance. The Company has failed to implement executive stock ownership guidelines. The proposed remuneration policy lacks bonus-malus and/or any recovery provisions. Compensation is not linked to materially significant ESG indicator. Less than at least 2 KPIs are used as performance LTI criteria. Metrics under the STI have not been disclosed. Specifically, the CEO received a base salary increase of 23.5% for the past fiscal year. Remuneration Report	Against	The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. However: The board can grant discretionary bonuses. In the past fiscal year, the board awarded one-off bonuses outside the regular annual incentive plan. Specifically, the Company accelerated the vesting of the awarded grants from LTI 2021, LTI 2022 and LTI 2023 with the performance years 2024 and 2025 calculated as target levels. The former CEO Ehrnrooth received shares valued at EUR 1,404,174, EUR 1,769,058 and EUR 3,048,311 as part of the accelerated LTI 2021, LTI 2022 and LTI 2023 plans, respectively. The total amount of the vested awards from these plans represents 815.7% of the former CEO Ehrnrooth's 2023 salary. In addition, the Company granted Mr. Ehrnrooth an additional incentive in the form of 49,399 class B shares, delivered as a cash payment of EUR 2,488,659. This payment represents another discretionary payment at 362.2% of his latest base salary. While the acceleration is made in lieu of contractual notice severance pay, the Company's remuneration policy authorizes the board to decide on up to a six-month notice period and a severance pay of up to 12 months' base salary, which in total corresponds to 150% of the base salary. As such, the amounts are disproportionate, and the Company did not disclose any rationale other than the accomplishment of certain performance targets for the cash payment. The remuneration structure allows for adjusted metrics under the LTI. The Company's remuneration practices have been the subject of significant minority shareholder dissent and the Company's has failed to address this dissent in a meaningful manner. As this is not entirely in line with policy, we are voting against this proposal.
Directors' Fees	For	The proposed fees are reasonable and in line with those paid by the Company's peers. Therefore, we are voting for this proposal.
Board Size	For	The boards of directors of Finnish listed companies usually consist of three to ten directors. The number of directors depends on the provisions of the company's articles of association and the general meeting's decisions and varies from one company to another. There are no indications of any controversy regarding the board size at this company. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal.

Elect Jussi Herlin	Against	There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualifications of nominee Jussi Herlin. However, the board has not appointed an independent non-executive vice chair or lead director. An independent vice chair or lead director is viewed as better able to oversee the executives of the Company and set a pro-shareholder agenda without the conflicts that an affiliated director might face. This leads to more proactive and effective work of the board of directors. As such, we are holding this director, as the chair of the nominating committee, accountable for this issue. In addition, as the remuneration committee and nominating committees do not comprise an adequate number of independent members, we are voting against all insider and affiliated directors on these committees. Further, the policy requires the remuneration committee chair to be independent. Consequently, we are opposing this director's election.

Accounts and Reports	For	The Company's audited annual and consolidated accounts were available for review in advance of this shareholder meeting. As no evidence has been presented that would question the accuracy of these reports, one should consider this item as routine. Therefore, we are voting for this proposal.
Remuneration Report	Against	The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. However: The remuneration structure allows for adjusted metrics under the STI. As this is not entirely in line with policy, we are voting against this proposal.
Remuneration Policy	Against	The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. However: Compensation is not linked to materially significant ESG indicator. The board can grant discretionary bonuses. Specifically, the annual bonus is discretionary. The committee chooses and weights the criteria and sets targets each year, in line with business priorities. An element of the bonus may also be based on personal performance. As this is against policy, we are voting against this proposal.
Final Dividend	For	A proposed dividend allocation should be comparable to industry peers and should mirror the financial health of the company. In principle, an acceptable pay-out ratio should be above 20 percent and below 100 percent. The company's aggregate pay-out ratio for the fiscal year is in an acceptable range. Given this, we are voting for this proposal.
Elect Richard McCann	For	There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualification and suitability of nominee Richard McCann. Consequently, we are supporting this director's election.
Elect Brendan Mooney	For	There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualification and suitability of nominee Brendan Mooney. Consequently, we are supporting this director's election.
Elect Katie Davis	For	There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualification and suitability of nominee Katie Davis. Consequently, we are supporting this director's election.
Elect Rosaleen Blair	Against	There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualification and suitability of nominee Rosaleen Blair. However, the Company's Human Rights Policy does not align with UDHR or ILO, which is not in line with policy. As such, we are voting against the re-election of this director as the board chair.

Appointment of Auditor	For	There is no indication of any investigations or pending court cases pertaining to the auditor. Moreover, fees paid to the auditor are appropriate and all necessary information regarding the auditor have been provided in the Company's filings. Therefore, we are voting for this proposal.
Authority to Set Auditor's Fees	For	The fees paid to the auditor are appropriate and are clearly disclosed by the Company. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal.
Amendment to Performance Share Plan	Against	Remuneration plans should be adequately disclosed and should reward executives for good performance. According to policy, dilution for all compensation plans should be no higher than 10% of share capital. In this case, while the proposed dilution is in line with policy, the following issues should be noted: The proposed plan would potentially allow the grant of awards without performance conditions. The proposed plan allows for vesting of awards in under 3 years. As this is against policy, we are voting against this proposal.
Approval of the SAYE plan	For	The proposed plan would provide a way for all employees to acquire ordinary shares in the Company at a discount, encouraging employees to invest in the Company, thereby aligning their interests with those of shareholders. The Company is bound by certain statutory limitations in terms of the amount of shares to be granted pursuant to any Company share incentive plan as well as a monthly contribution limit in order to acquire shares. Given that the proposed plan does not violate policy, we are supporting this proposal.

Share Incentive Plan	For	Remuneration plans should be adequately disclosed and should reward employees for good performance. According to policy, dilution for all compensation plans should be no higher than 10% of share capital. The proposed plan would provide a way for all employees to acquire ordinary shares. Broad-based equity programmes encourage employees to invest in the Company, thereby aligning their interests with those of shareholders. It should be noted that the Company is bound by certain statutory limitations in terms of the amount of shares to be granted pursuant to any Company share incentive plan as well as a monthly contribution limit in order to acquire shares. Moreover, the terms of this proposed plan are reasonable and do not violate policy. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal.
Ireland Restricted Share Scheme	Against	Remuneration plans should be adequately disclosed and should reward executives for good performance. According to policy, dilution for all compensation plans should be no higher than 10% of share capital. While the proposed dilution limit is in line with policy, the following issues should be noted: The plan is not performance based. There is no disclosed cap on incentive limits for awards. The Company has failed to disclose whether the proposed plan contains bonus-malus and/or any recovery provisions. The Company has failed to disclose the vesting period of awards granted under this plan. As such, it is unclear whether the vesting of awards would be subject to a minimum of 3 years. As this is against policy, we are voting against this proposal.
Approval of the Poland Share Plan	For	The proposed plan would provide a way for all employees to acquire ordinary shares in the Company at a discount, encouraging employees to invest in the Company, thereby aligning their interests with those of shareholders. The Company is bound by certain statutory limitations in terms of the amount of shares to be granted pursuant to any Company share incentive plan as well as a monthly contribution limit in order to acquire shares. Authority to Issue Shares w/ Preemptive Rights	Against	In this case, the board will be authorised to potentially issue up to 66% of the Company's current issued share capital with preemptive rights. As this exceeds the limit set by policy, we are voting against this proposal.

Consequently, we are voting against this proposal.
Authority to Issue Shares w/ o Preemptive Rights (Specified Capital Investment)	Against	In this case, the board will be authorised to potentially issue up to 10% of the Company's current issued share capital without preemptive rights, which, if considered cumulatively with authorizations in Proposals 17 and 18, exceeds the limit set by policy. Shareholder Proposal Regarding Election of Yannis Skoufalos	For	The board contends that its current composition is already appropriately structured for overseeing the execution of the K27 Plan and that the expertise offered by the Dissident Nominees is unnecessary at this time. However, Oasis has generally provided a convincing rebuttal to the Company's arguments regarding the Dissident Nominees. Although the Company's outside director nominees have a wealth of experience in the Japanese market, they generally lack the relevant industry-specific and international experience that the Dissident Nominees would provide. The Company's history of execution failures and long-term underperformance may reasonably justify targeted additions to the Company's board, particularly given the lack of industry-specific expertise among the Company's outside directors. Therefore, the addition of three Dissident Nominees - Mr. Skoufalos, Ms. Velando and Ms. Lagodny - is warranted at this time. Expanding the Company's board size to a total of 12 directors (with the election of the Company's nine director candidates and three Dissident Nominees) would strike an appropriate balance of adding capabilities and fresh perspectives without causing excessive disruption and boardroom inefficiencies. Yannis Skoufalos has extensive experience in supply chains and operational productivity through his lengthy tenure at P&G and there are no evident reasons to doubt his qualifications or suitability. Therefore, we are voting for this proposal.
Shareholder Proposal Regarding Election of Martha Velando	For	The board contends that its current composition is already appropriately structured for overseeing the execution of the K27 Plan and that the expertise offered by the Dissident Nominees is unnecessary at this time. Therefore, we are voting for this proposal.

Shareholder Proposal Regarding Election of Hugh G. Shareholder Proposal Regarding Election of Anja Lagodny	For	The board contends that its current composition is already appropriately structured for overseeing the execution of the K27 Plan and that the expertise offered by the Dissident Nominees is unnecessary at this time. Anja Lagodny has experience implementing digital transformation initiatives at both international and Japanese firms and there are no evident reasons to doubt his qualifications or suitability. Therefore, we are voting for this proposal.
Shareholder Proposal Regarding Revision of Compensation for Outside Directors	For	The proposed increase is primarily intended to accommodate the addition of outside directors if the nominees in Proposal 4 are elected. Given our support for the election of three of the Dissident nominees, an increase in directors' overall compensation limit is warranted. Therefore, we are voting for this proposal.
Shareholder Proposal Regarding Restricted Share Plan for Outside Directors	Against	The board notes that it believes stock-based compensation, as proposed in this proposal, should not be introduced until the board has studied the effects and received sufficient feedback from shareholders. While the introduction of stock based compensation does not violate policy, it is reasonable to allow the Company to retain the flexibility to design compensation packages that align with market standards and appropriately reward directors for their responsibilities. Therefore, we are voting against this proposal.

Shareholder Proposal Regarding Equity Compensation Plan for Directors	Against	In this case, the shareholder proponent has proposed replacing the existing equity compensation plan for inside directors with a new plan incorporating specific performance conditions. While many aspects of the proposed plan are in line with policy, this proposal usurps the position of the compensation committee and means that the proponent is directly negotiating inside director's remuneration. The Company must retain the flexibility to design compensation packages that align with market standards and appropriately reward directors for their responsibilities. Accordingly, although there is room for improvement in the Company's existing compensation framework for inside directors, we are voting against this proposal.

Accounts and Reports	For	The Company's audited annual and consolidated accounts were available for review in advance of this shareholder meeting. As no evidence has been presented that would question the accuracy of these reports, one should consider this item as routine. Therefore, we are voting for this proposal.
Allocation of Profits/ Dividends	For	A proposed dividend allocation should be comparable to industry peers and should mirror the financial health of the company. Given this, we are voting for this proposal.
Ratification of Board and CEO Acts	For	There is no indication of any investigations or pending court cases pertaining to current member of the Board of Directors and the Chief Executive Officer at the company. Therefore, we are voting for this proposal.
Remuneration Report	Against	The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. However: Under LTI the Company operates both the Performance Share Plan and the RSU Restricted Share Unit 2017 Plan. It should be noted that the RSU Restricted Share Unit 2017 Plan is not performance based, however no awards were granted under this plan in 2024. The remuneration structure allows for adjusted metrics under the STI. As this is not entirely in line with policy, we are voting against this proposal.
Directors' Fees	For	The proposed fees are reasonable and in line with those paid by the Company's peers. Therefore, we are voting for this proposal.

Resolution on the appropriation of net income for the 2024 financial year	For	The dividend should be reasonable and reflect the company's financial position. An acceptable distribution ratio is generally between 20% and 100%. In this case, the distribution ratio as measured by earnings per share is above 100%, but earnings per share are not in negative territory. Moreover, looking at the FFO is more important here than the EPS. We are therefore voting in favour of the motion overall.
Resolution on the discharge of the Management Board for the 2024 financial year	For	We are not aware of any pending proceedings against members of the Management Board. There are also no other specific governance issues or guidelines violations that could oppose discharge of the members of the Management Board. The discharge can therefore be considered uncritically. Resolution on the partial removal of the authorisation resolved by the general meeting on 19 August 2020 to issue convertible and/or warrant bonds and/or participation rights with option and/or conversion rights (or a combination of these instruments), the creation of a new authorisation of the Management Board to issue convertible and/or warrant bonds and participation rights with option and/or conversion rights (or a combination of these instruments) with authorisation to exclude subscription rights, the amendment of Conditional Capital 2013/2017/2018/2020 and corresponding amendment to the Articles of Association	Against	Increasing the share capital by €11,170,449 would lead to a 15.0% capital dilution. However, 20% can be exceeded on a cumulative basis. Even if the subscription rights exclusions are restricted to 10% overall, this is not within the limits of the analysis guidelines (max. 20% on a cumulative basis, max. 10% exclusion of subscription rights on a cumulative basis). Furthermore, it should be possible to issue profit participation rights, which is also not in line with the guidelines. A critical view should therefore be taken of the motion. We are therefore voting against the motion.
Resolution on the cancellation of the Authorised Capital 2020, the creation of new Authorised Capital 2025 and corresponding amendment to the Articles of Association	Against	Increasing the share capital by €29,787,866.00 would lead to a 40% capital dilution. In addition, 20% can be exceeded on a cumulative basis. Even if the subscription rights exclusions are restricted to 10% overall, this is not within the limits of the analysis guidelines (max. 20% on a cumulative basis, max. 10% exclusion of subscription rights on a cumulative basis). A critical view should therefore be taken of the motion. We are therefore voting against the motion.

Accounts and Reports	For	The Company's audited annual and consolidated accounts were available for review in advance of this shareholder meeting. As no evidence has been presented that would question the accuracy of these reports, one should consider this item as routine. Therefore, we are voting for this proposal.
Report on Non-Financial Information	For	This is a routine presentation of the reports. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal.
Allocation of Profits/ Dividends	For	A proposed dividend allocation should be comparable to industry peers and should mirror the financial health of the company. In principle, an acceptable pay-out ratio should be above 20 percent and below 100 percent. The company's aggregate pay-out ratio for the fiscal year is in an acceptable range. Given this, we are voting for this proposal.
Ratification of Board Acts	Against	There is no indication of any investigations or pending court cases pertaining to current member of the Board of Directors and the Chief Executive Officer at the company. However, several governance and transparency requirements have not been met: The positions of Chair and CEO are combined. The board of directors is not sufficiently independent. Appointment of Auditor	For	As per Spanish market practice, the lead auditor's tenure has not been disclosed in the company's proxy materials or annual report. However, Article 40 of the Law 22/2015 (20th July) requires rotation of the lead auditor every five years. There is no indication of any investigations or pending court cases pertaining to the auditor. Moreover, the fees paid to the auditor are appropriate and are clearly disclosed by the Company. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal.

Authorisation of Legal Formalities	For	This is a routine legal request in Spain. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal.
Remuneration Report	Against	The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. However: The report does not provide transparency on chosen indices, benchmarks or peer-groups. The Company's policy provides equity grants to the executive directors, who are members of the López-Belmonte Encina family, the Company's major shareholders. Given these directors' already substantial ownership, it is inappropriate and against minority shareholder's interests for these executives to receive remuneration in the form of equity. Fixed salary increased by more than 10% within one year without a valid reason. Specifically, the CEO received a base salary increase of 13.5%, while the other two executive directors received a base salary increase of 13% each, for the past fiscal year. As this is against policy, we are voting against this proposal.

Approve Remuneration Policy	Against	The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. However: The Company has failed to implement executive stock ownership guidelines. The Company has a combined incentive scheme which purports to combine the STI and LTI into a single scheme while removing existing variable incentive plans. The proposed combined incentive scheme is too short-term oriented. Performance measures under the plan will generally be assessed either over one year or a three-year trailing period, which may arguably seem too short-term oriented for executives who should ideally be rewarded for long-term sustainability of results, rather than the potential volatility of results encouraged by an emphasis on the short-term. While it should be noted that a great portion of awards (55% in the first five years, 50% thereafter) is delivered in the form of equity, which provides long-term alignment with shareholders, a compelling strategic rationale has not been provided for the introduction of an award type of this nature at this time. Specifically, it is believed a long-term performance gateway/underpin should be utilised unless a cogent justification of a shorter performance period is disclosed. It should be noted that approximately 52.55% and 50.44% of proxy votes cast by shareholders were against the Company's remuneration policy and implementation report at last year's AGM, respectively. This demonstrates a substantial level of shareholder protest at the Company's remuneration policy as well as the implementation report. As this is against policy, we are voting against this proposal.

Further, the nominee has already been a non-executive member of the board for more than 15 years, which is against policy. Moreover, the nominee served on the audit committee in the last year during which time the Company paid excessive fees to its independent auditor for non-audit services, members of the audit committee have a direct responsibility for the compensation paid to the Company's independent auditor. Release of Directors From Non-Competition Restrictions	For	Releasing the board of directors from these restrictions, which prohibit board members from conducting any activities that can be considered to be competitive with the business affairs of the Company, may lead to potential conflicts of interest for directors. In this case, the Company proposes to release its director from non-compete obligation with respect to their directorships in Companies in an unrelated industry, wholly-owned subsidiaries, controlled subsidiaries, substantial shareholders and their subsidiaries or joint ventures. There is no indication that participation in the operations of such entities will lead to conflicts of interest for directors. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal.
Extraordinary Motions	Against	In Taiwan, many companies place an item for extraordinary motions on their proxy forms. However, shareholders of Taiwanese companies who vote via proxy technically may not exercise their voting rights preemptively for any extraordinary motions raised at the general meeting of shareholders. Instead, proxies have full authority to exercise their discretion in supporting or opposing any such motions. As granting unfettered discretion is not in line with policy, we are voting against this proposal.

Election of Directors	Against	There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualifications and suitability of Liv Forhaug, Lars Blecko, Santiago Galaz, Johan Lundberg, and Marita Odélius. Consequently, one should consider these appointments to be non-contentious. However, given the information provided, director Alf Göransson holds too many mandates to be in line with policy (Director - Loomis AB; Chair - Hexpol AB; Director - Sweco AB; Chair - NCC AB). Additionally, the nominee has already been a non-executive member of the board for more than 15 years, which is against policy. Further, policy requires the compensation committee chair to be independent. In addition, as the Compensation Committee does not comprise an adequate number of independent members, we are voting against all insider and affiliated directors on this committee. Consequently, we are opposing this director's election. Moreover, policy requires the audit committee chair to be independent. In addition, given the information provided, director Cecilia Daun Wennborg holds too many mandates to be in line with policy (Director - Loomis AB; Director - Getinge AB; Director - Bravida Holding AB; Director - Oncoceptides AB; Director- Gränges AB; Director- Atvexa AB). Consequently, we are opposing the re-election of nominee Cecilia Daun Wennborg. While we would normally support the election of some of these nominees, it should be noted that the company is bundling all elections under one resolution. Consequently, we are voting against this proposal.
Appointment of Auditor	For	There is no indication of any investigations or pending court cases pertaining to the auditor. One should consider this resolution as routine. Therefore, we are voting for this proposal.
Remuneration Policy	Against	The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. The Company has failed to disclose targets for the STI plan. As this is against policy, we are voting against this proposal.
Remuneration Report	Against	The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. Adoption of Share-Based Incentives (LTIP 2025)	For	Remuneration plans should be adequately disclosed and should reward executives for good performance. According to policy, dilution for all compensation plans should be no higher than 10% of share capital. Given that the company's plan is compliant with policy and, in the absence of any evidence of past abuse by the company of this type of authority, we are supporting this proposal.
Authority to Repurchase and Reissue Shares	For	At this time, there is no evidence of any past abuse of this type of authority at the company. Consequently, as these authorizations are within the recommended thresholds, we are voting for this proposal.
Reduction of Share Capital and Bonus Issue	For	This bonus issue will supplement the dividend discussed in Proposal 9.b. The increase in the share capital by an amount equal to the reduction will allow the Company to implement the proposed redemption plan without obtaining the Swedish Companies Registration Office's or a general court's permission, in accordance with Swedish law. Given that the proposed authorization does not violate policy, we are voting for this proposal.

Advisory Vote on Executive Compensation	Against	The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. However: Severance package payments are not limited to a maximum of two-years' salary. Compensation is not linked to materially significant ESG indicator. The Company's clawback policy is not in line with market best practice (restatement dependent only). The Company's LTI is not based on any performance criteria. The remuneration structure allows for adjusted metrics. As this is against policy, we are voting against this proposal.
Amendment to the Long-Term Performance-Based Incentive Plan	For	Remuneration plans should be adequately disclosed and should reward executives for good performance. According to policy, dilution for all compensation plans should be no higher than 10% of share capital. Discharge of the members of the Management Board	For	We are not aware of any pending proceedings against members of the Management Board. However, there are the following governance deficiencies: no information on the intended participation of all committee members throughout the virtual general meeting. Failure to appoint a member of the Management Board as responsible for ESG issues We consider a discharge of the Management Board to be appropriate overall after weighing up the arguments and despite the criticisms listed and are therefore voting in favour of the motion.
Discharge of the members of the Supervisory Board	Against	We are not aware of any pending proceedings against members of the Supervisory Board. However, some relevant transparency points and/or governance aspects are missing and the following points are missing: No information on the intended participation of all committee members throughout the virtual general meeting Structural independence of the Supervisory Board (<50%) Committees are largely not independent Designation of a Management Board member as responsible for ESG matters Due to some shortcomings with regard to transparency or non-compliance with certain governance requirements, the discharge should be viewed very critically. We are therefore voting against the motion.
Election of the auditor	For	There are no indications that constitute a violation of the guidelines. This motion may therefore be viewed uncritically. We are therefore voting in favour of the motion.
Election of the auditor for sustainability reporting	For	There are no indications that constitute a violation of the guidelines. This motion may therefore be viewed uncritically. We are therefore voting in favour of the motion.
Election to the Supervisory Board: Martin Plavec	Against	In principle, major shareholders should have the right to be adequately represented on the Supervisory Board. However, having fewer than 50% of members who can be considered to be independent is contrary to the guidelines. This is why a critical view should be taken of the election of non-independent members. The election of Martin Plavec should therefore be viewed critically. We are therefore voting against the motion.
Election to the Supervisory Board: Eva-Lotta Sjöstedt	Against	However, this Supervisory Board member attended less than 75% of the meetings, which is contrary to the guidelines. The election of Eva-Lotta Sjöstedt should therefore be viewed critically. We are therefore voting against the motion.

Election to the Supervisory Board: Marek Spurný	Against	In principle, major shareholders should have the right to be adequately represented on the Supervisory Board. Approval of the remuneration report for the 2023/24 financial year	Against	The remuneration system was last voted on in 2023 and achieved an approval rate of 95.02%. The following matters should be referred to: Increase in fixed target remuneration for Dr. Steffen Greubel and Christiane Giesen of over 10%. (Reason: When determining the individual remuneration and the target amounts for the individual remuneration components of the Management Board members, the Supervisory Board has taken into account the function and task of each Management Board member. The appointment of Dr. Steffen Greubel as a Management Board member and his appointment as Chairman of the Management Board were extended for the period 1 May 2024 to 30 April 2029 and his remuneration was adjusted as a result. The appointment of the Management Board and the corresponding employment contract with Christiane Giesen in place since 15 September 2022 were mutually annulled on 31 May 2024. Christiane Giesen was re-appointed member of the Management Board and Labour Director for the period from 1 June 2024 to 31 May 2029, assuming the additional role as Chief Operating Officer. As a result, a new employment contract with correspondingly adjusted remuneration was concluded.) Severance payment of 5,560,000 for Rafael Gasset (severance cap complied with) In addition, there are some weaknesses in the system, which is why the report on the system cannot comply with the guidelines: Possibility of granting special remuneration at reasonable discretion Increase in fixed target remuneration for Rafael Gasset of 11% compared to the previous year without justification. The motion should therefore be viewed critically. We are therefore voting against the motion.

Remuneration Policy	Against	The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. However: The Company has failed to implement executive stock ownership guidelines. The board can grant discretionary bonuses. Specifically, the Company states that no payment is envisaged of discretionary bonuses rewarding performance that refer to previously planned objectives. However, the board has the authority to grant exceptional remuneration in case of extraordinary transactions which shall be the subject of a specific resolution. These payments cannot exceed the annual target value under the short-term incentive system. The remuneration structure allows for adjusted metrics. As this is against policy, we are voting against this proposal.

Allocation of Dividends	For	A proposed dividend allocation should be comparable to industry peers and should mirror the financial health of the company. In principle, an acceptable pay-out ratio should be above 20 percent and below 100 percent. Although the pay-out ratio exceeds 100 percent, the pay-out ratio is with 108% only slightly above the limit. Therefore, we are voting for this proposal.

Appointment of Auditor for Sustainability Reporting	Against	There is no indication of any investigations or pending court cases pertaining to the auditor. Moreover, fees paid to the auditor are appropriate and all necessary information regarding the auditor have been provided in the Company's filings. Consequently, we are voting against this proposal.

Increase in Authorised Capital	For	It is important to note that an increase in authorised share capital, standing alone, does not dilute current shareholders. These shares are not issued to the public and are not counted in the "outstanding" share count. Instead, only shares issuances, other than a pro rata distribution or a distribution for consideration that is not fair value, would result in the dilution of the ownership interests of current shareholders. Moreover, the proposed increase in authorised capital does not violate policy and is unlikely to have a significant effect on shareholders' interests. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal.

Increase in Authorised Capital	For	In general, an increase in authorised share capital, standing alone, does not dilute current shareholders. These shares are not issued to the public and are not counted in the "outstanding" share count. Instead, only shares issuances, other than a pro rata distribution or a distribution for consideration that is not fair value, would result in the dilution of the ownership interests of current shareholders. As this increase of the authorised share capital does not violate policy, we are voting for this proposal.
Authority to Issue Shares w/ o Preemptive Rights (Tender Offer Issuance)	For	In this case, the increase in issued capital consists of 10.36% of the Company's issued share capital and 150.53% of the issued ordinary shares A of the Company, which far exceeds the limits outlined in policy. However, as the proposed increase is attributed to facilitating the merger outlined in the May 7th 2025 AGM, which we supported, we are voting in favour of this proposal.

Notice of Meeting; Agenda	For	This resolution is a routine formality in this market.
Accounts and Reports; Allocation of Profits and Dividends; Corporate Governance Report	For	The Company's audited annual and consolidated accounts were available for review in advance of this shareholder meeting. As no evidence has been presented that would question the accuracy of these reports, one should consider this item as routine. Therefore, we are voting for this proposal.
Authorization to Distribute Dividends	For	The dividend policy proposed by the Company does not violate policy. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal.
Remuneration Policy	Against	The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. However: The Company has failed to implement executive stock ownership guidelines. The proposed remuneration policy lacks bonus-malus and/or any recovery provisions. The Company has failed to implement a performance based long-term incentive plan. The LTI does not include ESG criteria. The Company has failed to disclose targets for the STI plan. The report does not provide transparency on chosen indices, benchmarks or peer-groups. As this is against policy, we are voting against this proposal.

Elect Ulf Holländer	Against	Director Ulf Holländer serves as chair of the remuneration committee. As noted in Proposals 5.00 and 6.00 above, there are a number of significant concerns with the Company's current remuneration practices, specifically as they pertain to transparency and decision-making. Further, the Company has not provided an adequate response to successive years of shareholder dissent, which heightens our concern. The members of the remuneration committee have the responsibility of reviewing all aspects of the remuneration program for the Company's executive officers. Therefore, as chair of the remuneration committee shareholders should hold nominee Holländer responsible for these concerning remuneration practices. Additionally, policy requires the chair of the remuneration committee to be independent. Consequently, we are opposing the elction of Ulf Holländer.
Elect Ellen M. Hanetho	For	There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualification and suitability of nominee Ellen M. Hanetho. Consequently, we are supporting this director's election.
Elect Peter Frederiksen	For	There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualification and suitability of nominee Peter Frederiksen. Consequently, we are supporting this director's election.
Elect Pia Meling	For	There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualification and suitability of nominee Pia Meling. Consequently, we are supporting this director's election.
Directors' Fees	For	The proposed fees are reasonable and in line with those paid by the Company's peers. Therefore, we are voting for this proposal.
Authority to Issue Shares w/ or w/o Preemptive Rights	Against	In this case, the board will be authorised to potentially issue up to 10% of the Company's current issued share capital with or without preemptive rights. Although this is within the limit set by policy, it is noted that at last year's AGM, approximately 33% of shareholders voted against this authority. This represents a fairly significant level of shareholder opposition to what we consider to be a routine authority. The Company has not disclosed any actions taken to identify or address shareholder concerns. Consequently we are voting against this proposal.
Authority to Repurchase Shares	Against	At this time, there is no evidence of any past abuse of this type of authority at the company. However, the maximum price has been disclosed in monetary value only, instead of 10% premium or discount of market price. As this is against policy, we are voting against this proposal.

Presentation of the adopted annual financial statements, the approved consolidated financial statements, the combined management report for the Company and the group, and the Supervisory Board report including the Management Board's explanatory report on the information pursuant to Sections 289a and 315a of the German Commercial Code (HGB), in each case for the 2024 financial year	Not voted	There was no vote on this agenda item.
Resolution on the appropriation of net income	For	The dividend should be reasonable and reflect the company's financial position. Since the motion complies with the guidelines, this proposal of the administration may be viewed uncritically. We are therefore voting in favour of the motion.
Resolution on the discharge of members of the Management Board for the 2024 financial year	For	We are not aware of any pending proceedings against members of the Management Board. There are also no other specific governance issues or guidelines violations that could oppose discharge of the members of the Management Board. The discharge can therefore be considered uncritically. We are therefore voting in favour of the motion.
Resolution on the discharge of the Supervisory Board members for the 2024 financial year	For	We are not aware of any pending proceedings against members of the Supervisory Board. However, some key transparency points and/or governance issues are not satisfied, and the following points are missing: the Supervisory Board members do not participate with certainty at the meeting place but, if necessary, virtually at the general meeting. We take this criticism into account under ITEM 9 (Articles of Association on holding virtual general meetings). We are therefore voting in favour of the discharge of the Supervisory Board overall after weighing up the arguments.
Resolution on the appointment of the auditor for the 2025 financial year	For	There are no indications that constitute a violation of the guidelines. This motion may therefore be viewed uncritically. We are therefore voting in favour of the motion.
Resolution on the appointment of the auditor of the sustainability report for the 2025 financial year	For	There are no indications that constitute a violation of the guidelines. This motion may therefore be viewed uncritically. We are therefore voting in favour of the motion.
Election of Supervisory Board members: Rainer Martens	For	Since there are no indications of a violation of the guidelines, the election of Rainer Martens to the Supervisory Board can be viewed uncritically. We are therefore voting in favour of the motion.

Election of Supervisory Board members: Detlef Kayser	For	Since there are no indications of a violation of the guidelines, the election of Detlef Kayser to the Supervisory Board can be viewed uncritically. We are therefore voting in favour of the motion.
Resolution on the approval of the remuneration report	Against	The remuneration system was last voted on in 2024 and achieved an approval rate of only 56.51%. The remuneration report was last voted on in 2024 and reached an approval rate of 92.55%. However, there are some weaknesses in the system, which is why the report on the system cannot be in line with the guidelines either: There are severance agreements in the event of a change of control The possibility of granting an additional ad-hoc performance fee was used in the form of cash bonuses With regard to special remuneration, the company notes: "In order to take into account the feedback from investors and shareholders on the remuneration system, the Supervisory Board decided in the year under review to no longer use its authorisation to grant an ad-hoc performance fee from the 2025 financial year." Overall, a detailed statement was made on the most recent criticism and action was taken. However, in order to remove any doubt about future evaluations of the report and the system in this respect and to instil the necessary trust in the non-application of the possibility of granting special bonuses, the system should be put to a vote again. Nevertheless, the motion should be viewed critically on the basis of the points mentioned. We are therefore voting against the motion.
Resolution on the amendment of Section 14(3) of the Articles of Association (holding of a virtual general meeting)	Against	In this case, the guidelines will be complied with, as the following criteria are met: Restriction on the authorisation to 2 years The amendment to the Articles of Association explicitly stipulates that the Management Board may not convene a virtual general meeting without the consent of the Supervisory Board. A written explanation is given as to whether and under what conditions an authorisation of the Management Board should be used in the future (credible, detailed explanation of the circumstances; e.g. in addition, at least one general meeting has taken place in person in the last four years or an in-person general meeting will be announced for the following year) Written explanation of the specific configuration of shareholder rights (in particular no general meeting with mandatory question submission beforehand) However, since at the same time it is not credibly stipulated that all members of the Management Board and Supervisory Board personally participate in a virtual general meeting (see §14(4) of the Articles of Association), we are voting against the motion overall.

Accounts and Reports	For	The Company's audited annual and consolidated accounts were available for review in advance of this shareholder meeting. As no evidence has been presented that would question the accuracy of these reports, one should consider this item as routine. Therefore, we are voting for this proposal.
Allocation of Dividends	For	A proposed dividend allocation should be comparable to industry peers and should mirror the financial health of the company. In principle, an acceptable pay-out ratio should be above 20 percent and below 100 percent. The company's aggregate pay-out ratio for the fiscal year is in an acceptable range. Given this, we are voting for this proposal.
Board Size	For	The proposed board size does not violate policy. As a result, we are voting for this proposal.
Board Term Length	For	The proposed board term length is in line with policy and in accordance with law in this market. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal.

List Presented by Group of Institutional Investors Representing 1.94% of Share Capital	For	Nominees on the list presented by Group of Institutional Investors Representing 1.94% of Share Capital bring an appropriate level of experience and diversity of expertise to the board. We are voting: FOR: List presented by Group of Institutional Investors Representing 1.94% of Share Capital.
Statutory Auditors' Fees	For	The proposed fees are reasonable and in line with those paid by the Company's peers. Therefore, we are voting for this proposal.
Remuneration Policy	Against	The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. However: The Company has failed to implement executive stock ownership guidelines. The board can grant discretionary bonuses. Specifically, the Company's policy allows for the payment of one-off bonuses to the CEO, for retention purposes, capped at awards payable at 100% target performance under the STI plan. Further, the CEO may also be a beneficiary of "ad-hoc incentive plans" connected to the accomplishment of extraordinary transactions with significant impact for the Company While the Company included disclosure about its sustainability strategy in the remuneration report, it failed to provide a clear description of how metrics under variable incentive plans for FY2025 are reflective of said strategy. Concerns are heightened by the reported achievement of Group ESG objective and individual objectives under the STI at maximum and above target, respectively, with no clear retrospective breakdown or indication of what performance criteria were assessed. The Company's remuneration proposals received significant dissent by the free float shareholders at last year's AGM, which increased over the past three years. These issues have not been wholly addressed by the Company. As this is against policy, we are voting against this proposal.

Remuneration Report	Against	The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. However: The Company has failed to implement executive stock ownership guidelines. The Company's LTIP incorporates an ESG objective which refers also to the Company's lost time injury frequency rate ("LTIR"). Based on the Company's disclosure, the LTIR doesn't seem to include fatal accidents in the calculations. However, the Company reported one fatality among subcontractors in 2024 (0 fatalities in 2023). The ESG component paid at maximum opportunity for all the executives under the 2022-2024 cycle of the LTI. In this case, there are concerns at the lack of consideration by the committee of these fatalities in determining payouts. Ultimately, the payout under the safety component, without any consideration of the fatality, will be considered a serious breach of moral and ethical code by many investors. The Company's remuneration proposals received significant dissent by the free float shareholders at last year's AGM, which increased over the past three years. While acknowledging the Company's rationale, the improved retrospective disclosure of ESG metrics under previous LTI plans and the Company's efforts around sustainability at large, some shareholders may consider it boilerplate language as no specific details have been given regarding material achievements, or a breakdown of the correspondence of highlighted efforts with pay decisions, especially for short-term variable incentives. As such, at this time, the Company has not adequately responded to shareholder dissent. The proposed LTI only has forward-looking disclosure of metrics attached to the ESG indicator, and as such shareholders are unable to determine the actual metrics being used until after its implementation. As this is against policy, we are voting against this proposal.
2025-2027 Long-Term Incentive Plan	Against	As outlined in Proposals 0100 and 0110, there are serious reservations regarding the implementation of the Company's remuneration process. There remains reservations about the growing level of shareholder dissent against the Company's proposed LTIPs, and the forward-looking disclosure of metrics attached to the ESG indicator. As a result, we are voting against this proposal.
Authority to Repurchase and Reissue Shares	For	At this time, there is no evidence of any past abuse of this type of authority at the company. Consequently, as these authorizations are within the recommended thresholds, we are voting for this proposal.
Increase in Auditor's Fees	For	The fees paid to the auditor are appropriate and are clearly disclosed by the Company. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal.

Advisory Vote on Executive Compensation	Against	The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. However: The LTI does not include ESG criteria. The board can grant discretionary bonuses. Specifically, Patrick Tomlinson was granted promotions awards, comprised of RSUs, valued at $1,000,045. The Company's short-term remuneration exceeds the long-term remuneration. The remuneration structure allows for adjusted metrics. As this is against policy, we are voting against this proposal.
Amendment to the 2020 Incentive and Stock Award Plan	For	Remuneration plans should be adequately disclosed and should reward executives for good performance. According to policy, dilution for all compensation plans should be no higher than 10% of share capital. Advisory Vote on Executive Compensation	Against	The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. However: Severance package payments are not limited to a maximum of two-years' salary. The LTI does not include ESG criteria. The remuneration structure allows for adjusted metrics. The board can grant discretionary bonuses. Specifically, Raj Seshadri and Craig Vosburg received promotion awards during the year, comprised of stock options, PSUs and RSUs. It should be noted that neither the stock option or RSU awards are subject to any performance criteria. As this is against policy, we are voting against this proposal.

Such protections are counter to the interests of shareholders and the board has not persuasively demonstrated the need for the proposed provisions. Consequently, we are voting against this proposal.

Amendment to Certificate of Incorporation to Implement Other Miscellaneous Changes	For	In this case, there is no cause for shareholder concern regarding the proposed amendments. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal.

Shareholder Proposal Regarding Racial Equity Audit	For	This proposal requests that the board oversee a third-party audit that assesses and produces recommendations for improving the racial impacts of the Company's policies, practices, products, and services. Currently, it is believed that the totality of the Company's reporting provides shareholders with a sufficient basis to understand how the Company is managing racial equity considerations. In cases such as this, the proponent is expected to bring a compelling case as to why adoption of this proposal is necessary at a given company and why adoption of their proposal would benefit shareholders or mitigate risks to shareholder value. However, it has failed to provide any evidence of discernible financial harm suffered by the Company as a result of its racial equity initiatives. Although it should be recognized that the Company has recently agreed to settle a pay discrimination suit, this was not an issue raised by the proponent in its rationale for this proposal. Moreover, there is no evidence to suggest that an internal pay equity issue warrants an extremely broad audit of the Company's treatment of stakeholders. As such, while the recent settlement raises some concerns, it is not believed that undertaking the requested audit would be an appropriate corrective measure. Nonetheless, as demands for increased transparency are generally in line with policy, we are voting for this proposal.

Shareholder Proposal Regarding Report on Affirmative Action Risks	Against	It should be noted that the proponent of this proposal is the National Center for Public Policy Research ("NCPPR"). NCPPR has a history of submitting shareholder proposals that, upon first impression, appear consistent with environmental and social proposals that call for information or action on enhancing companies' approaches to environmental and social factors but, upon further review, appear to be designed to inhibit companies' actions in such areas. The NCPPR describes itself as a "communications and research foundation supportive of a strong national defense and dedicated to providing free-market solutions to today's public policy problems" that believes "the principles of a free market, individual liberty and personal responsibility provide the greatest hope for meeting the challenges facing America in the 21st century." A division of the NCPPR, the Free Enterprise Project, routinely engages companies on issues such as healthcare, immigration, gun rights, energy, taxes, religious freedom, media bias, corporate free speech, and ideological diversity, among other issues, often by questioning executives at annual meetings or through the submission of shareholder proposals. This proposal has also been labeled as "Anti-ESG" due to the shareholder proponent. These proponents have generally submitted proposals that address environmental and social issues and their aims are fairly clearly articulated in their supporting statements. Support for this resolution could buoy the proponents arguments and would advance a narrative that may contradict that of investors concerned about companies ESG performance. As a result, we are voting against this proposal.

Advisory Vote on Executive Compensation	Against	The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. The remuneration structure allows for adjusted metrics. As this is against policy, we are voting against this proposal.

2024 Business Report and Financial Statements	For	All of the necessary financial statements and reports are disclosed in the Company's meeting materials. It should be noted that in the opinion of the statutory auditors, the Company's independent auditor, the Company's financial statements and business report have been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in Taiwan, 'Regulations Governing the Preparation of Financial Reports by Securities Issuers and International Financial Reporting Standards'. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal.
Allocation of Profits	For	A proposed dividend allocation should be comparable to industry peers and should mirror the financial health of the company. In principle, an acceptable pay-out ratio should be above 20 percent and below 100 percent. The company's aggregate pay-out ratio for the fiscal year is in an acceptable range. Given this, we are voting for this proposal.
Amendments to Articles	For	In this case, there is no cause for shareholder concern regarding the proposed amendments. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal.
Elect HON Hsiao-Wuen	Against	There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualification and suitability of nominee HON Hsiao-Wuen. However, as the board of directors does not have sufficient gender diversity, we are voting against all male directors. Consequently, we are opposing this director's election.
Release of the Non-Compete Restriction on the Company's Director of the 10th Board of Directors	For	Releasing the board of directors from these restrictions, which prohibit board members from conducting any activities that can be considered to be competitive with the business affairs of the Company, may lead to potential conflicts of interest for directors. In this case, the Company proposes to release its director from non-compete obligation with respect to their directorships in Companies in an unrelated industry, wholly-owned subsidiaries, controlled subsidiaries, substantial shareholders and their subsidiaries or joint ventures. There is no indication that participation in the operations of such entities will lead to conflicts of interest for directors. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal.
Extraordinary Motions	Against	In Taiwan, many companies place an item for extraordinary motions on their proxy forms. However, shareholders of Taiwanese companies who vote via proxy technically may not exercise their voting rights preemptively for any extraordinary motions raised at the general meeting of shareholders. Instead, proxies have full authority to exercise their discretion in supporting or opposing any such motions. As granting unfettered discretion is not in line with policy, we are voting against this proposal.

