Preface

Dear Investor,

the following pages will provide you with detailed information on the trends observed on the capital markets during the period under review (1 October 2021 to 31 March 2022). You will also find a comprehensive set of figures, including the statement of assets for the reporting period which ended on 31 March 2022.

High inflation weighs on bond markets

Yields on both the U.S. and euro government bond markets rose significantly in the reporting period. The prospect of extensive U.S. stimulus programmes, progress in the fight against coronavirus combined with the expectation of a comprehensive economic recovery boosted inflation expectations as early as the second half of 2021. Inflation then also increased significantly in both economic areas in recent months, driven primarily by energy prices. The Fed followed developments patiently for a long time, then in March 2022 gave a clear signal of the start of the rate hike cycle with the first rate hike of 25 basis points. The end of bond purchases and a reduction in the Fed's balance sheet are further points in its revised monetary policy. The war in Ukraine did briefly support safe government bonds. However, price developments triggered primarily by energy prices and also significantly higher inflation expectations led to noticeable losses in U.S. government securities. At overall market level (JP Morgan Global Bond US Index), there were losses of five percent in the half-year under review. Yields on ten-year US treasury notes rose from 1.49 to 2.34%. On the U.S. yield curve, the biggest increases in yields were seen above all in the maturity range between two and seven years. The U.S. yield curve recently traded inverted.

European government bonds showed a parallel trend to their U.S. counterparts. The entire Bund curve recorded a rise in yields, which was strongest in the five- to ten-year maturity range, up to 113 basis points. The European Central Bank (ECB) will discontinue the PEPP purchase programme, but will refrain for the time being from stepping on the brakes as the U.S. Fed has done. However, the ECB is expected to raise interest rates for the first time at the end of the year. The development of yields in the peripheral countries paralleled that of German government bonds. Eurozone government bonds lost 5.8 percent at index level (iBoxx € Sovereigns index). Many new issues were placed on the primary euro government bond markets, including the first securities of the "Next Generation EU" funding plan. Investor demand for these bonds was very high.

Bonds with a yield premium recently came under significant pressure against the backdrop of the Russian invasion of Ukraine and the upward movement in interest rates. Euro corporate bonds (ICE Bofa Euro Corp. Index, ER00) lost 5.9 percent. Risk premiums (asset swap spreads) increased slightly. Hard currency government bonds from emerging markets lost 10.4 percent at index level (JP Morgan Global EMBI Div. Index) in the risk-averse market environment. Risk premiums versus US government bonds rose, in some cases significantly.

Equity markets with mixed picture

In the period under review, the coronavirus pandemic initially continued to be the main topic on the capital markets. After the everything re-opened, inflation picked up unexpectedly, especially due to high energy prices. Uncertainty increased again in the fall of 2021 as the Delta variant spread. The situation calmed down again toward the end of the year, when the new Omicron variant proved to be more contagious despite generally milder infections. As a result, massive lockdowns were no longer an issue. At the end of the reporting period, the surprising invasion of Ukraine by the Russian military pushed all other issues into the background.

Despite the pandemic, the economy proved robust – especially in comparison with the slump in 2020. The corporate sector reported mostly better-than-expected results. The continued monetary policy support of the central banks also had a positive effect. In Fall 2021, however, market sentiment took a turn. The US Fed said that it would soon begin reducing its monthly bond purchase programme and that rate hikes could be on the horizon. The European Central Bank similarly announced the termination of its PEPP programme, although higher interest rates were not initially an issue. In addition, stubborn inflation, global supply chain bottlenecks and turmoil in China related to government regulation and the stumbling real estate sector weighed on events. In January 2022, the Fed tightened its tone significantly. The prospect of several U.S. interest rate hikes put pressure on the equity markets. The Russian attack on Ukraine in the last week of February then sent equity markets worldwide into a tailspin. The sanctions imposed by the West are not only hurting the Russian economy, but are also having a significant impact on global financial markets and supply chains in Europe. In addition, the renewed rise in the prices of numerous commodities further fuelled inflation. In March, negotiations between Russia and Ukraine raised hopes that the war could end soon. As a result, the equity markets in industrialised countries posted a slight recovery.