However, as the board of directors and compensation committee do not comprise an adequate number of independent members, we are voting against all insider and affiliated directors. In addition, as the board of directors does not have sufficient gender diversity, we are voting against all male directors. Appointment of Auditor and Authority to Set Fees	Against	There is no indication of any investigations or pending court cases pertaining to the auditor. Moreover, the fees paid to the auditor are appropriate and are clearly disclosed by the Company. Advisory Vote on Executive Compensation	Against	The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. However: Severance package payments are not limited to a maximum of two-years' salary. Compensation is not linked to materially significant ESG indicator. The board can grant discretionary bonuses. Specifically, Gary L. Corona was granted awards during the year under review, comprised of both RSUs and PSUs. It should be noted that the RSU awards are not subject to any performance criteria and vest in less than 3 years, which is not in line with policy. As this is against policy, we are voting against this proposal.
Authority to Issue Shares w/ Preemptive Rights	Against	In this case, the board will be authorised to potentially issue up to 20% of the Company's current issued share capital with preemptive rights, which, if considered cumulatively with authorizations in Proposal 5, exceeds the limit set by policy. Consequently, we are voting against this proposal.
Authority to Issue Shares w/ o Preemptive Rights	Against	In this case, the board will be authorised to potentially issue up to 20% of the Company's current issued share capital without preemptive rights. As this exceeds the limit set by policy, we are voting against this proposal.
Authority to Repurchase Shares	Against	At this time, there is no evidence of any past abuse of this type of authority at the company. However, the maximum price is set at 120%, which exceeds the limit set under policy. Consequently, we are voting against this proposal.

Capitalization of Reserves	For	It is believed that a company's board is in the best position to determine the necessary level of capital and reserves required to fulfill the company's obligations. Furthermore, returning capital to shareholders through a capital distribution is in shareholders' best interests, so long as the Company is left with a sufficiently strong balance sheet in light of its capital requirements. Moreover, the proposed amendments are aimed at facilitating the proposed capital repayment and do not violate policy. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal.
Reduction in Share Premium Account	For	It is believed that share premium account and associated capital reduction programmes are in the best interests of shareholders, so long as the Company is left with a sufficiently strong balance sheet in light of its capital requirements. Given that the intent of the cancellation of the share premium account and capital redemption reserve is to build a distributable reserve which will facilitate the return of cash to shareholders at a future date if deemed appropriate, we are voting for this proposal.
Amendment to Articles Regarding Advance Notice Provisions	For	Advance notice provisions and related disclosure requirements are commonplace at public companies. Notably, in November 2021, the SEC adopted rules to require the use of universal proxy cards by management and shareholders soliciting proxy votes for their own candidates in contested director elections. These requirements became effective for all shareholder meetings involving a director election from August 31, 2022. In response, numerous companies amended their bylaws to ensure compliance with the new rules as well as to adjust the requirements of their advance notice provisions. The Company has submitted such adjustments to shareholders for approval. In this case, the proposed amendments do not violate policy. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal.

Resolution on the approval of the remuneration report for the 2024 financial year	For	The remuneration system was last voted on in 2023 and achieved an approval rate of 91%. The remuneration report was last voted on in 2024 and achieved an approval rate of 87.28%. However, there are some weaknesses in the system, which is why the report on the system cannot comply with the guidelines either: During the four-year plan period, dividend equivalents are paid out in the LTI. It may take longer than 4 years to establish the personal investment. We have addressed these points in the company discussion and will continue to work towards improvements in these areas. As these are the only criticisms listed, we are voting in favour of the remuneration report overall after weighing up the arguments.

According to the guidelines, no Supervisory Board member in an executive position should sit on more than three boards in total. Due to his position at Zintinus GmbH, this member of the Supervisory Board should be considered as an "executive"; he sits on four boards, which is contrary to the guidelines. The election of Olaf Koch should therefore be viewed critically. We are therefore voting against the motion.

Resolution on the cancellation of the existing authorisation and the granting of a new authorisation to acquire and use treasury shares pursuant to Section 71(1)(8) of the German Stock Corporation Act (AktG) and to exclude subscription and tender rights	Against	In this case, the company proposes a term of five years. This does not comply with the guidelines, which stipulate a maximum term of two years. This motion should therefore be viewed very critically. We are therefore voting against the motion.
Resolution on the authorisation to use derivatives in connection with the acquisition of treasury shares in accordance with Section 71(1)(8) of the German Stock Corporation Act (Aktiengesetz) and to exclude subscription and tender rights	Against	In this case, the company proposes a term of five years. This does not comply with the guidelines, which stipulate a maximum term of two years. This motion should therefore be viewed very critically. We are therefore voting against the motion.
Resolution on the cancellation of Conditional Capital 2020, on the removal of an existing authorisation and the granting of a new authorisation to issue convertible and/or warrant bonds, on excluding subscription rights and on the creation of Conditional Capital 2025 and the corresponding amendment to the Articles of Association	Against	Increasing the share capital by €500,000,000.00 would lead to a 16.3% capital dilution. However, 20% can be exceeded on a cumulative basis. Even if the subscription rights exclusions are restricted to 10% overall, this is not within the limits of the analysis guidelines (max. 20% on a cumulative basis, max. 10% exclusion of subscription rights cumulatively). A critical view should therefore be taken of the motion. We are therefore voting against the motion.

Resolution on the approval of the remuneration system for the members of the Management Board	For	The remuneration system was last voted on in 2023 and achieved an approval rate of 91%. The remuneration system has been partially revised but is essentially very similar to the previous system. There are several weaknesses, which is why the system cannot comply with the guidelines: During the four-year plan period, dividend equivalents are paid out in the LTI. It may take longer than 4 years to establish the personal investment, subject to: Elimination of transformation targets in the annual bonus & not evident how these will be captured in detail, especially since 2023. However, ESG criteria remain in the overall system. We have discussed these criticisms in detail in the company discussion. In terms of the transformation targets, the company said there was a renaming and reallocation. However, there is no omission. The other two points were also addressed. We will continue to work towards an improvement here. As the remuneration system seems to be appropriate overall, we are voting in favour of the motion after weighing up the arguments.
Resolution on the amendment to Section 11(1) of the Articles of Association on the location of the general meeting	For	There are no indications that would conflict with this agenda item. The motion may therefore be viewed uncritically. We are therefore voting in favour of the motion.
Resolution on a new authorisation of the Management Board to provide for the holding of a virtual general meeting, corresponding amendment of Section 11(2) of the Articles of Association	Against	In this case, the guidelines will not be complied with, since the following criteria are not met and there are deficiencies: The amendment to the Articles of Association explicitly stipulates that the Management Board may not convene a virtual general meeting without the approval of the Supervisory Board (is not entered into the Articles of Association, only the involvement of the Supervisory Board Chairman is specified) No written explanation is given as to whether and under which conditions an authorisation of the Management Board should be used in the future (credible, detailed explanation of the circumstances) Since no general meeting has taken place in person since 2021 and such a general meeting has not been explicitly announced for the following year, it is not clear which specific conditions will lead to a virtual general meeting or an in-person GM. The motion should therefore be viewed critically. We are therefore voting against the motion.
Adhoc	Against	Since no information on this matter can be obtained prior to the general meeting, only a general proxy could be granted. Given that any proposals cannot be assessed beforehand, critical scrutiny would be advisable at this point. However, to prevent undesirable accidental majorities, the motion should be viewed critically. Therefore, we vote against this type of motion.

Elect Mary Ellen Coe	For	There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualification and suitability of nominee Mary Ellen Coe. Consequently, we are supporting this director's election.
Elect Pamela J. Craig	Against	As the nominating and corporate governance committee does not comprise an adequate number of independent members, we are voting against all insider and affiliated directors on this committee. Elect Robert M. Davis	Against	There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualification and suitability of nominee Robert M. Davis. However, this director will be serving as the combined Chair/CEO in the upcoming year, which is against policy. Further, given the information provided, the candidate holds too many mandates to be in line with policy (Chair/CEO - Merck & Co., Inc; Director - Duke Energy Corporation). Consequently, we are opposing this director's election.
Elect Thomas H. Glocer	Against	There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualification and suitability of nominee Thomas H. Glocer. Elect Patricia F. Russo	Against	There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualification and suitability of nominee Patricia F. Russo. However, the nominee has already been a non-executive member of the board for more than 15 years, which is against policy. Further, as the nominating and corporate governance committee does not comprise an adequate number of independent members, we are voting against all insider and affiliated directors on this committee. Also, The policy requires the compensation committee chair to be independent. Consequently, we are opposing this director's election.
Elect Christine E. Seidman	For	There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualification and suitability of nominee Christine E. Seidman. Consequently, we are supporting this director's election.
Elect Inge G. Thulin	For	There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualification and suitability of nominee Inge G. Thulin. Consequently, we are supporting this director's election.
Elect Kathy J. Warden	Against	There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualification and suitability of nominee Kathy J. Warden. Consequently, we are opposing this director's election.
Advisory Vote on Executive Compensation	Against	The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. However: Severance package payments are not limited to a maximum of two-years' salary. The LTI does not include ESG criteria. The board can grant discretionary bonuses. Specifically, Richard R. Deluca was granted retention awards, comprised of RSUs, valued at $3,000,000. As this is against policy, we are voting against this proposal.
Ratification of Auditor	Against	There is no indication of any investigations or pending court cases pertaining to the auditor. Moreover, the fees paid to the auditor are appropriate and are clearly disclosed by the Company. However, the same firm has audited the Company for more than 10 years, which is not in line with policy. Moreover, the lead auditor's name and tenure has not been disclosed in the company's proxy materials or annual report. Consequently, we are voting against this proposal.

Shareholder Proposal Regarding Human Rights Impact Assessment	For	The proponent is requesting that the Company undertake a human rights impact assessment that addresses its value chain. However, it appears that the proponent is largely concerned about drug pricing and access to medicines in the U.S. as well as the Company's ongoing membership in PhRMA. In this case, these are areas for which the Company provides significant disclosure, as noted above. Additionally, it should be noted that the Company conducted an enterprise-wide human rights impact assessment in 2023 to identify human rights risks and impacts within its own operations and supply chain, after which it partnered with external human rights experts to review its approach and identify opportunities for improvement. However, it does not appear to publicly disclose this assessment. Nonetheless, as demands for increased transparency are generally in line with the basic policy requirements, we are voting for this proposal.
Shareholder Proposal Regarding Report on Tax Transparency	For	Although the Company has provided some level of disclosure on this matter, additional reporting in line with the GRI Tax Standard would provide shareholders with understandable information on which they are able to base assessments of the Company's tax-related risks. Lastly, as demands for increased transparency are generally in line with the basic policy requirements, we are voting for this proposal.

Shareholder Proposal Regarding Eliminating DEI from Compensation	Against	It should be noted that the proponent of this proposal is the National Legal and Policy Center ("NLPC"), which has submitted shareholder proposals that, upon first impression, appear to be consistent with environmental and social proposals that call for information or action on enhancing companies' approaches to environmental and social factors but, upon further review, appear to be designed to inhibit companies' actions in such areas. The NLPC describes itself as a 501(c)(3) that "promotes ethics in public life through research, investigation, education, and legal action," and believes "the best way to promote ethics is to reduce the size of government." As NLPC is not an investor, it does not have AUM. Based on the disclosure provided by companies concerning the identity of proponents, during the first half of 2024, the NLPC submitted 23 shareholder proposals that received an average of 3.9% support, with none receiving majority shareholder support. As part of the corporate integrity project on its website, the NLPC shares its concerns regarding "woke" corporate executives, for instance posting articles about inclusive content "devaluing" the Pixar franchise or about how the NLPC has reported Visa's chair and CEO to the SEC for ongoing "wokeness." The project also examines a supposed pushback against ESG initiatives, featuring pieces such as one describing corporate America's anti-racism programs as racist against white people and another promoting the NLPC's efforts to nominate a fossil-fuel-supporting director candidate to the board of Exxon Mobil Corporation. Generally, the specifics of a compensation plan are best designed by those who sit on the compensation committee, as these directors likely have more and better information than shareholders regarding the Company's strategy and priorities and the appropriate ways to incentivize completion of individual and Company goals. Moreover, shareholders may more appropriately express their dissatisfaction with the construction or design of executive compensation packages through an advisory vote on executive compensation. Finally, this proposal has also been labeled as "Anti-ESG" due to the shareholder proponent. These proponents have generally submitted proposals that address environmental and social issues and their aims are fairly clearly articulated in their supporting statements. Support for this resolution could buoy the proponents arguments and would advance a narrative that may contradict that of investors concerned about companies ESG performance. As a result, we are voting against this proposal.

Shareholder Proposal Regarding Report on Risk from Discriminatory Ad Policies	Against	In this case, the proposal requests that the Company conduct an evaluation and issue a report evaluating how it oversees risks related to discrimination against ad buyers and sellers based on their political or religious status or views. The Company publicly discloses information regarding its marketing strategies. Additionally, the Company's Human Rights Statement and its Code of Conduct both state that the Company prohibits such discrimination. Further, the Company's marketing and advertising practices are guided in part by adherence to applicable law, including the complex regulatory environment surrounding healthcare and the advertisement of prescription medicines, as well as antitrust and competition laws designed to promote a free and open marketplace. Moreover, the Company provides board-level oversight of the issues raised by this proposal as the audit committee monitors compliance with the Company's policies on ethical business practices and oversees its compliance with legal and regulatory requirements, including overseeing the Company's enterprise risk management process to identify emerging risks in business operations and address them appropriately. Overall, the Company provides meaningful disclosure on issues related to those raised by the proponent. Moreover, this proposal appears to implicitly attempt to intervene in the Company's advertising strategies, an area of day-to-day management that generally does not fall under the purview of shareholders, and could be considered overreaching. As a result, we are voting against this proposal.

Resolution on the discharge of the Management Board for the 2024 financial year	For	We are not aware of any pending proceedings against members of the Management Board. Although no rules of procedure of the Management Board have been published, the Management Board are personally liable shareholders of Merck KGaA and not a Management Board with employee members, which is why this seems understandable. The motion may therefore be viewed uncritically. We are therefore voting in favour of the motion.

Resolution on the approval of the 2024 remuneration report	For	The remuneration system was last voted on in 2021 and achieved an approval rate of 87.07%. The remuneration report was last voted on in 2024 and achieved an approval rate of 90.38%. However, there is a weakness in the system, which is why the report on the system cannot fully comply with the guidelines either: This is a conditional violation of the guidelines in the STI: Only one specific performance indicator (earnings after tax) is in the STI. However, this is subject to a minimum threshold. In addition, there is an individual performance factor according to a performance catalogue, which can lead to a 20% increase or decrease. The criticism here is therefore that two different KPIs are not clearly identified. We discussed this in detail with the company. In addition to earnings after tax, the performance factor can be considered as a further KPI. Even if this is not conclusively formulated in accordance with the guidelines, we accept this constellation in a case-by-case decision and are voting in favour of the remuneration report.
Resolution on the approval of the compensation system for the members of the management	For	The remuneration system was last voted on in 2021 and achieved an approval rate of 87.07%. Elect Peggy Alford	Withhold	There are no evident reasons to doubt the suitability of nominee Peggy Alford. However, the company maintains a multi-class share structure with unequal voting rights and has not provided for a reasonable time-based sunset of the multi-class share structure (generally seven years or less). Multi-class voting structures are not in line with policy. It is believed that it is the responsibility of the chair of the nominating and corporate governance committee to ensure that the economic stake of each shareholder matches their voting power and that no small group of shareholders, family or otherwise, has voting rights different from those of other shareholders. Additionally, director Alford was opposed by approximately 48.1% of votes cast by unaffiliated shareholders at last year's annual meeting. This high level of shareholder disapproval is an indication that shareholders are concerned with this director's performance on the board. Further, director Peggy Alford served as a member of the compensation, nominating and governance committee during which time the board failed to implement a shareholder proposal that was approved by a majority of unaffiliated shareholders. At last year's annual meeting, a shareholder proposal requesting the Company take all practicable steps in its control to initiate and adopt a recapitalization plan for all outstanding stock to have one vote per share received the support of approximately 26.3% of votes cast (excluding abstentions and broker non-votes). As a result of the Company's multi-class structure, the vote results for shareholder proposals and management proposals will be artificially depressed or buoyed, respectively. When excluding the impact of affiliated shareholders (directors and executive officers) from the vote results, most notably, the 61.0% of the voting power controlled by Mr. Zuckerberg at the time of last year's meeting, it appears that approximately 68.7% of unaffiliated shareholders supported this shareholder proposal at last year's meeting. In addition, at the Company's 2021, 2022, and 2024 annual meetings, similar shareholder proposals requesting the Company eliminate its dual-class structure received the support of 89.7%, 91.6%, and 74.8% of unaffiliated shareholders, respectively. Further, at the Company's 2021 and 2022 annual meetings, shareholder proposals requesting that the Company appoint an independent board chair received the support of approximately 51.9% and 54.4% of unaffiliated shareholders, respectively. Consequently, we are voting against this director's appointment.

Elect Marc L. Andreessen	Withhold	There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualification and suitability of nominee Marc L. Andreessen. However, as the board of directors does not have sufficient gender diversity, we are voting against all male directors. Further, director Marc L. Elect Tracey T. Travis	Withhold	Nominee Tracey T. Travis serves as chair of the audit and risk oversight committee. Nominee Travis, as chair of this committee, should be held responsible for the committee's failure to properly manage risks during a time in which the Company has faced significant and ongoing controversies. According to the audit committee charter, this committee is responsible for the oversight of legal and regulatory matters. Responsibilities include reviewing the Company's program for promoting and monitoring compliance with applicable legal and regulatory requirements, and reviewing the Company's major legal compliance risk exposures, including steps management has taken to monitor and mitigate the exposures. On June 14, 2018, the Company expanded the audit and risk oversight committee's charter to include review of the Company's privacy and data use, community safety and security and cybersecurity risk exposures. While the Company has provided enhanced disclosures in this area and has begun to take some action, in light of continued and ongoing concerns falling within the purview of the audit committee's responsibilities, shareholders should hold nominee Travis accountable for the committee and board's continued deficiency in risk oversight. Consequently, we are voting against this director.

Advisory Vote on Executive Compensation	Against	The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. However: The clawback policy is restatement dependent only. Shareholder Proposal Regarding Recapitalization	For	Allowing one vote per share is in line with policy and generally operates as a safeguard for common shareholders by ensuring that those who hold a significant minority of shares are able to weigh in on issues set forth by the board, especially in regard to the director election process. Therefore, we are supporting this proposal.
Shareholder Proposal Regarding Disclosure of Vote Results by Share Class	For	Disclosure of vote results by share class will ultimately shed light for both the Company and its shareholders on how non-controlling shareholders have voted at the Company's meetings. As demands for increased transparency are generally in line with the basic policy requirements, we are voting for this proposal.
Shareholder Proposal Regarding Report on Efforts to Combat Hate	For	Given the Company's recent changes to its content moderation policies, additional reporting as requested by this proposal will provide shareholders a better basis to assess the Company's exposure to and management of legal, regulatory, and reputational risks. Moreover, as demands for increased transparency are generally in line with the basic policy requirements, we are voting for this proposal.
Shareholder Proposal Regarding Report and Targets on Child Safety Impacts	For	It does not appear that the Company has provided sufficient disclosure to demonstrate to shareholders the efficacy of its efforts to ensure child safety on its platforms. Shareholder Proposal Regarding Transparency Report on Deepfake Identifying Software	For	In light of the significant risks faced by the Company on account of deepfake materials being shared on its platforms, adoption of this proposal could serve to better allow shareholders to gauge the Company's exposure to regulatory and reputational risks and that production of the requested disclosure would serve their best interests. Ultimately, as demands for increased transparency are generally in line with the basic policy requirements, we are voting for this proposal.

Shareholder Proposal Regarding Report on Risks of AI Data Sourcing	Against	In this case, the proponent requests that the Company prepare a report to assess the risks to the Company's operations and finances, and to the greater public health, safety, and welfare, presented by its unethical or improper usage of external data in the development and training of its artificial intelligence projects and implementation; what steps the Company takes to mitigate those risks; and how it measures the effectiveness of such efforts. Additional disclosure could allow shareholders a better understanding of how it is ensuring it is mitigating risks associated with data sourcing. Further, such disclosure could provide customers additional assurance that their personal data is not being used in a manner that compromises their privacy and security. Moreover, in its response to this proposal, the Company emphasizes that it is committed to staying transparent as generative AI continues to evolve. The Company recently updated its Privacy Policy and published a Privacy Progress Update that discloses its internal privacy expectations that guide its privacy review process. It also discloses the types of information it uses to train its AI models and asserts that it is committed to being transparent about the legal bases that it uses for processing information, regardless of jurisdiction. Nevertheless, privacy and security concerns have been raised by regulators in several countries, including Europe, Australia, and Brazil, among others. However, it should be noted that the proponent of this proposal is an anti-ESG proponent, the National Legal & Policy Center ("NLPC"). The NLPC describes itself as a 501(c)(3) that "promotes ethics in public life through research, investigation, education, and legal action," and believes "the best way to promote ethics is to reduce the size of government." As part of the corporate integrity project on its website, the NLPC shares its concerns regarding "woke" corporate executives, for instance posting articles about inclusive content "devaluing" the Pixar franchise or about how the NLPC has reported Visa's chair and CEO to the SEC for ongoing "wokeness." The project also examines a supposed pushback against ESG initiatives, featuring pieces such as one describing corporate America's anti-racism programs as racist against white people and another promoting the NLPC's efforts to nominate a fossil-fuel-supporting director candidate to the board of Exxon Mobil Corporation. The NLPC has submitted other shareholder proposals that, upon first impression, appear to be consistent with environmental and social proposals that call for information or action on enhancing companies' approaches to environmental and social factors but, upon further review, appear to be designed to inhibit companies' actions in such areas. While we normally welcome a higher degree of transparency, given the above, we are voting against this Shareholder Proposal Regarding Transition Plan and Renewable Energy	For	The Company provides robust climate disclosures and maintains explicit board-level oversight of climate. It also affirms that it continues matching its electricity use with renewable energy by adding new wind and solar projects to local grids, including those where its data centers are located. Ultimately however, as demands for increased transparency are generally in line with the basic policy requirements, we are voting for this proposal.

Shareholder Proposal Regarding Assessment of Investments in Bitcoin	Against	It appears that, to an extent, the Company has already fulfilled the request of this proposal, which requests that the board "conduct an assessment to determine if adding Bitcoin to the Company's treasury is in the best interests of shareholders." Specifically, in response to this resolution, the Company states that: To support our ongoing operations, working capital, and capital expenditure needs, management comprehensively reviews a wide and diverse range of investable assets, including those that offer diversification and risk mitigation, on an ongoing basis. As part of this process, we assess the volatility of potential assets and seek to invest in those which provide a balanced mix of stability and long-term return to support our financial sustainability. While we are not opining on the merits of cryptocurrency investments compared to other assets, we believe the requested assessment is unnecessary given our existing processes to manage our corporate treasury. Given the above, we are voting against this proposal.
Shareholder Proposal Regarding Transparency Report on Data Collection and Advertising Practices	For	Given recent fines, rulings, and investigations by regulators and the legislative attempts at exposing internet platforms to more liability on account of user privacy and advertising on their websites, shareholders would be served by additional disclosure of how the Company is managing the issues raised by this proposal. Moreover, as demands for increased transparency are generally in line with the basic policy requirements, we are voting for this proposal.

Advisory Vote on Executive Compensation	Against	The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. However: The remuneration structure allows for adjusted metrics. Specifically, adjusted EPS CAGR and Average Adjusted ROE under the LTI. As this is against policy, we are voting against this proposal.
Amendment to Shareholder Rights Plan	For	Generally, an acceptable rights plan is designed to provide the board and shareholders with adequate time to pursue value-maximizing alternatives. These rights plans, when drafted properly, encourage a potential acquirer to either negotiate with the board directly or to proceed by way of a "permitted bid," which requires the take-over bid to satisfy certain criteria designed to promote fairness. Having reviewed the terms of the rights plan it does not appear to include problematic features such as unnecessary or inappropriate restrictions on permitted bids. As a result, we are voting for this proposal.
Shareholder Proposal Regarding Change of Auditor	For	Considering the tenure of Ernst & Young, who has currently been serving the the Company for 27 years, the proposed roation of auditor appears appropriate. Moreover, the auditor has been saevring for the Company for over 10 years which is against policy. As a result, we are voting for this proposal.

Accounts and Reports	For	The Company's audited annual and consolidated accounts were available for review in advance of this shareholder meeting. As no evidence has been presented that would question the accuracy of these reports, one should consider this item as routine. Therefore, we are voting for this proposal.
Allocation of Profits/ Dividends	For	A proposed dividend allocation should be comparable to industry peers and should mirror the financial health of the company. In principle, an acceptable pay-out ratio should be above 20 percent and below 100 percent. The company's aggregate pay-out ratio for the fiscal year is in an acceptable range. Given this, we are voting for this proposal.
Consolidated Accounts and Reports	For	The Company's audited annual and consolidated accounts were available for review in advance of this shareholder meeting. Elect Sanjay Mehrotra	Against	There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualifications of nominee Sanjay Mehrotra. Advisory Vote on Executive Compensation	Against	The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. However: The Company has failed to link pay with performance. The Company's clawback policy is not in line with market best practice (restatement dependent only). The LTI does not include ESG criteria. The remuneration structure allows for adjusted metrics. The structure of the Company's long-term incentive plan is not in line with best practice, as it includes multiple opportunities for retesting. For the TSR metric specifically, achievement is measured over rolling 60-day measurement windows within a larger performance period, with the final payout being based on the highest measurement over the course of the full performance period, which we believe does not adequately encourage long-term performance. Beyond this, PSUs earned for both the TSR metric and the operational metrics may be "banked" based on achievement attained over the first two years of the performance period. Awards under the STIP and LTIP appear to be eligible for vesting upon the highest achievement among multiple listed criteria over the performance period rather than on individual metrics, which is not in line with best practice. As this is against policy, we are voting against this proposal.
Approval of the 2025 Equity Incentive Plan	For	Remuneration plans should be adequately disclosed and should reward executives for good performance. According to policy, dilution for all compensation plans should be no higher than 10% of share capital. Given that the company's plan is fully compliant with policy and, in the absence of any evidence of past abuse by the company of this type of authority, we are supporting this proposal.
Ratification of Auditor	Against	There is no indication of any investigations or pending court cases pertaining to the auditor. Moreover, the fees paid to the auditor are appropriate and are clearly disclosed by the Company. However, the same firm has audited the Company for more than 10 years, which is not in line with policy. Moreover, as per US market practice, the lead auditor's name and tenure has not been disclosed in the company's proxy materials or annual report. Consequently, we are voting against this proposal.

Advisory Vote on Executive Compensation	Against	The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. However: The Company has failed to link pay with performance. The LTI does not include ESG criteria. There is a High Maximum Payout Limit under STIP. Excessive upside opportunities under a bonus plan may unduly incentivize short-term performance and undermine a long-term focus on company performance among executives. This concern is underscored by the potentially limited emphasis on long-term focus given the highlighted issue with a short-performance period under the LTIP. Here, the CEO's short-term incentive opportunity at target is three times base salary, while the maximum payout under the plan is six times his base salary, which is potentially excessive. As this is not entirely in line with policy, we are voting against this proposal.
Ratification of Auditor	Against	There is no indication of any investigations or pending court cases pertaining to the auditor. Moreover, the fees paid to the auditor are appropriate and are clearly disclosed by the Company. However, the same firm has audited the Company for more than 10 years, which is not in line with policy. Approval of the 2026 Stock Plan	For	Remuneration plans should be adequately disclosed and should reward executives for good performance. Shareholder Proposal Regarding Censorship Risk Audit	Against	It should be noted that the proponent of this proposal is the National Center for Public Policy Research ("NCPPR"). NCPPR has a history of submitting shareholder proposals that, upon first impression, appear consistent with environmental and social proposals that call for information or action on enhancing companies' approaches to environmental and social factors but, upon further review, appear to be designed to inhibit companies' actions in such areas. The NCPPR describes itself as a "communications and research foundation supportive of a strong national defense and dedicated to providing free-market solutions to today's public policy problems" that believes "the principles of a free market, individual liberty and personal responsibility provide the greatest hope for meeting the challenges facing America in the 21st century." A division of the NCPPR, the Free Enterprise Project, describes itself as the "original and premier opponent of the woke takeover of American corporate life and defender of true capitalism." It files shareholder resolutions, engages corporate CEOs and board members, submits public comments, engages state and federal leaders, crafts legislation, files lawsuits, makes proxy voting recommendations, and directs media campaigns to push corporations to respect their fiduciary obligations and to stay out of political and social engineering." This proposal has also been labeled as "Anti-ESG" due to the shareholder proponent. These proponents have generally submitted proposals that address environmental and social issues and their aims are fairly clearly articulated in their supporting statements. Support for this resolution could buoy the proponents arguments and would advance a narrative that may contradict that of investors concerned about companies ESG performance. In addition, it should be noted that the Company provides shareholders with adequate disclosure to allow them to understand these risks and how they are being managed and mitigated by the Company. For example, the Company states its new European Security Program ("ESP"), among other things, seeks to share information on ransomware and other attacks on networks by sophisticated cybercriminals, but the ESP is intentionally limited in both scope and frequency, offering structured support within predefined parameters. Further, its commitment to freedom of expression is already subject to an external audit of the sort called for in this proposal. As a result, we are voting against this proposal.

Shareholder Proposal Regarding GenAI Discrimination	Against	In this case, the proponent of this proposal is the American Conservative Values ETF, which states that it is the first exchange-traded fund for ideologically Conservative investors. It states that it seeks to boycott as many companies hostile to conservative values as possible, and that it seeks to avoid ownership of companies that it determines disproportionately support liberal causes. This proponent has generally submitted proposals that appear to be focused on E&S issues on their face but are designed to frustrate the company's actions around ESG performance. Therefore, we are voting against this proposal.
Shareholder Proposal Regarding Report on Risks of AI Data Sourcing	Against	It should be noted that the proponent of this proposal is the National Legal and Policy Center ("NLPC"), which has submitted shareholder proposals that, upon first impression, appear to be consistent with environmental and social proposals that call for information or action on enhancing companies' approaches to environmental and social factors but, upon further review, appear to be designed to inhibit companies' actions in such areas. The project also examines a supposed pushback against ESG initiatives, featuring pieces such as one describing corporate America's anti-racism programs as racist against white people and another promoting the NLPC's efforts to nominate a fossil-fuel-supporting director candidate to the board of Exxon Mobil Corporation. Shareholder Proposal Regarding Report on Siting in Countries of Significant Human Rights Concern	For	The Company could be exposed to significant legal, reputational, and regulatory risks. Shareholder Proposal Regarding Report on AI Human Rights Due Diligence	For	It is believed that a best effort should be put forward to identify and prevent risks to shareholder value stemming from human rights violations along its entire supply chain. However, at this time, the Company's current disclosure in this regard is considered to be adequate. For example, the Company is already taking a variety of measures to demonstrate responsiveness to the matters raised by the proponent. Specifically, in December 2025, the Company will be publishing: (i) an executive summary of a new human rights impact assessment on generative AI as well as a Human Rights Transparency Report, covering fiscal year 2025 and bringing together its legacy supply chain and human rights report for a full value-chain review of human rights. Regarding the Middle East, the Company affirms that Covington & Burling is providing recommendations based on this specific review and a broader examination of the Company's human rights due diligence processes, which the Company will make public and use to consider strengthening its due diligence processes further. Moreover, the Company asserts that it will continue to refine how it monitors high-risk use cases of its technology and will evaluate guardrails to aid in preventing misuse. It is also engaging with additional human rights experts to learn from its situation. Nonetheless, as demands for increased transparency are generally in line with the basic policy requirements, we are voting for this proposal.
Shareholder Proposal Regarding Report on Risks of Providing AI to Facilitate New Oil and Gas Development and Production	For	It is believed that the Company has provided significant disclosure regarding its sustainability commitments, including its own net zero commitment and its Energy Principles, which require a net zero target for Scope 1 and 2 emissions, achieved by 2050 or sooner, for any fossil fuel company to whom it would extend specialized services for subsurface exploration and extraction of fossil fuels. The Company also acknowledges the concerns raised regarding the use of advanced technology in the fossil fuel industry, and states that it is essential to recognize the broader context, that technology plays a crucial role in helping various industries, including energy, transition towards more sustainable practices. However, as demands for increased transparency are generally in line with the basic policy requirements, we are voting for this proposal.

Advisory Vote on Executive Compensation	Against	The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. However: The Company has failed to link pay with performance. Severance package payments are not limited to a maximum of two-years' salary. Long-term remuneration is measured exclusively by TSR (Options and PSUs performance). Clawback policy is restatement dependent only. The LTI does not include ESG criteria. The board can grant discretionary bonuses. Specifically, several executives were granted retention awards, comprised of PSUs, valued at $12,000,000 each. As this is against policy, we are voting against this proposal.

Authority to Set General Meeting Notice Period at 14 Days	For	A shortened general meeting notice period is permitted by the UK Corporate Governance Code and the EU Shareholders Rights Directive, provided that a company conforms to specific electronic voting and communication requirements, as is the case here. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal.
Shareholder Proposal Regarding Report on Wage Policies	For	The Company does provide information concerning its human capital management strategies, including some disclosure concerning its pay considerations. However, the Company does not provide much of the information sought by this proposal. Employee wages are a salient risk to the Company and additional reporting on this matter is in line with policy and would better allow shareholders to understand how the Company is managing and mitigating risks related to this matter. However, several governance and transparency requirements have not been met: The board of directors is not sufficiently independent. The audit committee is not sufficiently independent. CVs (age) of directors are not published (Nicolas D'heregere). As this is contrary to policy, we are voting against this proposal.
Ratification of Auditor's Acts	For	This ratification will not be valid if the financial statements contain any omission or false statement on behalf of management with regards to the Company's financial performance. There is no indication of any investigations or pending court cases pertaining to the Company's auditors. In the absence of any specific concerns one should consider this request as routine. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal.
Remuneration Report	Against	The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. However: The Company has failed to implement clear executive stock ownership guidelines. Specifically, the amount required to be held is not disclosed. The LTI does not include ESG criteria. The report does not provide transparency on chosen indices, benchmarks or peer-groups. As this is against policy, we are voting against this proposal.

The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. However: The Company has failed to implement clear executive stock ownership guidelines. Specifically, the amount required to be held is not disclosed. Compensation is not clearly linked to materially significant ESG indicator. The report does not provide transparency on chosen indices, benchmarks or peer-groups. The board can grant discretionary bonuses. The Company has failed to disclose performance metrics. In this case, performance measures are based on objective financial metrics over a three-year performance period. The actual performance metrics will be disclosed in the remuneration period with their relevant performance period and LTI grants. As this is against policy, we are voting against this proposal.
Elect Henriette Fenger Ellekrog	For	There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualification and suitability of nominee Henriette Fenger Ellekrog. Consequently, we are supporting this director's election.
Elect Eriikka Söderström	For	There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualification and suitability of nominee Eriikka Söderström. Consequently, we are supporting this director's election.
Elect Nicolas D'heygere	Against	There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualification and suitability of nominee Nicolas D'heygere. However, the Company has not published this director's CV (age) as is required by policy. Elect Toralf Haag	Against	There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualification and suitability of nominee Toralf Haag. However, given the information provided, the candidate holds too many mandates to be in line with policy (Director - NV Bekaert SA; Director - QIAGEN N.V.; CEO - Aurubis AG). Advisory Vote on Executive Compensation	Against	The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. However: The clawback policy is restatement dependent only. Compensation is not linked to materially significant ESG indicator. Ratification of Auditor	Against	There is no indication of any investigations or pending court cases pertaining to the auditor. Moreover, the fees paid to the auditor are appropriate and are clearly disclosed by the Company. However, the same firm has audited the Company for more than 10 years, which is not in line with policy. Moreover, as per US market practice, the lead auditor's tenure has not been disclosed in the company's proxy materials or annual report. Consequently, we are voting against this proposal.
Elimination of Supermajority Requirement	Against	This proposal seeks shareholder approval to eliminate the Company's supermajority vote provisions, which is not in line with policy. Supermajority vote requirements can act as impediments to takeover proposals, impede shareholders' ability to approve ballot items that are in their interests and are not in line with market best practice. On the other hand, they serve as protection against discrimination against minority shareholders and are applied in particular to corporate decisions of material significance. Currently voting decisions which require a supermajority result, need approval of two-thirds of the outstanding shares. This can be considered as reasonable. In this case, the company is seeking to eliminate all supermajority rights. Since it is advantageous in some cases to have supermajority rights for corporate decisions, we are voting against this proposal.
Shareholder Proposal Regarding Length of Share Ownership Required to Call Special Meetings	Against	The Company's existing 15% threshold appears sufficient to allow shareholders to call a special meeting. Further, the Company's one-year ownership threshold does not appear to be unnecessarily burdensome, given the low ownership threshold necessary to call a special meeting. Ultimately the proposed changes are not in line with policy. Consequently, we are voting against this proposal.
Shareholder Proposal Regarding Mandatory Director Resignation Policy	For	Overall, given that failed director elections are extremely rare, adoption of the proposed policy could benefit shareholders by promoting board accountability and ensuring responsiveness to shareholder concerns. This proposal could be adopted in such a manner that prevents a worst-case scenario should a director be required to depart from the board but also ensures that shareholders have a meaningful voice in director elections. As this is in line with policy and enhances shareholder rights, we are voting for this proposal.

Shareholder Proposal Regarding Workforce Data	For	Given the importance of workforce diversity to both companies and investors, additional disclosure would allow shareholders to better understand how the Company is managing this critical issue and the reporting requested by this proposal could provide shareholders with standardized and comparable information concerning a company's workforce diversity. Remuneration Policy	Against	The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. However: The Company has failed to implement executive stock ownership guidelines. However, equity awards must be held for a period of one year following deliverance. The remuneration policy provides for the immediate vesting of awards. The Company has not disclosed specific details regarding the ESG metric under the STI. The proposed long-term incentive plan is not in line with policy. Specifically, less than at least 2 KPIs are used as performance criteria, the plan does not include ESG criteria and the remuneration structure allows for vesting of awards in under 3 years. The board can grant discretionary bonuses. There is no benchmark used for pay-setting. Base salary increased by more than 10% within one year without a valid reason. Specifically, the Company has disclosed its intention to raise the fixed salary cap in the proposed policy. The CEO's base salary cap will increase by 66.7% in the upcoming fiscal year (up to €1,500,000). The Company discloses that the CEO will receive a fixed salary of €663,000 for FY 2025. Further, the Company disclosed that the non-executive chair fee cap will be increased by 66.7%, up to €2.5 million (previously €1.5 million). There is no disclosed cap on incentive limits for STI awards. The Company disclosed that while non-executives do not participate in variable remuneration currently, there could be exceptional cases where they would be invited. As this is against policy, we are voting against this proposal.

Resolution on the appointment of the auditor of the financial statements and auditor of the consolidated financial statements for the 2025 financial year and the auditor for any audit review of the condensed financial statements and the interim management report for the 2025 financial year	Against	The responsible auditor is explicitly referred to by name, as stipulated in the guidelines. Resolution on the appointment of the auditor of the 2025 sustainability report for the company and the group	For	There are no indications that constitute a violation of the guidelines. This motion may therefore be viewed uncritically. We are therefore voting in favour of the motion.
Resolution on the approval of the remuneration report for the 2024 financial year	Against	The remuneration system was last voted on in 2022 and achieved an approval rate of only 68.81%. The remuneration report was last voted on in 2024 and reached an approval rate of just 64.87%. There are numerous weaknesses in the system, which is why the report on the system cannot comply with the guidelines either: The ratio of Management Board remuneration to the remuneration of senior management and employees as a whole is not taken into account in relation to the development over time (deviation G.4 GCGC) No determination of performance parameters for the upcoming financial year (deviation G.7 GCGC) The ESG factors are not secured in the system (but were applied for 2024) No ESG in the LTI STI & LTI essentially measured against EBITDA/EBITA/EBT/EPS, i.e. no significantly different performance criteria Absence of a clearly defined and transparent peer group No share ownership guidelines In the event of a new appointment, a percentage of the target amount of the LTIP can be guaranteed at its own discretion Exercising discretion based on the system is not specifically comprehensible, e.g. the Supervisory Board can decide that Management Board members participate in a virtual SAR plan of Nemetschek Group. The number of SARs is defined in an individual SAR agreement Relevant information is only available to a limited extent; e.g. in the LTIP only on objectives, targets and payout amounts are reported in the remuneration report for the financial year in which the corresponding LTIP period ends and therefore the service for the LTIP tranche was provided in full Overall, the motion should be viewed very critically. We are therefore voting against the motion.

Accounts and Reports	For	The Company's audited annual and consolidated accounts were available for review in advance of this shareholder meeting. As no evidence has been presented that would question the accuracy of these reports, one should consider this item as routine. Therefore, we are voting for this proposal.
Allocation of Profits/ Dividends	Against	A proposed dividend allocation should be comparable to industry peers and should mirror the financial health of the company. In principle, an acceptable pay-out ratio should be above 20 percent and below 100 percent. As the proposed dividend pay-out ration exceeds 100 percent, we are voting against this proposal.
Appointment of Auditor and Authority to Set Fees	Against	There is no indication of any investigations or pending court cases pertaining to the auditor have been disclosed. Moreover, fees paid to the auditor are appropriate and all necessary information regarding the auditor have been provided in the Company's filings. Elect Eddie LEE Kwan Hung	Against	There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualification and suitability of nominee Eddie LEE Kwan Hung. Moreover, as the board of directors, the audit committee, the compensation committee and nominating and corporate governance committee do not comprise of an adequate number of independent members, we are voting against all insider and affiliated directors. Also, the policy requires the audit committee chair to be independent. In addition, the nominee has already been a non-executive member of the board for more than 15 years, which is against policy. Finally, In order to encourage independent board oversight, designating a member as an independent chair or an independent lead or presiding director has become a requirement in various corporate governance settings. As the Company's board has no independent leadership role, the chair of the nominating/corporate governance committee should be held accountable. Consequently, we are voting against the election of Grace Hui Tang.

Shareholder Proposal Regarding Collective Agreements for Contracted Employees	For	This proposal requests that the Company, in contracts with contractors who build for the Company, require that there are collective agreements at the workplaces that cover the employees and that there must be a good working environment. Further, it requests that the Company's requirements be associated with sanctions if contractors, or subcontractors, do not comply with them. The concerns raised by the proposal regarding working conditions at the Company's suppliers are valid, especially considering that within a matter of months, the Company experienced four different fires at various locations in Denmark. Further, there have been recent allegations that the Company was employing foreign workers without permits to work in Denmark at their Kalundborg construction site and that they did not have valid certification to be working with open fire. The Company's actions in this regard, as well as the findings that the Company did not have adequate safety measures and emergency planning in place, resulted in an injunction on the Kalundborg site. Moreover, officials from the Danish Working Environment Authority visited the site 14 times and stated that its conditions were "life-threatening" and posed "significant risk of serious injury." Given that the proposed request is in line with policy, we are voting for this proposal.

Remuneration Policy	Against	The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. However: The Company has failed to implement a performance based long-term incentive plan. However, the awards will vest subject to continued employment and a discretionary performance underpin assessed by the committee prior to vesting, which may mitigate concerns. The LTI does not include ESG criteria. The Company intends to adopt a new Growth Plan for executive directors whereby a one-off market value option award will vest subject to the achievement of an adjusted basic EPS target of 38.7p in any of the five financial years between FY2025 and FY2029. As such, vesting of the awards is subject to the achievement of an adjusted basic EPS target only. In addition, awards under this plan may vest on the satisfaction of the EPS metric in any year up to 2029. As such, full vesting could occur as a result of performance in a single year. Moreover, under the proposed Growth Plan, participants could be eligible for significant payouts which may largely be based on market forces. The remuneration structure allows for adjusted metric under the STIP. As this is not entirely in line with policy, we are voting against this proposal.
Approval of the Growth Plan	Against	Remuneration plans should be adequately disclosed and should reward executives for good performance. According to policy, dilution for all compensation plans should be no higher than 10% of share capital. Amendment to Long-Term Incentive Plan	For	Remuneration plans should be adequately disclosed and should reward executives for good performance. According to policy, dilution for all compensation plans should be no higher than 10% of share capital. Elect Jeffrey S. Berg	Withhold	As the board of directors and audit committee do not comprise an adequate number of independent members, we are voting against all insider and affiliated directors. Advisory Vote on Executive Compensation	Against	The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. However: Compensation is not linked to materially significant ESG indicator. Less than at least 2 KPIs are used as performance STI criteria, which is solely based on growth in non-GAAP operating income. There is no performance-based long-term incentive for executives other than Safra A. Catz and Lawrence J. Ellison. It should be noted that Mr. Ellison and Ms. Catz were granted front-loaded awards in FY 2018. During FY 2025, the fourth and fifth tranches of the awards were earned based on the achievement of performance goals related to non-GAAP total cloud revenues and non-GAAP total PaaS and IaaS revenues, with 2.5 million PSOs vesting per tranche for each NEO on June 24, 2025. The final two operational goals were unmet at the end of the fiscal year, and were forfeited accordingly. In addition, the Company discloses its view that awarding long-term performance-based incentives to other executives could create undesirable incentives for these NEOs. Shareholders may also note that the Company discloses that it is continuing to consider and refine the design of the equity award program for FY2026 in response to shareholder feedback emphasizing the desirability of performance-based equity awards. As the Company went through a CEO transition, Clayton M. Magouyrk and Michael D. Sicilia were appointed as co-CEOs. In connection with their appointments, Mr. Magouyrk and Mr. Sicilia received grants of stock options consisting 80% of time-based stock options and 20% of performance stock options. The grant to Mr. Magouyrk was valued at $250 million, while the grant to Mr. Sicilia was valued at $100 million, representing a total of $350 million. Time-based stock options will vest over four years and performance options will vest over three years subject to the achievement of certain revenue goals. Overall, disclosure surrounding these awards is insufficient, and, in particular, further clarity is necessary to understand how the one-time awards granted to Messrs. Magouyrk and Sicilia will be incorporated as part of their overall CEO compensation arrangements and pay levels. Lawrence J. Ellison received approximately $5.6 million in perquisites from the Company, which largely consisted of security services. The Company discloses that $6.0 million was budgeted and approved for Mr. Ellison's security services in FY2025 based on a review of the actual and credible threats made against the Company's senior executives during the last completed fiscal year; any amount not used would be refunded to the Company. Shareholders may carefully consider the nature of perquisites and their impact on overall executive pay levels going forward.

Allocation of Profits/ Dividends	For	A proposed dividend allocation should be comparable to industry peers and should mirror the financial health of the company. In principle, an acceptable pay-out ratio should be above 20 percent and below 100 percent. The company's aggregate pay-out ratio for the fiscal year is in an acceptable range. Given this, we are voting for this proposal.
Special Auditors Report on Regulated Agreements	For	The audit report states that there are no new agreements of this type to be submitted for shareholder approval. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal.
Elect Nadia Zak-Calvet (Employee Shareholder Representative)	Against	There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualification and suitability of nominee Nadia Zak-Calvet. Elect Bpifrance Participations (Thierry Sommelet)	For	There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualification and suitability of nominee Thierry Sommelet. Consequently, we are supporting this director's election.

2025 Remuneration Policy (Chair)	For	The proposed fees are reasonable and in line with those paid by the Company's peers. Therefore, we are voting for this proposal.
2025 Remuneration Policy (Board of Directors)	For	The proposed fees are reasonable and in line with those paid by the Company's peers. Therefore, we are voting for this proposal.
Authority to Repurchase and Reissue Shares	Against	At this time, there is no evidence of any past abuse of this type of authority at the company. However, the maximum price has been disclosed in monetary value only, instead of 10% premium or discount of market price. As this is against policy, we are voting against this proposal.
Amendments to Articles Regarding Written Consultation	For	In this case, there is no cause for shareholder concern regarding the proposed amendments. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal.
Amendments to Articles Regarding General Meetings	For	In this case, there is no cause for shareholder concern regarding the proposed amendments. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal.
Amendments to Article Regarding Alternate Statutory Auditors	For	In this case, there is no cause for shareholder concern regarding the proposed amendments. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal.
Authority to Issue Shares and Convertible Debt w/ Preemptive Rights	Against	In this case, the board will be authorised to potentially issue up to 18.8% of the Company's current issued share capital with preemptive rights, subject to a global ceiling of 28.2% of share capital for all share issuances. This global ceiling for all share issuances exceeds the cumulative limit set by policy. The Company has not provided any information regarding the maximum value of convertible debt instruments that may be issued pursuant to Proposals 17 to 22, in contrast to market practice in France. As a result, we are voting against this proposal.
Authority to Issue Shares and Convertible Debt w/o Preemptive Rights	Against	In this case, the board will be authorised to potentially issue up to 9.4% of the Company's current issued share capital without preemptive rights, subject to a global ceiling of 28.2% of share capital for all share issuances. This global ceiling for all share issuances exceeds the cumulative limit set by policy. Authority to Issue Shares and Convertible Debt Through Private Placement	Against	In this case, the board will be authorised to potentially issue up to 9.4% of the Company's current issued share capital without preemptive rights, subject to a global ceiling of 28.2% of share capital for all share issuances. This global ceiling for all share issuances exceeds the cumulative limit set by policy. The Company has not provided any information regarding the maximum value of convertible debt instruments that may be issued pursuant to Proposals 17 to 22, in contrast to market practice in France. As a result, we are voting against this proposal.
Greenshoe	Against	This authority grants the Company the flexibility to increase an over-subscribed issuance by up to 15%, so long as such increase takes place on the same terms and within thirty days of the initial issuance. In this case, the proposed greenshoe specifically applies to Proposals 17-19, which seek shareholder authority to cumulatively issue up to 28.2% of the Company's share capital, of which up to 28.2% of share capital may be issued with preemptive rights and up to 9.4% of share capital may be issued without preemptive rights. As such, the proposed cumulative limit for Proposals 17-19 exceeds the cumulative limit set by policy. The Company has also not provided any information regarding the maximum value of convertible debt instruments that may be issued pursuant to Proposals 17 to 22, in contrast to market practice in France. As a result, we are voting against this proposal.
Authority to Increase Capital in Case of Exchange Offers	Against	In this case, the board will be authorised to potentially issue up to 9.4% of the Company's current issued share capital without preemptive rights, subject to a global ceiling of 28.2% of share capital for all share issuances. As such, the global ceiling for all share issuances exceeds the cumulative limit set by policy. As the global ceiling for all share issuances exceeds the cumulative limit set by policy, we are voting against this proposal.

Global Ceiling on Capital Increases	Against	In general, the setting of global limits for issuances should be viewed in a positive fashion, as it serves as an additional level of protection for shareholders' interests, by minimizing the potentially significant dilution of a series of issuance requests to a fixed level. However, in this case, the board will be authorised to set a global ceiling of 28.2% of share capital for all share issuances. As the global ceiling for all share issuances exceeds the cumulative limit set by policy, we are voting against this proposal.
Authority to Issue Performance Shares	For	Remuneration plans should be adequately disclosed and should reward executives for good performance. According to policy, dilution for all compensation plans should be no higher than 10% of share capital. Given that the company's plan is fully compliant with policy and, in the absence of any evidence of past abuse by the company of this type of authority, we are supporting this proposal.
Employee Stock Purchase Plan	For	This proposal does not violate policy. Moreover, given the Company's history of a stable and acceptable level of employee share ownership, the high level of support from shareholders for these proposals, and the benefits of wide employee participation in a company's share capital, we are voting for this proposal.
Authority to Increase Capital Through Capitalisations	For	The successive or simultaneous capitalisation of reserves, retained earnings or additional paid-in capital would benefit shareholders by allowing the Company to increase paid-in capital through a series of alternatives, above and beyond the issuance of shares. Moreover, when companies capitalize reserves, retained earnings or paid-in capital, there is no risk of dilution. This procedure merely transfers wealth to shareholders and does not impact share value. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal.
Authority to Cancel Shares and Reduce Capital	For	This is a routine request in France. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal.
Authorisation of Legal Formalities	For	This is a routine legal formality in France. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal.
Shareholder Proposal A Regarding Equity Remuneration for Employees	Against	Although policy is not against awarding equity to employees, this proposal appears to overstep as it seeks to implement changes to the compensation plan, in essence overriding management decisions on this matter. Considering the support given to Proposal 24 and in absence of evidence of Company mismanagement of this issue, we are voting against this proposal.
Shareholder Proposal B Regarding Limit on Board Memberships for the Chair	Against	Currently, the board chair does not appear to hold mandates in excess of the limits outlined by policy. As a result, we are voting against this proposal.

Ratification of Board and CEO Acts	Against	There is no indication of any investigations or pending court cases pertaining to current member of the Board of Directors and the Chief Executive Officer at the company. However, several governance and transparency requirements have not been met: The Company has not disclosed that any of the incumbent audit committee members is considered as an audit financial expert. Furthermore, having reviewed the director biographies of audit committee members disclosed by the Company, it is not feasible to ascertain that any audit committee members has a recent and relevant background in, and experience of, finance and accounting. As this is contrary to policy, we are voting against this proposal.

Directors' Fees	For	The proposed fees are reasonable and in line with those paid by the Company's peers. Therefore, we are voting for this proposal.
Board Size	For	The boards of directors of Finnish listed companies usually consist of three to ten directors. The number of directors depends on the provisions of the company's articles of association and the general meeting's decisions and varies from one company to another. There are no indications of any controversy regarding the board size at this company. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal.
Election of Directors	Against	There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualification and suitability of nominee Kari Jussi Aho, Maziar Mike Doustdar, Ari Lehtoranta, Hilpi Rautelin, Eija Ronkainen, Henrik Stenqvist and Karen Lykke Sørensen. Consequently, we are supporting these directors' elections. However, the Company has failed to disclose a detailed record of the proxy voting results from the last annual meeting, thereby prohibiting shareholders from assessing significant opposition to specific resolutions. The disclosure of vote results assists shareholders in gaining a better understanding of the outcome of general meetings, establishing engagement priorities, and tracking companies' responses to material (minority) shareholder dissent on any of the agenda items. In this case, it is appropriate to hold Veli-Matti Mattila, as chair of the board, responsible for this lack of disclosure. While we would normally support the election of some of these nominees, it should be noted that the Company is bundling all elections under one resolution. Consequently, we are voting against this proposal.
Authority to Set Auditor's Fees; Authority to Set Sustainability Auditor's Fees	For	The fees paid to the auditor are appropriate and are clearly disclosed by the Company. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal.
Appointment of Auditor; Appointment of Auditor for Sustainability Reporting	Against	There is no indication of any investigations or pending court cases pertaining to the auditor. It should be noted that the law requires rotation of the lead auditor every seven years. However, the company does not publish for how long lead auditor has already been in office. Consequently, we are voting against this proposal.
Authority to Issue Shares w/ or w/o Preemptive Rights	For	In this case, the board will be authorised to issue up to 10% of the Company's current issued share capital with or without preemptive rights, which is in line with policy. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal.

Elect Cesar Conde	For	There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualification and suitability of nominee Cesar Conde. Consequently, we are supporting this director's election.
Elect Ian M. Cook	Against	As the nomination and governance committee does not comprise an adequate number of independent members, we are voting against all insider and affiliated directors on this committee. Moreover, as the nominee has already been a non-executive member of the board for more than 15 years, which is against policy. Consequently, we are opposing Ian M. Cook's election.
Elect Edith W. Cooper	For	There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualification and suitability of nominee Edith W. Cooper. Consequently, we are supporting this director's election.
Elect Susan M. Diamond	For	There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualification and suitability of nominee Susan M. Diamond. Consequently, we are supporting this director's election.
Elect Dina Dublon	Against	As the compensation committee does not comprise an adequate number of independent members, we are voting against all insider and affiliated directors on this committee. Moreover, as the nominee has already been a non-executive member of the board for more than 15 years, which is against policy. Consequently, we are opposing Dina Dublon's election.
Elect Michelle D. Gass	For	There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualification and suitability of nominee Michelle D. Gass. Consequently, we are supporting this director's election.
Elect Ramon L. Laguarda	Against	There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualification and suitability of nominee Ramon L. Laguarda. However, given the information provided, the candidate holds too many mandates to be in line with policy (Director - Visa Inc; CEO/Chair - Pepsico, Inc). Furthermore, this director will be serving as the combined Chair/CEO in the upcoming year, which is against policy. Consequently, we are opposing this director's election.
Elect Dave J. Lewis	For	There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualification and suitability of nominee Dave J. Lewis. Consequently, we are supporting this director's election.
Elect David C. Page	Against	As the compensation committee does not comprise an adequate number of independent members, we are voting against all insider and affiliated directors on this committee. Consequently, we are voting against the election of non-independent nominee David C. Page.

Ratification of Auditor	Against	There is no indication of any investigations or pending court cases pertaining to the auditor. Moreover, the fees paid to the auditor are appropriate and are clearly disclosed by the Company. However, the same firm has audited the Company for more than 10 years, which is not in line with policy. Shareholder Proposal Regarding Racial Equity Audit	For	Following its February 2025 announcement that it was ending some of its DEI initiatives, the Company has limited the disclosure of its efforts, commitments, and policies concerning racial equity, and though it still provides board oversight of matters pertaining to inclusion, it has removed explicit board-level oversight of diversity and equity. As was the case last year, the Company states it has engaged an independent third party to assess its policies and practices, though it does not appear to provide reporting on its findings. Ultimately, as demands for increased transparency are generally in line with the basic policy requirements, we are voting for this proposal.
Shareholder Proposal Regarding Report on Biodiversity Loss	For	Currently, the Company publicly discloses its sustainability goals for itself and its suppliers, including those related to deforestation, and provides its stewardship of forests and natural ecosystems policy and global policy on sustainable palm oil, among other things. The Company further states it is focused on preparations in line with forthcoming disclosure requirements related to biodiversity. The Company also maintains board-level oversight of its environmental efforts. As demands for increased transparency are generally in line with the basic policy requirements, we are voting for this proposal.
Shareholder Proposal Regarding Report on Flexible Plastic Packaging	For	Currently, the Company and its peers provide relatively comparable disclosures concerning their use of plastics and sustainable packaging efforts. However, only the Company and McDonald's maintain a target to make 100% of their packaging recyclable. The Company has also provided meaningful and detailed disclosure concerning its packaging-related initiatives and policies. Nonetheless, as demands for increased transparency around ESG issues are generally in line with the basic policy requirements, we are voting for this proposal.

Remuneration Report	For	The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. In addition, the remuneration paid to the executive board is not excessive and is comparable with industry peers. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal.
Approval of the Sharesave Plan	For	The proposed plan would provide a way for all employees to acquire ordinary shares in the Company at a discount, encouraging employees to invest in the Company, thereby aligning their interests with those of shareholders. The Company is bound by certain statutory limitations in terms of the amount of shares to be granted pursuant to any Company share incentive plan as well as a monthly contribution limit in order to acquire shares. Given that the proposed plan does not violate policy, we are supporting this proposal.
Final Dividend	For	A proposed dividend allocation should be comparable to industry peers and should mirror the financial health of the company. In principle, an acceptable pay-out ratio should be above 20 percent and below 100 percent. The company's aggregate pay-out ratio for the fiscal year is in an acceptable range. Given this, we are voting for this proposal.

Authority to Set Auditor's Fees	For	The fees paid to the auditor are appropriate and are clearly disclosed by the Company. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal.
Authority to Issue Shares w/ Preemptive Rights	Against	In this case, the board will be authorised to potentially issue up to 66% of the Company's current issued share capital with preemptive rights. As this exceeds the limit set by policy, we are voting against this proposal.
Authorisation of Political Donations	For	At this time, there is no evidence of any past abuse of this type of authority at the company. This is primarily technical item. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal.
Authority to Issue Shares w/ o Preemptive Rights	Against	In this case, the board will be authorised to potentially issue up to 5% of the Company's current issued share capital without preemptive rights, which, if considered cumulatively with authorizations in Proposals 9 and 12, exceeds the limit set by policy. Consequently, we are voting against this proposal.

Accounts and Reports	For	The Company's audited annual and consolidated accounts were available for review in advance of this shareholder meeting. As no evidence has been presented that would question the accuracy of these reports, one should consider this item as routine. Therefore, we are voting for this proposal.
Report on Non-Financial Information	For	This is a routine presentation of the reports. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal.
Allocation of Profits/ Dividends	For	The Company proposes that no dividend will be distributed for the past fiscal year. It is in the best interest of shareholders to approve the Company's strategy. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal.
Ratification of Board Acts	Against	There is no indication of any investigations or pending court cases pertaining to current member of the Board of Directors and the Chief Executive Officer at the company. However, several governance and transparency requirements have not been met: The board of directors is not sufficiently independent. CVs (age) of directors are not published. As this is contrary to policy, we are voting against this proposal.
Special Dividend	For	It is believed that the board is in the best position to determine whether or not a special dividend should be distributed to the Company's shareholders. Moreover, the distribution of funds drawn from the Company's share premium account will not represent an ongoing cost for the Company and should not pose a negative effect on the interests of shareholders. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal.
Elect Eduardo Serra Rexach	Against	There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualification and suitability of nominee Eduardo Serra Rexach. However, the nominee has already been a non-executive member of the board for more than 15 years, which is against policy. Employee Share Ownership Plan 2026	For	It is believed that equity-based compensation can be an effective way to align the interests of key employees with those of shareholders. Under the proposed plan, participants may elect to receive a portion of their remuneration in the form of Company shares. Since the value of the shares will be determined by the market price on the day of disbursement, aside from possible transaction and management costs, the plan will not substantially increase the total cost of remuneration paid to the participants. Moreover, potential dilution to current shareholders will be minimal. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal.
Remuneration Policy	Against	The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. However: The Company has failed to implement executive stock ownership guidelines. The Company has failed to implement a long-term incentive plan. However, it should be noted that the executive chair is also its major shareholder; as such, there is a natural alignment between the interests of management and shareholders. The board can grant discretionary bonuses. Specifically, the Company disclosed that it may grant extraordinary bonuses to executive directors, subject to the approval of the general shareholders meeting, in accordance with the legal requirements. The benchmark used for pay-setting has not been disclosed. The executive chair's base salary currently outpaces those of its peers. However, concerns regarding pay levels are somewhat mitigated by the lack of long-term awards, which tames overall quantum. Additionally, the Company has maintained the maximum opportunity under the STIP at 100%, despite allowing for possible over-achievement under its metrics. Pension entitlements also remain low in reference to peers in the Ibex mid-cap index. Nonetheless, the quantum of the base salary remains a concern, particularly as the Company will further increase the salary by 3% in FY2025, and the board retains the discretion, under the proposed policy, to further increase the said salary by up to 15% annually. As this is not entirely in line with policy, we are voting against this proposal.

Remuneration Report	Against	The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. However: The Company has failed to implement executive stock ownership guidelines. The Company has failed to implement a long-term incentive plan. However, it should be noted that the executive chair is also its major shareholder; as such, there is a natural alignment between the interests of management and shareholders. The benchmark used for pay-setting has not been disclosed. Fixed salary increased by more than 10% within one year without a valid reason. Specifically, the executive chair received a base salary increase of 10.4% for the past fiscal year. Moreover, the executive chair's base salary currently exceeds the average base salary of the Ibex-35 (€1,289,811), and far exceeds the average of the Ibex medium cap companies (€719,611). The Company's remuneration practices have been the subject of significant shareholder dissent and the Company has failed to address this in a meaningful manner. A significant portion of the STIP (60% for the executive chair) is based on qualitative metrics that have not been clearly defined and disclosed by the Company. Due to the nature of these metrics and the lack of transparency on their assessment process, this portion of the award does not appear to be linked to any pre-determined targets, but rather assessed ex-post by the board through an evaluation of the individual executive's contributions to achievements in the selected areas. Moreover, the Company has failed to disclose key details of its executive remuneration system, which precludes shareholders from adequately assessing to what extent this aligns executive pay with the Company's performance and market best practice. As this is not entirely in line with policy, we are voting against this proposal.
Authorisation of Legal Formalities	For	This is a routine legal request in Spain. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal.

Elect Dissident Nominee Brian Coffman (GOLD CARD)	For	For further information and detailed analysis regarding the dissident argument, including corporate governance factors and the precedent events, please refer to the attached report.

In this case, the board firmly asserts that significant steps toward integration have been successful and "will continue to drive long-term value" for investors. On review, this perspective appears disconcertingly disconnected from the boots-on-the-ground reality: P66 has regularly run afoul of market expectations, has not generated competitive value during the span of Mr. Lashier's executive service, has not demonstrated what appears to be any compelling, durable deviation from refiner trends, and, notwithstanding expansive capital recycling into additional midstream assets, has not exhibited any substantive valuation upside or alignment with midstream peers. In short, if a fully integrated value proposition exists here, it appears the board's materials struggle mightily to illustrate it in particularly persuasive terms.

In lieu of perpetuating a framework which seems likely to throw good money after bad in further pursuit of nominal integration, Elliott appears to have offered investors credible and targeted alternative nominees well-tuned to P66's evident struggles. Critically, the expectation is that the identified Elliott nominees would challenge prevailing internal narratives which seem to belie, among other things, a disconcerting satisfaction with a less than laudatory operational arc, a staunch but otherwise questionable defense of an ineffective strategic tack and an increasingly dubious commitment to sound corporate governance. Alongside these efforts, while acknowledging board-level engagement would likely surface discussions relating to available alternatives intended to address what appear to be credible arguments around captive value at P66. While recognizing certain of these alternatives would be transformative - and further acknowledge there exists outside-in limitations associated with Elliott's extant assumptions - it must be stressed that pursuit of any given alternative would require broader board support and emphasize that the practical benefit here is in creating a boardroom better prepared to more thoroughly consider all options to maximize shareholder value. Elliott's solicitation appears to provide the more credible path to that benefit for P66 investors.

Ultimately the dissident makes a compelling argument for significant changes to the board. Regarding this dissident nominee, Brian Coffman brings significant experience as a

		AGAINST: Management Nominees John Lowe, Robert Pease and Howard Ungerleider; Dissident Nominee Stacy Nieuwoudt
		FOR: Management Nominee A. Nigel Hearne; Dissident Nominees Brian Coffman, Sigmund Cornelius and Michael Heim
Elect Dissident Nominee Sigmund Cornelius (GOLD CARD)	For	Please refer to Proposal 1a GOLD CARD for further details. There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualification and suitability of dissident nominee Sigmund Cornelius. In this case, the nominee, one can expect he would bring arguably critical executive and refining expertise, as well as legacy familiarity with P66's asset base as the former senior vice president and CFO of ConocoPhillips.
		Consequently, we are supporting this director's election.
Elect Dissident Nominee Michael Heim (GOLD CARD)	For	Please refer to Proposal 1a GOLD CARD for further details. There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualification and suitability of dissident nominee Michael Heim. In this case, the nominee, by extension of his prior service as founder, president, vice chair and COO of midstream player Targa Resources, would be expected to afford credible, independent perspectives in relation to P66's midstream assets and avenues to address captive value.
		Consequently, we are supporting this director's election.
Elect Dissident Nominee Stacy Nieuwoudt (GOLD CARD)	Against	Please refer to Proposal 1a GOLD CARD for further details. There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualification and suitability of dissident nominee Stacy Nieuwoudt. However, while recognising Ms. Nieuwoudt's analyst background and her intended positioning as a touchpoint between management and the investor community, we consider additional operational perspectives - in this instance stemming from Mr. Hearne's service at Chevron and Harbour Energy - prove more critical at this juncture.
		Consequently, we are voting against Stacy Nieuwoudt's election.

Elect Management Nominee A. Nigel Hearne (GOLD CARD)	For	Please refer to Proposal 1a GOLD CARD for further details. There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualification and suitability of dissident nominee A. Nigel Hearne. However, while recognising Ms. Neiuwoudt's analyst background and her intended positioning as a touchpoint between management and the investor community, we consider additional operational perspectives - in this instance stemming from Mr. Hearne's service at Chevron and Harbour Energy - prove more critical at this juncture. Consequently, we are voting for A. Nigel Hearne's election.
Elect Management Nominee John Lowe (GOLD CARD)	Against	Please refer to Proposal 1a GOLD CARD for further details. There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualification and suitability of dissident nominee John Lowe. However, this nominee who is a long-serving member of the board - having joined at the time of the ConocoPhillips spin, and who has messaged clear confidence in the continued pursuit of a strategy which does not appear to have been value creative for P66 shareholders. Consequently, we are voting against John Lowe's election.
Elect Management Nominee Robert Pease (GOLD CARD)	Against	Please refer to Proposal 1a GOLD CARD for further details. There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualification and suitability of dissident nominee Robert Pease. However, while this nominee offers relevant sector expertise and is a former Elliott nominee, Robert Pease, who swiftly recanted on a core corporate governance principle early in his tenure and currently endorses P66's current strategy and execution which does not appear in the best interest of shareholders. Consequently, we are voting against Robert Pease's election.
Elect Management Nominee Howard Ungerleider (GOLD CARD)	Against	Please refer to Proposal 1a GOLD CARD for further details. There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualification and suitability of dissident nominee Howard Ungerleider. However, this nominee who emerged very late in the run-up to the current AGM and principally brings additional expertise in chemicals, a comparatively smaller portion of the Company's business which, as noted by Elliott, maintains a separate board and management team and does not require substantive operational input from P66. Consequently, we are voting against Howard Ungerleider's election.
Repeal of Classified Board (GOLD CARD)	Against	Currently, directors are elected to serve a three-year term. While one-year terms are in line with best practice, the policy does not require the board to be declassified. As a result, the recommendation is 'AGAINST' with reference to 'ABSTAIN'.

Advisory Vote on Executive Compensation (GOLD CARD)	Against	The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. However: The Company has failed to link pay with performance. Severance package payments are not limited to a maximum of two-years' salary. The LTI does not include ESG criteria. As this is against policy, we are voting against this proposal.
Frequency of Advisory Vote on Executive Compensation- 1 year (GOLD CARD)	For	Shareholders are better served by having an annual vote on executive remuneration as compensation may change dramatically year to year due to significant changes in variable remuneration. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal.
Frequency of Advisory Vote on Executive Compensation- 2 years (GOLD CARD)	Against	Shareholders are better served by having an annual vote on executive remuneration as compensation may change dramatically year to year due to significant changes in variable remuneration. Consequently, we are voting against this proposal as it is contrary to both good corporate governance and the best interests of shareholders.

Given this, we are voting for this proposal.

Change in Registered Capital	For	In this case, it is important to note that an increase in authorised share capital, standing alone, does not dilute current shareholders. These shares are not issued to the public and are not counted in the "outstanding" share count. Instead, only shares issuances, other than a pro rata distribution or a distribution for consideration that is not fair value, would result in the dilution of the ownership interests of current shareholders. Consequently, and as this proposal does not violate policy, we are voting for this proposal.

In addition, as the board of directors does not comprise an adequate number of independent members, we are voting against all insider and affiliated directors. Ratification of Co-Option of Alessandro Marchesini	For	There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualification and suitability of nominee Alessandro Marchesini. Consequently, we are supporting this director's co-option.
Remuneration Policy	For	The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. In addition, the remuneration paid to the executive board is not excessive and is comparable with industry peers. Remuneration Report	Against	The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. However: Fixed salary increased by more than 10% within one year without a valid reason. Specifically, the CEO's base salary increased by 17.8% in 2024, from €1,255,000 as set under the 2020-2022 mandate, to €1,478,000. Further, Giuseppe Lasco was appointed as the new general manager by the board, upon renunciation of the CEO of his concurring role as general manager. The base salary for Giuseppe Lasco was set at €870,000, representing a 13.7% premium compared to his predecessor (Matteo Del Fante's salary for his general manager role was set at €765,000). As this is against policy, we are voting against this proposal.
Adoption of Equity Incentive Plans	For	Remuneration plans should be adequately disclosed and should reward executives for good performance. According to policy, dilution for all compensation plans should be no higher than 10% of share capital. Given that the company's plan is fully compliant with policy and, in the absence of any evidence of past abuse by the company of this type of authority, we are supporting this proposal.
Authority to Repurchase and Reissue Shares to Service Incentive Plans	For	The proposed repurchase and associated plans are in line with policy. As a result, we are voting for this proposal.
Deliberations on Possible Legal Action Against Directors if Presented by Shareholders	For	Where there is a violation of directors' duties, a solvent joint stock company can bring a liability action against the directors under Article 2393 of the Civil Code. Although any damages that the court awards are paid to the company rather than to the shareholders that have brought the action, it appears to be in shareholders' best interest to hold a director liable for a breach of his duties. As a result, it is recommended to view this item in a non-critical fashion should it occur. Therefore, we are voting for this proposal.

Ratification of 2024 Business Report and Financial Statements	For	All of the necessary financial statements and reports are disclosed in the Company's meeting materials. It should be noted that in the opinion of the statutory auditors, the Company's independent auditor, the Company's financial statements and business report have been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in Taiwan, 'Regulations Governing the Preparation of Financial Reports by Securities Issuers and International Financial Reporting Standards'. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal.
Adoption of the Proposal for Distribution of 2024 Profits	For	A proposed dividend allocation should be comparable to industry peers and should mirror the financial health of the company. In principle, an acceptable pay-out ratio should be above 20 percent and below 100 percent. The company's aggregate pay-out ratio for the fiscal year is in an acceptable range. Given this, we are voting for this proposal.
Amendments to Articles	For	In this case, there is no cause for shareholder concern regarding the proposed amendments. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal.
Proposal for Releasing Directors from the Obligation of Non-Competition	For	Releasing the board of directors from these restrictions, which prohibit board members from conducting any activities that can be considered to be competitive with the business affairs of the Company, may lead to potential conflicts of interest for directors. In this case, the Company proposes to release its director from non-compete obligation with respect to their directorships in Companies in an unrelated industry, wholly-owned subsidiaries, controlled subsidiaries, substantial shareholders and their subsidiaries or joint ventures. There is no indication that participation in the operations of such entities will lead to conflicts of interest for directors. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal.
Extraordinary Motions	Against	In Taiwan, many companies place an item for extraordinary motions on their proxy forms. However, shareholders of Taiwanese companies who vote via proxy technically may not exercise their voting rights preemptively for any extraordinary motions raised at the general meeting of shareholders. Instead, proxies have full authority to exercise their discretion in supporting or opposing any such motions. As granting unfettered discretion is not in line with policy, we are voting against this proposal.

Assura plc Offer	For	From a strategic and operational standpoint, the proposed acquisition of Assura offers PHP shareholders exposure to a larger, more diversified platform of healthcare real estate assets. The combination is intended to consolidate two main players in the UK primary care property sector, with the potential for improved capital markets access, cost synergies, and greater scale efficiencies. The transaction is also supported by structural demand trends in UK healthcare and visible backing from several Assura shareholders. At the same time, the transaction entails material dilution to existing PHP shareholders, who would see their ownership reduced to 52% of the enlarged entity. While the expected £9 million in annual pre-tax synergies and earnings accretion provide a financial rationale for the deal, these benefits are contingent on successful integration and execution. Moreover, certain key aspects of post-transaction governance, including board composition and management continuity, remain undefined at this stage. It should also be noted that PHP has proceeded without full access to Assura's internal information, and without a fairness opinion from its financial advisers. However, the presence of a competing all-cash bid at a similar valuation, the publicly disclosed support from institutional shareholders, and the below-average pricing relative to Assura's five-year trading history provide useful external validation of the offer terms. On balance, it is believed that the strategic rationale, potential for long-term value creation, and the alignment with shareholder preferences are sufficiently compelling to support approval of the proposed resolution. While the transaction involves execution risk and dilution, these appear to be mitigated by verified synergy potential, structural market support, and the quality of the target's portfolio. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal.
Authority to Issue Shares w/ Preemptive Rights	Against	In this case, the board will be authorised to potentially issue up to 66% of the Company's current issued share capital with preemptive rights. As this exceeds the limit set by policy, we are voting against this proposal.

Remuneration Policy	Against	The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. However: The board can grant discretionary bonuses. The Company's policy does allow the board to pay any exceptional remuneration to executives. The Company disclosed that discretion will be aimed at supporting the attraction and retention of people considered key to the Company's success. No limits disclosed. Fixed salary increased by more than 10% within one year without a valid reason. Specifically, the CEO will receive a base salary increase of 18.2% in 2025, resulting in a base salary equal to €1,300,000 (previously €1,100,000). In this case, concern is enhanced by the recent 20% increase proposed in the STI maximum opportunity, from 100% to 120% of salary, approved at last year's AGM. The remuneration structure allows for adjusted metrics. Specifically, Adjusted Group EBITDA under the STI and Adjusted Cumulated EBITDA under the LTI. Moreover, the board possesses discretion to adjust awards under both short- and long-term incentive plan, departing from the effective achievement level of performance goals. The 2023-2025 GROW long-term incentive plan foresees payments of 50% of relative TSR target awards to executives when the Company's performance falls in the third quartile of its peer group, specifically at the 8th position, effectively acting as a guaranteed payout. Shareholders would be better served by performance metrics that require a higher minimum level of performance for payouts to occur, or that at the very least provide only modest payouts for below median performance. As this is against policy, we are voting against this proposal.

Remuneration Report	Against	The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. Specifically, Adjusted Group EBITDA under the STI and Adjusted Cumulated EBITDA under the LTI. Moreover, the board possesses discretion to adjust awards under both short- and long-term incentive plan, departing from the effective achievement level of performance goals. It is also worth noting that the Company adjusted performance targets attached to awards made under its 2024 STI. Specifically, the lowering of threshold and target values for ROCE from 20.7%-23.3% to 16%-17.2%, with an actual performance achieved of 16.8%. The former CEO, Valerio Battista, stepped down from his office of CEO at the 2024 AGM, as announced to the market on May 26, 2023. In light of the existing severance agreement, he received an end-of-office indemnity equal to 24 months of his base salary, amounting to €2,200,000. Further, he has been treated as a good-leaver for the purpose of his outstanding awards under the long-term incentive plan, maintaining the right to receive 50% of the awards, equal to 44,355 shares per target, to be paid following the evaluation of performance at the end of the three-year period. Moreover, with reference to the deferred shares, he is entitled to receive 75% of the deferred shares originally accrued plus 0.5 matching shares for each deferred share assigned. A two-year lock-up period will apply to share awards. In addition, the CEO has a non-compete obligation of three years from termination, which is compensated with an indemnity equal to 120% of base salary (for a total amount of €1,320,000). Valerio Battista was elected as vice-chair at the 2024 AGM. As such, it is worth questioning the necessity to pay similar indemnities while remaining on the board and if this is the best use of the Company's capital. It would be in shareholders' best interest if the Company refrained from awarding termination payments to executives before definitive termination of office on the board. As this is against policy, we are voting against this proposal.
Amendment to Par Value	For	The proposed amendment does not violate policy. As a result, we are voting for this proposal.
Authority to Issue Shares to Service Share-Based Plans	For	In this case, the board will be authorised to issue up to 0.81% of the Company's current issued share capital without preemptive rights, which is in line with policy. Moreover, the connected plans do not violate policy. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal.

Authority to Repurchase and Reissue Shares	Against	At this time, there is no evidence of any past abuse of this type of authority at the company. However, the maximum price has been disclosed in monetary value only, instead of 10% premium or discount of market price. As this is against policy, we are voting against this proposal.
Authority to Issue Shares and Convertible Debt w/o Preemptive Rights (Qualified Investors)	Against	In this case, the board will be authorised to potentially issue up to 31.5% of the Company's current issued share capital with preemptive rights. As this exceeds the limit set by policy, we are voting against this proposal.
Greenshoe	Against	This authority grants the Company the flexibility to increase an over-subscribed issuance by up to 15%, so long as such increase takes place on the same terms and within thirty days of the initial issuance. In this case, the proposed greenshoe is subject to a cumulative limit of 35.1% of share capital for all share issuances, which exceeds the cumulative limit set by policy. Consequently, we are voting against this proposal.
Authority to Repurchase Shares and Reduce Capital	Against	At this time, there is no evidence of any past abuse of this type of authority at the company. However, the maximum price has been disclosed in monetary value only, instead of 10% premium or discount of market price. As this is against policy, we are voting against this proposal.
Authority to Cancel Shares and Reduce Capital	For	This is a routine request in France. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal.
Employee Stock Purchase Plan	For	Currently, employees do not hold a significant portion of the Company's share capital. Therefore, if the proposed plan is fully implemented, employee shareholdings would remain reasonable and in line with policy. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal.

Allocation of Profits/ Dividends	For	The Company proposes that no dividend will be distributed for the past fiscal year. It is in the best interest of shareholders to approve the Company's strategy. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal.
Ratification of Board and CEO Acts	Against	There is no indication of any investigations or pending court cases pertaining to current member of the Board of Directors and the Chief Executive Officer at the company. However, several governance and transparency requirements have not been met: Compensation is not linked to materially significant ESG indicator. The policy requires for companies with a high market capitalization (>1 billion euros) to report on greenhouse gases, water, and biodiversity risks via the CDP (Carbon Disclosure Project), as climate change is becoming increasingly relevant in company valuations. Since the Company has failed to disclose the report, we are voting against the discharge of all directors. As these are contrary to policy, we are voting against this proposal.
Remuneration Report	Against	The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. However: The Company has failed to implement executive stock ownership guidelines. The company has not disclosed whether there is any bonus-malus and/or any recovery provisions. Compensation is not linked to materially significant ESG indicator. The same performance criteria are used for the short-term and the long-term variable remuneration. Less than at least 2 KPIs are used as performance STI and LTI criteria, which are both measured by Net Sales. As this is against policy, we are voting against this proposal.

Amendment to the 2023 Long-Term Incentive Plan	For	Remuneration plans should be adequately disclosed and should reward executives for good performance. According to policy, dilution for all compensation plans should be no higher than 10% of share capital. Given that the company's plan is fully compliant with policy and, in the absence of any evidence of past abuse by the company of this type of authority, we are supporting this proposal.
Shareholder Proposal Regarding Report on Portfolio Risk in Employee Retirement Options	Against	This proposal requests that the Company report on how it is protecting plan beneficiaries, especially those with a longer investment time horizon, from increased future portfolio risk created by present-day investments in high-carbon companies. Employees have significant discretion as to where their investments are directed and should retain such discretion. This proposal appears to be implicitly asking the Company to influence the manner in which these employees invest their retirement savings, which arguably could cause greater risk to the Company should it be seen as pushing an agenda that is not necessarily shared by all employees or one that could potentially result in lower returns than a more traditional retirement account. Consequently, we are voting against this proposal.

The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. However: The compensation components under the STI are not disclosed in detail and instead disclosed as potential metrics.. The LTI does not include ESG criteria. The report does not provide transparency on chosen indices, benchmarks or peer-groups. The board possesses discretion to adjust awards under both short- and long-term incentive plan, departing from the effective achievement level of performance goals. As this is against policy, we are voting against this proposal.

In principle, an acceptable pay-out ratio should be above 20 percent and below 100 percent. As the proposed dividend pay-out ratio exceeds 100 percent, we are voting against this proposal.
Remuneration Policy	Against	The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. However: Severance package payments are not limited to a maximum of two-years' salary. The Company has failed to implement executive stock ownership guidelines. The Company's short-term remuneration exceeds the long-term remuneration. The board can grant discretionary bonuses. The report does not provide transparency on the benchmark used for pay-setting. The remuneration structure allows for adjusted metrics. The Company's remuneration policy and report received dissent from more than 80% of free float shareholders at last year's AGM. The Company has failed to address this dissent. As this is against policy, we are voting against this proposal.

Directors' liability action	For	Where there is a violation of directors' duties, a solvent joint stock company can bring a liability action against the directors under Article 2393 of the Civil Code. Although any damages that the court awards are paid to the company rather than to the shareholders that have brought the action, it appears to be in shareholders' best interest to hold a director liable for a breach of his duties. As a result, it is recommended to view this item in a non-critical fashion should it occur. Therefore, we are voting for this proposal.

Authorisation of Competing Activities	Against	Pursuant to the Italian Civil Code, a director is required to disclose to the other directors and to the board of statutory auditors any interest that, personally or on behalf of third parties, he or she has in a specific transaction of the board. In such a case, the board resolution must state the reasons why the transaction is in the company's best interest. Further, a director is liable for damages suffered by the company as a result of his or her personal interest in a transaction. While Italian law provides for some measures to protect the Company and its shareholders from abuses, it is not in the shareholders' best interest to grant directors the right to potentially enter into a situation that can be considered a conflict of interest. Therefore, we are voting against this proposal.

Remuneration Policy	Against	The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. However: The Company has failed to implement executive stock ownership guidelines. The LTI does not include ESG criteria. The board can grant discretionary bonuses. The remuneration structure allows for adjusted metrics. According to the EU Recommendation on the Remuneration of Directors of Listed Companies issued in April 2009, severance payments should be limited to a certain amount, which, in general should not exceed two years of base salary. In this case, the Company limits severance payments for the CEO at two years of fixed remuneration plus the average of the short-term incentive amounts received in the three years prior to termination. Further, the Company has not disclosed the treatment of the indemnity in lieu of notice in regard to the CEO. As this is against policy, we are voting against this proposal.
Remuneration Report	Against	The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. However: The Company has failed to implement executive stock ownership guidelines. The LTI does not include ESG criteria. The Company has failed to provide clear disclosure of performance targets and achievement levels against target under the 2021-2023 Stock Option Plan, which we consider to be out of line with the prevailing market practice. This is particularly noteworthy given that the first tranche under the 2021-2023 SOP vested at 100% of target opportunity. The remuneration structure allows for adjusted metrics. As this is against policy, we are voting against this proposal.
Authority to Repurchase and Reissue Shares	For	At this time, there is no evidence of any past abuse of this type of authority at the company. Consequently, as these authorizations are within the recommended thresholds, we are voting for this proposal.
Directors' liability action	For	Where there is a violation of directors' duties, a solvent joint stock company can bring a liability action against the directors under Article 2393 of the Civil Code. Although any damages that the court awards are paid to the company rather than to the shareholders that have brought the action, it appears to be in shareholders' best interest to hold a director liable for a breach of his duties. Elect Bonnie L. Bassler	For	There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualification and suitability of nominee Bonnie L. Bassler. Consequently, we are supporting this director's election.
Elect Michael S. Brown	Against	There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualification and suitability of nominee Michael S. Brown. However, the nominee has already been a non-executive member of the board for more than 15 years, which is against policy. Further, as the board of directors and nominating and corporate governance committee do not comprise an adequate number of independent members, we are voting against all insider and affiliated directors. Consequently, we are opposing this director's election.
Elect Leonard S. Schleifer	Against	There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualification and suitability of nominee Leonard S. Schleifer. However, this director will be serving as the combined Chair/CEO in the upcoming year, which is against policy. Further, as the board of directors does not comprise an adequate number of independent members, we are voting against all insider and affiliated directors. Consequently, we are opposing this director's election.
Elect George D. Yancopoulos	Against	As the board of directors does not comprise an adequate number of independent members, we are voting against all insider and affiliated directors. Consequently, we are opposing the election of non-independent nominee George D. Yancopoulos.
Ratification of Auditor	Against	There is no indication of any investigations or pending court cases pertaining to the auditor. Moreover, the fees paid to the auditor are appropriate and are clearly disclosed by the Company. However, the same firm has audited the Company for more than 10 years, which is not in line with policy. Moreover, as per US market practice, the lead auditor's name and tenure has not been disclosed in the company's proxy materials or annual report. Consequently, we are voting against this proposal.
Advisory Vote on Executive Compensation	Against	The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. However: Severance package payments are not limited to a maximum of two-years' salary. The Company has failed to implement a performance based long-term incentive plan. STI awards are largely discretionary. The LTI does not include ESG criteria. As this is against policy, we are voting against this proposal.