Over the past six months, global equity markets have recorded net price gains, despite intermittent volatility. With the Ukraine war, however, the partial highs from 2021 have become a distant memory. The MSCI World Index rose by 2.5% on balance (in local currency). In the US, the Dow Jones Industrial Average also rose by 2.5%, while the broad-based S&P 500 moved up by 5.2%. In Europe, the EURO STOXX 50 index declined by 3.6%, while the broader STOXX Europe 600 index with its gain of 0.2% was essentially treading water. Here, the geographic and economic proximity to Ukraine and Russia made itself felt. Japan's benchmark Nikkei 225 index lost 5.5% on balance. The stock exchanges of the emerging markets lost 7.7% in local currency, as measured by the MSCI Emerging Markets Index. The Asia region has been significantly affected by the coronavirus since mid-2021 as well as the slowdown in growth and tighter economic regulation in China. Eastern Europe came under considerable pressure in the course of the war.

Notes on the report as at the 31 March 2022 (appendix)

Significant accounting and valuation principles

The SICAV's accounts are kept in Euro. Exceptions are provided by the Quoniam Funds Selection SICAV - Global High Yield MinRisk, the Quoniam Funds Selection SICAV - Global Equities MinRisk All Countries as well as the Quoniam Funds Selection SICAV - Global Equities. The sub-fund currency for the sub-funds Quoniam Funds Selection SICAV - Global High Yield MinRisk as well as Quoniam Funds Selection SICAV - Global Equities is US dollar and the sub-fund currency for the sub-fund Quoniam Funds Selection SICAV - Global Equities MinRisk All Countries is Norwegian krone.

The consolidated composition of the fund's assets correspond to the sum of the presentations for the individual sub-funds, converted at year-end rates. Investments between sub-funds (where one sub-fund invests into another sub-fund of the Quoniam Funds Selection SICAV are not object of an elimination for the purposes of consolidated presentation of results.

The semi-annual accounts of the SICAV were prepared in accordance with the classification and valuation principles as applicable in the country of domicile.

The price of securities and other exchange-listed derivatives reflects the relevant stock exchange or market value at the end of the financial year. Securities traded on a regulated market are valued at the market prices published for the relevant market. Investment fund units in target funds are valued at their most recently published prices.

If the sub-funds hold OTC derivatives on the closing date, these are valued daily on the basis of indicative quotes from brokers or mathematical valuation models.

If the sub-funds have pending forward exchange transactions, these are valued based on the forward rates applicable to the residual maturity.

Securities whose prices are not in line with market conditions and all assets for which no representative market value can be obtained are valued at a price established by the appointed Management Company in good faith using recognised valuation rules.

Bank deposits were estimated at par value.

The assets and liabilities denominated in currencies other than the sub-fund currency were converted into the respective sub-fund currency on the basis of the exchange rate determined in the WM/Reuters fixing at 5 p.m. (4 p.m London time) of the trading day preceding the valuation day . Business transactions in foreign currencies are converted into the sub-fund currency at the time of recognition. Realised and unrealised foreign exchange gains and losses are recognised in profit or loss.

The deferred interest includes accrued interest as at the end of the financial year.

Several sub-funds have a number of different share classes that contribute to the development of the sub-fund in proportion to their net asset value and after deducting the respective proportion of the costs.

The issue or redemption price of the sub-fund shares is calculated as the net asset value per share on the respective trading day plus an initial sales charge and/or redemption fee as defined in the prospectus where applicable. The initial sales charge shall be levied in favour of the appointee management company and the distributor and can be scaled according to the size of the order. The redemption fee is credited to the sub-fund.

Share purchases and redemptions of the sub-fund are subject to the swing pricing procedure. The procedure is intended to protect shareholders of the sub-fund from the net capital flows which occur as a result of purchases and redemptions and the associated costs of the investment or disinvestment. The swing pricing committee stipulates a threshold value for the amendment of the net asset value per share in the event of a particular net capital flow being exceeded. The swing pricing committee also stipulates the percentage ("swing factor") by which the net asset value will be increased or reduced. This value is based on the anticipated transaction costs, tax burdens and/or bid/offer spreads ("spreads"). The fundamental procedure ("single swing pricing") stipulates that the increased or reduced net asset value per share be established for all expenses, redemptions or exchanges on a trading day. The maximum swing factor for the Fund is 2%.