Repeal of Classified Board	For	The policy does not require to revoke staggered boards and elect all directors annually. However, it is important to note that annual elections are recognized as a best practice in the U.S. market. Implementing annual elections enhances accountability by allowing shareholders to assess the performance of all directors on a yearly basis. After carefully considering the arguments, we believe that adopting this proposal aligns with the principles of good corporate governance. Therefore, we are voting in favor of this proposal.
Elimination of Supermajority Requirement Relating to the Mandatory Conversion of Class A Stock to Common Stock	Against	Supermajority vote requirements can act as impediments to takeover proposals, impede shareholders' ability to approve ballot items that are in their interests and are not in line with market best practice. On the other hand, they serve as protection against discrimination against minority shareholders and are applied in particular to corporate decisions of material significance. Currently voting decisions which require a supermajority result, need approval of two-thirds of the outstanding shares. This can be considered as reasonable. Since it is advantageous in some cases to have supermajority rights for corporate decisions like amendments to bylaws, we are voting against this proposal.
Elimination of Supermajority Requirement Relating to Removal of Directors	For	Supermajority vote requirements can act as impediments to takeover proposals, impede shareholders' ability to approve ballot items that are in their interests and are not in line with market best practice. On the other hand, they serve as protection against discrimination against minority shareholders and are applied in particular to corporate decisions of material significance. In this case, directors are elected with a simple majority. It is therefore logical that they can also be removed with a simple majority vote. Additionally, a 80 % threshold for removing a director seems unreasonably high, which supports the arguments provided above. After carefully weighing the arguments we are voting for this proposal.

Re-elect Fiona Morgan	For	There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualification and suitability of nominee Fiona Morgan. Consequently, we are supporting this director's election.
Approve Incentive Plan	For	The maximum number of equity securities proposed to be issued under the Incentive Plan following shareholder approval is 37,000,000, which represents approximately 4.9% of the Company's current share capital. As this is within policy, we are voting for this proposal.
Equity Grant (MD/CEO Jim Beyer - FY2025 STI)	For	Remuneration plans should be adequately disclosed and should reward executives for good performance. According to policy, dilution for all compensation plans should be no higher than 10% of share capital. The plan under which these awards were granted is compliant with policy and, in the absence of any evidence of past abuse by the company of this type of authority, we are supporting this proposal.
Equity Grant (MD/CEO Jim Beyer - FY2026 LTI)	For	Remuneration plans should be adequately disclosed and should reward executives for good performance. According to policy, dilution for all compensation plans should be no higher than 10% of share capital. The plan under which these awards were granted is compliant with policy and, in the absence of any evidence of past abuse by the company of this type of authority, we are supporting this proposal.
Approve Termination Benefits (MD/CEO Jim Beyer)	For	In general, termination benefits should comprise base salary for the notice period (preferably no more than 12 months), performance-based incentives that have vested, but not been exercised, and unvested performance-based incentives that vest subject to pro-rata service and performance or otherwise remain "on foot" (i.e. remain subject to the original performance and vesting conditions) after the executive has left the company. In this case, the terms and conditions of the Company's incentive plan are broadly consistent with these practices, noting that the board retains a degree of discretion. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal.

Final Dividend	For	A proposed dividend allocation should be comparable to industry peers and should mirror the financial health of the company. Given this, we are voting for this proposal.

Ratification of Board and CEO Acts	Against	There is no indication of any investigations or pending court cases pertaining to current member of the Board of Directors and the Chief Executive Officer at the company. Board Size	For	The boards of directors of Finnish listed companies usually consist of three to ten directors. The number of directors depends on the provisions of the company's articles of association and the general meeting's decisions and varies from one company to another. There are no indications of any controversy regarding the board size at this company. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal.
Election of Directors	Against	There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualification, remuneration and suitability of Heli Lindfors, Anat Loewenstein. Arne Boye Nielsen, Riad Sherif, Ann-Christine Sundell and Bill Östman. However, the policy requires the audit committee chair to be independent. As nominee Pekka Tammela is not considered independent, we are opposing this director's election. While we would normally support the election of some of these nominees, it should be noted that the Company is bundling all elections under one resolution. Consequently, we are voting against this proposal.

Advisory Vote on Executive Compensation	Against	The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. However: The board can grant discretionary bonuses. The remuneration structure allows for adjusted metrics. Specifically, adjusted net income after taxes under the STI. As this is against policy, we are voting against this proposal.
Amendment to the Stock Option Plan	For	Remuneration plans should be adequately disclosed and should reward executives for good performance. According to policy, dilution for all compensation plans should be no higher than 10% of share capital. Given that the company's plan is fully compliant with policy and, in the absence of any evidence of past abuse by the company of this type of authority, we are supporting this proposal.
Amendment to By-Law Regarding Directors' Remuneration	For	During fiscal year 2024, the aggregate amount of fees paid to the Company's non-executive directors totaled C$5,025,447. Each non-executive director received a director's fee of C$340,000, the chair received a fee of C$275,000, and the committee chairs received an additional fee of C$60,000. The proposed fees are reasonable and in line with those paid by the Company's peers. Therefore, we are voting for this proposal.
Shareholder Proposal Regarding Pay Ratio Disclosure	For	There has been a growing movement toward disclosure of pay ratios in a number of markets and ultimately, further disclosure and transparency on such issues is in line with policy. As requests for increased disclosure related to the calculation of compensation ratios and tax transparency are in line with policy, we are voting for this proposal.
Shareholder Proposal Regarding Report on Forced and Child Labour in Loan Portfolios	For	It is worth noting that the Company appears to have taken reasonable steps to address this issue in consideration of the nature of its business, which are detailed in its disclosures. For example, its Statement Regarding Modern Slavery details all the Company's activities related to modern slavery, forced labour, child labour, and human trafficking, including its lending activities. In addition, as a signatory to the Equator Principles framework, the Company has a procedure that outlines its governance for managing environmental and social risks related to certain project finance-related transactions, including the assessment of human rights risks and impacts such as child labour and modern slavery further to the UN Guiding Principles on Business and Human Rights. However, as demands for increased transparency are generally in line with the basic policy requirements, we are voting for this proposal.

Shareholder Proposal Regarding Adhering to Voluntary Code of Conduct on AI Systems	Against	Currently the Company provides meaningful disclosure related to its use of AI, including by outlining its responsible AI practices in a manner that allows shareholders to fully comprehend how the Company is addressing this issue. Further, the Company maintains explicit, board-level oversight of AI use and adoption. Finally, the proponent has not offered any evidence that the Company's current management of this issue is deficient in any specific way that would be alleviated by adoption of this proposal. As this is otherwise not in line with policy, we are voting against this proposal.
Shareholder Proposal Regarding Disclosure of Employee Language Fluency	Against	This proposal requests that the Company disclose the language fluency of the Company's employees, by disaggregating information by jurisdiction, for all territories where the Company has activities. Although monitoring the composition and diversity of a company's workforce can be helpful in understanding a company's broader human capital management priorities and strategies, it is unclear how a breakdown of the language fluency of employees would benefit shareholders. The Company states in its response to this proposal, the Company discloses that 22.4% of its workforce speaks a language other than English and that the top five other languages spoken by its employees are French, Chinese, Hindi, Punjabi, and Spanish. Ultimately the proponent has failed to outline how this would significantly benefit shareholders and is not otherwise in line with policy. As a result, we are voting against this proposal.
Shareholder Proposal Regarding Say on Climate	For	Proposals requesting that a company hold an advisory annual vote on is environmental and climate action plan are in line with policy. Therefore, we are supporting this proposal.
Shareholder Proposal Regarding Disclosure of Country-by-Country Reporting	For	Currently, the Company provides some disclosure related to its tax policies and states that it fully complies with its annual country-by-country reporting obligations arising out of Action 13 of the OECD's Base Erosion and Profit Shifting initiative. It also states that it makes tax disclosures through existing frameworks in compliance with all mandated reporting obligations in the countries where it does business. However, it does not appear to provide its CEO-to-median pay ratio. However, there has been a growing movement toward disclosure of pay ratios in a number of markets and ultimately, further disclosure and transparency on such issues is in line with policy. As requests for increased disclosure related to the calculation of compensation ratios and tax transparency are in line with policy, we are voting for this proposal.

Advisory Vote on Executive Compensation	Against	The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. However: Severance package payments are not limited to a maximum of two-years' salary. The clawback policy is restatement dependent only. Less than at least 2 KPIs are used as performance LTI criteria, which is based solely on relative TSR. The LTI does not include ESG criteria.

Ratification of Auditor	Against	There is no indication of any investigations or pending court cases pertaining to the auditor. Moreover, the fees paid to the auditor are appropriate and are clearly disclosed by the Company. However, the same firm has audited the Company for more than 10 years, which is not in line with policy. Moreover, as per US market practice, the lead auditor's tenure has not been disclosed in the company's proxy materials or annual report. Consequently, we are voting against this proposal.

Approval of Stock Issuance in connection with the Sandstorm Arrangement	For	It appears the transaction has been negotiated and evaluated through a fair process, supported by comprehensive due diligence and independent fairness assessments. While the issuance of shares will result in meaningful dilution, this is counterbalanced by NAV accretion, stronger diversification, and compelling long-term growth prospects. Market reaction has turned positive, with Royal Gold shares now trading at historical highs and arbitrage spreads remaining minimal, signaling confidence in the strategic and financial merits of the deal. As a result, we are voting for this proposal.

Related Party Transactions (Rubis Photosol SAS, Renewal)	For	The auditors' special report on related-party transactions was available for review in advance of this shareholders' meeting, in accordance with best-practice recommendations. As such, it was possible to determine the routine nature of the business transactions discussed therein. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal.
Authority to Repurchase and Reissue Shares	Against	At this time, there is no evidence of any past abuse of this type of authority at the company. However, the maximum price has been disclosed in monetary value only, instead of 10% premium or discount of market price. As this is against policy, we are voting against this proposal.
Authority to Cancel Shares and Reduce Capital	For	This is a routine request in France. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal.
Authority to Increase Capital Through Capitalisations	For	The successive or simultaneous capitalisation of reserves, retained earnings or additional paid-in capital would benefit shareholders by allowing the Company to increase paid-in capital through a series of alternatives, above and beyond the issuance of shares. Moreover, when companies capitalize reserves, retained earnings or paid-in capital, there is no risk of dilution. This procedure merely transfers wealth to shareholders and does not impact share value. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal.
Authority to Issue Shares and Convertible Debt w/ Preemptive Rights	Against	In this case, the board will be authorised to potentially issue up to 29.4% of the Company's current issued share capital with preemptive rights. As this exceeds the limit set by policy, we are voting against this proposal.
Greenshoe	Against	This authority grants the Company the flexibility to increase an over-subscribed issuance by up to 15%, so long as such increase takes place on the same terms and within thirty days of the initial issuance. In this case, the proposed greenshoe is subject to a cumulative limit of 40% of share capital for all share issuances, which exceeds the cumulative limit set by policy. Consequently, we are voting against this proposal.
Authority to Increase Capital in Consideration for Contributions In Kind	Against	In this case, the board will be authorised to potentially issue up to 7.7% of the Company's current issued share capital without preemptive rights, subject to a cumulative limit of 40% for all share issuances. As the global ceiling exceeds the cumulative limit for all share issuances set by policy, we are voting against this proposal.
Authority to Increase Capital in Case of Exchange Offers	Against	In this case, the board will be authorised to potentially issue up to 7.7% of the Company's current issued share capital without preemptive rights, subject to a cumulative limit of 40% for all share issuances. Global Ceiling on Capital Increases	Against	In general, the setting of global limits for issuances should be viewed in a positive fashion, as it serves as an additional level of protection for shareholders' interests, by minimizing the potentially significant dilution of a series of issuance requests to a fixed level. However, if approved this authority would represent a potential cumulative capital increase of 40% of share capital, which exceeds the cumulative limit set by policy. Consequently, we are voting against this proposal.
Authority to Issue Performance Shares	For	Remuneration plans should be adequately disclosed and should reward executives for good performance. According to policy, dilution for all compensation plans should be no higher than 10% of share capital. Given that the company's plan is fully compliant with policy and, in the absence of any evidence of past abuse by the company of this type of authority, we are supporting this proposal.
Employee Stock Purchase Plan	For	Currently, employees do not hold a significant portion of the Company's share capital. Therefore, if the proposed plan is fully implemented, employee shareholdings would remain reasonable and in line with policy. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal.
Amendments to Article Regarding Written Consultations	For	In this case, there is no cause for shareholder concern regarding the proposed amendments. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal.
Deletion of Article Regarding Management Remuneration	For	In this case, there is no cause for shareholder concern regarding the proposed amendments. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal.
Authorisation of Legal Formalities	For	This is a routine legal formality in France. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal.
Ratification of the Co-Option of Antoine Sautenet	For	There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualification and suitability of nominee Antoine Sautenet. Consequently, we are supporting this director's election.
Shareholder Proposal Regarding the Election of Patrick Molis	For	In this case, it appears that the candidates' expertise would make a substantial contribution to the board. Further, the appointment of Patrick Molis would bring the proportion of directors proposed by Compagnie Nationale de Navigation in line with their ownership, i.e. 9.2% of voting rights. As this does not otherwise violate policy, as well as being supported by the board, we are voting for this proposal.
Shareholder Proposal Regarding the Election of Anne Lauvergeon	For	In this case, it appears that the candidates' expertise would make a substantial contribution to the board. Further, the appointment of Patrick Molis would bring the proportion of directors proposed by Compagnie Nationale de Navigation in line with their ownership, i.e. 9.2% of voting rights. The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. However: The Company has failed to implement executive stock ownership guidelines. However, the Group CEO held 44,099,892 shares as at the year-end. The Company has failed to implement performance-based long-term incentive plan. Vesting is based on targets of either a €21 share price and/or €2.2bn net income by 2028. Awards are subject solely to a share price hurdle, and will only vest in their entirety if the Group's profit after tax exceeds €2.2 billion in any year up to 2028, and/or the Company's share price exceeds €21 for a period of 28 days between April 1, 2021 and March 31, 2028. Exercise of the options is conditional upon director O'Leary's continued employment by the Company through July 31, 2028. The LTI does not include ESG criteria. As this is against policy, we are voting against this proposal.

Resolution on the appropriation of the net income achieved in the 2024 financial year	For	The dividend should be reasonable and reflect the company's financial position. Since the motion complies with the guidelines, this proposal of the administration may be viewed uncritically. We are therefore voting in favour of the motion.
Resolution on the discharge of the Management Board for the 2024 financial year	For	We are not aware of any pending proceedings against members of the Management Board. There are also no further specific governance issues or violations of guidelines that could prevent discharge of the members of the Management Board. However, two recent terminations of contractual relationships took place within almost one and a half years after the extension of the contractual term until 2027 (Julia White and Scott Russel). However, this is explained in detail by restructuring measures, just as the departure of Technology Director Jürgen Müller is justified. This therefore does not constitute a specific violation of the guidelines, but the development of the composition of the Management Board and the Supervisory Board should be monitored in future. Overall, the motion can still be viewed uncritically. We are therefore voting in favour of the motion.

Resolution on the discharge of the Supervisory Board for the 2024 financial year	For	We are not aware of any pending proceedings against members of the Supervisory Board. There are also no other specific governance issues or breaches of guidelines which could oppose a discharge of the members of the Supervisory Board. However, two recent contractual relationships were terminated within almost a year and a half after the extension of the contractual term until 2027 (Julia White and Scott Russel). However, this is explained in detail by restructuring measures, just as the departure of Technology Director Jürgen Müller is justified. This therefore does not constitute a specific violation of the guidelines, but the development of the composition of the Management Board and the Supervisory Board should be monitored in future. In addition, the following transparency points and/or governance issues are not satisfied or are missing: the Supervisory Board members do not participate with certainty at the meeting place but, if necessary, virtually at the general meeting Overall, the motion may still be viewed uncritically. We are therefore voting in favour of the motion.
Election of the auditor of the financial statements and consolidated financial statements for the 2025 financial year	For	There are no indications that constitute a violation of the guidelines. This motion may therefore be viewed uncritically. We are therefore voting in favour of the motion.
Election of the auditor of sustainability reporting for the 2025 financial year	For	There are no indications that constitute a violation of the guidelines. This motion may therefore be viewed uncritically. We are therefore voting in favour of the motion.
Resolution on the approval of the remuneration report for the 2024 financial year	For	The remuneration system was last voted on in 2023 and achieved an approval rate of 91.42%. The remuneration report was last voted on in 2024 and achieved an approval rate of 90.38%. However, there is a weakness in the system, which is why the report on the system cannot fully comply with the guidelines either: There is a severance provision in the event of a change of control. Overall, the motion can still be viewed uncritically. We are therefore voting in favour of the motion.
Resolution on the removal of the existing Authorised Capital I and creation of a new Authorised Capital I for issuing shares against cash contributions with the option to exclude shareholders' subscription rights that are restricted to fractional amounts and corresponding amendment to Section 4(5) of the Articles of Association	Against	Increasing the share capital by €250,000,000 would lead to a 20.3% capital dilution. In addition, 40% can be exceeded on a cumulative basis. Even if the subscription rights exclusions are restricted to 10% overall, this is not within the limits of the analysis guidelines (max. 20% on a cumulative basis, max. 10% subscription rights exclusion on a cumulative basis). A critical view should therefore be taken of the motion. We are therefore voting against the motion.

Resolution on the removal of the existing Authorised Capital II and creation of new Authorised Capital II for issuing shares against cash contributions or contributions in kind with the option to exclude shareholders' subscription rights and corresponding amendment to Section 4(6) of the Articles of Association	Against	Increasing the share capital by €250,000,000 would lead to a 20.3% capital dilution. In addition, 40% can be exceeded on a cumulative basis. Even if the subscription rights exclusions are restricted to 10% overall, this is not within the limits of the analysis guidelines (max. 20% on a cumulative basis, max. 10% subscription rights exclusion on a cumulative basis). A critical view should therefore be taken of the motion. We are therefore voting against the motion.
Resolution on a new authorisation to enable virtual general meetings and corresponding amendment to Section 20a(1) of the Articles of Association	Against	In this case, the guidelines are not complied with, since the following criteria are not met and there are therefore deficiencies: The amendment to the Articles of Association does not explicitly stipulate that the Management Board may not convene a virtual GM without the consent of the Supervisory Board (not entered into the Articles of Association, only close consultation with the Supervisory Board and obtaining its consent) No written declaration is made as to whether and under what conditions an authorisation of the Management Board should be used in the future (however, two GMs in person recently) The motion should therefore be viewed critically. We are therefore voting against the motion.

Elect Jonathan A. Brassington	Against	There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualification and suitability of nominee Jonathan A. Brassington. However, as the board of directors does not have sufficient gender diversity, we are voting against all male directors. Consequently, we are opposing this director's election.
Elect William M. Doran	Against	There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualification and suitability of nominee William M. Doran. However, the nominee has already been a non-executive member of the board for more than 15 years, which is against policy. Further, as the board of directors does not have sufficient gender diversity, we are voting against all male directors. In addition, as the board of directors does not comprise an adequate number of independent members, we are voting against all insider and affiliated. Lastly, the Company's Human Rights Policy does not align with UDHR or ILO, which is not in line with policy. As such, we are holding this director, as the chair of the ESG committee, accountable for this issue. Consequently, we are opposing this director's election.
Elect Alfred P. West, Jr.	Against	There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualification and suitability of nominee Alfred P. Advisory Vote on Executive Compensation	Against	The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. However: Clawback policy is restatement dependent only. Less than at least 2 KPIs are used as performance LTI criteria, which are based solely on adjusted pre-tax EPS hurdles. Further, the STIP is based solely on bonus pool precondition, however, the Company must hit an EPS target for the incentive pool to be funded. Nonetheless, STI awards are largely discretionary. There is no disclosed cap on incentive limits for STI awards. The LTI does not include ESG criteria. The board can grant discretionary bonuses. Specifically, Sean Denham and Michael Lane received sign-on awards, totalling $3,492,113 and $2,373,793, respectively. The awards are comprised of both RSUs and performance stock options. In this case, the Company has not disclosed whether these awards were intended to replace forfeited compensation from their previous employers. Moreover, the RSU portion of the awards is not subject to any performance criteria. The remuneration structure allows for adjusted metrics under the LTI. As this is not entirely in line with policy, we are voting against this proposal.
Ratification of Auditor	Against	There is no indication of any investigations or pending court cases pertaining to the auditor. Moreover, the fees paid to the auditor are appropriate and are clearly disclosed by the Company. However, the same firm has audited the Company for more than 10 years, which is not in line with policy. Moreover, the lead auditor's name and tenure has not been disclosed in the company's proxy materials or annual report. Consequently, we are voting against this proposal.

Advisory Vote on the 2024 Remuneration report	Against	Über das Vergütungssystem wurde zuletzt im Jahr 2024 abgestimmt und erlangte eine Zustimmungsquote von 95,23%. Allerdings gibt es im System einige Schwachstelle, weshalb auch der Bericht über das System nicht richtlinienkonform sein kann: Vorstandsvergütung nicht individualisiert ausgewiesen Ermessensspielraum im STI teilweise nicht nachvollziehbar (Leadership multiplier +25% / -30%) ESG Leistungskriterien im LTI nicht näher offengelegt und die hierbei angegebene maximale Zielerreichung erscheint nicht nachvollziehbar (Beispielweise ist ein Leistungskriterium "Health and safety: Lost Time Incident Rate (LTIR)", jedoch hatte die Gesellschaft im GJ 2023 zwei Todesfall zu verzeichnen) Daher sollte der Antrag kritisch gesehen werden.
Release of the members of the Board of Directors and of the Executive Committee	For	Es ist nichts von anhängigen Verfahren gegen amtierende Mitglieder des Verwaltungsrats und der Geschäftsleitung bekannt. Es ergeben sich auch keine weiteren Anhaltspunkte, welche einer Entlastung der Mitglieder des Verwaltungsrats und der Geschäftsleitung entgegenstehen könnten. Deshalb sollte dieser Antrag unkritisch betrachtet werden. Daher stimmen wir für den Antrag.

Appropriation of Profit: Share Capital Increase	For	Der Antrag steht im Zusammenhang mit der Möglichkeit zur Gewährung einer Aktiendividende. Die daraus resultierende Kapitalverwässerung bewegt sich bei etwa 4,5 Prozent. Insgesamt kann der Antrag unkritisch betrachtet werden. Somit stimmen wir für den Antrag.

Accounts and Reports	For	The Company's audited annual and consolidated accounts were available for review in advance of this shareholder meeting. As no evidence has been presented that would question the accuracy of these reports, one should consider this item as routine. Therefore, we are voting for this proposal.
Remuneration Report	Against	The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. However: Fixed salary increased by more than 10% within one year without a valid reason. Specifically, the CEO received an increase in base salary of 17.5% during FY2024 and will receive a further increase of 17.5% during FY2025. However, it is worth noting that the company states it has reduced the overall LTIP opportunity to offset the size of this salary increase. The remuneration structure allows for adjusted metrics. As this is against policy, we are voting against this proposal.
Final Dividend	For	A proposed dividend allocation should be comparable to industry peers and should mirror the financial health of the company. In principle, an acceptable pay-out ratio should be above 20 percent and below 100 percent. The company's aggregate pay-out ratio for the fiscal year is in an acceptable range. Given this, we are voting for this proposal.
Elect Simon Clinton	For	There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualification and suitability of nominee Simon Clinton. Consequently, we are supporting this director's election.
Elect David Hearn	For	There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualification and suitability of nominee David Hearn. Consequently, we are supporting this director's election.
Elect Frederic Vecchioli	Against	There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualification and suitability of nominee Frederic Vecchioli. However, the Company has failed to disclose its biodiversity policy and its Human Rights Policy does not align with UDHR or ILO, which is not in line with policy. This nominee serves as a board member on the E&S committee and is designated as the point of accountability for E&S oversight. Consequently, we are opposing this director's election.
Elect Jane Bentall	For	There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualification and suitability of nominee Jane Bentall. Consequently, we are supporting this director's election.

Authorisation of Political Donations	For	At this time, there is no evidence of any past abuse of this type of authority at the company. This is primarily technical item. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal.
Authority to Issue Shares w/ Preemptive Rights	Against	In this case, the board will be authorised to potentially issue up to 66% of the Company's current issued share capital with preemptive rights. As this exceeds the limit set by policy, we are voting against this proposal.
Authority to Issue Shares w/ o Preemptive Rights	Against	In this case, the board will be authorised to potentially issue up to 10% of the Company's current issued share capital without preemptive rights, which, if considered cumulatively with authorizations in Proposals 15 and 17, exceeds the limit set by policy. Consequently, we are voting against this proposal.
Authority to Issue Shares w/ o Preemptive Rights (Specified Capital Investment)	Against	In this case, the board will be authorised to potentially issue up to 10% of the Company's current issued share capital without preemptive rights, which, if considered cumulatively with authorizations in Proposals 15 and 16, exceeds the limit set by policy. Consequently, we are voting against this proposal.
Authority to Repurchase Shares	For	At this time, there is no evidence of any past abuse of this type of authority at the company. Consequently, as these authorizations are within the recommended thresholds, we are voting for this proposal.
Authority to Set General Meeting Notice Period at 14 Days	For	A shortened general meeting notice period is permitted by the UK Corporate Governance Code and the EU Shareholders Rights Directive, provided that a company conforms to specific electronic voting and communication requirements, as is the case here. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal.

Remuneration Policy	Against	The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. However: Severance package payments are not limited to a maximum of two-years' salary. The Company has failed to implement executive stock ownership guidelines. The board can grant discretionary bonuses. The remuneration structure allows for adjusted metrics under the STIP and LTIP. It should be noted that in 2022 a two-year stability pact was signed with the CEO for a total of €900,000, 50% of which was paid in FY2024 as the second and final tranche. The board's decision not to disclose the details of said agreement at the time of his change of role in FY2022, and the size of the award, overall equal to 90% of his base salary, is out of line with market best practice. As this is against policy, we are voting against this proposal.

Conversion of Saving Shares into Ordinary Shares	For	The Company has not provided any details as to the background leading to the board's decision to increase the conversion ratio, such an increase may be considered as one last effort to reach a compromise with the Proponent to come up with a conversion ratio deemed acceptable by both parties. The board states that the proposed conversion is intended to: (i) rationalise and simplify the Company's share capital structure by eliminating savings shares that are rarely traded and have low liquidity; (ii) align the rights of all shareholders, ensuring that all shareholders have equal voting rights and economic entitlements; (iii) reduce corporate obligations and costs associated with managing different share categories.; and (iv) increase the liquidity of shares by broadening the total float of ordinary shares, creating conditions for greater trading liquidity. Given that the board has provided a strong rationale for the proposed conversion, the anticipated benefits of a simplified capital structure, the equal treatment of all of the Company's shareholders, and that the dilution to the Company's ordinary shareholders as a result of the conversion is virtually non-existent, we are voting for this proposal.
Shareholder Proposal Regarding Conversion of Saving Shares into Ordinary Shares	Against	The Proponent has not provided any evidence, particularly in the form of quantitative data, to justify why the Original Conversion Ratio and/or the Board Endorsed Conversion Ratio are too low, and a higher conversion ratio is needed at this time. Therefore, we are opposing this proposal.
Deliberations on Possible Legal Action Against Directors if Presented by Shareholders	For	Where there is a violation of directors' duties, a solvent joint stock company can bring a liability action against the directors under Article 2393 of the Civil Code. Although any damages that the court awards are paid to the company rather than to the shareholders that have brought the action, it appears to be in shareholders' best interest to hold a director liable for a breach of his duties. As a result, it is recommended to view this item in a non-critical fashion should it occur.
		Therefore, we are voting for this proposal.

Approval of the Merger Plan	For	As it stands, it appears the proposed merger is in the best interests of Saipem shareholders. The transaction offers a balanced merger of equals with strong strategic logic, significant synergy potential, and a more resilient financial profile. The equal ownership split, vetted exchange ratio, and safeguards such as the whitewash vote and independent valuations ensure fairness for minority investors. While integration and market risks remain, these are industry-wide challenges and Saipem7 will be better positioned to address them than either company alone. As this does not violate policy and appears to be in the best interest of shareholders, we are voting for this proposal.

Amendments to Article 19 (Sustainability Reporting)	For	The Company proposes that the board of directors may appoint a manager to certify the sustainability reporting, who differs from the manager in charge of preparing the financial statements. Consequently, the corresponding amended article will include the terms and conditions of the appointment, specifying the applicable requirements. The proposed changes align with Legislative Decree n. 125 of September 6, 2024. In particular, article 16 states that sustainability reporting can be provided by a manager different from the one in charge of the Company's corporate accounting documents. Therefore, we are voting for this proposal.
Directors' liability action	For	Where there is a violation of directors' duties, a solvent joint stock company can bring a liability action against the directors under Article 2393 of the Civil Code. Although any damages that the court awards are paid to the company rather than to the shareholders that have brought the action, it appears to be in shareholders' best interest to hold a director liable for a breach of his duties. As a result, it is recommended to view this item in a non-critical fashion should it occur.
		Therefore, we are voting for this proposal.

Authority to Increase Capital Through Capitalisations	For	The successive or simultaneous capitalisation of reserves, retained earnings or additional paid-in capital would benefit shareholders by allowing the Company to increase paid-in capital through a series of alternatives, above and beyond the issuance of shares. Moreover, when companies capitalize reserves, retained earnings or paid-in capital, there is no risk of dilution. This procedure merely transfers wealth to shareholders and does not impact share value. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal.

Accounts and Reports; Non Tax-Deductible Expenses	For	The Company's audited annual and consolidated accounts were available for review in advance of this shareholder meeting. As no evidence has been presented that would question the accuracy of these reports, one should consider this item as routine. Therefore, we are voting for this proposal.
Consolidated Accounts and Reports	For	The Company's audited annual and consolidated accounts were available for review in advance of this shareholder meeting. As no evidence has been presented that would question the accuracy of these reports, one should consider this item as routine. Therefore, we are voting for this proposal.
Allocation of Profits/ Dividends	For	A proposed dividend allocation should be comparable to industry peers and should mirror the financial health of the company. In principle, an acceptable pay-out ratio should be above 20 percent and below 100 percent. The company's aggregate pay-out ratio for the fiscal year is in an acceptable range. Given this, we are voting for this proposal.
Special Auditors Report on Regulated Agreements	For	The audit report states that there are no new agreements of this type to be submitted for shareholder approval. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal.

2024 Remuneration of Peter Herweck, Former CEO (until November 1, 2024)	For	The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. However: The remuneration structure allows for adjusted metrics. (Adjusted EBITDA margin improvement under the STI and Adjusted EPS under the LTI) On November 4, 2024, the Company announced that it had removed Peter Herweck from his role as CEO of the Company "due to divergences in the execution of the company roadmap at a time of significant opportunities". Ultimately, the Company decided to interpret the severance agreement in a more favorable way for the former CEO than what was written in the severance agreement voted by shareholders under Proposal 11 at last year's general meeting. As it stands, the Company paid an excessive severance of two full years of annualized fixed and STI payout when Peter Herweck was the CEO of the Company for 1.5 years. During a pre-AGM engagement we addressed our concerns regarding the outlined practice as well as our expectation for future improvements. After carefully weighing risk and opportunities with our portfolio manager in charge, we conclude the practice to minimize reputational risk and thus, is in the interest of shareholders. Consequently, we are supporting this proposal.

2024 Remuneration of Jean-Pascal Tricoire, Chair	Against	In this case, the LTI award that was granted to the chair in 2022 when he was the CEO vested at 99% of maximum opportunity, for an approximate value of €7.4 million. Jean-Pascal Tricoire stepped down as the Company's CEO on May 3, 2023; nevertheless, he kept his role as non-executive chair of the board. In this case, the Company decided not to grant him any awards under a long-term incentive plan in 2023, when he left his executive role. Further, the Company stated that the outgoing CEO will not receive any severance and non-compete indemnity. However, the Company specified that he will maintain his rights to the 2021 and 2022 ongoing LTI plans. It is worth noting the CEO has been within the Company since 1988 prior to being its CEO for 17 years, and he has extensive duties as chair of the board of directors. However, shareholders may question the Company's decision not to prorate the 2022 LTI plan. The outgoing CEO was granted performance shares for a three-year period, while he had an executive role within the Company for less than one year and a half out of the three-year performance period. These concerns are heightened by the fact that under the LTI plan over-performance in one relative metric can compensate for under-performance in the adjusted EPS metric. Finally, the 2022 LTI plan vested at 99% of maximum opportunity and the value of the shares vested for the chair and former CEO related to the 2022 plan amount to approximately €7.4 million. Ultimately the Company's decision not to pro-rate the outstanding awards for the CEO is not in the best interests of shareholders. As a result, we are voting against this proposal.
2025 Remuneration Policy (CEO)	For	The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. However: The remuneration structure allows for adjusted metrics. (Adjusted EBITDA margin improvement under the STI and Adjusted EPS under the LTI). As this is the only criticism and the adjustments are transparently explained as well as in the interest of shareholders, we are voting for this proposal.

Elect Jean-Pascal Tricoire	Against	There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualifications of nominee Jean-Pascal Tricoire. However, the nominee served as the CEO/Chair until May 3, 2023 and will be continuing as the chair of the board without complying with a cooling off period of 2 years. Despite the fact that at the time of this years' AGM this 2 year off period has passed, we are opposing this director's election as this is the first elections since the separation of Chair/CEO in 2023.
Elect Anna Ohlsson-Leijon	Against	There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualification and suitability of nominee Anna Ohlsson-Leijon. However, given the information provided, the candidate holds too many mandates to be in line with policy (Director - Schneider Electric SE; Director - Atlas Copco AB; Chief Commercial Officer - Electrolux AB). Consequently, we are opposing this director's election.
Ratification of the Co-option of Clotilde Delbos	For	There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualification and suitability of nominee Clotilde Delbos. Consequently, we are supporting this director's election.
Elect Xiaohong (Laura) Ding as Employee Shareholder Representative	For	Regarding the election of employee representatives; François Durif (Proposal B) and Gérard Le Gouefflec (Proposal D) were nominated by the French employee mutual fund, FCPE Schneider Actionnariat, which owns 1.3% and 2.4% of the Company's share capital and voting rights. Laura Ding (Proposal 15) and Venkat Garimella (Proposal C) were nominated by the international employee mutual fund FCPE Schneider Actionnariat Mondial, which owns 1.0% and 1.8% of the Company's share capital and voting rights. Further, Alban de Beaulaincourt (Proposal A) and Amandine Petitdemange (Proposal E) were directly nominated by the employees that are registered shareholders, who own collectively 1.0% and 1.6% of the Company's share capital and voting rights. The Company stated that all candidates were individually interviewed by the chair of the governance, nominations and sustainability committee and that all candidacies (resume, cover letter and mission statement) were given to the committee. During its meeting on February 18, 2025, the board reviewed individually each candidacy and compared the skills that the candidates could bring to the board. The board decided to support Laura Ding, who is up for election under this proposal. Moreover, considering her detailed knowledge of the Industrial Automation business, AVEVA business, digital transformation as well as her deep insight on the Chinese market were the most relevant skills to complement the board's existing skillset As a result, we are voting for the election of shareholder representative Xiaohong (Laura) Ding.

Authority to Repurchase and Reissue Shares	Against	At this time, there is no evidence of any past abuse of this type of authority at the company. However, the maximum price has been disclosed in monetary value only, instead of 10% premium or discount of market price. As this is against policy, we are voting against this proposal.
Authority to Issue Shares and Convertible Debt w/ Preemptive Rights	Against	In this case, the board will be authorised to potentially issue up to 34.7% of the Company's current issued share capital with preemptive rights. As this exceeds the limit set by policy, we are voting against this proposal.
Authority to Issue Shares and Convertible Debt w/o Preemptive Rights	Against	In this case, the board will be authorised to potentially issue up to 9.7% of the Company's current issued share capital without preemptive rights, subject to a cumulative limit of 34.7% for all share issuances. As the global ceiling exceeds the cumulative limit for all share issuances set by policy, we are voting against this proposal.
Authority to Issue Shares Through Private Placement	Against	In this case, the board will be authorised to potentially issue up to 9.7% of the Company's current issued share capital without preemptive rights, subject to a cumulative limit of 34.7% for all share issuances. As the global ceiling exceeds the cumulative limit for all share issuances set by policy, we are voting against this proposal.
Greenshoe	Against	This authority grants the Company the flexibility to increase an over-subscribed issuance by up to 15%, so long as such increase takes place on the same terms and within thirty days of the initial issuance. In this case, the proposed greenshoe is subject to a cumulative limit of 34.7% of share capital for all share issuances, which exceeds the cumulative limit set by policy. Consequently, we are voting against this proposal.

As the global ceiling exceeds the cumulative limit for all share issuances set by policy, we are voting against this proposal.
Authority to Increase Capital Through Capitalisations	For	The successive or simultaneous capitalisation of reserves, retained earnings or additional paid-in capital would benefit shareholders by allowing the Company to increase paid-in capital through a series of alternatives, above and beyond the issuance of shares. Moreover, when companies capitalize reserves, retained earnings or paid-in capital, there is no risk of dilution. This procedure merely transfers wealth to shareholders and does not impact share value. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal.
Authority to Issue Performance Shares	For	Remuneration plans should be adequately disclosed and should reward executives for good performance. According to policy, dilution for all compensation plans should be no higher than 10% of share capital. Given that the company's plan is fully compliant with policy and, in the absence of any evidence of past abuse by the company of this type of authority, we are supporting this proposal.

Authority to Grant Convertible Warrants (Contingent Capital)	Against	This authority primarily aims to protect the Company against the deterioration of financial markets. The use of contingent convertible bonds has been growing in Europe in recent years as a means of providing emergency capital buffers for significant financial institutions. Under the proposed authority, contingent convertible warrants would convert automatically into equity capital only in case the Company's capital ratio falls below a specific regulatory threshold. While such a substantial conversion from debt to equity upon a triggering event would undoubtedly have a negative effect on shareholder value, the alternative, namely insolvency or a renewed financial crisis, would have an even harder impact on shareholders. The proposed authority has been developed under the guidance of regulatory authorities to ensure that the Company is able to meet regulatory capital requirements. Nevertheless, this authority is subject to the global limit for share issuances of 52.2% of share capital, which exceeds the limit set by policy. Therefore, we are voting against this proposal.

Resolution on election to the Supervisory Board: Werner Brandt	For	The management has issued the following opinion on the exceeding of the self-imposed age limit when Werner Brandt is re-elected: "Among other things, while respecting the age limit laid down in the rules of procedure for the Supervisory Board of Siemens Aktiengesellschaft, it will generally only be proposed to persons not older than 70 years of age, which is the case for four of the five proposed candidates. However, the age limit is not a rigid requirement, but a rule that also allows exceptions. The deviation from this rule in the proposed early re-election of Dr Brandt seems justified and appropriate to the Supervisory Board. It ensures that Dr Brandt will continue to be available to the Supervisory Board with his skills and experience, in particular as a long-standing chairman of the Audit Committee, even after the departure of Mr Snabe after the expiry of his new term of approximately two years, and will contribute to ensuring continuity in the work of the Supervisory Board and its committees." The reasoning seems understandable and the election of Werner Brandt to the Supervisory Board can therefore still be viewed uncritically. We are therefore voting in favour of the motion.
Resolution on the remuneration of Supervisory Board members	For	There are no indications that would conflict with this agenda item. The motion may therefore be viewed uncritically. We are therefore voting in favour of the motion.
Resolution on a new authorisation for the Management Board to provide for the holding of a virtual general meeting and corresponding amendments to the Articles of Association	Against	In this case, the approval period is limited to two years, which is to be welcomed. It is also noted that the protection of shareholders' rights will play a central role in the structure and implementation of the GM. There is also an explanation regarding the conditions under which the Management Board intends to make use of the possibility of a virtual general meeting. Although the amendment to the Articles of Association authorising a virtual general meeting has become somewhat more transparent, we reject resolutions that do not reveal any obligation on the part of the company to allow the physical presence of shareholders at general meetings again in future. This is the case with this decision. We are therefore voting against the motion.
Resolution on authorisation to purchase and use treasury shares in accordance with Section 71(1)(8) of the German Stock Corporation Act (Aktiengesetz) and to exclude subscription and tender rights	Against	In this case, the company proposes a term of five years. This does not comply with the guidelines, which stipulate a maximum term of two years. This motion should therefore be viewed very critically. We are therefore voting against the motion.

Resolution on a new authorisation to issue convertible bonds and/or option bonds, on the exclusion of subscription rights and on the creation of Conditional Capital 2025 and related amendments to the Articles of Association	Against	The increase in share capital by 180,000,000 would lead to a capital dilution of 7.5% and exclusions of subscription rights are limited to a cumulative total of 10% of the share capital. According to the guidelines, all corporate actions should not exceed 20% cumulatively. The possible volume of all stock resolutions is 36.25%, which is not compliant with the guidelines. A critical view should therefore be taken of the motion. We are therefore voting against the motion.

New Sinopec Finance Financial Services Framework Master Agreement	For	The management and the board should be in the best position to determine what operational decisions are best in the context of the business. It should be noted that it is a common practice in China for companies listed in Hong Kong to make deposit transactions through a financial arm of their parent company or within their groups. Such pooling of the group's cash through an unlisted financial vehicle may give the parent company control over the listed company's finances. In addition, such practices may lead to lax lending practices within the parent group, potentially exposing the shareholders of a listed company to undisclosed risks. However, in light of the nature and the extent of Sinopec Group Company's control over the Company, it is considered appropriate to vote for this proposal.

Release of Restrictions of Competitive Activities of Newly Appointed Directors and Representatives	For	Releasing the board of directors from these restrictions, which prohibit board members from conducting any activities that can be considered to be competitive with the business affairs of the Company, may lead to potential conflicts of interest for directors. There is no indication that participation in the operations of such entities will lead to conflicts of interest for directors. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal.

Election of Directors	Against	There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualification, remuneration and suitability of Therese Friberg, Beth Ferreira and Susanna Schneeberger. Consequently, one should consider these appointments to be non-contentious. However, as the board of directors does not comprise an adequate number of independent members, we are voting against all insider and affiliated directors. Consequently, we are opposing the election of non-independent nominees Rickard Gustafson, Håkan Buskhe, Richard Nilsson, Mats Rahmström, Hans Stråberg and Hock Goh. Similarly, as the Audit Committee does not comprise an adequate number of independent members, we are voting against all insider and affiliated directors on this committee. Consequently, we are voting against the elections of non-independent nominees Håkan Buskhe, Richard Nilsson and Hans Stråberg. The policy also requires the audit committee chair to be independent. As nominee Richard Nilsson is not considered independent, we are opposing this director's election. The policy also requires the compensation committee chair to be independent. Consequently, we are voting against the election of non-independent nominee Hans Stråberg. Moreover, as the board of directors does not have sufficient gender diversity, we are voting against all male directors. Consequently, we are opposing the elections of nominees Rickard Gustafson, Håkan Buskhe, Richard Nilsson, Mats Rahmström, Hans Stråberg, Geert Follens, Hock Goh and Niko Pakalén. Also, the Company failed to disclose a detailed record of the proxy voting results from the last annual meeting, thereby prohibiting shareholders from assessing significant opposition to specific resolutions. The disclosure of vote results assists shareholders in gaining a better understanding of the outcome of general meetings, establishing engagement priorities, and tracking companies' responses to material (minority) shareholder dissent on any of the agenda items. In this case, the chair of the board is being held responsible for this lack of disclosure. Consequently, we are opposing Hans Stråberg's election. Finally, the Company has failed to disclose its biodiversity policy, which is not in line with policy. As such, we are voting against the re-election of Håkan Buskhe as the chair of the ESG committee. While we would normally support the election of some of these nominees, it should be noted that the company is bundling all elections under one resolution.

Remuneration Report	Against	The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. However: The Company has failed to implement executive stock ownership guidelines. The report does not provide transparency on chosen indices, benchmarks or peer-groups. The compensation plan uses adjusted metrics. Specifically, adjusted operating margin under the STI. As this is against policy, we are voting against this proposal.
Adoption of Performance Share Programme 2025	For	Remuneration plans should be adequately disclosed and should reward executives for good performance. According to policy, dilution for all compensation plans should be no higher than 10% of share capital. Given that the company's plan is fully compliant with policy and, in the absence of any evidence of past abuse by the company of this type of authority, we are supporting this proposal.

Election of Directors	Against	There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualification and suitability of nominees Gunilla Rudebjer, Anders Svensson and Carina Åkerström. Consequently, we are supporting these directors' elections. Consequently, we are opposing the election of non-independent nominees Fredrik Paulsson and Lena Apler, as well as Bent Oustad and Anders Sundström who are also non-independent members of the remuneration committee, which is required by the policy to be sufficiently independent. Furthermore, non-independent nominee Lena Apler serves as an audit committee chair and non-independent nominee Anders Sundström serves as remuneration committee chair. Audit and remuneration committee chairs are required by the policy to be independent. Lastly, the Company has failed to disclose the board oversight of ESG, which is not in line with policy. While we would normally vote against the election of the chair of the nominating and corporate governance committee as responsible for this issue, the Company has not established such committee. As such, we are voting against the election of Anders Sundström as the chair of the board. While we would normally support the election of some of these nominees, it should be noted that the company is bundling all elections under one resolution. Consequently, we are voting against this proposal.

Special Auditors Report on Regulated Agreements	Against	In general, it is important to question the need for the Company to engage in business relationships with its board members as such relationships potentially create conflicts for board members, as they may be forced to weigh their own interests in relation to shareholder interests when making board decisions. In addition, a company's decision regarding where to turn for the best professional services may be compromised when doing business with the professional services firm of one of the Company's board members. In this case, the payment to Gonzalve Bich under the consulting agreement appears to be in excess of general market practice and applicable best-practice recommendations. Consequently, we are voting against this proposal.
Authority to Repurchase and Reissue Shares	Against	At this time, there is no evidence of any past abuse of this type of authority at the company. Elect Edouard Bich	Against	There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualification and suitability of nominee Edouard Bich. However, the nominee has already been a non-executive member of the board for more than 15 years, which is against policy. Moreover, as the board of directors does not comprise an adequate number of independent members, we are voting against all insider and affiliated directors. The Company's Human Rights Policy does not align with UDHR or ILO, which is not in line with policy. As such, we are voting against the re-election of this director as the board chair.
Elect Esther Gaide	For	There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualification and suitability of nominee Esther Gaide. Consequently, we are supporting this director's election.
Ratification of Management Acts (Nikos Koumettis)	For	Having reviewed the management's actions during the previous financial year, there appears to be no reason for shareholder concern. As a result, we are voting for this proposal.
2024 Remuneration Report	Against	The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. However: The remuneration structure allows for adjusted metrics. Specifically, Adjusted EBIT under the STI. The Company's remuneration policy and remuneration report for executives was subject to the dissent of over 27% of minority shareholders at the last AGM. The Company has made no changes to the remuneration structure to address this significant dissent from free float shareholders. The CEO, through Société M.D.B. and the Bich family, beneficially owns 48% and 63% of the Company's share capital and voting rights, respectively. Furthermore, the CEO is entitled to receive share awards under the long-term performance share plan. Gonzalve Bich was granted 24,963 performance shares in the past fiscal year (FY2023: 23,681 shares). Given the family of the CEO's already substantial ownership, it is inappropriate and against minority shareholders' interests for him to receive remuneration in the form of equity. As this is against policy, we are voting against this proposal.

Remuneration Policy	Against	The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. However: Compensation is not clearly linked to materially significant ESG indicator. The board can grant discretionary bonuses and no limit has been disclosed. The report does not provide transparency on chosen indices, benchmarks or peer-groups. The remuneration structure allows for vesting of awards in under 3 years. The maximum opportunity under the LTI has not been disclosed. As this is against policy, we are voting against this proposal.

Approval of the 2025 Stock Grant Plan	For	Remuneration plans should be adequately disclosed and should reward executives for good performance. According to policy, dilution for all compensation plans should be no higher than 10% of share capital. Given that the company's plan is fully compliant with policy and, in the absence of any evidence of past abuse by the company of this type of authority, we are supporting this proposal.
Directors' liability action	For	Where there is a violation of directors' duties, a solvent joint stock company can bring a liability action against the directors under Article 2393 of the Civil Code. Although any damages that the court awards are paid to the company rather than to the shareholders that have brought the action, it appears to be in shareholders' best interest to hold a director liable for a breach of his duties. As a result, it is recommended to view this item in a non-critical fashion should it occur. Therefore, we are voting for this proposal.

Accounts and Reports; Remuneration Report	Against	The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. However: There are no set payout limits in terms of base salary under the STI. However, the Company disclosed that the variable bonus, when attributed, may vary between 11% and 76%, compared with the total actual remuneration. The LTI does not include ESG criteria. The report does not provide transparency on chosen indices, benchmarks or peer-groups. The Company suffered a significant fall in share price in 2020 as part of the initial market reaction to the Covid-19 pandemic. The CEO was nonetheless granted MTPB awards as deferral of 50% of the total variable remuneration accrued, equal to €372.700 in March of 2021, resulting in substantially (186.7%) higher value of the final award when vesting in FY2024. The increase in the Company's share price over the vesting period, which coincided with a general post-Covid recovery in Portugal and global equities, has potentially resulted in material windfall gains for 2021 LTIP awards upon their vesting in 2024. Given this, shareholders could reasonably expect the Company to outline the extent to which this issue was considered when determining final vesting outcomes, and if applicable, explain its decision not to reduce awards to account for windfall gains. The Company has failed to disclose key details of its executive remuneration policy, which precludes shareholders from adequately assessing to what extent it is aligned with the Company's performance and market best practices. The Company does not maintain a conventional long term incentive plan. Instead, it operates a combined/omnibus incentive plan through which executives may be granted performance shares and/or cash awards. Further, the Company has not provided further information regarding the type of pay received by the CEO. As such, it is unclear whether equity will be awarded to the CEO, who is a significant shareholder already, under the MTPB. As this is not entirely in line with policy, we are voting against this proposal.
Allocation of Profits/ Dividends	For	A proposed dividend allocation should be comparable to industry peers and should mirror the financial health of the company. In principle, an acceptable pay-out ratio should be above 20 percent and below 100 percent. The company's aggregate pay-out ratio for the fiscal year is in an acceptable range. Given this, we are voting for this proposal.

Ratification of Board and Supervisory Council Acts	Against	There is no indication of any investigations or pending court cases pertaining to current member of the Board of Directors and the Chief Executive Officer at the company. However, several governance and transparency requirements have not been met: The board of directors is not sufficiently independent. The audit committee chair is not independent. As this is contrary to policy, we are voting against this proposal.
Remuneration Policy	Against	The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. However: The Company has failed to disclose key details of its executive remuneration policy, which precludes shareholders from adequately assessing to what extent it is aligned with Company performance and market best practices. There are no disclosed severance agreements. As such, it is unclear whether severance package payments are limited to a maximum of two-years' salary. The LTI does not include ESG criteria. The benchmark used for pay-setting has not been disclosed. The payout limit under the combined variable remuneration scheme for the executives increased by 7.9%, to 82% of overall received remuneration (previously 76% of overall received remuneration). As the Company does not disclose maximum opportunity in terms of base salary, shareholders cannot calculate the possible impact of the increase. Further, the Company has not provided any direct rationale for the increase. The Company does not maintain a conventional long term incentive plan. Instead, it operates a combined/omnibus incentive plan through which executives may be granted performance shares and/or cash awards. Further, the Company has not provided further information regarding the type of pay received by the CEO. As such, it is unclear whether equity will be awarded to the CEO, who is a significant shareholder already, under the MTPB. As this is not entirely in line with policy, we are voting against this proposal.
Authority to Repurchase and Reissue Shares	Against	At this time, there is no evidence of any past abuse of this type of authority at the company. However, the proposed minimum repurchase price is not in line with policy. Consequently, we are voting against this proposal.
Authority to Repurchase and Reissue Debt Instruments	Against	At this time, there is no evidence of any past abuse of this type of authority at the company. However, the proposed repurchase price is not in line with policy. Consequently, we are voting against this proposal.

Advisory Vote on Executive Compensation	Against	The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. However: Severance package payments are not limited to a maximum of two-years' salary. Clawback policy is restatement dependent only. Compensation is not linked to materially significant ESG indicator. Less than at least 2 KPIs are used as performance LTI criteria, which is based solely on 2026 plan EBIT. The board can grant discretionary bonuses. As this is against policy, we are voting against this proposal.
Ratification of Auditor	Against	There is no indication of any investigations or pending court cases pertaining to the auditor. Moreover, the fees paid to the auditor are appropriate and are clearly disclosed by the Company. However, the same firm has audited the Company for more than 10 years, which is not in line with policy. Moreover, as per US market practice, the lead auditor's name and tenure has not been disclosed in the company's proxy materials or annual report. Consequently, we are voting against this proposal.
Repeal of Classified Board	Against	The policy does not require to revoke staggered boards and elect all directors annually. Consequently, we are voting against this proposal.

2024 Business Report and Financial Statements	For	All of the necessary financial statements and reports are disclosed in the Company's meeting materials. It should be noted that in the opinion of the statutory auditors, the Company's independent auditor, the Company's financial statements and business report have been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in Taiwan, 'Regulations Governing the Preparation of Financial Reports by Securities Issuers and International Financial Reporting Standards'. Elect Jason HSUAN	Against	There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualification and suitability of nominee Jason HSUAN. However, as the board of directors does not have sufficient gender diversity, we are voting against all male directors. Additionally, the nominee attended less than 75% of the meetings held by the board and/or the applicable committees in the last fiscal year. Non-Compete of Restriction for Directors	For	Releasing the board of directors from these restrictions, which prohibit board members from conducting any activities that can be considered to be competitive with the business affairs of the Company, may lead to potential conflicts of interest for directors. In this case, the Company proposes to release its director from non-compete obligation with respect to their directorships in Companies in an unrelated industry, wholly-owned subsidiaries, controlled subsidiaries, substantial shareholders and their subsidiaries or joint ventures. There is no indication that participation in the operations of such entities will lead to conflicts of interest for directors. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal.

Advisory Vote on Executive Compensation	Against	The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. However: Severance package payments are not limited to a maximum of two-years' salary. Compensation is not linked to materially significant ESG indicator. The board can grant discretionary bonuses. The compensation committee may, at its discretion, consider certain metrics in determining awards. As this is against policy, we are voting against this proposal.
Ratification of Auditor	Against	There is no indication of any investigations or pending court cases pertaining to the auditor. Shareholder Proposal Regarding Independent Chair	For	Although policy does not require that the board chair be an independent director, this proposal is largely focused on the separation of the roles of chair and CEO. The chair/CEO at the Company is currently a combined role, which is not in line with policy. Moreover, the shareholder proponent has put forth adequate justification for their proposal. Therefore, we are voting for this proposal.
Shareholder Proposal Regarding Transition Financing Reporting	Against	This proposal requests that the Company issue a report disclosing whether and how the Company addresses the transition of workers and fairness to communities in its transition finance strategy. However, as noted by the Company, it does not make loans or undertake to provide financial support in respect of transition finance activities, and, therefore, it has no transition finance business. As such, the proposal is not particularly well-crafted and the proposed reporting would not apply here. As a result, we are voting against this proposal.

Remuneration Report	Against	The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. However: Pay outcomes for the year under review do not appear to sufficiently mirror performance results and shareholders' experience. The outgoing CEO was awarded a payment of SEK 10,980,000 during his notice period. According to the Company's remuneration policy, the remuneration during the notice period, including the severance pay, may not exceed 12 months' base salary. The reported payment during the notice period corresponds to approximately 120.5% of the former CEO's 2023 base salary. Furthermore, the Company awarded the former CEO a retention bonus of SEK 1,729,000 contingent on the former CEO not having resigned by December 31, 2024. Overall, the total remuneration to the former CEO is outside the scope of the shareholder-approved remuneration policy. The Company has failed to implement executive stock ownership guidelines. The remuneration structure allows for vesting of awards in under 3 years. The remuneration structure includes adjusted metrics. As this is against policy, we are voting against this proposal.

Consequently, we are voting against this proposal.
Approval of the Long-Term Incentive Plan	Against	Remuneration plans should be adequately disclosed and should reward executives for good performance. According to policy, dilution for all compensation plans should be no higher than 10% of share capital. While the level of dilution is in line with policy, the following issues should be noted: The plan allows for the vesting of awards in under 3 years. The LTI is not subject to any E&S performance criteria. Given that the above is not in line with policy, we are voting against this proposal.
Authority to Issue and Transfer Warrants (LTIP2025/2029)	Against	This proposal seeks authority for the issuance and transfer of warrants to service the LTIP. Remuneration plans should be adequately disclosed and should reward executives for good performance. Allocation of Profits/ Dividends	For	A proposed dividend allocation should be comparable to industry peers and should mirror the financial health of the company. In principle, an acceptable pay-out ratio should be above 20 percent and below 100 percent. The company's aggregate pay-out ratio for the fiscal year is in an acceptable range. Given this, we are voting for this proposal.

Directors' and Auditors' Fees	For	The proposed fees are reasonable and in line with those paid by the Company's peers. Therefore, we are voting for this proposal.
Election of Directors; Appointment of Auditor	Against	Regarding the ratification of the Company's auditors; there is no indication of any investigations or pending court cases pertaining to the auditor. One should consider this resolution as routine. Therefore, we are voting for this proposal. Regarding the election of directors; there are no evident reasons to doubt the qualification, remuneration and suitability of Jonas Sjögren, Hélène Barnekow, Ulrika Danielsson, Alexander Lindholm, Erik Tidén and Filippa Wallestam. Consequently, one should consider these appointments to be non-contentious. However, Jonas Tellander has already been a non-executive member of the board for more than 15 years, which is against policy. Consequently, we are opposing this director's election. While we would normally support the election of some of these nominees and the election of the auditor, it should be noted that the company is bundling all elections under one resolution. Consequently, we are voting against this proposal.
Authority to Issue Shares w/ or w/o Preemptive Rights	For	In this case, the board will be authorised to issue up to 10% of the Company's current issued share capital with or without preemptive rights, which is in line with policy. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal.
Adoption of Share-Based Incentives (LTIP 2025/2028)	Against	Remuneration plans should be adequately disclosed and should reward executives for good performance. According to policy, dilution for all compensation plans should be no higher than 10% of share capital. However, in this case, the proposed LTIP does not contain recovery provisions and allows for awards to vest in under three years. In this case, 25% of the awards vest after 1 year and the remaining awards will vest linearly every quarter over two years. As this is contrary to policy, we are voting against this proposal.

Amendments to the Employee Trust Benefit Schemes	For	It is believed that performance and equity-based incentive programs can provide a vehicle for linking an employee's pay to a company's performance, thereby aligning their interests with those of shareholders. Tying a portion of an employee's compensation to the performance of the Company provides an incentive to maximize share value. In addition, equity-based compensation is an effective way to attract, retain and motivate key employees. Further, the proposed amendments do not violate policy. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal.

Approval of the Employee Stock Ownership Plan	Against	Performance and equity-based incentive programs can provide a vehicle for linking an employee's pay to a company's performance, thereby aligning their interests with those of shareholders. Tying a portion of an employee's compensation to the performance of the Company provides an incentive to maximize share value. In addition, equity-based compensation is an effective way to attract, retain and motivate key employees. In this case, while the proposed dilution is in line with policy, the following issues should be noted: Managed by Interested Parties It is believed that an administrative committee should consist of at least a majority of independent members in order to maximize the benefits of the employee share purchase plan, provide adequate oversight, and promote shareholder value. In this case, the administrator includes insiders or other interested parties. Therefore, it is possible that management may abuse these authorities in order to serve their own interests. Purchase Price Not Disclosed The purchase price of stocks granted as long-term incentives should be equal or close to the fair market value of the underlying stock on the date of grant. In this case, the Company has not provided the maximum discount rate in the Company's disclosures. Therefore, it is unclear whether the purchase price would be set at a significant discount, which may further increase the cost of the plan. Consequently, we are voting against this proposal.

Ratification of Auditor	Against	There is no indication of any investigations or pending court cases pertaining to the auditor. 2024 Business Report and Financial Statements	For	All of the necessary financial statements and reports are disclosed in the Company's meeting materials. It should be noted that in the opinion of the statutory auditors, the Company's independent auditor, the Company's financial statements and business report have been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in Taiwan, 'Regulations Governing the Preparation of Financial Reports by Securities Issuers and International Financial Reporting Standards'. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal.
2024 Profit Distribution Plan	For	A proposed dividend allocation should be comparable to industry peers and should mirror the financial health of the company. In principle, an acceptable pay-out ratio should be above 20 percent and below 100 percent. The company's aggregate pay-out ratio for the fiscal year is in an acceptable range. Given this, we are voting for this proposal.
Amendment to Articles of Incorporation	For	In this case, there is no cause for shareholder concern regarding the proposed amendments. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal.

Removal of the Non-Competition Restrictions on the Director	For	Releasing the board of directors from these restrictions, which prohibit board members from conducting any activities that can be considered to be competitive with the business affairs of the Company, may lead to potential conflicts of interest for directors. In this case, the Company proposes to release its director from non-compete obligation with respect to their directorships in Companies in an unrelated industry, wholly-owned subsidiaries, controlled subsidiaries, substantial shareholders and their subsidiaries or joint ventures. Advisory Vote on Executive Compensation	Against	The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. However: Severance package payments are not limited to a maximum of two-years' salary. Clawback policy is restatement dependent only. In fiscal 2023, the Company granted RSUs and PSUs to its executive directors. The CEO's award was valued at approximately $23.6 million in the aggregate. The Company stated that the original intention was that the executive directors' would not receive any additional LTIP grants until the fiscal 2023 grants had vested, in fiscal 2026. However, during fiscal 2024, the Company decided to expedite subsequent grants as a further retentive tool. The Company did not clearly explain why it felt the substantial awards granted in fiscal 2023 were insufficient to ensure continued executive retention. In connection with this decision to provide additional LTIP awards, in fiscal 2025 the Company granted (i) an "ordinary course grant" representing two-thirds of the executive directors' annual LTIP target opportunity, consisting 70% of PSUs with a two-year performance period and 30% of RSUs vesting over two years and (ii) a supplemental one-time retention grant representing one-fourth of the executive directors' annual LTIP target opportunity, consisting wholly of PSUs with a two-year performance period. The PSUs vest based on achievement of adjusted equity value performance goals, with the potential for additional PSUs to be earned if the maximum performance goal is exceeded. In this case, the short vesting schedules while the fiscal 2023 front-loaded awards remain outstanding, amplified by the high value of the CEO's fiscal 2025 equity awards relative to the Company's self-selected peer group, as well as the absence of clear and fulsome disclosure regarding the necessity of these awards, may cause concern. Compensation is not linked to materially significant ESG indicator. The remuneration structure allows for adjusted metrics under the STI. As this is not entirely in line with policy, we are voting against this proposal.
Frequency of Advisory Vote on Executive Compensation - 1 year	For	Shareholders are better served by having an annual vote on executive remuneration as compensation may change dramatically year to year due to significant changes in variable remuneration. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal.
Frequency of Advisory Vote on Executive Compensation - 2 years	Against	Shareholders are better served by having an annual vote on executive remuneration as compensation may change dramatically year to year due to significant changes in variable remuneration. Consequently, we are voting against this proposal as it is contrary to both good corporate governance and the best interests of shareholders.

Approval of the 2025 Employee Stock Purchase Plan	For	Employee stock purchase programs align the interests of employees and shareholders and encourage a sense of ownership at companies. Given that the level of dilution and the qualitative terms of the plan are in line with policy, we are voting for this proposal.

Moreover, the fees paid to the auditor are appropriate and are clearly disclosed by the Company. However, as per US market practice, the lead auditor's name and tenure has not been disclosed in the company's proxy materials or annual report. The aforementioned notwithstanding, and as stipulated by Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002/Title II, "It shall be unlawful for a registered public accounting firm to provide audit services to an issuer if the lead (or coordinating) audit partner (having primary responsibility for the audit), or the audit partner responsible for reviewing the audit, has performed audit services for that issuer in each of the 5 previous fiscal years of that issuer." Resolution on the discharge of the Management Board members of TeamViewer SE for the 2024 financial year	For	We are not aware of any pending proceedings against members of the Management Board. However, the following transparency points and/or governance issues are not satisfied or are missing: no information on the intended participation of all committee members throughout the virtual general meeting. Resolution on the remuneration of Supervisory Board members	For	There are no indications that would conflict with this agenda item. The motion may therefore be viewed uncritically. We are therefore voting in favour of the motion.
Resolution on the election of a Supervisory Board member: James Jeffrey (Jeff) Kinder	For	Since there are no indications of a violation of the guidelines, the election of James Jeffrey (Jeff) Kinder to the Supervisory Board can be viewed uncritically. We are therefore voting in favour of the motion.
Resolution on the authorisation for the Management Board to hold virtual general meetings and corresponding amendments to the Articles of Association	Against	In this case, the guidelines are not complied with, since the following criteria are not met and there are therefore deficiencies: No written explanation is given as to whether and under which conditions an authorisation of the Management Board should be used in the future (credible, detailed explanation of the circumstances) Since a general meeting has not taken place in person since 2021 and such a meeting will not be explicitly announced for the following year, it is not clear which specific conditions will lead to a virtual GM or a GM in person. This motion should therefore be viewed critically. We are therefore voting against the motion.

Accounts and Reports	For	The Company's audited annual and consolidated accounts were available for review in advance of this shareholder meeting. As no evidence has been presented that would question the accuracy of these reports, one should consider this item as routine. Therefore, we are voting for this proposal.
Allocation of Dividends	Against	A proposed dividend allocation should be comparable to industry peers and should mirror the financial health of the company. In principle, an acceptable pay-out ratio should be above 20 percent and below 100 percent. As the proposed dividend pay-out ratio exceeds 100 percent, we are voting against this proposal.
Remuneration Policy	Against	The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. However: The Company has failed to implement executive stock ownership guidelines. The report does not provide transparency on chosen indices, benchmarks or peer-groups. The Company is implementing a new plan, the 2025-2027 Performance Shares Plan, with the same characteristics of the 2024-2026 PSP. In this case, if the beneficiaries of the plan, who were also beneficiaries of one of the 2015, 2017, 2021, 2022, 2023 and/or 2024 LTIP, at the time of grant will own at least 50% of the shares assigned under the aforementioned plans, the number of shares granted will be increased by 20%. The remuneration structure allows for retesting of performance targets under the Challenge Plan. The Company disclosed that in the event that performance targets are not achieved in FY2025, they will be retested in FY2026, allowing 50% of the awards to vest. The Company may provide executives accelerated equity vesting upon their termination due to the change in control of the Company. This provision may discourage potential buyers from making an offer for the Company both because the purchase price will be higher and because substantial numbers of employees may earn significant amounts of money and decide to leave their positions with the Company. In short, this sort of provision may lower the chances of a deal, lower the premium paid to shareholders in a takeover transaction or both. Despite the company has eliminated the authority to grant discretionary bonuses, it has increased the cap under the Stability Plan. This plan, which serves as a retention reward for directors and is not tied to performance, now allows for up to 50% of the fixed remuneration, from the previous limit of 25%. Last year, the Company's Remuneration Report and Policy both received more than 24% votes against and the Company has not sufficiently addressed shareholder concerns. As this is against policy, we are voting against this proposal.

List Presented by Group of Institutional Investors Representing 4.31% of Share Capital	For	The nominees on the list presented by a group of Institutional Investors Representing 4.31% of Share Capital an appropriate level of experience and diversity of expertise to the board. Consequently, we are voting: FOR: List presented by a group of Institutional Investors Representing 4.31% of Share Capital
Election of Chair of Board of Statutory Auditors	For	This proposal does not violate policy. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal.
Statutory Auditors' Fees	For	The proposed fees are reasonable and in line with those paid by the Company's peers. Therefore, we are voting for this proposal.
2025-2027 Performance Share Plan	Against	As noted in Proposals 0030 and 0040, there are concerns with the proposed plan. In this case, the board possess the discretion to adjust the awards at the time of grant. Specifically, if the beneficiaries of the plan, who were also beneficiaries of one among the 2015, 2017, 2021, 2022,2023 and/or 2024 LTIP, at the time of grant will own at least 50% of shares assigned under the aforementioned plans, the number of shares granted will be increased by 20%. Moreover, the same discretion was foreseen under the previous 2024-2026 PSP, which received a significant dissent upon approval at last year's AGM. As a result, we are voting against this proposal.
Authority to Repurchase and Reissue Shares	Against	At this time, there is no evidence of any past abuse of this type of authority at the company. However, the proposed maximum and minimum price exceeds the 10% limit outlined in policy. Consequently, we are voting against this proposal.
Authority to Issue Shares to Service 2025-2027 Performance Shares Plan	Against	Following the analysis in Proposal 0080, we are voting against this connected proposal.
Deliberations on Possible Legal Action Against Directors if Presented by Shareholders	For	Where there is a violation of directors' duties, a solvent joint stock company can bring a liability action against the directors under Article 2393 of the Civil Code. Although any damages that the court awards are paid to the company rather than to the shareholders that have brought the action, it appears to be in shareholders' best interest to hold a director liable for a breach of his duties. As a result, it is recommended to view this item in a non-critical fashion should it occur. Therefore, we are voting for this proposal.

Report on Non-Financial Information	For	This is a routine presentation of the reports. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal.
Allocation of Profits/ Dividends	For	The Company proposes that no dividend will be distributed for the past fiscal year. It is in the best interest of shareholders to approve the Company's strategy. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal.
Ratification of Board Acts	For	There is no indication of any investigations or pending court cases pertaining to current member of the Board of Directors and the Chief Executive Officer at the company. However, several governance and transparency requirements have not been met: CVs (age) of directors are not published. As this is the only criticism and as this is only a formal requirement, we are voting for this proposal after carefully weighing the arguments.
Appointment of Auditor	For	As per Spanish market practice, the lead auditor's tenure has not been disclosed in the company's proxy materials or annual report. However, Article 40 of the Law 22/2015 (20th July) requires rotation of the lead auditor every five years. There is no indication of any investigations or pending court cases pertaining to the auditor. Moreover, the fees paid to the auditor are appropriate and are clearly disclosed by the Company. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal.
Authority to Issue Convertible Debt Instruments	For	The Company has sufficient capacity at this time to take on additional debt in order to finance its operations and growth. This proposal does not violate policy. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal.
Remuneration Policy	Against	The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. However: The Company has failed to implement executive stock ownership guidelines. The proposed remuneration policy lacks bonus-malus and/ or any recovery provisions. The Company's short-term remuneration exceeds the long-term remuneration. The LTI does not include ESG criteria. The report does not provide transparency on chosen indices, benchmarks or peer-groups. As this is against policy, we are voting against this proposal.

Report of Common Representative	For	Having reviewed the report, there appears to be no cause for shareholder concern. As a result, we are voting for this proposal.
Election of Common Representative; Term Length; Fees	For	Under Italian law, savings shareholders are entitled to elect a representative who is responsible for protecting their interests in the Company. The law sets forth specific requirements and limitations as to whom may be appointed to the position of common representative of savings shareholders. These qualifications protect the interests of shareholders by requiring nominees to meet a required level of independence, integrity and work experience. Having reviewed the background of the nominee, it is concluded that nominee Emanuele Rimini possesses an appropriate level of expertise for the role, given his experience in this position within the Company since 2013 and across several Italian listed companies. Further, two shareholders submitted a proposal for the election of the common representative, they both presented the same candidate, Emanuele Rimini. Finally, the proposed term limit and fees to be reasonable. As a result, we are voting for this proposal.
Accounts and Reports; Allocation of Losses	For	The Company proposes that no dividend will be distributed for the past fiscal year. It is in the best interest of shareholders to approve the Company's strategy. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal.
Remuneration Policy	Against	The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. However: The Company's policy establishes that the CEO is entitled to (i) an indemnity equal to the remuneration due until the natural expiration of the mandate up to a maximum of 24 months of total pay (calculated as the sum of fixed and short-term variable remuneration) for termination of the office of director, and (ii) indemnities in lieu of notice established by collective bargaining agreements up to an additional maximum of 24 months of fixed remuneration for termination of the employment contract or change of control. This exceeds the limits set by policy. The Company has failed to implement executive stock ownership guidelines. As this is against policy, we are voting against this proposal.

Remuneration Report	Against	The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. However: The Company has failed to implement executive stock ownership guidelines. Sterilisation and discretionary adjustmentsBoth financial and non-financial targets (except for the Group Net Financial Position) under the 2024 STI appear significantly lower compared to targets and outcomes under the 2023 STIP, although allowing for an equal or higher percentage of actual achievement. Indeed, an overall performance of 99% was achieved, thus resulting in a payout equal to €1,387,400 for the CEO. In addition, the board disclosed that, under the 2024 STIP, target values were defined according to the impacts related to changes in the scope of consolidation (delaying operation with effect from July 1, 2024) and exchange rates, in order to pursue the managerial significance of the comparison between the target and the final balance. As such, one sterilisation was applied, relating to the return of part of the sanction relating to the A514 procedure, as per the judgment of the Council of State of November 13, 2024. Moreover, under the 2023 STIP, an adjustment was made in relation to the fine imposed by the AGCM based on the judgment delivered on July 25, 2023, by the Council of State, which confirmed the legitimacy of a sanction imposed by the AGCM in January 2020 during the I820 investigation. While reporting the details of the aforementioned events that triggered the sterilisations in both FY2023 and FY2024 in the relevant Annual Reports, the board failed to clearly outline the impact of said sterilisations on the final STI outcomes and payouts. Ultimately adjustments and deviations from pre-set targets is against policy, and concerns with these are amplified by the lack of transparent disclosure on these changes. As this is against policy, we are voting against this proposal.
Approval of the 2025-2027 Long-Term Incentive Plan	For	Remuneration plans should be adequately disclosed and should reward executives for good performance. According to policy, dilution for all compensation plans should be no higher than 10% of share capital. Given that the company's plan is fully compliant with policy and, in the absence of any evidence of past abuse by the company of this type of authority, we are supporting this proposal.

Amendment to the 2022-2024 Stock Option Plan	Against	In this case, there are concerns with the significant incentive opportunity under the plan, equal to 18.5x times the CEO's base salary, which is strikingly out of line with market and European best practice. While noting that the value of vested awards - based on the current share price and the amended strike price proposed - is significantly lower than the incentive cap (€25.8 million), the volatility of the Company's share price may determine a potential higher monetary value, given that the exercise period for the non-ceased adhering beneficiaries will start in 2027 (albeit limited to two months and a half). As a result of this potential quantum of awards, we are voting against this proposal.
Approval of the 2025-2027 Phantom Shares Plan	For	In this case, the plan provides an appropriate incentive structure, with reasonable limits, performance metrics and safeguards. As this does not otherwise violate policy, we are voting for this proposal.
Amendments to Article 3 (Corporate Purpose)	For	In this case, there is no cause for shareholder concern regarding the proposed amendments. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal.

Amendments to Article 9 (Board Size; Board Election)	Against	In the case of non-financial institutions, five members is generally an acceptable minimum and fifteen members is usually an appropriate maximum for an effective and properly functioning board. Given that the proposal would fix the maximum board size at 15 members, the size of the board will remain within the boundaries of a reasonable range. However, the Company is further proposing to: (i) remove a lower threshold for presentation of slates to refer instead to the threshold established by Consob, the market regulator; (ii) introduce a minimum threshold of votes for slates to be considered eligible to appoint directors; and (iii) change the proportional allocation rules to establish that, in case of fractional numbers, the number of directors to be elected from the slate receiving the majority of votes will be rounded up to the higher integer, instead of down to the lower integer as currently. In this case, the Company is the only Italian blue-chip with a required ownership to present slates lower than the Consob requirement. While understanding the occasional necessity to review bylaws and remove gold-plating measures, in this case the Company is also introducing a minimum voting threshold for slates to be eligible to elect directors and changing the proportional allocation rules to de facto guarantee one additional seat to the slate receiving the majority of votes in case of fractional integers resulting from the seats allocation formula (two thirds of seats are assigned to the slate receiving the majority of votes). Ultimately the Company has failed to provide a strong rationale and additional guarantees that minority shareholder rights would be protected. In light of the above, we are voting against this proposal.
Amendments to Article 13 (Sustainability Reporting)	For	In this case, there is no cause for shareholder concern regarding the proposed amendments. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal.

Amendments to Article 17; 22 (Board of Statutory Auditors' Election)	Against	The Company is proposing to reduce the size of the board of statutory auditors from five effective and four alternate auditors, to three effective and two alternate auditors. The proposed size is in line with prevalent market practice. The Company is further proposing to: (i) remove a lower threshold for presentation of slates to refer instead to the threshold established by Consob, the market regulator; and (ii) change the rules to allocate seats to auditors drawn from minority slates. Specifically, the current proportional seat allocation mechanism based on quotients for slates other than the slate receiving the majority of votes, will be changed to determine that auditors will be appointed from the minority slate receiving the second highest number of votes. However, the Company is the only Italian blue-chip with a required ownership to present slates lower than the Consob requirement. While understanding the occasional necessity to review bylaws and remove gold-plating measures, in this case the Company is also changing the seat allocation procedures to de facto limit the selection of statutory auditors from one minority slate, against the possibility of a plurality of minority slates to be presented. Ultimately the Company has failed to provide a strong rationale and additional guarantees that minority shareholder rights would be protected. In light of the above, we are voting against this proposal.
Amendments to Article 19 (Closed-Door Meetings)	Against	Ultimately, shareholders should not support proposals which allow for closed-door meetings, unless the proposed amendments specify that the closed-door meeting format would only be used in exceptional circumstances, such as a public health crisis, and the amendments include a commitment to publicly disclose the exceptional circumstance that warrants holding the meeting in a closed-door format as part of the meeting notice. As this is contrary to shareholder interests, we are voting against this proposal.
Non-Reconstitution of Reserves (FY2024 Losses)	For	The reduction is in accordance with the law. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal.
Non-Reconstitution of Reserves (FY2023 Losses)	For	The reduction is in accordance with the law. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal.

Accounts and Reports	For	The Company's audited annual and consolidated accounts were available for review in advance of this shareholder meeting. As no evidence has been presented that would question the accuracy of these reports, one should consider this item as routine. Therefore, we are voting for this proposal.
Remuneration Report	Against	The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. However: The Company operates a unified approach to executive incentive plans, with no distinct annual bonus and long-term plan. Rather, the Company utilises the Telecom Plus Incentive Plan ("TPIP"). Certain features of the TPIP are out of line with both traditional STI and LTI structures. The remuneration structure allows for adjusted metrics. As this is not entirely in line with policy, we are voting against this proposal.
SAYE Plan	Against	The proposed plan would provide a way for all employees to acquire ordinary shares in the Company at a discount. It is believed that broad-based equity programs encourage employees to invest in the Company, thereby aligning their interests with those of shareholders. Further, it should be noted that the Company is bound by certain statutory limitations in terms of the amount of shares to be granted pursuant to any Company share incentive plan as well as a monthly contribution limit in order to acquire shares. Nonetheless, as the potential dilution to current shareholders exceeds the limits outlined in policy, we are opposing this proposal.
Final Dividend	For	A proposed dividend allocation should be comparable to industry peers and should mirror the financial health of the company. In principle, an acceptable pay-out ratio should be above 20 percent and below 100 percent. The company's aggregate pay-out ratio for the fiscal year is in an acceptable range. Given this, we are voting for this proposal.
Elect Charles Wigoder	Against	There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualification and suitability of nominee Charles Wigoder. However, the nominee has already been a non-executive member of the board for more than 15 years, which is against policy. Consequently, we are opposing this director's election.
Elect Stuart Burnett	For	There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualification and suitability of nominee Stuart Burnett. Consequently, we are supporting this director's election.

Elect Nicholas Schoenfeld	Against	The Company has failed to disclose its biodiversity policy, which is not in line with policy. As such, we are voting against the re-election of this director, Nicholas Schoenfeld, as the most senior member of the ESG committee.
Elect Andrew Blowers	For	There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualification and suitability of nominee Andrew Blowers. Consequently, we are supporting this director's election.
Elect Suzi Williams	For	There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualification and suitability of nominee Suzi Williams. Consequently, we are supporting this director's election.
Elect Carla Stent	For	There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualification and suitability of nominee Carla Stent. Consequently, we are supporting this director's election.
Elect Bindiya Karia	For	There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualification and suitability of nominee Bindiya Karia. Consequently, we are supporting this director's election.
Appointment of Auditor	Against	There is no indication of any investigations or pending court cases pertaining to the auditor. Moreover, the fees paid to the auditor are appropriate and are clearly disclosed by the Company. However, the same firm has audited the Company for more than 10 years, which is not in line with policy. Consequently, we are voting against this proposal.
Authority to Set Auditor's Fees	For	The fees paid to the auditor are appropriate and are clearly disclosed by the Company. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal.
Authority to Repurchase Shares	For	At this time, there is no evidence of any past abuse of this type of authority at the company. Consequently, as these authorizations are within the recommended thresholds, we are voting for this proposal.
Authority to Issue Shares w/ Preemptive Rights	Against	In this case, the board will be authorised to potentially issue up to 66% of the Company's current issued share capital with preemptive rights. As this exceeds the limit set by policy, we are voting against this proposal.
Authority to Issue Shares w/ o Preemptive Rights	Against	In this case, the board will be authorised to potentially issue up to 10% of the Company's current issued share capital without preemptive rights, which, if considered cumulatively with authorizations in Proposals 15 and 17, exceeds the limit set by policy. Consequently, we are voting against this proposal.
Authority to Issue Shares w/ o Preemptive Rights (Specified Capital Investment)	Against	In this case, the board will be authorised to potentially issue up to 10% of the Company's current issued share capital without preemptive rights, which, if considered cumulatively with authorizations in Proposals 15 and 16, exceeds the limit set by policy. Consequently, we are voting against this proposal.

Remuneration Report	Against	The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. However: The report does not provide transparency on chosen indices, benchmarks or peer-groups. The Company has used its discretion to increase payouts under the LTV 2024. Specifically, the Company states that the STI of the "CEO was enhanced to include a short-term incentive component. From January 1, 2024, the variable compensation for the President and CEO consists of a 50% target opportunity for short-term variable (STV) pay and a 150% target opportunity for long-term variable (LTV) pay, totalling a target opportunity equal to 200% of the annual base pay. This represents a small increase compared to 2023, where the total variable pay at target opportunity was 190% of the annual base salary.". Although the overall quantum is not overly excessive, such upward discretion is against policy. As this is against policy, we are voting against this proposal.

Shareholder Proposal Regarding Disbursing Executive Bonuses After Employee Salary Increases	Against	While recognising the importance of ensuring that companies are appropriately managing issues related to the compensation awarded to their employees, this particular proposal appears overly prescriptive. Remuneration Report	Against	The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. However: It should be noted that under the Company's remuneration structure, the CEO is not entitled to any variable performance-based pay. Further, the CEO and other members of the group executive management are excluded from the long-term incentive plan. This is by request of the Company's largest shareholder, the Swedish state, which beneficially owns approximately 41% of the Company's outstanding share capital and voting rights. The Company has failed to disclose the benchmarking used for pay-setting. Elect of Lars-Johan Jarnheimer as Chair of the Board	Against	In addition, the Company failed to disclose a detailed record of the proxy voting results from the last annual meeting, thereby prohibiting shareholders from assessing significant opposition to specific resolutions. The disclosure of vote results assists shareholders in gaining a better understanding of the outcome of general meetings, establishing engagement priorities, and tracking companies' responses to material (minority) shareholder dissent on any of the agenda items. In this case, the chair of the board is being held responsible for this lack of disclosure. Consequently, we are opposing Lars-Johan Jarnheimer's election.

Adoption of Share-Based Incentives (LTIP 2025/2028)	Against	Remuneration plans should be adequately disclosed and should reward executives for good performance. According to policy, dilution for all compensation plans should be no higher than 10% of share capital. However, the Company has not disclosed if the proposed LTI has any recovery provisions. As this is contrary to policy, we are voting against this proposal.
Transfer of Shares Pursuant to LTIP 2025/2028	Against	Following the analysis in Proposal 21.a, we are voting against this connected proposal.