Taxation of the Fund

The net assets of the following share classes are currently subject to a "taxe d'abonnement" of 0.05% p.a. in Luxembourg, payable quarterly and based on the respective reported net fund assets at the end of the quarter:

Insofar as sub-fund assets are invested in other Luxembourg investment funds that are already subject to the taxe d'abonnement, the portion of sub-fund assets invested in such Luxembourg investment funds is exempt from the tax.

Income from the investment of the net assets will not be taxed in Luxembourg. However, it may be subject to withholding or other tax in the countries in which the net assets are invested. Neither the appointed Management Company nor the Depositary will obtain individual or collective receipts for such taxes.

Application of income

Please refer to the Sales Prospectus for further information regarding use of income.

Information on fees and expenses

The fees of the appointed Management Company of the SICAV and the all-in fee are calculated based on the net fund assets per calendar day and paid out on a monthly basis. The all-in fee covers the depositary fee, general custody and bearing fees for holding assets in custody, auditors' fees, costs of appointing proxies and costs of principal management activities, such as fund accounting reporting, and taxe d'abonnement. The calculation is based on a contractual agreement.

If profit and loss includes other expenses, these expenses consist of the costs referred to in the prospectus, such as government fees, collateral management fees, or cost of changes to the prospectus.

Income and expenditure adjustment

Income and expenditure adjustments have been charged to the ordinary net income. These include net income generated during the reporting period, which purchasers of shares pay as part of the issue price, and sellers of shares receive in the redemption price.

Collateral

In conjunction with transactions in listed and/or OTC derivatives, the SICAV is required to deliver or hold collateral in the form of bank deposits or securities.

The positions "Other bank deposits/bank liabilities" include collateral provided/received by the sub-funds in the form of bank deposits for listed and/or collateral provided for OTC derivatives. Collateral provided in the form of securities is recorded in the schedule of assets. Collateral received in the form of securities and collateral for OTC derivatives in the form of bank deposits are not listed in the composition of the fund's assets or the schedule of assets. Collateral provided in the form of securities is recorded in the statement of assets. Collateral received in the form of securities as well as collateral for OTC derivatives in the form of bank deposits are not recorded in the statement of assets and in the statement of assets.

Soft commissions

The appointed Management Company, in its role as the appointed management company of the SICAV, may benefit from "soft commissions" (e.g. broker research, financial analyses, market and price information systems) in connection with trade transactions. Said commissions are used in the interests of unitholders when making investment decisions. Transactions of this type cannot be conducted with natural persons; the service providers concerned may trade only in the interests of the fund and the services provided must be directly associated with SICAV activities.

Significant events after the financial year

After the financial year, there were no major changes or significant events.

General explanations in the context of the COVID-19 pandemic

The post-Covid economic recovery remains ongoing. Thanks to the development of effective vaccines, large-scale containment measures with a negative impact on the economy were phased out and subsequently largely avoided. Despite new infections from the more contagious but less dangerous Omicron variant rising to record levels worldwide in late 2021, the upswing remained intact. In the long term, the relevance of the coronavirus for the capital markets is likely to decline further. The Management Board of the Management Company continues to monitor the development of the capital markets in order to limit any economic impact on the fixed assets.

Explanation in the context of the Russia-Ukraine conflict

Added to this are increased risks from geopolitical conflicts such as the escalation of the Russia-Ukraine conflict, which has already led to economic sanctions and corresponding counter-reactions. This has negative consequences for the global economy and is a particular burden on the German economy, which is highly dependent on exports. Rising energy prices are further fuelling the already high level of inflation. The Management Board of the appointed Management Company is following developments very closely. The non-current assets have very little financial exposure to Russia and Ukraine as of the reporting date. Appropriate management mitigates the economic risks to non-current assets.

Note on the Law of 17 December 2010

The SICAV was set up in accordance with Part I of the Luxembourg Law of 17 December 2010 relating to undertakings for collective investment ("Law of 17 December 2010") and fulfils the conditions laid down by Directive 2009/65/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council of 13 July 2009 on the coordination of legal and administrative provisions relating to undertakings for collective investment in transferable securities ("Directive 2009/65/EC").