Elect LI Dong Sheng	Against	There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualifications of nominee LI Dong Sheng. However, as the board of directors does not have sufficient gender diversity, we are voting against all male directors. Additionally, as the board of directors, the remuneration committee and the nominating committee do not comprise an adequate number of independent members, we are voting against all insider and affiliated directors. Further, the nominee has already been a non-executive member of the board for more than 15 years, which is against policy. Moreover, this director attended fewer than 75% of the meetings held by the board and/or the relevant committees during the past fiscal year. Finally, this director holds too many mandates to be in line with policy (Director - Tencent Holdings Limited; Chair/CEO - TCL Technology Group Corporation). Consequently, we are opposing this director's election.
Elect YANG Siu Shun	Against	There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualification and suitability of nominee YANG Siu Shun. However, as the board of directors does not have sufficient gender diversity, we are voting against all male directors. Consequently, we are opposing this director's election.

Moreover, the fees paid to the auditor are appropriate and are clearly disclosed by the Company. However, the same firm has audited the Company for more than 10 years and the lead auditor's tenure has not been disclosed, which is not in line with policy. Consequently, we are voting against this proposal.
Authority to Issue Shares w/ o Preemptive Rights	Against	In this case, the board will be authorised to potentially issue up to 10% of the Company's current issued share capital without preemptive rights. However, the Company has not provided the maximum discount rate in the Company's disclosures, which is not in line with market best practice. Therefore, we are voting against this proposal.

Accounts and Reports	For	The Company's audited annual and consolidated accounts were available for review in advance of this shareholder meeting. As no evidence has been presented that would question the accuracy of these reports, one should consider this item as routine. Therefore, we are voting for this proposal.
Allocation of Profits/ Dividends	For	A proposed dividend allocation should be comparable to industry peers and should mirror the financial health of the company. In principle, an acceptable pay-out ratio should be above 20 percent and below 100 percent. The company's aggregate pay-out ratio for the fiscal year is in an acceptable range. Given this, we are voting for this proposal.
Appointment of Auditor and Authority to Set Fees	Against	There is no indication of any investigations or pending court cases pertaining to the auditor have been disclosed. Moreover, fees paid to the auditor are appropriate and all necessary information regarding the auditor have been provided in the Company's filings. However, as per market practice: The company does not publish for how long lead auditor has already been in office. Consequently, we are voting against this proposal.
2025 Fixed Assets Investment Budget	For	The proposed budget does not violate policy. Therefore, we are voting for this proposal.
Elect Priscilla WONG Pui Sze	For	There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualification and suitability of nominee Priscilla WONG Pui Sze. Consequently, we are supporting this director's election.
Amendments to Articles	Against	In this case, it is believed that most of the amendments are primarily technical in nature and are intended to update the articles to reflect current regulatory requirements. However, the clauses that enable the Party committee to play the core leadership role and function in the Company are concerning. In this case, the Party committee could be effectively compromising the Company's management and operational control through such provisions, effectively reducing the accountability of the board. Consequently, we are voting against this proposal.

Advisory Vote on Executive Compensation	Against	The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. However, the Company has granted excessive sign-on bonuses. Specifically, Mr. Minaya joined the Company on September 3, 2024. In connection with his offer letter, Mr. Minaya was awarded a total pay package with a value of approximately $28.7 million for the year in review. The buyout awards were made in consideration for the equity and/or other awards from his prior employment that were forfeited upon him joining the Company. While large pay packages are sometimes expected in cases of incentivizing a new executive to commence employment, Mr. Minaya also received sizable awards intended to compensate him for compensation forfeited at his prior employer. Indeed, Mr. Minaya received buyout awards totaling approximately $16.3 million (cash and RSUs). In the Company's most recent proxy statement, while the Company discloses the rationale behind the awards, shareholders are provided with little detail as to the determination of the value. Given the substantial quantum associated with Mr. Minaya's hiring, we believe the Company should have provided shareholders with more information behind the value-setting process of such awards. As this is against policy, we are voting against this proposal.
Ratification of Auditor	Against	There is no indication of any investigations or pending court cases pertaining to the auditor. Moreover, the fees paid to the auditor are appropriate and are clearly disclosed by the Company. Authority to Issue Shares w/ o Preemptive Rights	Against	In this case, the board will be authorised to potentially issue up to 10% of the Company's current issued share capital without preemptive rights, which, if considered cumulatively with authorizations in Proposals 18 and 20, exceeds the limit set by policy. Consequently, we are voting against this proposal.
Authority to Issue Shares w/ o Preemptive Rights (Specified Capital Investment)	Against	In this case, the board will be authorised to potentially issue up to 10% of the Company's current issued share capital without preemptive rights, which, if considered cumulatively with authorizations in Proposals 18 and 19, exceeds the limit set by policy. Consequently, we are voting against this proposal.
Authority to Repurchase Shares	For	At this time, there is no evidence of any past abuse of this type of authority at the company. Consequently, as these authorizations are within the recommended thresholds, we are voting for this proposal.
Authority to Set General Meeting Notice Period at 14 Days	For	A shortened general meeting notice period is permitted by the UK Corporate Governance Code and the EU Shareholders Rights Directive, provided that a company conforms to specific electronic voting and communication requirements, as is the case here. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal.

Shareholder Proposal Regarding Report on Food Waste	For	The Company states that its operations result in little food waste. It states that, in its Costa's UK Company-operated stores, waste data is recorded in detail and monitored against internal goals, as well as that, where possible, surplus food and coffee ground waste is collected and sent to facilities that give waste a second life. Costa also maintains a goal to achieve zero waste to landfill at all of its retail stores in its key markets. Nonetheless, as demands for increased transparency are generally in line with the basic policy requirements, we are voting for this proposal.
Shareholder Proposal Regarding Formation of Improper Influence Committee	Against	It should be noted that the proponent of this proposal is the National Center for Public Policy Research ("NCPPr"). NCPPr has a history of submitting shareholder proposals that, upon first impression, appear consistent with environmental and social proposals that call for information or action on enhancing companies' approaches to environmental and social factors but, upon further review, appear to be designed to inhibit companies' actions in such areas. The NCPPr describes itself as a "communications and research foundation supportive of a strong national defense and dedicated to providing free-market solutions to today's public policy problems" that believes "the principles of a free market, individual liberty and personal responsibility provide the greatest hope for meeting the challenges facing America in the 21st century." A division of the NCPPr, the Free Enterprise Project, routinely engages companies on issues such as healthcare, immigration, gun rights, energy, taxes, religious freedom, media bias, corporate free speech, and ideological diversity, among other issues, often by questioning executives at annual meetings or through the submission of shareholder proposals. This proposal has also been labeled as "Anti-ESG" due to the shareholder proponent. These proponents have generally submitted proposals that address environmental and social issues and their aims are fairly clearly articulated in their supporting statements. Support for this resolution could buoy the proponents arguments and would advance a narrative that may contradict that of investors concerned about companies ESG performance. As a result, we are voting against this proposal.

Shareholder Proposal Regarding Eliminating DEI Goals from Compensation Inducements	Against	It should be noted that the proponent of this proposal is the National Legal and Policy Center ("NLPC"), which has submitted shareholder proposals that, upon first impression, appear to be consistent with environmental and social proposals that call for information or action on enhancing companies' approaches to environmental and social factors but, upon further review, appear to be designed to inhibit companies' actions in such areas. The NLPC describes itself as a 501(c)(3) that "promotes ethics in public life through research, investigation, education, and legal action," and believes "the best way to promote ethics is to reduce the size of government." As part of the corporate integrity project on its website, the NLPC shares its concerns regarding "woke" corporate executives, for instance posting articles about inclusive content "devaluing" the Pixar franchise or about how the NLPC has reported Visa's chair and CEO to the SEC for ongoing "wokeness." The project also examines a supposed pushback against ESG initiatives, featuring pieces such as one describing corporate America's anti-racism programs as racist against white people and another promoting the NLPC's efforts to nominate a fossil-fuel-supporting director candidate to the board of Exxon Mobil Corporation. Generally, the specifics of a compensation plan are best designed by those who sit on the compensation committee, as these directors likely have more and better information than shareholders regarding the Company's strategy and priorities and the appropriate ways to incentivize completion of individual and Company goals. Moreover, shareholders may more appropriately express their dissatisfaction with the construction or design of executive compensation packages through an advisory vote on executive compensation. Finally, this proposal has also been labeled as "Anti-ESG" due to the shareholder proponent. These proponents have generally submitted proposals that address environmental and social issues and their aims are fairly clearly articulated in their supporting statements. Support for this resolution could buoy the proponents arguments and would advance a narrative that may contradict that of investors concerned about companies ESG performance. As a result, we are voting against this proposal.
Shareholder Proposal Regarding Report on Brand Image Impacts	For	The Company currently maintains and discloses its policies regarding human rights, responsible marketing, and public policy and political engagement, in addition to providing board oversight of the Company's public policy risks and agenda, among other related matters. Shareholder Proposal Regarding Report on Risk from Discriminatory Ad Policies	Against	In this case, the proposal requests that the Company conduct an evaluation and issue a report evaluating how it oversees risks related to discrimination against ad buyers and sellers based on their political or religious status or views. The Company's Human Rights Policy prohibits discrimination, and the Company publicly discloses its Responsible Marketing Policy. Moreover, the Company provides board-level oversight of the issues raised by this proposal as the corporate governance and sustainability committee oversees the policies and programs and related risks to the Company that concern certain social, legislative, regulatory, public policy, and corporate governance matters, including public issues of significance which may, in the opinion of the committee, affect the Company's business, its shareholders, the broader stakeholder community, or the public. Overall, the Company provides substantial disclosure on issues related to those raised by the proponent. Moreover, this proposal appears to implicitly attempt to intervene in the Company's advertising strategies, an area of day-to-day management that generally does not fall under the purview of shareholders, and could be considered overreaching. As a result, we are voting against this proposal.

Advisory Vote on Executive Compensation	Against	The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. However: The LTI does not include ESG criteria. The remuneration structure allows for adjusted metrics under the LTI. As this is against policy, we are voting against this proposal.
Approval of the 2025 Stock and Incentive Compensation Plan	For	Remuneration plans should be adequately disclosed and should reward executives for good performance. According to policy, dilution for all compensation plans should be no higher than 10% of share capital. Shareholder Proposal Regarding Report on Plastic Packaging	For	Currently, the Company has taken meaningful actions and provided adequate disclosure with regard to minimizing its plastic footprint, its improvements to the sustainability of its packaging, and its recycling initiatives. Accounts and Reports	For	The Company's audited annual and consolidated accounts were available for review in advance of this shareholder meeting. As no evidence has been presented that would question the accuracy of these reports, one should consider this item as routine. Therefore, we are voting for this proposal.
Remuneration Report	Against	The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. However: The Company has failed to implement a performance based long-term incentive plan, although the share rewards plan does vest subject to underpinnings. The Company's short-term remuneration exceeds the long-term remuneration. The report does not provide transparency on chosen indices, benchmarks or peer-groups. As this is against policy, we are voting against this proposal.

Share Reward Plan	For	Remuneration plans should be adequately disclosed and should reward executives for good performance. According to policy, dilution for all compensation plans should be no higher than 10% of share capital. Given that the company's plan is fully compliant with policy and, in the absence of any evidence of past abuse by the company of this type of authority, we are supporting this proposal.
Deferred Bonus Plan	For	The plan would not represent an additional reward opportunity, but would instead facilitate payment of bonuses in deferred shares, a practice that encourages executives and senior management to be mindful of the potential consequences of their operational and strategic decisions, while also serving to discourage risky or short-sighted strategies. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal.

2024 Business Report and Financial Statements	For	All of the necessary financial statements and reports are disclosed in the Company's meeting materials. It should be noted that in the opinion of the statutory auditors, the Company's independent auditor, the Company's financial statements and business report have been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in Taiwan, 'Regulations Governing the Preparation of Financial Reports by Securities Issuers and International Financial Reporting Standards'. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal.
2024 Profit Distribution Plan	For	A proposed dividend allocation should be comparable to industry peers and should mirror the financial health of the company. In principle, an acceptable pay-out ratio should be above 20 percent and below 100 percent. The company's aggregate pay-out ratio for the fiscal year is in an acceptable range. Given this, we are voting for this proposal.
Amendments to Articles of Incorporation	For	In this case, there is no cause for shareholder concern regarding the proposed amendments. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal.
Release of non-Competition Restrictions	For	Releasing the board of directors from these restrictions, which prohibit board members from conducting any activities that can be considered to be competitive with the business affairs of the Company, may lead to potential conflicts of interest for directors. In this case, the Company proposes to release its director from non-compete obligation with respect to their directorships in Companies in an unrelated industry, wholly-owned subsidiaries, controlled subsidiaries, substantial shareholders and their subsidiaries or joint ventures. There is no indication that participation in the operations of such entities will lead to conflicts of interest for directors. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal.
Extraordinary Motions	Against	In Taiwan, many companies place an item for extraordinary motions on their proxy forms. However, shareholders of Taiwanese companies who vote via proxy technically may not exercise their voting rights preemptively for any extraordinary motions raised at the general meeting of shareholders. Instead, proxies have full authority to exercise their discretion in supporting or opposing any such motions. As granting unfettered discretion is not in line with policy, we are voting against this proposal.

Accounts and Reports; Allocation of Dividends	For	A proposed dividend allocation should be comparable to industry peers and should mirror the financial health of the company. Given this, we are voting for this proposal.
Remuneration Report	Against	There is no indication of any investigations or pending court cases pertaining to current member of the Board of Directors and the Chief Executive Officer at the company. However, several governance and transparency requirements have not been met: Executive remuneration is not disclosed individually. The remuneration structure allows for adjusted metrics. Specifically, adjusted EBITDA under the STI and adjusted EBITDA ratio under the LTI. As this is contrary to policy, we are voting against this proposal.
Remuneration Policy	Against	The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. However: The remuneration structure allows for adjusted metrics. Specifically, adjusted EBITDA under the STI and adjusted EBITDA ratio under the LTI. The report does not provide transparency on chosen indices, benchmarks or peer-groups. The policy allows for one-off awards. Specifically, the governance, nomination and compensation committee is entitled to discretionary powers to deviate from the policy, if the deviation will support the long-term interests and sustainability of the Company and ensure its viability. As this is against policy, we are voting against this proposal.
Ratification of Board Acts	Against	There is no indication of any investigations or pending court cases pertaining to current member of the Board of Directors and the Chief Executive Officer at the company. However, one governance and transparency requirement has not been met: Executive remuneration is not disclosed individually. As this is contrary to policy, we are voting against this proposal.

Here, the Company has provided adequate disclosure of the clause in the agreement in question. In this case, the change in control clause is standard in such an agreement and falls under the normal course of business. As a result, we are voting for this proposal.

Elect Mario Longhi	Against	There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualifications of nominee Mario Longhi. However, it should be noted that the nominee served as the interim president and CEO of the Company from December 2023 to November 2024 and will be continuing as the chair of the board without complying with a cooling off period of 2 years, which is against policy. In this case, given that the nominee's interim tenure exceeded one year, an exemption is not warranted. Consequently, we are opposing this director's election.
Elect David Bingenheimer	For	There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualification and suitability of nominee David Bingenheimer. Consequently, we are supporting this director's election.
Elect M. Shawn Bort	Against	There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualification and suitability of nominee M. Shawn Bort. However, the nominee has already been a non-executive member of the board for more than 15 years, which is against policy. Further, the policy requires the audit committee chair to be independent. Consequently, we are opposing this director's election.
Elect Theodore A. Dosch	For	There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualification and suitability of nominee Theodore A. Dosch. Consequently, we are supporting this director's election.
Elect Tina V. Faraca	For	There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualification and suitability of nominee Tina V. Faraca. Consequently, we are supporting this director's election.
Elect Robert C. Flexon	Against	There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualification and suitability of nominee Robert C. Flexon. However, given the information provided, the candidate holds too many mandates to be in line with policy (CEO - UGI Corporation; Chair - Capstone Green Energy Holdings, Inc.). Consequently, we are opposing this director's election.

Advisory Vote on Executive Compensation	Against	The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. However: The Company has failed to link pay with performance. However, it should be noted that the disconnect is marginal for the year in review and impacted by high CEO pay in fiscal 2023. Moreover, total pay levels have fallen to more appropriate levels compared to the previous year. Severance package payments are not limited to a maximum of two-years' salary. Clawback policy is restatement dependent only. Compensation is not linked to materially significant ESG indicator for the CEO. However, under the STI, a safety metric is included as one of the performance metrics for other executives. Further, it should be noted that the LTI does not include any ESG criteria. Less than at least 2 KPIs are used as performance STI criteria for the CEO, with awards based solely on adjusted EPS. The board can grant discretionary bonuses. Specifically, J.A. Zagorski and R. Perreault received severance payments in the form of cash, valued at $1,651,299 and $5,057,800, respectively, which may be considered excessive. Further, interim president and CEO M. Longhi received an award comprised of RSUs, valued at $2,500,000, in addition to a discretionary cash award valued at $204,615, in recognition of his achievement of pre-established performance objectives. In this case, it is unclear if this was part of an established STIP for him alone as the Company states that his annual bonus is meant to be based on adjusted EPS, subject to board discretion only. The remuneration structure allows for adjusted metrics. As this is not entirely in line with policy, we are voting against this proposal.
Ratification of Auditor	For	There is no indication of any investigations or pending court cases pertaining to the auditor. Moreover, the fees paid to the auditor are appropriate and are clearly disclosed by the Company. However, the same firm has audited the Company for more than 10 years, which is not in line with policy. Moreover, as per US market practice, the lead auditor's name and tenure has not been disclosed in the company's proxy materials or annual report. However, it should be noted that KPMG has been selected to replace Ernst & Young as the Company's auditor for the coming year. Rotating auditors is an important safeguard against the relationship between the auditor and the Company becoming too close, resulting in a lack of oversight due to complacency or conflicts of interest. As such, we are voting for this proposal.

Appointment of Auditor (Ernst & Young)	For	There is no indication of any investigations or pending court cases pertaining to the auditor have been disclosed. Moreover, fees paid to the auditor are appropriate and all necessary information regarding the auditor have been provided in the Company's filings. Therefore, we are voting for this proposal.
Authority to Repurchase and Reissue Shares	Against	At this time, there is no evidence of any past abuse of this type of authority at the company. However, the maximum price has been disclosed in monetary value only, instead of 10% premium or discount of market price. As this is against policy, we are voting against this proposal.
Authority to Cancel Shares and Reduce Capital	For	This is a routine request in France. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal.
Authority to Increase Capital Through Capitalisations	For	The successive or simultaneous capitalisation of reserves, retained earnings or additional paid-in capital would benefit shareholders by allowing the Company to increase paid-in capital through a series of alternatives, above and beyond the issuance of shares. Moreover, when companies capitalize reserves, retained earnings or paid-in capital, there is no risk of dilution. This procedure merely transfers wealth to shareholders and does not impact share value. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal.
Authority to Issue Shares and Convertible Debt w/ Preemptive Rights	Against	In this case, the board will be authorised to potentially issue up to 49.1% of the Company's current issued share capital with preemptive rights. As this exceeds the limit set by policy, we are voting against this proposal.
Authority to Issue Shares and Convertible Debt w/o Preemptive Rights	Against	In this case, the board will be authorised to potentially issue up to 9.8% of the Company's current issued share capital without preemptive rights, subject to a cumulative limit of 49.1% for all share issuances. Remuneration Policy	Against	The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. However: Fixed salary increased by more than 10% within one year without a valid reason. Specifically, there are concerns with the repeated increases in base salary for the CEO, set at €3.6 million in FY2024 and increased by +15% effective on January 1, 2025, with a compounding effect on the total maximum remuneration (equal to €13 million in FY2024 - due to a €2.2 million one-off bonus - and €16.4 under the 2025 remuneration policy). The board can grant discretionary bonuses. The remuneration structure allows for adjusted awards. Specifically, the Company may derogate from the elements of the remuneration policy (please refer to pp. 47-48 of the 2025 Group Remuneration Policy and Report for further details of the specific cases of application). The board disclosed that derogation may be applied to: (i) variable remuneration structure and pay-mix, (ii) reference to peer group, (iii) the economic parameters of the Group Incentive System and the Group Long-Term Incentive Plan. Further, under the 2025 Group Incentive System, the board can apply unlimited downward discretion and upward discretion limited to +20% to the bonus pool, based on specific criteria. In addition to that, an adjustment mechanism is envisaged for the plan scorecard: the overperformance of a single KPI beyond the upper threshold can be used - calculated in points as a linear continuum at the same interval of each KPI with a maximum limit of 140 points - to compensate only those KPIs that reach at least their minimum threshold level, always within the maximum of 120 points of the overall scorecard. As this is against policy, we are voting against this proposal.

Remuneration Report	Against	The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. However: Fixed salary increased by more than 10% within one year without a valid reason. Specifically, the CEO received a salary increase of 10.8% in FY2024, resulting in a base salary equal to €3,600,000. As a consequence of the review of fixed pay elements and the payment of the €2.2 million one-off bonus, the CEO's total maximum remuneration for FY2024 was €13 million (instead of €10.8 million as previously set under the 2024 Policy). There is concerns on the significant quantum of the CEO's remuneration, which far exceeded the compensation given to chief executives at European banks and companies listed on the FTSE MIB Index (on average €1.8 million and €1.3 million, respectively). There are also concerns with the board's decision to pay a one-off award in addition to the 10.8% salary increase approved under the 2024 policy to compensate the CEO (and the rest of the affected population) for the share price methodology revision effects. As this is not entirely in line with policy, we are voting against this proposal.
2025 Group Incentive System	Against	Please refer to Proposal 0800 for further details of the plan. Remuneration plans should be adequately disclosed and should reward executives for good performance. According to policy, dilution for all compensation plans should be no higher than 10% of share capital. While the proposed dilution is within the policy limits, the Company states that this proposal is also in line with the 2025 Group Incentive Plan, which we opposed. Consequently, we are voting against this proposal.

Merger/Acquisition (Public Exchange Offer for Banco BPM S.p.A.)	For	For more in-depth information regarding this proposal, please refer to the attached report. If shareholders approve this proposal, and assuming there are no changes to the current share structure of Banco BPM and no misalignment in the relevant dividend payments, the Company's board would theoretically have the discretion and additional capacity to increase the UniCredit-BPM Offer Exchange Ratio by up to approximately 4.5%. However, given that the Company's stated rationale for the higher share authorization was related to dividend misalignment, rather than to facilitate a higher offer, utilizing this additional capacity to increase the stock exchange ratio could raise corporate governance concerns, as the Company's shareholders could argue that they were misled regarding how the intended use of the additional authorized shares. Considering the foregoing, it is more likely that any further increases in the consideration offered under the UniCredit-BPM Offer would rely on one or more of the following alternatives: (i) the general authority previously approved by the Company's shareholders; (ii) new additional share issuance authority requiring further shareholder approval; or (iii) the introduction of a cash component to supplement the offer. However, to be clear, the Company has not publicly indicated any intention to modify its offer at this time. As this proposed public exchange offer does not violate policy, we are voting for this proposal.

Share Consolidation	For	Recognising the potential impact of the Demerger, if it completes, it appears in the best interest of the Company to have the flexibility to reduce the number of shares outstanding and thereby attempt to proportionally raise the per share price of the Company's ordinary shares on a post-Demerger basis. Further, the share consolidation will have no substantive economic effect on shareholders, whose ownership percentage in the Company will remain unchanged. As a result, we are voting for this proposal.
Amendments to Articles (Share Consolidation)	For	Following the analysis in Proposal 1, we are voting for this connected proposal.

As no evidence has been presented that would question the accuracy of these reports, one should consider this item as routine. Therefore, we are voting for this proposal.
Allocation of Dividends	For	A proposed dividend allocation should be comparable to industry peers and should mirror the financial health of the company. In principle, an acceptable pay-out ratio should be above 20 percent and below 100 percent. The company's aggregate pay-out ratio for the fiscal year is in an acceptable range. Given this, we are voting for this proposal.
Board Size	For	There are no indications of any controversy regarding the board size at this company. This proposal does not violate policy. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal.
List Presented by Shareholders' Agreement	Not voted	The nominees on the list presented by group of Institutional Investors representing 1.17% of share capital bring an appropriate level of experience and diversity of expertise to the board. Consequently, we are voting: DO NOT VOTE: List presented by Shareholders' Agreement
List Presented by Group of Institutional Investors Representing 1.17% of Share Capital	For	The nominees on the list presented by group of Institutional Investors representing 1.17% of share capital bring an appropriate level of experience and diversity of expertise to the board. Consequently, we are voting: FOR: List presented by group of Institutional Investors representing 1.17% of share capital
Directors' Fees	For	The proposed fees are reasonable and in line with those paid by the Company's peers. Therefore, we are voting for this proposal.
Shareholder Proposal Regarding Authorisation of Competing Activities	Against	Pursuant to the Italian Civil Code, a director is required to disclose to the other directors and to the board of statutory auditors any interest that, personally or on behalf of third parties, he or she has in a specific transaction of the board. In such a case, the board resolution must state the reasons why the transaction is in the company's best interest. Further, a director is liable for damages suffered by the company as a result of his or her personal interest in a transaction. While Italian law provides for some measures to protect the Company and its shareholders from abuses, it is not in the shareholders' best interest to grant directors the right to potentially enter into a situation that can be considered a conflict of interest. As a result, we are voting against this proposal.

Remuneration Policy	Against	The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. However: The Company has failed to implement sufficient executive stock ownership guidelines. In this case, all the shares awarded under the variable incentive plan must be held until the end of the mandate. The Company's policy on severance payments fails to comply with European best practices. Specifically, the Company do not have any severance agreements in place with its executives, and indemnities - if negotiated at the time of termination - were capped at three years of total pay for employees with a tenure over or equal to 10 years, in addition to the indemnity in lieu of notice foreseen by national collective bargaining agreements. While acknowledging that Italian companies often maintain discretion to adjust elements of the variable remuneration, there are serious concerns by the application of derogation to policy due to the merger of UnipolSai and other subsidiaries within the Company, which resulted - among other adjustments - in the payment of €46 million termination indemnity to the Company's non-executive chair, while still remaining on the board. The payout limits under the short- and long-term incentive components for the CEO increased by 14.2%, to 80% and 120% of salary, respectively (previously 70% and 105% of base salary) with no justification given. As this is against policy, we are voting against this proposal.

Demerger Plan of Cronos Vita Assicurazioni S.p.A.	For	The transaction is a part of a rescue operation of Eurovita, and is aimed at fulfilling the commitments assumed by Cronos and the Beneficiaries in the arrangement. The Company states that the proposed de-merger as a method for carrying out the division of the portfolio acquired represents the most efficient solution from an operational perspective, and is most suitable to ensure continuity of relations with policyholders and the banks involved. The valuation of the units to be allocated among the participants will be conducted based on the value of the excess of own funds over SCR methodology. The total excess of own funds over SCR value of all units was estimated at €79.3 million. Unipol holds 22.5% of the share capital of Cronos, and, accordingly, will be allocated a unit with the value of €17.9 million. The value of the own funds in the Company's unit is estimated at $85.2 million, representing approximately 24.0% of the value of own funds of all units. Cronos and the Beneficiaries received a fairness opinion from an independent advisor, Wepartner S.A. who concluded, based on its dividend discount analysis, that the relevant values of the units resulting from the demerger, compared with the relative allocation of the own funds, are consistent from an economic-financial point of view. In addition, a report on the fairness of the value of exchange was issued by Forvis Mazars S.p.A., a common expert appointed by the Court of Milan, who concluded that the valuation methodology adopted is adequate and reasonable, and has been correctly applied to determine the exchange value. As this does not violate policy and appears to be in the best interest of shareholders, we are voting for this proposal.

Resolution on the appropriation of net income for the 2024 financial year	For	"United Internet's dividend policy provides for the distribution of approximately 20 - 40% of the adjusted consolidated income after minority shares (the adjusted consolidated income attributable to the "shareholders of United Internet AG" - in accordance with the consolidated income statement) to shareholders, provided that the funds are not needed for the further development of the company. (...) For the 2024 financial year, the Management Board of United Internet AG proposes to the Supervisory Board a regular dividend of €0.40 per share (previous year: €0.50). A one-off catch-up dividend of €1.50 per share is to be added to compensate for the reduced dividend payments for the financial years 2018 to 2023. In recent years, United Internet assumed that the group subsidiary 1&1 could acquire additional radio spectrum by 2025 at the latest. If additional financial resources were needed, United Internet would have been required as a major 1&1 shareholder. Following a decision taken by the Federal Network Agency on 24 March 2025, the frequency acquisition has now been postponed for several years. By then, 1&1 is expected to be able to finance the acquisition of additional spectrum on its own, in addition to the investments of network expansion. (...) Based on approximately 172.8 million shares eligible for dividend (as at: 31 December 2024), the regular dividend for the 2024 financial year would result in a distribution sum of €69.1 million. The distribution ratio would therefore be 39.4% of the adjusted consolidated income in 2024 after minority shares (€175.5 million) and thus - despite the investments made and still pending in the 1&1 mobile network and the expansion of the fibre optic network - at the top of the dividend policy. "(Cf. 2024 AR, p.72 et seq.) The dividend should be reasonable and reflect the company's financial position. The dividend policy will also be justified. Since the motion complies with the guidelines, this proposal of the administration may be viewed uncritically. We are therefore voting in favour of the motion.

Resolution on election to the Supervisory Board: Philip von Bismarck	Against	The company does not have a Remuneration Committee or a Nomination Committee, which is not fully in line with the guidelines and should be viewed critically, particularly in the event of re-election of the Chairman of the Supervisory Board. There are therefore concerns in this case about the number of board memberships. According to the guidelines, a Supervisory Board member not in an executive position should not sit on more than five boards in total. This member of the Supervisory Board sits on six boards, which is contrary to the guidelines. The election of Philipp von Bismarck should therefore be viewed critically. Resolution on the approval of the remuneration report for the 2024 financial year prepared and audited in accordance with Section 162 of the German Stock Corporation Act (AktG)	Against	The remuneration system was last voted on in 2023 and achieved an approval rate of 71.94%. The remuneration report was last voted on in 2024 and achieved an approval rate of 81.75%. However, there are some weaknesses in the system, which is why the report on the system cannot be compliant with the guidelines either: No share ownership guidelines LTI does not show multiple performance criteria (single metric, only price-linked) No ESG in the LTI SARs can be paid out in cash or in shares at its discretion Overall, the motion should be viewed very critically. Resolution on the approval of the remuneration system for the members of the Management Board	Against	The remuneration system was last voted on in 2023 and achieved an approval rate of 71.94%. The remuneration system has been partially revised but is essentially very similar to the previous system. No fundamental changes are visible in the new system and therefore the following weaknesses remain: No share ownership guidelines No multiple performance criteria are visible in the LTI (single metric, only price-linked) No ESG in the LTI SARs can be paid out in cash or in shares at their discretion Overall, the motion should therefore be viewed very critically. Advisory Vote on Executive Compensation	Against	The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. However: Compensation is not linked to materially significant ESG indicator. The clawback policy is restatement-dependent only. The remuneration structure allows for adjusted awards. As this is against policy, we are voting against this proposal.
Ratification of Auditor	Against	There is no indication of any investigations or pending court cases pertaining to the auditor. Moreover, the fees paid to the auditor are appropriate and are clearly disclosed by the Company. However, the same firm has audited the Company for more than 10 years, which is not in line with policy. Moreover, as per US market practice, the lead auditor's name and tenure has not been disclosed in the company's proxy materials or annual report. Consequently, we are voting against this proposal.
Shareholder Proposal Regarding Recapitalization	For	Allowing one vote per share is in line with policy and generally operates as a safeguard for common shareholders by ensuring that those who hold a significant minority of shares are able to weigh in on issues set forth by the board, especially in regard to the director election process. Therefore, we are supporting this proposal.

Shareholder Proposal Regarding Report on Carbon Reduction Commitments	Against	It should be noted that the proponent of this proposal is the National Center for Public Policy Research ("NCPPR"). NCPPR has a history of submitting shareholder proposals that, upon first impression, appear consistent with environmental and social proposals that call for information or action on enhancing companies' approaches to environmental and social factors but, upon further review, appear to be designed to inhibit companies' actions in such areas. The NCPPR describes itself as a "communications and research foundation supportive of a strong national defense and dedicated to providing free-market solutions to today's public policy problems" that believes "the principles of a free market, individual liberty and personal responsibility provide the greatest hope for meeting the challenges facing America in the 21st century." A division of the NCPPR, the Free Enterprise Project, routinely engages companies on issues such as healthcare, immigration, gun rights, energy, taxes, religious freedom, media bias, corporate free speech, and ideological diversity, among other issues, often by questioning executives at annual meetings or through the submission of shareholder proposals. This proposal has also been labeled as "Anti-ESG" due to the shareholder proponent. These proponents have generally submitted proposals that address environmental and social issues and their aims are fairly clearly articulated in their supporting statements. Support for this resolution could buoy the proponents arguments and would advance a narrative that may contradict that of investors concerned about companies ESG performance. As a result, we are voting against this proposal.

Elect Christopher Causey	Against	There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualification and suitability of nominee Christopher Causey. However, the Company's Human Rights Policy does not align with UDHR or ILO, which is not in line with policy. As such, we are holding this nominee, as the chair of the ESG committee, accountable for this issue. Further, the nominee has already been a non-executive member of the board for more than 15 years, which is against policy. In addition, as the board of directors, audit committee and nominating and corporate governance committee do not comprise an adequate number of independent members, we are voting against all insider and affiliated directors. Consequently, we are opposing this director's election.

Advisory Vote on Executive Compensation	Against	The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. However: Severance package payments are not limited to a maximum of two-years' salary. Clawback policy is restatement dependent only. Compensation is not linked to materially significant ESG indicator. As this is against policy, we are voting against this proposal.
Amendment to the 2015 Stock Incentive Plan	For	Remuneration plans should be adequately disclosed and should reward executives for good performance. According to policy, dilution for all compensation plans should be no higher than 10% of share capital. Given that the company's plan is fully compliant with policy and, in the absence of any evidence of past abuse by the company of this type of authority, we are supporting this proposal.
Ratification of Auditor	Against	There is no indication of any investigations or pending court cases pertaining to the auditor. Moreover, the fees paid to the auditor are appropriate and are clearly disclosed by the Company. However, the same firm has audited the Company for more than 10 years, which is not in line with policy. Moreover, the lead auditor's name and tenure has not been disclosed in the company's proxy materials or annual report. Consequently, we are voting against this proposal.

Elect Maria R. Singer	Withhold	The Company maintains a multi-class share structure with unequal voting rights and has not provided for a reasonable time-based sunset of the multi-class share structure (generally seven years or less). Multi-class voting structures are not in line with policy. It is believed that it is the responsibility of the chair of the nominating and corporate governance committee to ensure that the economic stake of each shareholder matches their voting power and that no small group of shareholders, family or otherwise, has voting rights different from those of other shareholders. As the chair of the corporate governance and nomination committee is not up for election, this director as a member of this committee should bear responsibility for not sufficiently addressing this issue. Moreover, the Company has not provided explicit disclosure concerning the board's role in overseeing environmental and social risk. The Company's Human Rights Policy also does not align with UDHR or ILO, which is not in line with policy. As such, we are voting against the re-election Maria R. Singer as the most tenured member of the corporate governance and nomination committee
Ratification of Auditor	Against	There is no indication of any investigations or pending court cases pertaining to the auditor. Moreover, the fees paid to the auditor are appropriate and are clearly disclosed by the Company. However, the same firm has audited the Company for more than 10 years, which is not in line with policy. Moreover, as per US market practice, the lead auditor's name and tenure has not been disclosed in the company's proxy materials or annual report. Consequently, we are voting against this proposal.
Shareholder Proposal Regarding Board Declassification	For	In this case, the proposed change seems beneficial for shareholders. Empirical evidence has shown that classified boards may reduce the firm's value and the annual election of directors provides maximum accountability of directors to shareholders. An increasing number of major corporations have adopted a declassified board structure the ability to withhold votes from or vote against directors is a powerful mechanism through which shareholders may express dissatisfaction with company or director performance. As a result, we are voting for this proposal.

Advisory Vote on Executive Compensation	Against	The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. However: Though the Company does provide a list of metrics that they consider for determining payouts, the short-term incentives are largely discretionary, and the compensation committee retains a significant degree of discretion over the final payouts under the plan. The LTI does not include ESG criteria. The remuneration structure allows for adjusted metrics. Specifically, adjusted EPS under the LTIP. The board can grant discretionary bonuses. As this is not entirely in line with policy, we are voting against this proposal.

Shareholder Proposal Regarding Report on Benefits and Health Program Gaps	Against	It should be noted that the proponent of this proposal is the National Legal and Policy Center ("NLPC"), which has submitted shareholder proposals that, upon first impression, appear to be consistent with environmental and social proposals that call for information or action on enhancing companies' approaches to environmental and social factors but, upon further review, appear to be designed to inhibit companies' actions in such areas. The NLPC describes itself as a 501(c)(3) that "promotes ethics in public life through research, investigation, education, and legal action," and believes "the best way to promote ethics is to reduce the size of government." As part of the corporate integrity project on its website, the NLPC shares its concerns regarding "woke" corporate executives, for instance posting articles about inclusive content "devaluing" the Pixar franchise or about how the NLPC has reported Visa's chair and CEO to the SEC for ongoing "wokeness." The project also examines a supposed pushback against ESG initiatives, featuring pieces such as one describing corporate America's anti-racism programs as racist against white people and another promoting the NLPC's efforts to nominate a fossil-fuel-supporting director candidate to the board of Exxon Mobil Corporation. This proposal has been labeled as "Anti-ESG" due to the shareholder proponent. These proponents have generally submitted proposals that address environmental and social issues and their aims are fairly clearly articulated in their supporting statements. Support for this resolution could buoy the proponents arguments and would advance a narrative that may contradict that of investors concerned about companies ESG performance. Moreover, it appears the Company provides sufficient information to allow shareholders to understand any risks associated with its employee health benefits. As a result, we are voting against this proposal.

Shareholder Proposal Regarding Report on Oversight of Merchant Category Codes	Against	It should be noted that the proponent of this proposal is the National Center for Public Policy Research ("NCPPR"). NCPPR has a history of submitting shareholder proposals that, upon first impression, appear consistent with environmental and social proposals that call for information or action on enhancing companies' approaches to environmental and social factors but, upon further review, appear to be designed to inhibit companies' actions in such areas. The NCPPR describes itself as a "communications and research foundation supportive of a strong national defense and dedicated to providing free-market solutions to today's public policy problems" that believes "the principles of a free market, individual liberty and personal responsibility provide the greatest hope for meeting the challenges facing America in the 21st century." A division of the NCPPR, the Free Enterprise Project, routinely engages companies on issues such as healthcare, immigration, gun rights, energy, taxes, religious freedom, media bias, corporate free speech, and ideological diversity, among other issues, often by questioning executives at annual meetings or through the submission of shareholder proposals. This proposal has been labeled as "Anti-ESG" due to the shareholder proponent. These proponents have generally submitted proposals that address environmental and social issues and their aims are fairly clearly articulated in their supporting statements. Support for this resolution could buoy the proponents arguments and would advance a narrative that may contradict that of investors concerned about companies ESG performance. Moreover, the Company appears to have provided a reasonable explanation concerning its position on merchant category codes for gun and ammunition stores. As a result, we are voting against this proposal.
Shareholder Proposal Regarding Mandatory Director Resignation Policy	For	The proposed resignation bylaw would establish a straightforward process for effectuating the election outcome determined by shareholders. Adoption of the proposed resignation bylaw is in line with policy and could benefit shareholders by promoting board accountability and ensuring responsiveness to shareholder concerns. Therefore, we are voting for this proposal.

Shareholder Proposal Regarding Lobbying Report	For	It should be noted that the Company provides disclosure of its direct and indirect political contributions, including an annually updated, itemized list of U.S. trade associations of which it is a member whose annual membership dues were $25,000 or higher, regardless of whether any portion of those dues was used for political purposes. It also states that no trade association reported that any of its dues were used for political expenditures in 2023, but adds that it will disclose the portion of trade association dues used for political contributions, if applicable. Nevertheless, requests for increased transparency around a company's lobbying activities are in line with policy. Therefore, we are voting for this proposal.

Authority to Increase Capital Through Capitalisations	For	The successive or simultaneous capitalisation of reserves, retained earnings or additional paid-in capital would benefit shareholders by allowing the Company to increase paid-in capital through a series of alternatives, above and beyond the issuance of shares. Moreover, when companies capitalize reserves, retained earnings or paid-in capital, there is no risk of dilution. This procedure merely transfers wealth to shareholders and does not impact share value. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal.
Authority to Increase Capital in Consideration for Contributions In Kind	Against	In this case, the board will be authorised to potentially issue up to 9.4% of the Company's current issued share capital without preemptive rights, subject to a cumulative limit of 40.1% for all share issuances. As this exceeds the cumulative limit for all share issuances set by policy, we are voting against this proposal.

Remuneration Report	Against	The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. However: The Company has failed to implement executive stock ownership guidelines. The Company's short-term remuneration exceeds the long-term remuneration. The board can grant discretionary bonuses. Specifically, the outgoing EVP Construction Sweden received an exceptional award amounting to NOK 600,000 in the past fiscal year based on an overall assessment. As this is against policy, we are voting against this proposal.
Authority to Set Auditor's Fees	For	The fees paid to the auditor are appropriate and are clearly disclosed by the Company. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal.
Authority to Issue Shares w/ or w/o Preemptive Rights (Acquisitions)	Against	In this case, the board will be authorised to potentially issue up to 10% of the Company's current issued share capital with or without preemptive rights, which, if considered cumulatively with the authorization in Proposal 14 exceeds the limit set by policy. Allocation of Profits/ Dividends	Against	A proposed dividend allocation should be comparable to industry peers and should mirror the financial health of the company. In principle, an acceptable pay-out ratio should be above 20 percent and below 100 percent. Remuneration Report	Against	The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. Notice of Meeting; Agenda	For	This resolution is a routine formality in this market.
Minutes	For	This resolution is a routine formality in this market.
Removal of Dual Class Structure	For	Multi-class share structures with unequal voting rights are typically not in the best interests of common shareholders. Allowing one vote per share generally operates as a safeguard for common shareholders by ensuring that those who hold a significant minority of shares are able to weigh in on issues set forth by the board. In this case, the proposal is part of the requirement of a previous corporate transaction, and is in line with the European best practice as discussed above. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal.
Authority to Issue Shares w/ or w/o Preemptive Rights (Rights Issue)	For	In this case, the board will be authorised to issue up to 2.74% of the Company's current issued share capital with or without preemptive rights, which is in line with policy. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal.

Additionally, the nominee has already been a non-executive member of the board for more than 15 years, which is against policy. Consequently, we are opposing this director's election.
Elect Thomas F. Frist III	Against	As the board of directors, the compensation committee and the nominating and corporate governance committee do not comprise an adequate number of independent members, we are voting against all insider and affiliated directors. Additionally, policy requires the compensation committee chair to be independent. Consequently, we are opposing the election of non-independent nominee Thomas F. Frist III.

However, as the board of directors and audit committee do not comprise an adequate number of independent members, we are voting against all insider and affiliated directors. Additionally, the nominee has already been a non-executive member of the board for more than 15 years, which is against policy. Further, policy requires the audit committee chair to be independent. Advisory Vote on Executive Compensation	Against	The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. However: Severance package payments are not limited to a maximum of two-years' salary. Clawback policy is restatement dependent only. Compensation is not linked to materially significant ESG indicator. As this is against policy, we are voting against this proposal.
Amendment to Certificate of Incorporation to Limit the Liability of Certain Officers	Against	The proposed amendment essentially removes liability for an officer's breach of his or her duty of care. Such protections are counter to the interests of shareholders and not in line with policy. Therefore, we are voting against this proposal.
Shareholder Proposal Regarding Right to Act by Written Consent	Against	In this case, the proposal specifies that shareholders entitled to cast the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize the action at a meeting at which all shareholders entitled to vote were present and voting must support the requested action, generally a majority of outstanding shares or higher, thus ensuring broad shareholder support. However, given the Company's existing shareholder rights, which include proxy access, annual elections and a 10% threshold for calling a special meeting, adoption of this proposal is not entirely in line with policy. Therefore, we are voting against this proposal.

Advisory Vote on Executive Compensation	Against	The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. However: Severance package payments are not limited to a maximum of two-years' salary. The LTI does not include ESG criteria. Fixed salary increased by more than 10% within one year without a valid reason. Specifically, Anthony Skiadas 's base salary increased by more than 20% during the past fiscal year due to competitive positioning. The remuneration structure allows for adjusted metrics. As this is against policy, we are voting against this proposal.

Proposals requesting increased transparency regarding how a company's lobbying activities are in line climate targets and commitments are in line with policy. Consequently, we are supporting this proposal.
Shareholder Proposal Regarding Independent Report on Potential Liabilities of Lead-Sheathed Cables	For	In this case, it should be noted that the Company has already commissioned and published the results of an independent, third-party investigation of the sites mentioned by The Wall Street Journal report. Further, as the Company explains in its response, lead-sheathed infrastructure makes up a small percentage of the Company's network, and it has reviewed its network architecture to determine where lead-sheathed cables remain. In addition, the Company has been working with the EPA and state environmental agencies to address the situation, and it is continuing to work with those agencies to determine next steps regarding its lead-sheathed cable infrastructure. Moreover, all of these actions are being taken at the direction of and with the close oversight of the board. Nonetheless, as demands for increased transparency are generally in line with the basic policy requirements, we are voting for this proposal.

Shareholder Proposal Regarding Report on Risk from Discriminatory Ad Policies	Against	In this case, the proposal requests that the Company conduct an evaluation and issue a report evaluating how it oversees risks related to discrimination against ad buyers and sellers based on their political or religious status or views. As discussed above, the Company's Code of Conduct prohibits discrimination, the Company publicly discloses its advertising content guidelines, and it maintains an advertising review group that examines advertising for compliance with the Company's guidelines. Overall, the Company provides meaningful disclosure on issues related to those raised by the proponent. Moreover, this proposal appears to implicitly attempt to intervene in the Company's advertising strategies, an area of day-to-day management that generally does not fall under the purview of shareholders, and could be considered overreaching. As a result, we are voting against this proposal.

Ratification of Auditor	For	There is no indication of any investigations or pending court cases pertaining to the auditor. Moreover, the fees paid to the auditor are appropriate and are clearly disclosed by the Company. However, the same firm has audited the Company for more than 10 years, which is not in line with policy. Elect Robert Sumas	Withhold	As the board of directors and compensation committee do not comprise an adequate number of independent members, we are voting against all insider and affiliated directors. Elect Nicholas Sumas	Withhold	As the board of directors does not comprise an adequate number of independent members, we are voting against all insider and affiliated directors. In addition, the Company has failed to disclose the board oversight of ESG, and the company does not have a human rights policy and therefore cannot be considered aligned with UDHR/ILO, which is not in line with policy. As such, we are holding this director, as the board chair, accountable for this issue. Further, as the board of directors does not have sufficient gender diversity, we are voting against all male directors. Consequently, we are opposing the election of nominee Nicholas Sumas.

Elect Steven Crystal	Withhold	As the board of directors, audit committee, and compensation committee do not comprise an adequate number of independent members, we are voting against all insider and affiliated directors. In addition, as the board of directors does not have sufficient gender diversity, we are voting against all male directors. Further, the nominee has already been a non-executive member of the board for more than 15 years, which is against policy. Lastly, the Company maintains a multi-class share structure with unequal voting rights and has not provided for a reasonable time-based sunset of the multi-class share structure (generally seven years or less). Multi-class voting structures are not in line with policy. It is believed that it is the responsibility of the chair of the nominating and corporate governance committee to ensure that the economic stake of each shareholder matches their voting power and that no small group of shareholders, family or otherwise, has voting rights different from those of other shareholders. Since the board has not established such a committee, the most senior non-executive member of the board should bear responsibility for not sufficiently addressing this issue. Consequently, we are opposing the election of nominee Steven Crystal.

As no evidence has been presented that would question the accuracy of these reports, one should consider this item as routine. Further, as for the approval of non tax-deductible expenses, this is a routine matter that will not have a negative effect on the Company's shareholders. Regarding the ratification of board acts, there is no indication of any investigations or pending court cases pertaining to current members of the board of directors. However, the following governance and transparency requirements have not been met: The board of directors is not sufficiently independent. The audit committee is not sufficiently independent. The audit committee chair is not independent. As this is contrary to policy, we are voting against this proposal.

As no evidence has been presented that would question the accuracy of these reports, one should consider this item as routine. Therefore, we are voting for this proposal.
Allocation of Profits/ Dividends	Against	A proposed dividend allocation should be comparable to industry peers and should mirror the financial health of the company. In principle, an acceptable pay-out ratio should be above 20 percent and below 100 percent. The Company has proposed a dividend pay-out below 20 percent for the second year despite the reported net profit. As this is against policy, we are voting against this proposal.
Special Auditors Report on Regulated Agreements	For	The audit report states that there are no new agreements of this type to be submitted for shareholder approval. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal.

The board can grant discretionary bonuses. Specifically, Marc Bistuer received an exceptional remuneration of €22,000 in light of the additional responsibilities entrusted to him during the year following the resignation of Sébastien Huron. As this is against policy, we are voting against this proposal.

2024 Remuneration of Sébastien Huron, CEO (Until September 27, 2024)	Against	The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. However: The remuneration report lacks bonus-malus and/or any recovery provisions. The LTI does not include ESG criteria. There was significant shareholder dissent demonstrated by minority shareholders towards the executives' remuneration policies at last year's annual general meeting and it appears that the Company has not disclosed any actions taken to identify or address shareholder concerns. The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. However: The proposed remuneration policy lacks bonus-malus and/or any recovery provisions. The board can grant discretionary bonuses. In this case, executives may receive a one-off bonus of up to 150% of base salary. Fixed salary increased by more than 10% within one year without a valid reason. Specifically, the Company is increasing the CEO's base salary by 11% from €680,400 to €755,400 following the upcoming AGM. However, it is worth noting that the Company pointed out that the CEO's remuneration policy has remained unchanged since 2022. Further, the Company disclosed that "Sophie Zurquiyah will take on the additional responsibilities of the Chairperson of the Board of Directors until the end of her mandate as Director, i.e. until the Ordinary General Meeting called to approve the financial statements for the financial year ending on December 31, 2025." (2024 Annual Report, p. 186). As this is against policy, we are voting against this proposal.

2025 Remuneration Policy (Chair and CEO, From April 30, 2025)	Against	The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. However: The proposed remuneration policy lacks bonus-malus and/or any recovery provisions. The board can grant discretionary bonuses. In this case, executives may receive a one-off bonus of up to 150% of base salary. Fixed salary increased by more than 10% within one year without a valid reason. Specifically, the Company is increasing the CEO's base salary by 11% from €680,400 to €755,400 following the upcoming AGM. However, it is worth noting that the Company pointed out that the CEO's remuneration policy has remained unchanged since 2022. Authority to Repurchase and Reissue Shares	Against	At this time, there is no evidence of any past abuse of this type of authority at the company. However, the maximum price has been disclosed in monetary value only, instead of 10% premium or discount of market price. As this is against policy, we are voting against this proposal.
Authority to Cancel Shares and Reduce Capital	For	This is a routine request in France. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal.
Authority to Increase Capital Through Capitalisations	For	The successive or simultaneous capitalisation of reserves, retained earnings or additional paid-in capital would benefit shareholders by allowing the Company to increase paid-in capital through a series of alternatives, above and beyond the issuance of shares. Moreover, when companies capitalize reserves, retained earnings or paid-in capital, there is no risk of dilution. This procedure merely transfers wealth to shareholders and does not impact share value. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal.
Authority to Issue Shares and Convertible Debt w/ Preemptive Rights	Against	In this case, the board will be authorised to potentially issue up to 50% of the Company's current issued share capital with preemptive rights. As this exceeds the limit set by policy, we are voting against this proposal.
Authority to Issue Shares and Convertible Debt w/o Preemptive Rights and to Increase Capital In Case of Exchange Offer	Against	In this case, the board will be authorised to potentially issue up to 10% of the Company's current issued share capital without preemptive rights, subject to a cumulative limit of 50% for all share issuances. As the global ceiling exceeds the cumulative limit for all share issuances set by policy, we are voting against this proposal.

Authority to Issue Shares and Convertible Debt Through Private Placement	Against	In this case, the board will be authorised to potentially issue up to 10% of the Company's current issued share capital without preemptive rights, subject to a cumulative limit of 50% for all share issuances. As the global ceiling exceeds the cumulative limit for all share issuances set by policy, we are voting against this proposal.
Greenshoe	Against	This authority grants the Company the flexibility to increase an over-subscribed issuance by up to 15%, so long as such increase takes place on the same terms and within thirty days of the initial issuance. In this case, the proposed greenshoe is subject to a cumulative limit of 50% of share capital for all share issuances, which exceeds the cumulative limit set by policy. Consequently, we are voting against this proposal.
Authority to Increase Capital in Consideration for Contributions In Kind	Against	In this case, the board will be authorised to potentially issue up to 10% of the Company's current issued share capital without preemptive rights, subject to a cumulative limit of 50% for all share issuances. As the global ceiling exceeds the cumulative limit for all share issuances set by policy, we are voting against this proposal.
Employee Stock Purchase Plan	For	Currently, employees do not hold a significant portion of the Company's share capital. Therefore, if the proposed plan is fully implemented, employee shareholdings would remain reasonable and in line with policy. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal.
Amendments to Articles Regarding Written Consultations	For	In this case, there is no cause for shareholder concern regarding the proposed amendments. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal.
Authorisation of Legal Formalities	For	This is a routine legal formality in France. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal.

Advisory Vote on Executive Compensation	Against	The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. However: Compensation is not linked to materially significant ESG indicator. The remuneration structure allows for vesting of awards in under 3 years. Specifically, PSU performance is measured over one year and awards subsequently time-vest over two years. The remuneration structure allows for adjusted metrics under the LTI. As this is against policy, we are voting against this proposal.
Approval of the Stock Incentive Plan of 2025	For	Remuneration plans should be adequately disclosed and should reward executives for good performance. According to policy, dilution for all compensation plans should be no higher than 10% of share capital. Given that the company's plan is fully compliant with policy and, in the absence of any evidence of past abuse by the company of this type of authority, we are supporting this proposal.
Shareholder Proposal Regarding Third-Party Assessment of Policies for Law Enforcement Requests	For	This proposal requests that the board commission an independent, third-party assessment of the Company's policies regarding law enforcement information requests relating to the use of medications by the Company's customers and employees. In this case, the Company has taken reasonable steps to address this issue in consideration of the nature of its business. Additionally, it is not believed that the proponent has clearly articulated that the Company's management of this issue is deficient or that production of the requested report would necessarily benefit shareholders. Although data privacy is inarguably a matter of material relevance to the Company, the proponent has not provided any examples of the Company mishandling its consumers' or employees' data nor does it identify current processes that could expose the Company to financial harm. Nonetheless, as demands for increased transparency are generally in line with the basic policy requirements, we are voting for this proposal.
Shareholder Proposal Regarding Report on Plastic Packaging	For	Currently, the Company has taken meaningful actions and provided adequate disclosure with regard to minimizing its plastic footprint, its improvements to the sustainability of its packaging, and its recycling initiatives. As such, it is not believed that the proponent has sufficiently demonstrated that the Company's current management of this issue is deficient to the degree that warrants adoption of this proposal. Nonetheless, as demands for increased transparency are generally in line with the basic policy requirements, we are voting for this proposal.

Shareholder Proposal Regarding Assessment of Plastic Production and Packaging Policies	Against	It should be noted that the proponent of this proposal is the National Legal and Policy Center ("NLPC"), which has submitted shareholder proposals that, upon first impression, appear to be consistent with environmental and social proposals that call for information or action on enhancing companies' approaches to environmental and social factors but, upon further review, appear to be designed to inhibit companies' actions in such areas. The NLPC describes itself as a 501(c)(3) that "promotes ethics in public life through research, investigation, education, and legal action," and believes "the best way to promote ethics is to reduce the size of government." As part of the corporate integrity project on its website, the NLPC shares its concerns regarding "woke" corporate executives, for instance posting articles about inclusive content "devaluing" the Pixar franchise or about how the NLPC has reported Visa's chair and CEO to the SEC for ongoing "wokeness." The project also examines a supposed pushback against ESG initiatives, featuring pieces such as one describing corporate America's anti-racism programs as racist against white people and another promoting the NLPC's efforts to nominate a fossil-fuel-supporting director candidate to the board of Exxon Mobil Corporation. This proposal has also been labeled as "Anti-ESG" due to the shareholder proponent. These proponents have generally submitted proposals that address environmental and social issues and their aims are fairly clearly articulated in their supporting statements. Support for this resolution could buoy the proponents arguments and would advance a narrative that may contradict that of investors concerned about companies ESG performance. As a result, we are voting against this proposal.
Shareholder Proposal Regarding Racial Equity Audit	For	Following its November announcement that it was limiting some of its DEI initiatives, the Company has faced increased scrutiny from the media and outside groups, including a number of consumer boycotts. Public opposition and calls for boycotts can result in financial and reputational harm for companies and their shareholders. Ultimately, as demands for increased transparency are generally in line with the basic policy requirements, we are voting for this proposal.

Shareholder Proposal Regarding Report on DEI Initiatives	Against	This proposal requests that the Company issue a public report explaining why "it took threat of public exposure" of its policies and practices for the Company to revise its DEI initiatives. It should be noted that the proponent of this proposal is the National Center for Public Policy Research ("NCPPR"). The NCPPR describes itself as a "communications and research foundation supportive of a strong national defense and dedicated to providing free-market solutions to today's public policy problems" that believes "the principles of a free market, individual liberty and personal responsibility provide the greatest hope for meeting the challenges facing America in the 21st century." As NCPPR is not an investor, it does not appear to have AUM. The NCPPR states that it "trains its sights" on the following issues: (i) shareholder activism; (ii) new leadership for Black America (Project 21) (iii) environmental policy; (iv) regulatory policy; (v) fiscal policy, health care, and retirement security; (vi) government accountability and legal reform; (vii) national defense; (viii) national sovereignty; and (ix) emerging issues. A division of the NCPPR, the Free Enterprise Project ("FEP") describes itself as the "original and premier opponent of the woke takeover of American corporate life and defender of true capitalism." It files shareholder resolutions, engages corporate CEOs and board members, submits public comments, engages state and federal leaders, crafts legislation, files lawsuits and directs media campaigns to push corporations to respect their fiduciary obligations and to stay out of political and social engineering." As a result, we are voting against this proposal.
Shareholder Proposal Regarding Report on Health and Safety Governance	For	In this case, the proponent is requesting that the board report to shareholders on the governance measures the Company has implemented since 2019 to more effectively monitor and manage human rights risks related to workplace health and safety, including whether and how the board or its committees oversee policies that affect the Company's injury rate, attendance policies impacting worker health and safety, and other relevant measures. As such, it is not believed that reporting on this issue would necessarily add to shareholders' understanding of how the Company is managing human rights risks, given its existing disclosures and its stated board-level oversight of both human rights and workplace health and safety. Nonetheless, as demands for increased transparency are generally in line with the basic policy requirements, we are voting for this proposal.

Shareholder Proposal Regarding Report on Risk from Discriminatory Ad Policies	Against	In this case, the proposal requests that the Company conduct an evaluation and issue a report evaluating how it oversees risks related to discrimination against ad buyers and sellers based on their political or religious status or views. Currently, the Company's Code of Conduct prohibits discrimination, and the Company affirms in its response to this proposal that it does not discriminate in advertising based on political or religious status or views, adding that it makes advertising decisions based on the best interests of its business and its brand and not based on political or religious affiliations or ideology. Overall, the Company provides substantial disclosure on issues related to those raised by the proponent. Moreover, this proposal appears to implicitly attempt to intervene in the Company's advertising strategies, an area of day-to-day management that generally does not fall under the purview of shareholders, and could be considered overreaching. As a result, we are voting against this proposal.

Elect CHENG Wen-Hsien	Against	There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualification and suitability of nominee CHENG Wen-Hsien. However, as the board of directors does not have sufficient gender diversity, we are voting against all male directors. Furthermore, the nominee has already been a non-executive member of the board for more than 15 years, which is against policy. Lastly, as the board of directors does not comprise an adequate number of independent members, we are voting against all insider and affiliated directors. Consequently, we are opposing this director's election.

Elect PEI Ker Wei	Against	There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualification and suitability of nominee PEI Ker Wei. However, as the board of directors does not have sufficient gender diversity, we are voting against all male directors. Furthermore, the nominee has already been a non-executive member of the board for more than 15 years, which is against policy. Moreover, as the board of directors does not comprise an adequate number of independent members, we are voting against all insider and affiliated directors. Lastly, the Company's Human Rights Policy does not align with UDHR or ILO, which is not in line with policy. Consequently, we are opposing this director's election as the most senior member of the E&S committee up for election.
Directors' Fees	For	The proposed fees are reasonable and in line with those paid by the Company's peers. Therefore, we are voting for this proposal.
Appointment of Auditor and Authority to Set Fees	Against	There is no indication of any investigations or pending court cases pertaining to the auditor have been disclosed. Moreover, fees paid to the auditor are appropriate and all necessary information regarding the auditor have been provided in the Company's filings. However, as per market practice: The company does not publish for how long the auditing company has already been in office. The company does not publish for how long lead auditor has already been in office. Consequently, we are voting against this proposal.
Authority to Repurchase Shares	Against	At this time, there is no evidence of any past abuse of this type of authority at the company. However, the maximum and minimum price has not been disclosed. As this is against policy, we are voting against this proposal.
Authority to Issue Shares w/ o Preemptive Rights	Against	In this case, the board will be authorised to potentially issue up to 20% of the Company's current issued share capital without preemptive rights. As this exceeds the limit set by policy, and the Company has not provided the maximum discount rate in the Company's disclosures, we are voting against this proposal.

Accounts and Reports	For	The Company's audited annual and consolidated accounts were available for review in advance of this shareholder meeting. As no evidence has been presented that would question the accuracy of these reports, one should consider this item as routine. Therefore, we are voting for this proposal.
Allocation of Dividends	Against	A proposed dividend allocation should be comparable to industry peers and should mirror the financial health of the company. In principle, an acceptable pay-out ratio should be above 20 percent and below 100 percent. As the proposed dividend pay-out ratio for savings shares exceeds 100 percent, we are voting against this proposal.
Remuneration Policy	Against	The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. However: Severance package payments are not limited to a maximum of two-years' salary. Although there is no severance agreement in place for the CEO, the board stated that any potential termination indemnity would be limited to 24 months of total pay, in addition to indemnities regulated by national collective bargainings, which exceeds the 24 months outlined by policy. The Company has failed to implement executive stock ownership guidelines. The board possesses discretion to adjust awards under both short- and long-term incentive plan, departing from the effective achievement level of performance goals. Although this is common practice in Italy, shareholders would benefit from clear safeguards and limits to the scope of applicability of discretion. The report does not provide transparency on chosen indices, benchmarks or peer-groups. The CEO's current remuneration package has a yearly maximum overall opportunity (base salary, STI and LTI) equal to €7,600,000. This said potential total remuneration outpaces market and industry peers' realisable pay. Further, concerns are compounded given that no changes to the CEO's pay package have been proposed for FY2025. As this is against policy, we are voting against this proposal.

Elect Jonathan H. Weis	Withhold	There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualification and suitability of nominee Jonathan H. Weis. However, this director will be serving as the combined Chair/CEO in the upcoming year, which is against policy. Moreover, as the board of directors does not have sufficient gender diversity, we are voting against all male directors. Also, the Company has failed to disclose the board oversight of ESG and its Human Rights Policy does not align with UDHR or ILO, which is not in line with policy. Advisory Vote on Executive Compensation	Against	The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. However: The remuneration structure allows for adjusted awards under the Company's Variable Plan. The short-term awards are largely discretionary. It appears the committee retains a significant level of discretion over the final determination of incentive awards, rather than a formulaic assessment of performance. As this is against policy, we are voting against this proposal.

Moreover, the fees paid to the auditor are appropriate and are clearly disclosed by the Company. Appointment of Auditor and Authority to Set Fees	For	As per Canadian market practice, the lead auditor's name and tenure has not been disclosed in the company's proxy materials or annual report. However, the law requires rotation of the lead auditor every seven years. Further, there is no indication of any investigations or pending court cases pertaining to the auditor and the fees paid to the auditor in the last year were reasonable. Remuneration Policy	Against	The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. However: The Company states it will introduce E&S metrics under the annual bonus scheme and long-term incentive plan, but has not disclosed further information on the nature or measurement of these indicators. The Company does not have sufficient disclosure related to its short and long term incentive plans, specifically, there is insufficient information regarding specific performance metrics implemented for FY2025 onwards. The report has not disclosed the remuneration benchmark used for pay-setting. As this is not entirely in line with policy, we are voting against this proposal.
Directors' Fees	For	The proposed fees are reasonable and in line with those paid by the Company's peers. Therefore, we are voting for this proposal.

Engelstoff, Karin Falk, Tiina Tuomela and Mika Vehviläinen. However, the policy requires the compensation committee chair to be independent. As nominee Tom Johnstone is not considered independent, we are opposing this director's election. Consequently, we are voting against this proposal.

Elect George Kehl	Against	There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualification and suitability of nominee George Kehl. However, as the board of directors does not have sufficient gender diversity, we are voting against all male directors. Additionally, policy requires for companies with a high market capitalization (>1 billion euros) to report on greenhouse gases, water, and biodiversity risks via the CDP (Carbon Disclosure Project), as climate change is becoming increasingly relevant in company valuations. The Company has failed to disclose the report. Consequently, we are opposing this director's election.

Amendments to Articles and Abolishment of the Supervisory Committee	Against	Under amendment to the Article 64, the notice period for an extraordinary general meeting will be reduced from 21 days to 14 days. This authority may limit the ability of some shareholders, particularly those located overseas, from participating at a meeting in a fully-informed manner, due to their generally advanced voting deadlines. While this shortened notice period is permitted by the local laws and regulations, the proposed shorter notification period may be insufficient time for shareholders to receive a ballot, weigh the issues and vote. Consequently, we are voting against this proposal.

Authority to Set Auditor's Fees	Against	The fees paid for non-audit-related services exceed those paid for audit-related services. This raises concerns about the objectivity of the accountants in conducting the audit. It is crucial that the Company's auditor is not beholden to management due to the compensation received for non-audit work. When management and the auditor enter into significant financial relationships unrelated to the audit, the independence of the auditor and the integrity of the Company's financial statements may be compromised. Consequently, we are voting against this proposal.
Elect Patrik Tigerschiöld	Against	As the board of directors and remuneration committee do not comprise an adequate number of independent members, we are voting against all insider and affiliated directors. Further, the policy requires the remuneration committee chair to be independent. As nominee Patrik Tigerschiöld is not considered independent, we are opposing this director's election.
Elect Jaya Baloo	For	There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualification and suitability of nominee Jaya Baloo. Consequently, we are supporting this director's election.
Elect Stina Ehrensvärd	Against	As the board of directors does not comprise an adequate number of independent members, we are voting against all insider and affiliated directors. Consequently, we are opposing the election of non-independent nominee Stina Ehrensvärd.
Elect Gösta Johannesson	Against	There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualification and suitability of nominee Gösta Johannesson. However, as the board of directors and audit committee do not comprise an adequate number of independent members, we are voting against all insider and affiliated directors. Further, the Company paid excessive non-audit-related fees to its independent auditor for at least the second consecutive fiscal year. It is believed members of the audit committee have a direct responsibility for the compensation paid to the Company's auditor. Consequently, we are opposing this director's election.

When management and the auditor enter into significant financial relationships unrelated to the audit, the independence of the auditor and the integrity of the Company's financial statements may be compromised. To that end, while making an exception in FY2023 as fees were incurred pursuant to the Company's IPO, the lack of transparency surrounding the necessity of the non-audit fees in FY2024 is concerning. Therefore, it is believed that shareholders should not authorise the board to set the auditor's fees nor reappoint the auditor. Consequently, we are voting against this proposal.
Approval of Nomination Committee Guidelines	For	The nomination committee allows shareholder representatives to make recommendations regarding the election and compensation of directors and auditors. This is a routine item on the agenda. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal.
Adoption of Share-Based Incentives (LTIP 2025)	Against	Remuneration plans should be adequately disclosed and should reward executives for good performance. According to policy, dilution for all compensation plans should be no higher than 10% of share capital. While the proposed dilution is in line with policy, the following issues should be noted: The proposed LTIP lacks bonus-malus and/or any recovery provisions. The LTI does not include ESG criteria. The LTIP allows for vesting of awards in under 3 years. Specifically, awards vest equally in annual tranches on the first, second, and third anniversary of grant date. As this is against policy, we are voting against this proposal.
Authority to Issue Shares (LTIP 2025)	Against	Following the analysis in Proposal 17.A, we are voting against this connected proposal.

Approve Equity Swap Agreement (LTIP 2025)	Against	Please refer to Proposal 17.A for further details. In this case, the board will be authorised to issue up to 5% of the Company's current issued share capital with or without preemptive rights, which is in line with policy. However, this authorization will be used to finance the Long Term Incentive Plan 2025, which we opposed. Consequently, we are voting against this proposal.
Authority to Repurchase Shares	For	At this time, there is no evidence of any past abuse of this type of authority at the company. Consequently, as these authorizations are within the recommended thresholds, we are voting for this proposal.
Authority to Issue Shares w/ or w/o Preemptive Rights	For	In this case, the board will be authorised to issue up to 10% of the Company's current issued share capital with or without preemptive rights, which is in line with policy. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal.

2024 Business Report and Financial Statements	For	All of the necessary financial statements and reports are disclosed in the Company's meeting materials. It should be noted that in the opinion of the statutory auditors, the Company's independent auditor, the Company's financial statements and business report have been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in Taiwan, 'Regulations Governing the Preparation of Financial Reports by Securities Issuers and International Financial Reporting Standards'. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal.
Allocation of Profits	For	A proposed dividend allocation should be comparable to industry peers and should mirror the financial health of the company. In principle, an acceptable pay-out ratio should be above 20 percent and below 100 percent. The company's aggregate pay-out ratio for the fiscal year is in an acceptable range. Given this, we are voting for this proposal.

Proposal to Lift the Non-Competition Restrictions on the Newly Elected Directors	For	Releasing the board of directors from these restrictions, which prohibit board members from conducting any activities that can be considered to be competitive with the business affairs of the Company, may lead to potential conflicts of interest for directors. In this case, the Company proposes to release its director from non-compete obligation with respect to their directorships in Companies in an unrelated industry, wholly-owned subsidiaries, controlled subsidiaries, substantial shareholders and their subsidiaries or joint ventures. There is no indication that participation in the operations of such entities will lead to conflicts of interest for directors. Consequently, we are voting for this proposal.
Extraordinary Motions	Against	In Taiwan, many companies place an item for extraordinary motions on their proxy forms. However, shareholders of Taiwanese companies who vote via proxy technically may not exercise their voting rights preemptively for any extraordinary motions raised at the general meeting of shareholders. Instead, proxies have full authority to exercise their discretion in supporting or opposing any such motions. As granting unfettered discretion is not in line with policy, we are voting against this proposal.

Renewal of the 2025 to 2028 Financial Service Framework Agreement	Against	It is a common practice for Chinese companies to make deposit transactions through a financial arm of their parent company or within their groups. Such pooling of the group's cash through an unlisted financial vehicle may give the parent company control over the listed company's finances. In addition, such practices may lead to lax lending practices within the parent group, potentially exposing the shareholders of a listed company to undisclosed risks. In this case, the explanation provided by the Company does not justify the transactions. Therefore, we are voting against this proposal.

Appropriation of net income	For	The dividend should be reasonable and reflect the company's financial position. An acceptable distribution ratio is generally between 20% and 100%. However, as the motion is consistent with the guidelines, considering the situation of the company, this management proposal can be viewed uncritically. We are therefore voting in favour of the motion.
Discharge of the Zalando SE Management Board for the 2024 financial year	For	We are not aware of any pending proceedings against members of the Management Board. There are also no other specific governance issues or guidelines violations that could oppose discharge of the members of the Management Board. The discharge can therefore be considered uncritically. We are therefore voting in favour of the motion.
Discharge of the Zalando SE Supervisory Board for the 2024 financial year	For	We are not aware of any pending proceedings against members of the Supervisory Board. However, the following transparency points and/or governance issues are not satisfied or are missing: the Supervisory Board members do not participate with certainty at the meeting place but, if necessary, virtually at the general meeting [(cannot be determined: "All members of the Management Board and the Supervisory Board intend to attend the general meeting for the entire duration" does not allow any conclusion in this regard)] As this is the only criticism listed, we are voting in favour of the discharge of the Supervisory Board overall after weighing up the arguments. .
Election of the auditor of the financial statements and consolidated financial statements and the auditor for the audit review for the 2025 financial year	For	There are no indications that constitute a violation of the guidelines. Election of the auditor of the financial statements and consolidated financial statements and the auditor for the audit review in the 2026 financial year until the next general meeting	For	There are no indications that constitute a violation of the guidelines. Election of the auditor for the sustainability report	For	There are no indications that constitute a violation of the guidelines. This motion may therefore be viewed uncritically. We are therefore voting in favour of the motion.
Approval of the remuneration report for the 2024 financial year	Against	The remuneration system was last voted on in 2024 and achieved an approval rate of 92.23%. The remuneration report was last voted on in 2024 and achieved an approval rate of 88.88%. The new remuneration system for the Management Board members, which entered into force on 18 May 2024 (remuneration system 2024), fulfils all the recommendations of the GCGC. The remuneration system for the Management Board, which came into effect on 1 June 2021, applies to the remuneration that was and will be granted until the new Management Board employment agreements became effective or until the contract expires on 28 February 2025 (remuneration system 2021). The evaluation refers to the information regarding the 2024 system, which at the same time also reflects what will be critiqued on an ongoing basis if necessary. There are numerous weaknesses in the system, which is why the report on the system cannot comply with the guidelines either: Only one specific financial performance target in the STI No share ownership guideline (only from the STI obligation to invest part of the net payouts in shares with a holding period of one year) The discretion of the Supervisory Board, particularly in the case of the STI, is hardly comprehensible (Supervisory Board determines the target values; determination unclear; determination of the performance criterion is not absolutely comprehensible) The remuneration report only contains the remuneration amounts, the system of Supervisory Board members is not explained (only reference to 2023 report) The basic salary of Robert Gentz and David Schneider was increased by more than 100%, which however seems comprehensible in view of the tasks, compared to other Management Board members and the previously very low level for a company in the DAX. The motion should be viewed very critically overall. We are therefore voting against the motion.

According to the guidelines, no Supervisory Board member in an executive position should sit on more than three boards in total. New authorisation for the Management Board to provide for the holding of a virtual general meeting and a corresponding amendment to the Articles of Association	Against	In this case, the guidelines will not be complied with, since the following criteria are not met and there are deficiencies: The amendment to the Articles of Association explicitly stipulates that the Management Board may not convene a virtual general meeting without the approval of the Supervisory Board (not entered into the Articles of Association, only the involvement of the Supervisory Board is specified) No written explanation is given as to whether and under which conditions an authorisation of the Management Board should be used in the future (credible, detailed explanation of the circumstances) Since no general meeting has taken place in person since 2021 and such a general meeting has not been explicitly announced for the following year, it is not clear which specific conditions will lead to a virtual general meeting or an in-person GM. The motion should therefore be viewed critically. We are therefore voting against the motion.
Resolution on the removal of the existing authorisation and granting of a new authorisation to acquire treasury shares pursuant to Section 71(1)(8) of the German Stock Corporation Act (AktG) and their use and to exclude subscription and tender rights	Against	In this case, the company proposes a term of five years. This does not comply with the guidelines, which stipulate a maximum term of two years. This motion should therefore be viewed very critically. We are therefore voting against the motion.

Resolution on the removal of Authorised Capital 2020 with the simultaneous creation of new authorised capital (Authorised Capital 2025) with the option to exclude subscription rights and the corresponding amendment to the Articles of Association	Against	Increasing the share capital by €264,122,978.00 would lead to a 30.0% capital dilution. In addition, 20% can be exceeded on a cumulative basis. Even if the subscription rights exclusions are restricted to 10% overall, this is not within the limits of the analysis guidelines (max. 20% on a cumulative basis, max. 10% exclusion of subscription rights on a cumulative basis). A critical view should therefore be taken of the motion. We are therefore voting against the motion.

Resolution on the removal of Conditional Capital 2020, on the removal of the existing authorisation and the granting of a new authorisation to issue convertible and/or warrant bonds, on excluding subscription rights and on the creation of Conditional Capital 2025 and the corresponding amendment to the Articles of Association	Against	Increasing the share capital by €48,879,168 would lead to a 18.5% capital dilution. However, 20% can be exceeded on a cumulative basis. Even if the subscription rights exclusions are restricted to 10% overall, this is not within the limits of the analysis guidelines (max. 20% on a cumulative basis, max. 10% exclusion of subscription rights on a cumulative basis). A critical view should therefore be taken of the motion. We are therefore voting against the motion.
Resolution on the reduction of Conditional Capital 2014 and Conditional Capital 2016 and a corresponding amendment to the Articles of Association	For	There are no indications that oppose this motion. This may therefore be viewed uncritically. We are therefore voting in favour of the motion.

Accounts and Reports	For	The Company's audited annual and consolidated accounts were available for review in advance of this shareholder meeting. As no evidence has been presented that would question the accuracy of these reports, one should consider this item as routine. Therefore, we are voting for this proposal.
Allocation of Profits/ Dividends	Against	A proposed dividend allocation should be comparable to industry peers and should mirror the financial health of the company. In principle, an acceptable pay-out ratio should be above 20 percent and below 100 percent. As the proposed dividend pay-out ration exceeds 100 percent, we are voting against this proposal.
Elect Lyu Hanbin	Against	As the board of directors does not have sufficient gender diversity, we are voting against all male directors. Further, as the board of directors does not comprise an adequate number of independent members, we are voting against all insider and affiliated directors. Consequently, we are opposing the election of non-independent nominee Lyu Hanbin.
Elect Wang Yali	Against	As the board of directors does not comprise an adequate number of independent members, we are voting against all insider and affiliated directors. Consequently, we are opposing the election of non-independent nominee Wang Yali.
Elect CHEN Chen	Against	There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualifications of nominee CHEN Chen. However, given the information provided, the candidate holds too many mandates to be in line with policy (Director - Zhou Hei Ya International Holdings Company Limited; Executive Director - ATRenew Inc.; Director - Q&K International Group Limited; Director - Yunji Inc.). Further, as the board of directors does not have sufficient gender diversity, we are voting against all male directors. Consequently, we are opposing this director's election.

Appointment of Auditor and Authority to Set Fees	Against	There is no indication of any investigations or pending court cases pertaining to the auditor have been disclosed. Moreover, fees paid to the auditor are appropriate. However: The company does not publish how long the auditing company has already been in office. The company does not publish how long the lead auditor has already been in office. Consequently, we are voting against this proposal.
Authority to Repurchase Shares	Against	At this time, there is no evidence of any past abuse of this type of authority at the company. However, the maximum and minimum price has not been disclosed. As this is against policy, we are voting against this proposal.
Authority to Issue Shares w/ o Preemptive Rights	Against	In this case, the board will be authorised to potentially issue up to 20% of the Company's current issued share capital without preemptive rights. As this exceeds the limit set by policy, and the Company has not provided the maximum discount rate in the Company's disclosures, we are voting against this proposal.

Elect William R. McDermott	Withhold	There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualification and suitability of nominee William R. McDermott. However, as the board of directors does not have sufficient gender diversity, we are voting against all male directors. Further, given the information provided, the candidate holds too many mandates to be in line with policy (Director - Zoom Communications, Inc.; CEO/Chair - ServiceNow, Inc). In addition, this nominee served as a member of the compensation committee during the past three fiscal years. It is believed that the members of the compensation committee have the responsibility of reviewing all aspects of the compensation program for the Company's executive officers. In this case, it appears that members of this committee may not be effectively serving shareholders in this regard. Specifically, the Company's practice of substantial grants that are intended to be viewed over a four-year period is concerning. While the Company appears to be shifting to an annual granting schedule for performance-based equity awards, the significant majority of executive compensation appears to still be targeted through these four-year grants, which are entirely time-based. Additionally, at last year's annual meeting, the Company's non-binding advisory resolution on executive compensation received support from approximately 57% of the votes cast, when accounting for each vote on a 1:1 basis. Given the substantial level of opposition to the Company's pay practices, it is believed the members of the compensation committee should have taken more initiative to improve the Company's pay practices and programs. In this case, the committee has failed to do so. As such, it is believed that the concerns regarding the Company's pay practices and programs are severe enough to warrant opposing the election of all members of the compensation committee at this time. Consequently, we are opposing this director's election.
Elect Michael Fenger	Withhold	There are no evident reasons to doubt the qualification and suitability of nominee Michael Fenger. However, as the board of directors and nominating and corporate governance committee do not comprise an adequate number of independent members, we are voting against all insider and affiliated directors. Ratification of Auditor	For	There is no indication of any investigations or pending court cases pertaining to the auditor. Moreover, the fees paid to the auditor are appropriate and are clearly disclosed by the Company. However, as per US market practice, the lead auditor's name and tenure has not been disclosed in the company's proxy materials or annual report. The aforementioned notwithstanding, and as stipulated by Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002/Title II, "It shall be unlawful for a registered public accounting firm to provide audit services to an issuer if the lead (or coordinating) audit partner (having primary responsibility for the audit), or the audit partner responsible for reviewing the audit, has performed audit services for that issuer in each of the 5 previous fiscal years of that issuer." Advisory Vote on Executive Compensation	Against	The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. However: The Company has failed to link pay with performance. The Company has failed to implement executive stock ownership guidelines. Clawback policy is restatement dependent only. Compensation is not linked to materially significant ESG indicator. The Company has granted excessive sign-on bonuses. Specifically, Michelle Chang received sign-on awards, comprised of RSUs, values at $24,872,656. It should be noted that the award is intended to be viewed over a four-year period. Nonetheless, the Company has not disclosed whether these awards were intended to replace equity forfeited from a prior employer. Moreover, they are not subject to any performance criteria. The same performance criteria are used for the short-term and the long-term variable remuneration. The Company granted excessive perquisites during the year under review. Specifically, Eric S. Yuan received approximately $2 million in perquisites from the Company. These perquisites include security services (based on the recommendation of an independent, third-party security firm) and ground transportation. It is believed shareholders should question the nature of the perquisites and consider whether they represent the best use of the Company's capital as excessive perquisites can underscore broader concerns with the structure and/or quantum of a compensation program. The Company notes that approximately 2% of the security and transportation costs were for non-business related use by Mr. Yuan and members of his family. The Company's remuneration practices received significant shareholder dissent at the previous AGM and the Company has not sufficiently addressed this issue. Velchamy Sankarlingam, received a four-year "refresh grant" with a grant date fair value of $24.9 million, which, if annualized over the four-year period it is intended to be viewed over, has a per annum value of $6.2 million. At face value, and given the low value of his annual performance-based equity grant, which was $722,782, this does not appear to be an excessive per annum value. However, it is believed that the Company's overall equity-granting practices warrant scrutiny. As the Company has experienced in recent years, front-loading compensation in this manner, rather than taking a more responsive and flexible annual award cadence, leaves the board in a position to potentially make unpopular decisions to address changing circumstances. While the Company does appear to be shifting to an annual granting schedule for performance-based equity awards, the significant majority of executive compensation appears to still be targeted through these four-year grants, which are entirely time-

Presentation of the adopted annual financial statements of adidas AG and the approved consolidated financial statements, the combined management reports for adidas AG and the group as at 31 December 2024, the Management Board's proposal for the appropriation of net income and the Supervisory Board report for the 2024 financial year	Not voted	There was no vote on this agenda item.
Resolution on the appropriation of net income	For	The dividend should be reasonable and reflect the company's financial position. Since the motion complies with the guidelines, this proposal of the administration may be viewed uncritically. We are therefore voting in favour of the motion.
Resolution on the discharge of the Management Board for the 2024 financial year	For	We are not aware of any pending proceedings against members of the Management Board. Resolution on the discharge of the Supervisory Board for the 2024 financial year	For	We are not aware of any pending proceedings against members of the Supervisory Board. However, succession planning seems questionable. In the previous year, Mr Thomas Rabe had only been elected to the Supervisory Board for one year, with the specific reason that this should facilitate the chair of the Supervisory Board. However, this has not yet been done, but is explained in the letter from the Supervisory Board: "Stability, continuity and experience at the head of the Supervisory Board remain critical to our business success. Over the last two years, we have laid the foundations for further positive business momentum in 2025 and beyond. We therefore want to take advantage of the current opportunities – especially in view of the current situation in the direct competitive environment – to continue to gain significant market shares and to significantly improve our competitive position in the long term. At the same time, increasing macroeconomic and geopolitical challenges are emerging, particularly given the tariff developments in the US. Given the above, the Supervisory Board is convinced that my many years of experience as Chairman of the Supervisory Board of adidas and other listed companies, as well as the very close and good cooperation with our Chairman of the Management Board, Bjørn Gulden, at this stage of great opportunities for adidas, is very valuable and necessary to continue to ensure a sustainable turnaround." After weighing up the arguments, we are voting in favour of the discharge based on the currently very good performance. Nevertheless, we will continue to highlight an orderly succession process in the discussions and closely follow the latest developments.
Resolution on the approval of the remuneration report	For	The remuneration system was last voted on in 2024 and achieved an approval rate of 94.8%. The remuneration report was last voted on in 2024 and achieved an approval rate of 58.92%. A new remuneration system has been in place since the last remuneration report with an extremely low approval rate. However, there is a weakness in the system, which is why the report on the system cannot comply with the guidelines either: The scope of the personal investment cannot be achieved in at least four years. However, as the scope of the personal investment is to be achieved in 5 years according to the remuneration report, we are voting in favour of the motion after weighing up the arguments.

Election to the Supervisory Board: Thomas Rabe	Against	In this case, there are concerns about the number of boards he sits on. According to the guidelines, no Supervisory Board member in an executive position should sit on more than three boards in total. Due to his position at RTL Group S.A., this member of the Supervisory Board should be classified as an executive; he sits on four boards, which is contrary to the guidelines. The election of Thomas Rabe should therefore be viewed critically. We are therefore voting against the motion. In addition, it should also be mentioned here that Mr Rabe was elected last year only for one year of transition to an appointment of the new Supervisory Board chair. Board memberships adidas AG, chair (1+1) RTL Group S.A., Chief Executive Officer (1+1) exec.
Resolution on the withdrawal of Authorised Capital 2021/I, the creation of new Authorised Capital 2025/I against contributions in cash with the option of excluding subscription rights for fractional amounts as well as on the corresponding amendment to the Articles of Association	Against	Increasing the share capital by €50,000,000 would lead to a capital dilution of 27.8%. In addition, 20% can be exceeded on a cumulative basis. Even if the subscription rights exclusions are restricted to 10% overall, this is not within the limits of the analysis guidelines (max. 20% on a cumulative basis, max. 10% subscription rights exclusion on a cumulative basis). A critical view should therefore be taken of the motion. We are therefore voting against the motion.

However, 20% can be exceeded on a cumulative basis. Resolution on the authorisation for the Management Board to hold virtual general meetings and the corresponding amendment to the Articles of Association	Against	In this case, the guidelines are not complied with, since the following criteria are not met and there are therefore deficiencies: The amendment to the Articles of Association does not explicitly stipulate that the Management Board may not convene a virtual GM without the consent of the Supervisory Board (not entered into the Articles of Association, only the consent of the Supervisory Board is specified) No written declaration is made as to whether and under what conditions an authorisation of the Management Board should be used in the future (but in-person GMs last on 2025, 2024 & 2023) The motion should therefore be viewed critically. We are therefore voting against the motion.
Resolution on the appointment of the auditor of the financial statements and the consolidated financial statements for the 2025 financial year	For	There are no indications that constitute a violation of the guidelines. This motion may therefore be viewed uncritically. We are therefore voting in favour of the motion.

Remuneration Report	Against	The Company's disclosure of its remuneration policies and procedures is in line with policy and applicable legislation. The report gives the impression of having been properly prepared. However: The Company has failed to implement executive stock ownership guidelines. The remuneration policy provides for the immediate vesting of awards. The LTI does not include ESG criteria. There is no disclosed cap on incentive limits for STI awards. The Company's remuneration practices have been the subject of significant shareholder dissent and the Company has failed to address shareholder dissent in a meaningful manner. The CEO received excessive compensation. Specifically, the CEO received €5,985,000 last year as compensation for his position (previous year €5.5 million). In particular, it should be noted that the 2019 LTIP vested 564,535 shares for a value of €4.1 million. The CEO already receives remuneration that far exceeds the compensation given to chief executives at similar firms (FY2023 Ibex mid cap total remuneration average was €3.03 million), specifically down to the value of long-term awards, which exceed equivalent awards at the Company's peers. As this is not entirely in line with policy, we are voting against this proposal.

Content Within this discussion, Mr Berninger explained in detail why Bayer would refrain from a Say on Climate at the upcoming general meeting this year. Nevertheless, we called for the central ambitious elements of the climate plan to be maintained and for the ongoing review of a Say on Climate at the 2026 GM.		Result Mr Berninger pointed out the uncertainties that still exist: the CDP and SBTi have not yet published any final results, and the scepticism of American investors in particular is increasing. In his view, the issue of Say on Climate had been shifted, but not "fallen down." He also sees room for improvement in the positioning of investors, which are part of Climate Action 100, as well as in the voting guidelines of ISS.

Content

As part of the corporate governance roadshow, the topics of the next general meeting as well as the Supervisory Board's view on Bayer's operational development were discussed. Among other things, we called for a vote at the general meeting on whether to continue a "Say on Climate" project, for a conclusive solution to the lawsuits in the United States to be reached and for the Management Board to publish some guidance.

Result

They are refraining from a Say on Climate this year as the headwind is currently strong and they want to achieve a high approval result. We urged for the issue be put on the agenda in 2026. Update on CEO Succession and Governance Issues

Content

Ahead of the upcoming AGM CRH asked for a call to share updates on succession and other governance topics. We talked also about the American environment CRH is facing through their listing at New York Stock Exchange (NYSE). We demanded that the company shall stick to its ESG strategies.

Result

Mr. Boucher outlined the succession plan that appointed Mr. Minter as the new CEO. The process has been successful, especially with external advisor support. Regular board refreshment is a priority, focusing on American regulatory competencies. Following the NYSE listing, CRH aims to align with U.S. governance best practices, with changes planned over the coming years, particularly in remuneration. They are considering shifting the ESG component from long-term to short-term incentives, which we critiqued. Sustainability is central to CRH and commercially vital, and they have not felt pressure regarding their ESG strategy. We commended their efforts.

Current challenges and strategies at Volkswagen

Content

In our exchange with Volkswagen, we requested information on the challenges related to EU emissions regulations, the sale of electric vehicles and battery production. Volkswagen has commented on the potential financial risks of possible fines and on the future evolution of the electric vehicle ratio following a decline in sales in 2024. We also discussed the strategy for manufacturing battery-powered vehicles and cooperation with partners in the field of software development.

Result

Volkswagen sees the financial risks from EU emissions regulations limited to around 1.5 billion euros and plans to adapt the vehicle range through an optimised mix. Despite a decline in electric vehicle sales in 2024, the European market remains a key focus. Access to battery cells remains critical, particularly with regard to the challenges with Northvolt. The agreement on the future of the company was viewed positively, with the aim of a new regulation of tariff structures and a restructuring of governance for greater freedom of choice.

We reached out to Union Pacific to gather essential information regarding their revenue distribution related to coal. The inquiry was motivated by the need to assess exposure to these sectors within sustainable investment funds, in compliance with regulatory requirements.

Result

Union Pacific responded promptly and transparently to our inquiry, providing detailed information on coal transport within their bulk segment. This engagement has enabled us to gain a clearer understanding of the companies' exposures and ensure transparency in our assessment process.

CO2 price and spin-off discussion

Content

The CFO spoke about the effect of the price of CO2 in the European cement industry. In this regard, we asked how the spin-off in the US would impact the sustainability goals. We called for the goals to be maintained.

Result

The company continues to see an advantage from the decarbonisation of its products. There are possibilities for both clinker factor and carbon capture, utilisation and storage (CCUs).

The spin-off in the US is likely to have softened sustainability goals. The European CO2 price does not apply there.

Discussion on CCS and Carbon Price

Content

The topics addressed included the impact of CO2 prices, the funding of Carbon Capture & Storage (CCS) pilot projects in Brevik (Norway), and the West Sahara controversy related to the Ciments du Maroc plant (part of the Heidelberg Cement Group). We demanded more insights on these topics and asked for the application of human rights and environmental standards to this facilities.

Result

Rising CO2 prices were viewed positive for no/low-carbon cement and supported the marketing of products like evoZero. However, there was a perception that current market sentiment regarding ESG and decarbonization slightly hampered focus and growth in this product category. The funding conditions for CCS projects remained stable. The Brevik project represented a novelty for the industry. Negative impacts from the West Sahara project were ruled out since it operated solely as a grinding facility without significant environmental burdens. Additionally, it was noted positively that nearly 100% of the workforce was locally recruited, and that German human rights and environmental standards also applied to this facility.

US development / EPA emissions regulation

In a discussion with the CEO and the CFO, we discussed the impact of the recent Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) announcements in the US on Daimler Truck's climate targets. The US accounts for almost half of Daimler Truck's sales. In addition, we called for transparency on sales of military vehicles.

Result

The company remains committed to its climate targets and remains committed to achieving carbon neutrality throughout the entire value chain by 2050. However, in light of developments in the US, the company is aware that the rate of emission reduction could slow. Daimler Truck expects an increase in demand for military vehicles as part of the European rearmament. Sales in this area currently amount to a low single-digit percentage.

Discussion on Sustainability Report 2025

Content

UBS's newest sustainability report has undergone extensive changes in language in order to mitigate litigation risk in the US. Especially, the acronym DEI (Diversity, Equity and Inclusion) has been dropped and climate targets have been postponed to 2035. We demanded a clear commitment to ESG topics and asked critical questions on their climate strategy.

Result

UBS has postponed its net zero target regarding Scope 1 and 2 emissions from 2025 to 2035. The reason is that scope 2 emissions after the full merger of Credit Suisse are too high in order to achieve the previous set target by 2025. However, they are confident to achieve net zero for own operations by 2035. Facilitated emissions are reported but not included in the targets. DEI is under threat and UBS is cautious. They fear litigation risk and therefore changed the reporting. They will stick to their commitment that DEI is a crucial part of UBS' success. They also scaled back voluntary environmental disclosures for example on biodiversity. At the moment there is also no ESG component in top management's remuneration in place. We expressed our deep concerns regarding this development.

Content

In the context of the UBS' agm the company organized a group call with the Chairman of the board. We had the opportunity to ask questions. Especially, we wanted to know the impact of potential litigation risks regarding ESG. Furthermore, we discussed agm proposals.

Result

Mr Kelleher committed UBS to be a leader on climate change and stick to its climate targets. He was quite clear that they are in a difficult position between two very diverging jurisdictions and that policy uncertainty will remain. On the topic of remuneration they see increased salaries of the CEO only by 1 %. In fact, to be competitive the amount of compensation has to be reasonably high. No clear answer was provided to our question how UBS will incentivize top management if ESG becomes not a hypothetical but a real litigation risk. Two new female board members are up to election. One is the needed AI expert. The compensation committee chair will rotate, as the current chair will expire in two year due to term limit.

Content

In view of the upcoming general meeting, the Company wanted to better understand our voting behaviour from last year. Looking ahead, we called in particular for improvements within the Management Board remuneration and for greater independence of the Supervisory Board members.

Result

The agenda items of the previous general meeting were discussed in great detail. Our criticism of a missing sustainability component in long-term Management Board remuneration is to be remedied in the new system. We also criticise the use of adjusted key figures. However, there should be no change in this regard in the future. As far as the composition of the Supervisory Board is concerned, the independence of individual members is no longer guaranteed due to their long membership on the Supervisory Board. This affects the overall balance of independence. Qiagen was aware of the independence issue. The board is to be reduced to eight members in the future. Mr Diekmann pledged to provide a calculation for the long-term component. We also talked in great detail about the planned increase in the remuneration ceiling. 2024 sustainability report discussion

Content

As part of an earnings call, we were able to talk about the recently published integrated sustainability report. Topics included the materiality rating of biodiversity, women in top management and the recruitment of skilled workers from Colombia. We called for clarification on the changed diversity metrics compared to the last report.

Result

Vonovia did not classify biodiversity as essential, although they would like to work a lot with wood in the future. However, Vonovia is not planning any further construction projects that would have an impact on biodiversity. To address the shortage of skilled workers, Vonovia is expanding its recruitment of workers from Colombia. A dedicated training centre was created in Berlin. Mr Buch talked about his visit there. In the new report, we found inconsistencies about the proportion of women in top management. As the reported quota was significantly higher than in 2023, we asked for clarification. This metric has a direct impact on Management Board remuneration. We will receive an exact calculation.

Discussion on climate targets and green bonds

Content

We had the opportunity to talk about HSBC's strategy towards green bonds and HSBC's climate risk assessment in bonds. We asked for an explanation for postponing the current targets by 20 years and how they evaluate the development of a growing demand for green bonds.

Result

They delay of the current climate targets by 20 years is due to the fact that achieving net zero in own operations by 2030 is unrealistic. HSBC is committed to achieve net zero by 2050 and claims the status of an industry leader in this topic. They also see a growing demand in green bonds. However, no clear answer was given whether they will expand this business in Asia. Climate risks are assessed in the risk analysis when making decisions. Controversies involving Mozambique and Uganda

Content

Alleged human rights violations at the TotalEnergies LNG site in Mozambique by the country's military have led to calls for an international investigation, to which Union Investment has also joined. The construction of the East African Crude Oil Pipeline (EACOP) has sparked human rights controversies, inter alia, in Uganda.

Result

Aurélien Hamelle took an initiative to raise the issue. No indications of responsibility of TotalEnergies seem to have emerged even after examination by NGOs on the ground. Total has involved the Mozambique Ministry of Justice in the investigation and received a commitment in March 2025 that there would be an investigation. Total points out that everything was done at national level to create transparency. However, the call for an international investigation is "disrespectful" vis-à-vis the government of Mozambique. Diversity strategy in the context of US politics

Content

Siemens Energy has implemented various measures to increase diversity and inclusion in the company and is openly committed to diversity. In the wake of Trump's US policy, diversity initiatives have come under pressure, which has resulted in some companies reducing their engagement. This prompted us to ask Christian Bruch, CEO of Siemens Energy, to assess possible implications for the company's strategy.

Result

The US is an important market for Siemens Energy and the US government itself is a customer of the company. Political developments are being closely monitored. Together with lawyers, the diversity policy is also being examined for possible legal risks in the US. Bruch reaffirms the immense value of diversity for the company and therefore also adherence to the planned measures. However, it remains unclear whether a new adjustment for US companies by Siemens Energy will have to be carried out.

Climate and DEI strategy in the US

Content

Siemens only raised its level of ambition regarding climate protection significantly in 2024 with the publication of an SBTi validated net-zero target. The company is also publicly committed to the topic of diversity and has implemented appropriate strategies and measures. Climate change initiatives and diversity issues have come under pressure in the wake of Trump's US policy. As a result, some companies are reducing their engagement. We therefore asked Roland Busch, CEO of Siemens, to assess possible implications for the company's strategy.

Result

We have reaffirmed Siemens' initiatives. Busch confirms that they will continue to stick to the targets set. Climate protection is a key issue of our time regardless of governments and legislatures. Diverse teams will continue to be an important key to Siemens' success. The company stands by its beliefs and existing measures will continue to be implemented. However, developments in the US are being closely monitored and it cannot be ruled out that communication will be a little more restrained if the legal situation makes it necessary.

Climate Goal Push Back

Content

We had the opportunity to speak with HSBC's CFO, who is also responsible for the global sustainability strategy. We asked for the reasons of the recent push back of the group's climate goals. We demanded a strong focus on net zero.

Result

The reason for the latest push back is the decrease in the demand for sustainable financing. The overall loans volume decreased and green loans in particular. The changed market conditions are reflected in the new goal to achieve net zero in 2050. Furthermore, the bank is still committed to net zero. The membership in net zero alliances (e.g. NZBA) are under scrutiny. In the end it is a cost-benefit decision. Legal risks have to be included in the assessment, but also reputational risks (greenwashing and credibility). The bank is still full on track reaching the sustainable finance target (750 bn $) by 2030. This is the important metric to measure progress. The disclosure of metrics such as the Energy Supply Financing Ratio is not considered at the moment.

Scope 3 Emissions and Decarbonization Strategy

Content

We asked about DSV's ambitious, scientifically validated decarbonization roadmap, specifically focusing on Scope 3 emissions in air transportation. We inquired about the implications of the EU regulation mandating the use of Sustainable Aviation Fuels (SAF) and asked if DSV has a clear strategy to pass these cost implications on to customers. Additionally, we demanded clarity on how confident DSV is in meeting its 2030 reduction target for Scope 3 emissions.

Result

For alternative fuels aimed at reducing emissions in both air and marine transportation, DSV confirmed that they will implement cost pass-through to customers on a "back-to-back" basis. They anticipate that the EU mandate will assist DSV in achieving its Scope 3 transportation emissions goals by increasing the availability of alternative fuels in the market. However, DSV acknowledged that the current availability of Sustainable Aviation Fuel (SAF) remains a significant challenge; if all DSV customers were to request green services utilizing these alternative fuels, DSV would struggle to meet that demand due to limited supply.

In the context of our own climate strategy we had a meeting with Danske Bank to discuss their climate strategy. In particular, we asked about goals, reporting, risk management, and climate-related corporate governance issues. Especially, we enforced SBTi validation and the integration of facilitated emissions in the reporting.

Result

We gained a very good impression of the climate strategy. Danske Bank has a full net zero target and is deeply committed to reduce emissions. Therefore, the bank has sectoral targets including on- and off-balance sheet emissions. However, facilitated emissions are not included in the targets. The reason lies within the difficult calculation approach and the relatively small capital market business. Danske Bank will adhere to new standards and is motivated to get a SBTi validation in the upcoming years. We also discussed topics around disclosure, incentives, and board expertise. We will have updates on a yearly basis.

Engagement on human rights in Uganda/Tanzania and Mozambique

Content

In a call with the Human Rights Director of TotalEnergies, we discussed human rights risks and current controversies surrounding projects in Africa. The main requirements for TotalEnergies are:

- Ensuring uniform, high human rights standards in all projects (in particular by taking responsibility in the Kingfisher Development Area, also as a majority shareholder).
- Proactive engagement and communication to protect human rights defenders, including through dialogue with state actors.
- Strengthening the involvement of affected communities in resolving land law and compensation issues and support for conflict resolution, in particular in complex ownership arrangements and outstanding compensation.
- Specifically for the LNG project in Mozambique, we maintain an independent review of all allegations and credible, transparent reporting of results, recommending independent, experienced reviewers and free access to affected communities.

Result

TotalEnergies showed openness to dialogue, described the existing management and due diligence processes in the Group and on the ground and confirmed the relevance of the issues raised. The company highlighted progress in engaging stakeholders, capacity building and existing life recovery programmes. There is still room for improvement in the consistent and uniform implementation of standards in operations across all projects, particularly with regard to Kingfisher and open land compensation cases. The call for a transparent and independent investigation into the situation in Mozambique has been noted, and we believe that further action is needed. The engagement remains continuous; further follow-ups and an ongoing review of the measures taken are planned.

Follow-up meeting on Climate Strategy and CDP disclosure

Content

In 2021 Union Investments adopted its climate strategy and the corresponding commitment to reach net zero financed emissions in its investment portfolios. This commitment leads into the request to Volvo Group – one of the largest contributors to Union Investments financed emissions – to set long-term net zero targets spanning Scope 1, 2 and 3 and to take credible action to reduce their carbon footprint. In addition, we addressed our request towards Volvo for reporting to CDP.

Result

Volvo reassured its current commitment to reach net zero emissions across the entire value chain by 2040 and its mid-term, SBTi-validated targets which are both in line with Union Investments climate strategy. They also explained the levers for reaching these targets as well as challenges and changes in initial assumptions. The targets are under constant monitoring and are part of regular revision. For the time being there is no change in targets planned. Regarding CDP, Volvo Group acknowledged our request for participation and will evaluate further internally. Currently there is no final decision made on a future participation, it was seized in 2016 due to high administrative burden.

Engagement with human rights & social standards

Content

We called for clarification on the ongoing controversies in the social sector, specifically in the areas of labour and human rights along the General Motors supply chain. In particular, we discussed the risks associated with the Thacker Pass lithium project (Free and Prior Informed Consent), data protection lawsuits in Texas, the fatal accident at a supplier in India and allegations of forced labour in the aluminium supply chain from China.

Result

GM reported in detail on governance structures, ongoing due diligence processes and management measures in all cases. GM takes these controversies very seriously. The company showed during the discussion that the board and risk management are closely involved. For the Thacker Pass project, a Human Rights Council has been initiated as part of the joint venture and compliance with FPIC is being reviewed. The data protection issue in Texas will be handled through litigation and product listing, with a lower risk in the future. Following the accident in India, cooperation with the supplier concerned was terminated and immediate action was taken. A separate risk review has been carried out on the forced labour allegations in China, no direct supply links have been identified, but public transparency can be further improved. GM actively works with industry initiatives, promotes the construction of a North American supply chain and has underlined the importance of ethical sourcing and human rights diligence. The company remains on our watch list, but is signalling its willingness to address the challenges through resource building and processes. We will continue the engagement and follow the next steps.

Particularly noteworthy is the new body-measure app, which allows customers to take photos that remain stored on their phones to optimise the size and fit of their clothes. Returns due to size and fit make up one third of total returns. The return rate has decreased over the years and is now slightly below 50%. Engagement Climate Strategy

As part of our climate strategy we are engaging with our most significant CO₂-emitters on their climate ambition. A full longterm net zero ambition on their end is required to be fulfilled within the next two years. Short and medium targets should be discussed as well.

Result

The company has made a clear commitment to achieving net-zero emissions for Scope 1, 2 and 3 (financed emissions). Its goals for phasing out coal in OECD countries by 2030 and halting financing for new oil and gas projects underscore a strong commitment to climate action. Acknowledging the challenges in sectors such as automotive and cement reflects a proactive approach. The decision to forgo carbon offsets in favor of significant CO₂ storage projects indicates a transparent strategy. The quarterly review of target achievement and the plan to invest €500 billion in sustainable finance by 2030 highlight the company's serious financial commitment. Additionally, linking KPIs and incentives to the climate strategy demonstrates accountability at the leadership level. Overall, the company shows ambitious goals and a genuine commitment to sustainability and climate protection. Possible Commerzbank Takeover

Content

Andrea Orcel visited Union Investment in the context of a roadshow. We had the opportunity to ask questions on the current situation regarding a possible takeover of Commerzbank. We especially asked on the possibility of an upcoming proxy fight.

Result

Mr Orcel ruled a board seat for himself out. Furthermore, he does not expect that an employee with direct links to Uni Credit would be sent to the board. However, a third party which shares the same interests and views as Uni Credit is a possible option. A proxy fight would take place if Uni Credit, as an investor, saw urgent reasons to interfere. At the moment Uni Credit and Commerzbank have regular meetings on a quarterly basis. Mr Orcel sees the German administration as a critical criterium for a successful takeover, but it is not the only one.

Under the collaborative engagement, we encouraging FTSE 100 companies to continue developing and disclosing their climate risk and resilience strategy, and to ask that the company considers putting this to an explicit shareholder vote at the 2026 AGM or at a future meeting. Recent guidance developed by the Transition Plan Taskforce, now operating under the International Sustainability Standards Board (ISSB), recommends that companies regularly update and disclose their climate-related transition strategies, typically on a three-year cycle. Where relevant, we encourage boards to frame these disclosures as part of a climate risk and resilience plan, and to consider how a shareholder vote could support the credibility and implementation of the strategy.

Climate risk and resilience planning – shareholder vote

Content

Under the collaborative engagement, we encouraging FTSE 100 companies to continue developing and disclosing their climate risk and resilience strategy, and to ask that the company considers putting this to an explicit shareholder vote at the 2026 AGM or at a future meeting. Recent guidance developed by the Transition Plan Taskforce, now operating under the International Sustainability Standards Board (ISSB), recommends that companies regularly update and disclose their climate-related transition strategies, typically on a three-year cycle. Where relevant, we encourage boards to frame these disclosures as part of a climate risk and resilience plan, and to consider how a shareholder vote could support the credibility and implementation of the strategy.

Result

Succession planning of the Supervisory Board chair

Content

At the invitation of the company, the succession planning of the Chairman of the Supervisory Board was explained during this meeting. In particular, we called for an effective onboarding process.

Result

Mr Kley detailed the criteria used and the process of succession planning. The person should be recognised in the capital market, crisis-tested, courageous and have a clear understanding of German corporate governance. At the same time, the role of the Supervisory Board should already be known. As a lower priority, he specified specific areas of aviation knowledge. Johannes Teyssen fulfils these conditions and appears to be a very good successor to him. He will be elected at the 2026 GM. We stressed once again the need for structured succession and good training, which Mr Kley agreed with.

Spin-off of the MAGNUM ice cream business and remuneration models

Content

In a recent conversation with Magnum, the plans to spin off Unilever and its upcoming public offering were discussed as part of an initial public offering (IPO). A central point of the discussion was the remuneration structure and the incentives for the Management Board in this new corporate context.

Result

The discussion provided comprehensive insights into the planned steps to separate Unilever and the desired positioning of Magnum as a stand-alone company on the stock exchange. Particular attention was paid to the remuneration structure, which aims to motivate the Management Board through performance-related incentives and to align it with future corporate goals and shareholder value.

Focus engagement on human rights

Content

As part of our focus engagement on human rights, we started a dialogue with Vinci to explain our assessment and achieve a common understanding. The purpose of this discussion is to better understand the precautions Vinci is taking to meet its due diligence obligations in human rights. Specifically, how are existing risks identified and prioritised, what measures are derived to avoid risks and how transparently are these issues reported on.

Result

During meetings, we presented our analysis of Vinci based on the social benchmark of the World Benchmarking Alliance. The contact, Sarah Tesei, responsible for ESG issues, had in-depth expertise on the subject and was able to provide a good insight into the practice of dealing with human rights risks at Vinci. It was open to calls for greater transparency and will take them into the next internal voting rounds. A follow-up was agreed for 2026.

Retail strategies and innovations

Content

In a recent discussion with Inditex, the company's current strategies and innovation approaches were discussed, particularly with regard to the pull model, the impact of automation on point-of-sale efficiency and incentive structures within the company.

Result

The discussion provided valuable insights into Inditex's business practices, including aligning remuneration systems with the sales performance of all employees. The company's innovative strength was illustrated by a visit to a Toyota plant where an automated system was introduced to enable efficient handling of goods. In addition, the concept of "The Apartment" was highlighted as a new range of top-quality items from Zara Home and the women's collection. Inditex is stronger than ever in its commitment to grow its position as a leading retailer through technology and strategic management.

Result

In the discussion with IR and ESG, it became clear that attracting well-qualified employees remains highly relevant and urgent for the company. This is also reflected in the Board remuneration system, which includes the "employee engagement score" as a non-financial KPI.

We once again expressed our gratitude for the positive cooperation and the detailed explanations in the course of our THRIVE engagement (TargetedHumanRightsInVestorEngagement). In addition, Infineon's sustainability goals were discussed as a whole and the setting of a supplier engagement target was challenged with regard to their Scope 3 CO2 emissions.		Result We gained insight into the process of establishing a supplier engagement target as a Scope 3 target. Scope 3 target is to have 72.5% of suppliers with their own SBTi target by 2029. The engagement currently covers about 55% of the emissions relevant to the achievement of the targets. The company is aware that an "absolute emission reduction target" would be preferable. Nevertheless, they chose the engagement target in order to set a realistic and achievable goal that is also within their sphere of influence.

Change in financing policy for controversial weapons

BNPP has changed its financing policy in relation to controversial weapons. We wanted to understand more precisely what has changed. In light of the current debate at EU level as to whether investments in defence are considered sustainable or not, we asked about the BNP's current stance on defence funding and ESG criteria.

Succession planning and "too big to fail"

Content

This year's autumn contacts were used to discuss the ongoing feud between UBS and the Swiss government. We enquired specifically about the current status and asked whether an agreement would be reached soon. We also discussed the succession of the CEO and requested an appropriate period of reflection.

Result

Mr Kelleher outlined the current developments and alternatives for ending the conflict with the Swiss government. UBS is prepared to reach an appropriate agreement. In the worst case, however, a relocation of the head office is possible. Mr Kelleher argued that UBS cannot accept the conditions proposed by the Swiss Finance Minister in view of its fiduciary obligations. In addition, the current CEO would be a suitable successor and a cooling-off period of two years would be sufficient. We have agreed to this.

Focus engagement: Requirements for climate strategy

Content

As part of Union Investment's climate strategy, we are calling for full climate targets from major CO2 emitters. In this discussion, Martin Powell (Head of Sustainability) explains the targets set by AXA, the progress made so far and the measures planned for the future to reduce emissions.

Result

AXA SE has complete net-zero climate targets for Scope 1-3. The transition plan pursued by the Group is ambitious and includes exclusions for fossil fuel sectors both in underwriting and investment. We emphasised the importance of the insurance sector for the phase-out of fossil fuels and emphasised that we would regard SBTi verification of the climate targets as a very positive signal from an investor's perspective.

CO₂ emissions recording and reporting

Content

We have contacted Beiersdorf to better understand the CO₂ emissions reporting in the current disclosures. In particular, the absence of a direct comparison year for the reported emissions in 2023 in the annual report for 2024 was the reason for this.

Result

In the first CSRD report, only the required emission data (base year 2021 and current year) were published, the previous year was not required. Scope 3 categories and methodology have been extended for SBTi, which is why the data published in 2024 are not directly comparable to the previous year. Overall, significant emission reductions were achieved across all scopes compared to 2021. The audited figures are documented in the CSRD report and ESG statbook; for Scope 1 & 2, previous year's figures and annual progress are also included in the statbook.

Inclusive insurance cover product strategy

Content

On the advice of CEO Thomas Buberl, we met with Céline Callard (Head of Inclusive Insurance), who explained AXA's new product strategy to us. This should not only generate business benefits, but also positive social effects.

Result

The aim of inclusive insurance is to reach population groups with a high need for insurance, but a low level of protection. To this end, the product strategy provides for easy access, simple language, reduced product complexity and low fees. Up to two million new customers will be insured in this way by the end of 2025.

We will take the business model into account as part of the annual SDG assessment in order to evaluate the positive SDG effects.

CA100+ / Bayer - Update call

Content

As part of the CA100+ initiative, we discussed critical points in the Climate Advocacy Report together with other lead investors. In particular, we are calling for a transparent and comprehensible presentation of how each individual policy item contributes to achieving the Paris 1.5 degree target. We are also calling for a clearer and more binding formulation of lobbying and climate policy commitments that are consistently in line with the Paris Agreement.

Result

For greater clarity and transparency in the report, we are requesting a standardised and consistent designation of policy items and assessment criteria that applies both to our own advocacy activities and to the positions of trade associations. We ask that the link to corporate strategy and political priorities, including new topics such as sustainable aviation fuels, be made clear.

We are also asking for it to be clearly demonstrated how each policy item and criterion contributes to achieving the Paris 1.5 degree target. Specific examples and deadlines are intended to make the orientation comprehensible.

We are asking that deviations between Bayer and InfluenceMap assessments be communicated openly and explained in a comprehensible manner. In particular, we are asking for explanations as to why Bayer considers certain items to be in line with the Paris target, even though InfluenceMap views them differently, for example in the case of VCI and BusinessEurope.

We are calling for missing assessments and climate policy scores for some trade organisations, such as the Confederation of National Industry and Confederation of Indian Industry, to be added. We are also requesting different assessments at BusinessEurope to be clearly explained in order to avoid confusion.

Finally, we are calling for lobbying and climate policy commitments to be formulated more clearly and bindingly. It must be explicitly stated that all advocacy activities are in line with the Paris Agreement and the 1.5 degree target.

Climate engagement: Focus on implementation and challenges

Content

Procter & Gamble is pursuing an ambitious climate strategy with a net-zero target for Scope 1, 2 and 3 emissions by 2040 and an interim target to reduce absolute emissions by 50% by 2030 compared to 2010. Scope 3 comprises 15 categories, with around 80-85% of emissions resulting from consumer use (primarily from hot water consumption). This area is not included in the net-zero target, as the cause of emissions lies primarily in the energy infrastructure of consumers and is therefore outside P&G's direct sphere of influence.

Result

Although Scope 3 emissions from consumer use are not directly addressed, P&G is taking near- to medium-term steps towards energy efficiency through product innovation, material efficiency and increasing the proportion of recycled materials. For the supply chain and transport emissions, there are formal targets validated by the SBTi for 2030. The Company also plans to source 100% renewable electricity by 2030. Overall, the focus of implementation is on transparency, reporting and targeted reduction in certain areas.

After we raised our concerns with the Company, it promptly provided us with a response and a statement from its annual general meeting, which concluded that the project had previously received all relevant Commonwealth and State planning and environmental approvals and no objections from the Orange Local Aboriginal Land Council. In addition, the new decision also cancels the NSW Government's comprehensive, independent planning approval process, which is why Regis is applying to the Federal Court for a judicial review of the Minister's decision. Content

We spoke to the Global Head of Sustainability about the use of AI in the Company, social risks, efficiency improvements and staff reductions. We also discussed the challenges of diversity targets, particularly in the US market, as well as SAP's climate commitment, transparency and the net-zero target.

Result

SAP uses AI primarily to increase efficiency without currently cutting staff; 1-2% of the workforce is affected by restructuring every year. AI developments follow an ethical framework, with each use case being reviewed by the Sustainability team. An Employee Engagement Index is used for feedback from the workforce. This is taken into account in Management Board remuneration.

In the area of diversity, US-specific targets were removed. We have once again emphasised that we take a very critical view of this. SAP emphasises that it remains committed to quotas for women in management and promotes employee networks for inclusion.

We asked for compliance with the diversity targets and a reduction in the number of board memberships held by the Chairman of the Supervisory Board.

Result

We talked about the continuous staff reduction programme of 1-2% per year. SAP confirms that this will be organised in a socially responsible manner and will be accompanied transparently by the works council. In addition, the restructuring is not a staff reduction programme due to the increased use of AI, but a normal approach to positioning the Company for the future. With regard to succession planning, it was explained that Renee Obermann is considered a suitable candidate for the Supervisory Board. We have addressed the overboarding of Mr Pietilä. In the area of diversity, we criticised the withdrawal of diversity targets. According to the Supervisory Board, however, this only applies to the USA in order to avoid existing legal risks. At the same time, SAP emphasised that diversity remains a high priority and that corresponding initiatives will be continued. We discussed the fact that diversity on the Supervisory Board is currently just below our threshold of at least 30% and that improvements are still needed here. Finally, we gave SAP positive feedback on its climate strategy and encouraged the Company to continue to consistently pursue its ambitious targets.

Competence matrix, share buybacks and remuneration

Content

As part of the governance roadshow, we had the opportunity to discuss current corporate governance issues with Cancom. We called for a number of improvements. These include a remuneration committee, an adjustment to the remuneration structure and a link between the competence matrix and CVs.

Result

Ms Welpé was very open to our suggestions. The competence matrix is already differentiated. We saw potential for improvement in linking the matrix with the CV in order to objectively assess existing expertise. In her view, the reduction in the size of the Supervisory Board made sense. All areas of expertise are available. Ms Welpé contributes AI expertise and ESG skills. The establishment of a remuneration committee was discussed. The current remuneration system is to remain in place for another four years. The fixed remuneration may exceed the variable components. The long-term component also lacks ESG targets. We pushed for an earlier change to the system. We discussed the structure of the remuneration report and made specific proposals for its design. The issue of share buybacks was recently the subject of intense discussion. A two-year time limit is challenging for Cancom due to the low daily trading volumes.

Transition Finance Framework discussion

Content

DBK offered us a meeting to discuss the new Transition Finance Framework (TFF) with its CSO. We called for the introduction of the Energy Supply Financing Ratio (ESFR) and concrete figures on loans for fossil fuels. Furthermore, we again asked for facilitated emissions to be published.

Result

With the TFF and the new target of EUR 900 billion for green finance by 2030, the DBK has made further progress in the area of sustainability and adaptation to climate change. In addition, 300 ecosystem services transactions are to take place by 2030. The DBK sees the greatest risks in the loss of ecosystems and considers these risks to be material. Facilitated emissions are to be reported next year. However, they are not yet part of the climate targets. We asked critical questions about this. At the same time, the bank is capitalising on capital market transactions for sustainable investments (e.g. green bonds). We pointed out this discrepancy and called for the publication of the ESFR. The idea was discussed constructively and is being reviewed by the DBK. Lastly, we discussed the credit volumes in fossil fuels. From Mr Eigendorf's point of view, NGOs like Urgewald calculate the figures incorrectly. The bank is on a very good path and is currently ahead of its targets. The new SBTi FINZ standard cannot be implemented at present.

Staggered board and change of control clause

Content

As part of the annual governance roadshow, we discussed current corporate governance issues with the Supervisory Board. In particular, we called for the introduction of a staggered Supervisory Board and the abolition of the existing change of control clause (CoC) in the remuneration system.

Result

The Supervisory Board is largely elected en bloc. This increases the cluster risk in elections and can make succession planning more difficult. LEG sees no acute need to introduce a staggered structure. The term of office for members was reduced from five to three years to allow for earlier elections. However, it cannot be ruled out that a staggered board may arise of its own accord as a result of departures during the year. The succession process for the Supervisory Board chair and for Dr Nolting is in full swing. The Supervisory Board is therefore to be increased by one member in order to ensure a good induction process. In the medium term, there will be six members again. The CoC clause was discussed. LEG would like to discuss the topic again. Existing contracts with the Management Board members would have to be renegotiated. This is not considered sensible.

We contacted Deutsche Telekom regarding its strategic partnership with OpenAI to learn more about how it deals with material ESG issues related to the use of AI.

Result

The planned meeting with the Company is scheduled for the new year. The aim is to obtain more details on the topics mentioned and to emphasise the importance of responsible use of artificial intelligence. We want to learn more about how to deal with ESG issues such as data privacy, data security, ethical use of AI, impact on the workforce and risk management.

Content Mit Blick auf die Klimastrategie von Union Investment steht Rio Tinto weiterhin auf der Fokusliste, da das Unternehmen zu den größten CO2-Emittenten in den Portfolios zählt. Das Gespräch konzentrierte sich daher auf die Festlegung von Netto-Null-Zielen für Scope 1 bis Scope 3 vor 2025 sowie auf Zwischenziele und Investitionsausgaben.		Result Rio Tinto bekräftigte sein Engagement für die Dekarbonisierung und betonte die Fortschritte bei der Reduzierung der Scope-1- und Scope-2-Emissionen gemäß den Klimazielen für 2030 sowie die laufenden Bemühungen, das komplexe Thema des Scope-3-Fußabdrucks anzugehen, insbesondere in den Stahl- und Aluminium-Wertschöpfungsketten in China. Das Unternehmen hob die Rolle der Kooperation innerhalb der Branche über Joint Ventures (wie z. B. NeoSmelt) hervor. Trotz der Meldung einer vorübergehenden Senkung seiner Ausgaben für erneuerbare Energien bestätigte es, dass es an seinen Ambitionen und Netto-Null-Verpflichtungen festhält. Zudem verwies Rio Tinto auf längere Zeitspannen bei der Bewertung von Technologien, insbesondere hinsichtlich schwer zu verringernder ("hard-to-abate") Emissionen.

Remuneration and area of expertise represented on the Management Board

Content

We had the opportunity to discuss current corporate governance issues at Edwards Lifesciences as part of our engagement activities outside the reporting season. We discussed AI expertise and the development of a competence matrix. We also insisted on changes to the remuneration system, in particular the inclusion of at least two KPIs in the long-term incentive plan (LTI).

Result

The Company is developing an AI centre of excellence and plans to publish an AI guideline. Although AI expertise is represented on the Management Board, there is no personalised competence matrix. Instead, areas of expertise are assessed jointly for the entire Management Board. Our proposal to create a matrix of individual areas of expertise will be submitted to the Management Board for review. We have also called for the inclusion of at least two KPIs in the long-term incentive plan (LTIs). LTIs are currently measured solely on the basis of total shareholder return (TSR), while the sustainability KPIs are included in the annual cash remuneration component. The severance package is limited to two annual salaries. The existing regulation on clawbacks only applies to cases that require a balance sheet correction, so we have spoken out in favour of a more comprehensive, performance-based clawback regulation.

Focus engagement on the topic of climate strategy (CLEOPATRA)
Content		Result
As part of our climate strategy, we work with our largest CO2 emitters on their climate targets. They must reach a complete long-term net-zero target within the next two years. Short- and medium-term targets should also be discussed. In particular, we called for transparency regarding medium-term targets and clear responsibilities on the Management Board and Supervisory Board.		BayernLB has set itself the goal of managing climate-neutral portfolios by 2050. To this end, decarbonisation pathways were defined for all relevant sectors in accordance with EBA Pillar 3. Nine sectors are to become climate-neutral by 2050. The bank is guided by the IEA's net-zero scenario, uses the PCAF standard and reports in accordance with the CSRD. We noted that the decarbonisation pathways have so far been exclusively intensity-based and called for a regular comparison with absolute emissions. No medium-term targets have been communicated to date, but our request for these to be defined has been taken on board. The bank emphasises that adherence to the target curve should be guaranteed at all times and that medium-term targets are therefore not the top priority, but rather the long-term target. This long-term target is already integrated in the short-term remuneration component; we also requested that it be included in the long-term component. There is a clear phase-out plan for coal, but not yet for oil and gas. Here we asked for a corresponding guideline to be developed. Validation by the Science Based Targets initiative (SBTi) was the subject of controversial debate; BayernLB takes a critical view of SBTi certification in the banking sector. A follow-up meeting has been announced for next year.

Transparency and criticism of the Supervisory Board, remuneration and GM format

Content

In the run-up to the upcoming general meeting, the meeting focussed primarily on the composition of the Supervisory Board and TUI AG's remuneration system. The discussion took place as part of the corporate governance roadshow. Compliance with the German Corporate Governance Code was confirmed by the Company, and current topics relating to the size of the Supervisory Board, areas of expertise and sustainability on the board and remuneration structures were discussed.

Result

The Supervisory Board currently comprises 20 members. The plan is to reduce the size of the committee to 16 members. With regard to the ESG areas of expertise on the board, TUI presented a further development of the competence matrix to a four-level scale with a standardised catalogue of criteria and plausibility checks by the Chairman of the Supervisory Board. A separate sustainability committee is not planned, which we have criticised. The remuneration system was also criticised: The long-term incentive (LTI) is currently only based on one performance criterion and does not include an explicit ESG component. The ESG factors are only implemented through a multiplier in the short-term incentive (STI), which in our view needs to be improved. Our concerns were taken on board by TUI. There is still a desire for more transparency and greater integration of ESG aspects into remuneration. In 2025, no majority could be achieved in favour of a virtual format. The 2026 GM will therefore be held in person again with the aim of obtaining authorisation for future formats in the Articles of Association.

The FX ratio is calculated on the basis of all fund assets, including cash and liquidation of target funds. The following metrics are calculated on the basis of fixed-income assets, including liquidation of target funds and taking account of cash and derivatives: average yield, average coupon, average residual term to maturity, average duration and modified duration. When calculating the average residual term to maturity, floating-rate instruments are taken into account using their maturity date. The average rating is determined using a proprietary calculation method of Union Investment (Union Comp Rating) and is based on fixed-income assets, taking account of cash but not derivatives. All asset allocation overviews and the fund structure are based on the fund's economic assets, including liquidation of target funds. Derivative hedging positions are netted against the fund assets. All asset allocation overviews are presented excluding cash, third-party funds and real estate funds. The fund structure is assigned in accordance with the Union Investment Group's own asset allocation. Allocations may vary from those shown in annual and half-year reports. For sector allocation purposes, MSCI sectors are used for equities and Merrill Lynch sectors are used for fixed-income assets. The distribution yield (expressed as a percentage) represents the coupon in the relevant financial year. This is based on the net asset value at the start of the financial year, adjusted for the distribution relating to the previous financial year.

The Sustainable Finance Disclosure Regulation (SFDR) stipulates the disclosure requirements that apply to financial products. Products that fall under Article 6 do not take account of sustainability criteria, while products within the meaning of Article 8 involve the promotion of certain environmental and social characteristics.
